

EVENING NEWS.

Nov. 29, 1921.

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Meeting of the City Council tonight. A heavy snowfall last night and today. Home Missionaries' meeting tomorrow night. Bishop Thomas R. Cutler, of Lehi, was in town today.

Meeting of the Salt Lake Board of Trade on Friday evening.

The change in the weather creates a skating deathly and a sleighing boom.

Baron Esman continues to draw well. He gives two more performances.

There is a message at the Western Union Telegraph office for Jas. McCarty.

Bishop Thomas Taylor has returned from his visit to Iron County. He got in this morning.

Brother Thomas Latimer died at 10 o'clock last night. Funeral services at 12 o'clock, Thursday.

The Utah Art Association drawing for pictures opens to-morrow night. All the tickets have been sold.

The Rio Grande surveyors are now on the Laramie plains, finishing their line from North Park to Laramie.

Pueblo, Colorado, is in the throes of a coal famine, and the papers are anathematizing the railroad for all there is out.

The Northern Pacific is having a light draught steamer built at Pittsburg for use on the Upper Yellowstone next year.

W. T. Vannoy, whose left leg was lately crushed by an accident on the Utah and Northern, has the limb amputated.

Haak Monk, the famous stage driver, who scared Horace Greeley so badly, is reported seriously ill at Carson City, Nevada.

One day last week was the time set apart by a false prophet for the end of the world. False prognosticators are getting numerous in these last days.

When an object is brought too close to the human eye it cannot be seen; for that reason we cannot see a fault in ourselves which we plainly see in others.

We regret that our esteemed contemporary, the Ogden Herald comes to hand with continuous irregularity. We would like to see it every morning after the day of issue.

The meat packing house being built by the Frewen Brothers, at Sherman, is being pushed to completion, and it is thought will be finished inside of a few days, all ready for slaughtering beefs.

The Legislature of Washington Territory passed a memorial asking Congress to compel the Northern Pacific to build its road over the Cascade mountains immediately, or relinquish the lands held as a subsidy.

A crazy negro in the Railroad hotel, Cheyenne, Wednesday night, hit a servant in the head with a dish, badly cutting her, and threw beer bottles at the building, causing havoc to the windows. He was arrested.

J. C. Friend, of Rawlins, Wyoming, having recently been elected a justice of the peace, advertises to perform marriage ceremonies free of charge, present a marriage certificate to every one so united, and present a dress to the mother of the first girl baby from a marriage of his tying.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

About Completed.—Roberts and Judd have about finished their 25 mile grading contract on the Salt Lake and Western Railroad.

In Washington.—By private telegram we learn that Hon. Geo. Q. Cannon, Delegate to Congress from Utah, is in Washington, in good health.

Selling Whiskey to an Indian.—This afternoon Auer & Murphy and Russell & Duran, saloon keepers, were arrested on charges of selling liquor to Indian Jim. The cases were to be tried in the Police Court, before Justice Pyper.

Matrimony before Music.—Salt Lake musicians will remember the vocal celebrity, Miss Kellogg, who charmed the people here with her sweet singing. It is announced that she intends going out of the musical business and going into matrimony. Perhaps the visit of Patti, who takes the wind out of her sails, has tended to hasten the consummation of the match. Patti eclipses her.

Rushing Construction.—The Denver and Rio Grande R. R. Company are pushing construction work on their road between here and Provo. It bids fair to be finished early in January. All the available labor in Lehi is being absorbed by it. The main drawback to early completion is the difficult piece of work a short distance south of the Point of the Mountain, where the line will cross Jordan River.

Theatre.—The attractive entertainment given by Baron Esman, at the Theatre, was well patronized again last night. The lucky parties who held the numbers that drew the leading prizes were J. E. Nixon, of the 14th Ward who drew the gold watch; Mrs. F. A. Pascoe, won the silk dress pattern; Edith A. Burgess got the silver tea set, while Mrs. Amy M. Shannon carried off the china tea set.

To-night and to-morrow night, the last exhibitions will be given.

Carp Fish by Express.—Mr. Barfoot, the Fish Commissioner for Utah, will feel obliged to those gentlemen who have ordered supplies of carp in cans from Washington, D. C., to pay in their deposits during this week, if they wish to be registered for the first consignment sent to Utah. Price of can containing from 12 to 20 carp, according to size, $3, freight from Washington to Salt Lake City $3.55. The commissioner makes no charge for the carp. Cans when received at the U. C. depot will be at once forwarded to their destination, or delivered to the owners at the depot. Address Joseph L. Barfoot, P.O. Box 332, Salt Lake City.

Another Good Man Gone.—Precisely at ten o'clock last night, Brother Thomas Latimer, of the 18th Ward of this city, breathed his last. The disease that carried him off was consumption, from which he has suffered for several years. He had been very ill for several days previous to his demise, but was enabled to get out for a drive on Saturday last. He bore his sufferings with exemplary patience, never murmuring. Less than an hour before he drew his last breath he spoke quite cheerfully and hopefully, and passed away calmly as if going to rest.

Brother Latimer was of a retiring disposition, and his natural modesty caused him to shrink from public notice. From a personal acquaintance with him we are enabled to state that it would be difficult to find an honest man in his business transactions, or one who had a more sympathetic and kindly nature. He inspired all who associated with him with a feeling of personal respect for him.

Deceased was well known as the senior partner of the woodworking firm of Latimer & Taylor, and in later years of Latimer, Taylor & Co. He was a native of Burslem, Staffordshire, England, where he joined the Church, and came to America when he was nineteen years of age. He lived in St. Louis several years, and came to Utah in 1852; consequently he resided here twenty-nine years.

