

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Grand Auction Sale. See advt. Baron Seaman's entertainment is good. Elder Robert Pixton was buried to-day.

DARING ROBBERY.

AN OGDEN BUTCHER IS ROBBED OF OVER $1,000 AND VALUABLE PAPERS. The Ogden Herald of yesterday contains the following: The most daring robbery ever perpetrated in this city and county was committed yesterday at the house of Mr. Ambrose Greenwell, on Fourth Street.

Alternative Mandamus.

The arguments in the alternative mandamus case, wherein Justice Pyper was cited to show cause why a peremptory mandamus should not issue, commanding him to send the liquor case of N. P. Gray up to the District Court on appeal without cost to the defendant, so far as the expenses of the Justice's court are concerned, were to be heard this afternoon, by Judge Twiss, in chambers.

Accident.

Shortly before noon to-day, a chubby little boy, about seven years old, named George Dykes, was in the act of climbing upon the wheel of a wagon, when the team started. As a consequence he was thrown to the ground, and the wheel passed over one of his legs. At first it was thought the limb was broken, but as he was able to move it this was evidently not the case. It was so bruised, however, that he was unable to stand. He was carried to his home in the 14th Ward, we believe, by police officer Thombs.

Bad Runaway.

This afternoon a horse took fright on South Temple Street, about two blocks east of railroad depot. The inmates of the buggy attached to it—a young man and young woman—were thrown out upon the street. The lady escaped unhurt, but the gentleman was not so fortunate, as he hurt his nose. The horse dashed through the fence at the east side of the large house adjoining the Junction Interoceanic offices, ran around the rear of the building to the west side, where it brought up among a heap of rocks. The buggy was rendered a total wreck. The smasher vehicle was left in Bro. James S. Brown's lot.

The Hinkley Murder Trial.

The trial of Joel Hinkley, for the murder of Joel Hinkley at Franklin, Idaho, closed at Malad City, on the evening of Wednesday, the 23d. The jury were two hours in considering their verdict, after the case was given to them. It was, "GUILTY, as indicted, of murder in the first degree." The prosecution was ably conducted by District Attorney Wilbur Crawford, assisted by Captain R. Smith. H. M. Bennett was appointed by the Court to defend Mooney and Barnes. James Stocker, the young mail carrier who witnessed the murder; Mrs. Hinkley, widow of the murdered man, who was in an adjoining room when the deed was done; Peter Bocar, section foreman, who proceeded to the scene of the murder on the first alarm, and Dr. J. B. Groesbeck, of Logan, who examined Mr. Hinkley after he was shot, were placed on the stand by the prosecution. Some of the details of the affair are deeply pathetic. Mr. Bocar testified that when he went to the room where Mr. Hinkley lay, his young wife, to whom he had been married but a few months, placing her hands on his breast, exclaimed piteously, "My poor Joel is dead."

Baron Seaman's Entertainment.

A very fair-sized audience witnessed the entertainment given by Baron Seaman, at the Theatre, last night, which gave good satisfaction. Mr. Seaman is an expert illusionist, and has a very happy manner on the stage, the pleasing effect of which is heightened rather than diminished by his strongly marked foreign accent, being of Swedish nationality. The very fine dissolving views, entirely different from any ever exhibited before in this city, fairly captivated the audience. A leading feature of these beautiful scenes lies in the mechanical effects introduced. A sunrise is given by the gradual introduction of genial rays of light upon the picture. In another picture the moon shines out while fleecy clouds flit across the sky. A winter scene with descending snow is very interesting. The comic pictures were immensely enjoyed by the juvenile especially. Altogether Baron Seaman's show is the best we have seen in this locality. It is far ahead of the general run of entertainments accompanied by gifts to the audience. The presents were given away last evening, as usual.

Funeral Services.

As previously announced in the NEWS, the funeral services over the remains of the late Elder Robert Pixton were conducted in the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms at 10 a.m. to-day. The proceedings were conducted by Counselor George Crimmon. The opening prayer was offered by Bishop I. W. Hardy. Bishop Edward Hunter was the first speaker. He spoke of his early associations with the deceased and the integrity he manifested in trying times in the history of the Church. President Joseph F. Smith next addressed the congregation, his remarks being both instructive and especially comforting to the relatives of Elder Pixton, who had passed away after a life of integrity and usefulness, and therefore, entitled to all the blessings promised to those who endure to the end. The benediction was pronounced by Elder H. S. Eldredge. The remains were followed to the cemetery by a large cortege.

From Shipboard.

