

ing a noise without understanding. I wish that heretofore you would be a little more silent in the Theatre; and when we meet on occasions like this, not to applaud unless you know what you are applauding. I say to the Committee, please to receive my thanks for the programme, with the exception of closing the meeting. To our friends who have delivered the oration and the speeches, receive our thanks. I feel to bless you and all those who wish a continuation to the peace of our country. We have great experience in this government, more, perhaps, than any other on the earth. We should know more. We should understand true righteousness, which is correct ideas and produces correct lives. I hope to see a community that will live so far above the law that we will have no necessity to administer it. To the officers of this Territory I say, peace be to you, may you be blessed. And I feel to bless you all, who desire good to yourselves and to all the inhabitants of the earth, as well as to this people. I say to you, friends, old and young, learn correct principles, learn to be governed. To children, learn to govern and control your children without the severity of an iron hand, but with mildness, cheerfulness and kindness; and hold that influence over them that you can control them with a word. I know very well that it is written, and said to be the words of the wisest man in olden times, "He that spareth his rod hateth his son;" but I say, spare the rod and teach the child, and you will have very little use for the rod. I bless you, children, and I pray my Father in Heaven to preserve you and give you life, long life and health and good days, and a disposition to seek for that you may obtain, the Spirit to serve the Lord and keep His commandments. I say to the Committee, God bless you; to those musicians, God bless you; to the choir and to all who have participated in the exercises here to-day, or who have been listening to the speeches, God bless you; and I bless you in the name of Jesus Christ: Amen.

You are dismissed.

The immense assemblage then dispersed, the schools forming under their teachers and moving in procession to their respective wards, as the artillery were firing a national salute. A collection had been provided at the City Hall, to which the Committee invited the gentlemen engaged in the celebration and a number of our most prominent citizens, where they enjoyed themselves for a time with a flow of kindly feeling and genial sentiment. The bands discoursed sweet music through the city, Captain Croxall's being in two of Wells, Fargo & Co's coaches coupled together, and drawn by a magnificent team of five span of greys. Good feelings characterized the entire day; peace and happiness reigned; and nothing that we have heard of occurred to mar the enjoyment of the celebration. A salute by the artillery closed the official programme, while a crowded house at the Theatre witnessed an interesting performance at night, and thus the "Fourth" of '68 passed away and became a pleasant recollection.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

AMENDMENTS.

Sherman offered the tax bill amendments; ordered printed. A order was adopted making the tax bill and the funding bill a special order for Monday, to be continued until disposed of.

JOINT RESOLUTION.

A joint resolution excluding certain States from voting in the electoral college was laid aside. Edmunds said he should not call it up again.

The District of Columbia bill was then considered.

Washington.—The finance committee have made numerous amendments to the House tax bill. The sections relating to banks and bankers have been stricken out. No changes are proposed to the whisky and tobacco tax. The time for taking spirits from bonded warehouses is extended from six to twelve months. Several other important changes have been made.

HOUSE.

REMOVAL OF DISABILITIES.

There was a thin attendance to-day, most of the Democrats having gone to the convention at New York. Faine, for Boutwell, reported from the reconstruction committee, a bill removing disabilities from certain persons; ordered printed.

SENATE AMENDMENTS.

The House then went into a committee of the whole on the Senate amendments to the Legislative appropriation bill. Moorehead gave notice that he would move on Monday, to lay all other bills aside and take up the tariff bill.

The Senate amendment repealing all the laws authorizing the publication of actual proceedings in debate was concurred in; also the amendment to pay for any such advertising in the Washington papers, as ordered by the State Department. The deficiency bill was also considered. The committee rose and both bills went over until Monday.

MANAGER'S REPORT.

Butler made a report from the impeachment Managers, which was ordered printed and recommitted.

BILL FOR THE ISSUE OF ARMS.

The bill providing for the issue of arms to the militia in the reconstructed States passed, when the House adjourned to Monday.

GENERAL.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

New York, 4.—The National Democratic Convention assembled in Tammany Hall, which was handsomely decorated for the occasion with large American flags, etc., and elaborately painted escutcheons of all the States. The accommodation for the delegates was ample, and there was excellent arrangements for the press. The hall and galleries were densely crowded. At twenty minutes past twelve August Belmont called the Convention to order, and spoke at some length denouncing the policy and character of the dominant party. He concluded by nominating, for temporary chairman, Hon. Henry W. Palmer, of Wisconsin, which was agreed to. Palmer took the chair amid applause and briefly returned thanks for the honor. Prayer was offered by the Rev. Dr. Morgan, rector of St. Thomas' Church. After considerable discussion the rules of the House of Representatives were adopted for the government of the Convention.

Several motions were made with regard to the appointment of committees and a permanent organization and credentials. A motion to allow the Territories to be represented on both committees was lost, 106 to 184. A motion was finally passed, allowing States only to be represented in these committees, which were thereupon appointed. California was represented on the committee of credentials by W. Jacoby; the committee of permanent organizations by J. H. Rose. A committee of resolutions was subsequently appointed, California being represented by E. Steele. A resolution was adopted, instructing the two former committees to report at 7 this evening. A motion was adopted to allow resolutions offered to be referred to the committee on resolutions without debate. It was ordered that the committee on organization be instructed to report the rules for the government of the Convention.