Brother Latimer leaves a large family—a wife, six sons and five daughters, to mourn his loss. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of a large circle of friends, with whose condolence he sincerely mingled our own.

The funeral services will be conducted at the 18th Ward School house, on Thursday, beginning at 12 noon. Friends of the family are invited.

Still Another Veteran Gone.—Brother J. P. Pulpifer wrote from Hamblin, Washington County, on the 26th inst.:

"This morning I report the sad news of the demise of our beloved brother, Jacob M. Truman, who died at this place at 8 o'clock last Wednesday evening, at the age of 82, after one week's suffering with lung fever.

Brother Truman was born in the State of New York on the 30th of August, 1833. He joined the Church in Nauvoo in 1845, and from that time he has been a firm and faithful servant of the Lord, ever ready to speak and act in defense of his latter-day work. He was one of the band of brave men known as the Mormon Battalion that performed so important a part in freeing this portion of our country from the rule of a foreign power.

Deceased was among the first settlers of St. George, having arrived there 20 years ago this fall. He breathed his last after business was ended, like going to sleep, in the midst of his numerous family. May the Lord comfort them. The funeral was attended by almost the entire inhabitants of this town and a good number from other places. Bishop Robert Knell, of Pinto, presided. Elders Jos. Eldredge and Richard Harrison and others gave much good instruction to comfort and encourage all.

Southward.—On Sunday, at Nephi, President Joseph F. Smith, Apostle J. H. Smith and Elder C. W. Penrose, attended Sunday school and delivered addresses to the teachers and scholars. A notable feature of the school was the large attendance, there being 450 scholars present, exclusive of teachers.

The general meeting at 2 p.m., which was crowded, was addressed by all three of the brethren. In the evening they attended a joint meeting of the Young Men's and Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement Associations, giving such instructions as were suggested by the occasion. At this meeting, the superintendent of the Young Ladies' organization read a couple of essays from their journal, one on the "Cultivation of a Pleasant Disposition," and the other on "The Beatitudes of Obedience," both of which were very well written.

The brethren arrived at Fountain Green about noon yesterday, and proceeded to Moroni for meeting in the evening. To-day they expected to go to Mant, there to meet President Taylor and party.

Extensive Colonization Scheme.—Recently a party of prominent gentlemen arrived at Miles City, Montana. In regard to their visit the Yellowstone Journal says that they are combining business with pleasure, and while in search of the wild buffalo will select a large tract for the location of a large colony. Mr. C. S. Drommond, of the party, represents three great land companies, viz., the Scottish American, Canadian and Dundee. He is in search of a tract of land where a large colony can be located, and not less than one million dollars will be expended in the enterprise. The plan of these companies is to select the ground, and build a good house and barn on each quarter section before the colonists arrive. By this arrangement every settler is at once ready to begin farming after he arrives, having a good home from the start.

Juvenile Instructor.—We have received No. 23 of the current volume of the Juvenile Instructor. Its contents are:

An Incident in the Life of Cromwell (Illustrated), by G. R. Faith, by M. P. Cowley; Jollings by a Young Missionary, by Struben; An Evidence of Inspiration, by Bishop John Brown; Show Your Colors, by J. E. Carls; Editorial Thoughts; Two Hearts that Beat as One, (Illustrated) by Emily Hill Woodman; The Apache War, by Llewellyn Harris; Sunday School Songs, by J. L. Townsend; History of the Church; The Pet Squirrel, (Illustrated) by Yarn; How Boys may Succeed in Life; First-Runners; A Fox Outwitted; Good Mornings; Glorious Things are Sung of Zion, written by W. W. Phelps, music by L. D. Edwards.

No household should be without this excellent periodical.

Intemperance.—From the Juvenile Instructor office we have a neat and interesting little pamphlet, just issued, price five cents. The title page denotes the contents: "Intemperance: an appeal to the youth of Zion. The folly of drunkenness and the nobility of a temperate life compared. Figures that tell a fearful story. Examples from real life."

The Southern Highway.—A letter to a friend in this city from Hon. Brigham Young, written at Brigham City, Arizona, states that the railroad is completed to a point within nine miles of that settlement.

Board of Trade.—The monthly meeting of the Salt Lake Board of Trade will be held in the Council House, Friday evening, December 2nd, at 7 p. m.

JOHN C. CUTLER, Sec'y.

Correct Confession.—The Pilot, (Ogden) says:

"It will be remembered that one H. P. Dean attempted suicide at the Keeney House in this city, a short time ago. M. F. Locke, of Almo, Arkansas, writes that Dean's confession of murder is strictly correct; that he did murder his brother-in-law in 1879, and has been a fugitive from justice since. A reward of $200 was offered for his arrest at that time and still holds good. At the time the letter was written, November 23d, Dean had not yet put in his appearance to stand trial for the crime. He would hardly have had time to reach there, as he left here on the 14th, going by emigrant train.

Weather Report.—We are indebted to the Deseret Telegraph Company for the following report:

November 29, 1 p. m.

Sandy.—Snowing; snow five inches deep.

RENEWATORS.

When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some well known valuable remedies with a wide range of diseases that most all other remedies could be dispensed with, many were sceptical, but proof of its merits by actual trial has dispelled all doubt, and to-day the discoverers of that great medicine, Hore Bitters, are honored and blessed by all as benefactors.

FROM EMINENT DR. C. C. CLARK, OSWEGO.

"I have made sufficient experiment of Golden's Laid's Liquid Extract of Beef and Tonic to enable me to say it is by far the best of all the preparations of the kind (food and tonic) that I have ever used. To the sufferer from chronic diseases, or the convalescent, it is invaluable, being both nourishing and strengthening. (Remember the name, Golden's—take no other). Of druggists generally." d e d & s w
