THE EVENING NEWS.

Saturday, Dec. 10, 1871.

Fight With a Rhinoceros.

Warrior of so true and noble a type that we would not be surprised to find that Mr. Matthew Scott, its hero, is no ideal 'Guy Livingston' with the strength of a Hercules and the propensities of a lion. Antinous, he does not even hold her master's commission. He is a plain, straightforward man, employed as an assistant-keeper in the Gardens of the Zoological Society, and all that he has done has been in the line of duty.