Brooks, on behalf of the New York delegation, moved to reconsider the resolution for the meeting to-night, and urged the extreme heat, also the fact that the city of New York had arranged for an appropriate celebration of the day, and he hoped the Convention would participate. After a lengthy discussion the motion to reconsider prevailed, and the Convention adjourned to Monday at 10 o'clock, the Secretary having first read the Declaration of Independence by the vote of the Convention.

SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' CONVENTION.

New York.—The Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention met in the large hall of the Cooper Institute, Gen. McClelland, of Ill., was elected permanent chairman. A committee of permanent organization was appointed, which reported Gen. W. B. Franklin for permanent chairman, and a long list of vice-presidents and secretaries. Gen. Franklin was escorted to the chair amid immense cheering, and made a few appropriate remarks.

FIGHT WITH INDIANS.

South Pass City, Dak. 5.—A party of prospectors, consisting of Jeff Standerfer, Robert Kennedy, J. H. Duncan, Andrew Newman, Chas. McCauley, John Moore and Henry Leaman were attacked by a band of 300 Indians on the 28th ult., about seventy miles north-east from here, in Wind River Valley. Leaman was killed. Duncan, McCauley and Moore became separated from the balance of the party, and but little hope is felt for their safety, as, when last seen, a large party of the Indians were in close pursuit of them. Standerfer and Kennedy reached here last night, and Newman, who had been given up as killed, came in this morning. Eight Indians are known to have been killed. On 29th, six Indians attacked and wounded a farmer named Lusk, living 30 miles from here, but he succeeded in driving them off, the Indians capturing eleven horses. Application has been made to Gen. Augur for military protection.

AMNESTY PROCLAMATION.

Chicago 4.—The President's amnesty proclamation is as follows, omitting numerous whereases: Now therefore be it known that I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do, by virtue of the Constitution and in the name of the people of the United States hereby proclaim that—unconditionally and without reservation, to all and to every person who directly or indirectly participated in the late insurrection or rebellion, excepting such person or persons as may be under presentment or indictment in the United States Courts having competent jurisdiction upon charges of treason, or other felony, in full pardon and amnesty for offense of treason against the United States, or of adhering to their enemies during the late war, with the restoration of all their rights except as to slaves, and except also as to any property of which any person may have been legally divested under the laws of the United States. The proclamation is dated July 4th.

New London, 3.—The steamer City of Boston, from New York, was run into last night by the steamer State of New York, off the mouth of Connecticut river, seriously damaging the City of Boston, and injuring a number of passengers, three probably, fatally.

POLITICAL EXCITEMENT.

New York.—Political excitement is increasing hourly. Pendleton's friends express confidence of his nomination, or in the nomination of Seymour, their second choice. It is believed that they will control over one hundred and sixty votes. Washington McLean and Judge Flynn, of Cincinnati, had a private interview with Seymour and a few leading New York Democrats, at which it was decided that Pendleton should not be pressed to accept. It is very likely that Seymour will be nominated by acclamation before six ballots and forced to accept. Should Seymour be nominated Hendricks or Blair will be Vice.

SUSPENSION OF MARTIAL AUTHORITY.

Washington, 4.—General Canby telegraphs to General Grant that the North Carolina Legislature ratified the constitutional amendment to-day. The following instructions were sent to the commanding officer of that State: You will abstain from the exercise of any authority under the reconstruction acts, except so far as may be necessary to clear up your unfinished business; you will not interfere in civil matters unless executive laws should be obstructed by unlawful and forcible opposition to the inauguration of the new State.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

New York, 5.—The committee on resolutions met last night, when the following platform was presented by H. C. Murphy, which has the approval of Gov. Seymour, and by the N. Y. delegation is regarded as certain of adoption: The Democratic party in national convention, assembled, standing as ever by the Constitution of the government, and the guarantee of the liberties of the citizens, recognizing as the consequence of the late civil war, the extinction of slavery and of the heresy of secession, with the return of peace, demand—

First.—The restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union and the restoration of civil government to the whole of the American people.

Second.—An amnesty for all political offenses, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the different States by their citizens.

Third.—The payment of all national obligations in strict accordance with the terms.

Fourth.—The taxation of government bonds to the same extent as other property taxed.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, for the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and bond-holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government, the reduction of the standing army and navy, the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; the simplification of the revenue system and the discontinuance of the inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burdens of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government increased, the currency made good and the national debt funded at a lower rate of interest.

Seventh.—The reform of abuses in the administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the reservation of the public lands for homes for the working people, the restoration of rightful authority and independence to the Executive and Judiciary, and the subordination of military to the civil rule, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad, and an assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers and furnish an example and an encouragement to peoples struggling for national integrity and constitutional liberty. Separate resolutions are devoted to thanks to the soldiers and to President Johnson.

Fears were expressed yesterday by the anti-Pendleton men that the southern delegates would be persuaded to vote solid for Pendleton, thus securing his nomination. Without southern support Pendleton will have about 110 votes, though his friends claim more. Hendricks, of Indiana, is the second choice of the majority of the delegates.
