Spring City Sanpete Co., Nov. 10 --

A gloom has come over our communi-y on acount of the death of Sanford Ulred, which occurred on Thursday, Nov. 8. The funeral was held today and was largely attended by friends and relatives of the deceased from this and relatives of the deceased from this and adjoining wards. Brother Alired was born in Iowa, Oct. 30, 1848, ad came to Utah in 1851. The hardships incident to ploneer life were borne by him without a murmur. In 1858 the family came to Sanpete, and in 1866 Brother Alired drovs an ox-team to the Missouri river for emigrating Saints. He labored on the Sandwich Islands as a missionary from May, 1884. Islands as a missionary from May, 1884, until April, 1887. For many years he has been prominent and active in civil and ecclesiastical affairs, and never has he been known to flinch when du-ty called. He was faithful, true and upright. His death has caused a vacancy that will be hard to fill. Be-sides his family and relatives, the entire community mourns his departure Words of commendation are heard from Republicans and Democrats alike for the fair and independent stand of "News" during the recent cam-

SUIT FILED.

Suit was filed today by Max David-son, the well known cigar manufacturson, the well known cigar manufactur-er, against Ed Munsey, the proprietor of Munsey's cigar store, to secure dam-ages to the amount of $500 alleged to be due because of the plaintiff selling cigars under the brand of "Columbia Ciub," which are counterfeits of a cigar manufactured by Davidson. The com-plaint sets forth that Davidson is a cigar manufacturer, and has a cigar of ble own manufacturer, and has a cigar of "Columbia Club" trade mark and is sold to the retail dealers by the pluin-tiff under that brand that the defendant is selling to the trade a cigar of the same brand manufactured in the East, which is of in inferior quality to that manufactured by the plaintiff, and that the defendant is thereby counter-feiting Davidson's trade mark. A restraining order was also prayed for in complaint and issued by the court restraining the defendant Munsey from selling any more of the counterfeit ci-gars bearing the "Columbia Club" trade mark, until the action is decided by the court.