The following is an extract from a private letter to a friend from Elder O. F. Whitney, written on board the Arizona, off the coast of Ireland, and mailed at Queenstown. "The communication is dated Wednesday, Nov. 9th: We are, at this writing off the coast of Ireland, and expect to reach Queenstown about three p.m. The land is in sight, and has been since early morning. Our passage has been prosperous and all is well. Have experienced no bad weather, as leaving New York, a most extraordinary circumstance at this time of the year. The passengers are amused at. Sunshine and fog have alternated regularly but there has been little or no wind to speak of. The sea has been successively smooth as a carpet and genly boisterous—if the paradox is admissible—and altogether we have had a splendid trip. The land is a glad sight and I shall step upon Liverpool dock about noon tomorrow with a lighter heart than I have had for a week. The names of the entire party, besides Elder Whitney, are: John Pickett, John T. Rich, Joseph W. McMurrin, Edwin Entwistle and wife, Edwin Eyer, Wm. Willes, H. O. Hanson, Mrs. Kate Johnson and child, H. A. Hanson, Wm. Martin. Priesthood Meeting.—The regular meeting of the Presbytery of this Stake, will be held in the Assembly Hall on Saturday morning, Dec. 3d, 1887, at 11 a.m. Wm. W. Taylor, Clerk.

Bowed Down.

This morning we met Uncle Robert Carter, the veteran newsdealer and carrier. The usual genial smile was not on his countenance. As we inquired what was the matter, the tears filled the old man's eyes as he informed us that his wife, for many years the partner of his joys and sorrows, was prostrated in the last stages of illness. "I don't know," said he, with tremulous utterance, "that she will be living when I get back." Uncle Robert has our sincere sympathy, now when his heart strings are drawn tight with a weight of sorrow and prospective loneliness. Mother Carter is a good woman.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Regular Services.

Religious services of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, at the Salt Lake Assembly Hall, to-morrow afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock.

At Richfield.

President Taylor and party left yesterday for Richfield, where they held meeting in the afternoon. From thence they proceeded to Richfield, where they are attending the Sewer Stake Conference, which opened this morning.

Died in Youth.

Eliza Ann Donelson, aged 17 years, daughter of Brother C. M. Donelson, of this city, died this morning, shortly after midnight. She was cut down while budding into womanhood. The relatives have our sympathy. Funeral services at noon to-morrow, in the 15th Ward Assembly Rooms.

Embarrassment.

To-day, a man giving the name of Van Leggat was arrested on a charge of embezzlement. It appears that the accused has been employed collecting bills for Mr. Hoyle, ice dealer, and it is alleged that he appropriated $150 of the money to his own use. His case will be before Justice Pyper on Monday.

Deferred Again.

The passing of sentence on Jack Emerson, the murderer of John F. Turner, and the hearing of defendant's motion for a new trial, which were to have been attended to to-day, were again postponed. This time till next Friday. The cause of the delay is that the Court is still engaged on the Pinyon Climax mining suit.

Hurt His Head.

As Mr. Wallin was driving along South Temple Street this afternoon, his buggy caught against a passing wagon, and he was thrown out violently upon the ground. His head was severely cut and bruised. His horse and vehicle were overturned in the ditch. The accident occurred about two blocks this side of the depot.

The Delegate from Utah.

We have before us a pamphlet just issued from the press of this office. Its contents are indicated by the title page—"The Delegate from Utah." The position of George C. Cannon, to whom the seat was awarded in Reply to a pamphlet issued in behalf of A. G. Campbell, is a thorough exposition of the question, and a masterly argument on the right side of it.

Fatal Accident.

At Stockton, Utah, about half past seven p.m., on Thursday, a miner named Henry Bray, was fatally injured by the accidental falling upon him of a forty gallon barrel of water that was being hoisted by a windlass out of a mine on the seventh level of the Great Basin mine, where he was working at the time. He died within three hours after the accident, from the effect of his injuries. The deceased was a native of Cornwall, and was about fifty years of age. He leaves a wife to whom he was but recently married.

Gone South.

With the 2 p.m. train, to-day, President Joseph F. Smith and Elders C. W. Penrose and Junius F. Wells, left for the south. They will be joined by Apostle John Henry Smith at Provo. They purposed going as far as Nephis this afternoon, where they will stop over to-morrow and attend meetings. They will then proceed to Stimpert, for the purpose of attending the Quarterly Conference of that Stake, which will open on Wednesday, and at which President Taylor and party will be present. The whole party expect to return home to this city one week from to-day.

Alternative Mandamus.

The arguments in the alternative mandamus case, wherein Justice Pyper was cited to show cause why a peremptory mandamus should not issue, commanding him to send the liquor case of N. P.
