IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVELING PUBLIC.

It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and pleasantest to travel.

We take pleasure in stating that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, and several miles the shortest route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been re-laid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is centrally located, and its trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making Eastern connections. Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore &

Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Rock Island and Van Hook Routes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets by the Old Pioneer Route—

The Chicago and North-Western. You will find on all through trains Pullman Sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the best Smoking and Second Class Cars now on any road in the United States.

Particular information with maps, time tables, etc., may be had at any of the Through Ticket Offices in the West, or upon personal or written application to J. W. Irons, Ticket Agent, Salt Lake City, A. H. Earl, Ticket Agent at Ogden, or to J. H. Mountain, Western Traveling Agent, Omaha, Neb., or to W. H. Stennett, General Passenger Agent, Chicago. d54

Threatening.—As we go to press, it looks and blows much as if rain were near.

There are messages at the Western Union Telegraph Company for Walter S. Magill and J. H. Tibbitts.

Incendary.—Mr. Davis, whose stable was burned the other night, has not the least doubt whatever that the fire was the work of an incendary.

Beane Discharged.—The trial of William Beane, charged with assaulting and drawing a pistol on John G. Wiggins, was concluded this morning, resulting in his being discharged.

All Gons to be Baptized.—A California paper says, "The Loan-ville (Nevada) Indians have all gone to Utah to be baptized and embrace the Mormon faith."

Personal.—We had a pleasant call to day from Mr. Frank E. Snow, of Chicago, General Western Passenger Agent for the Michigan Central and Great Western Railways.

Start from Franklin.—Gilmer and Salisbury's stage line for Montana has removed its southern terminus from Salt Lake Valley to Cache Valley. The stages now leave Franklin, Idaho, instead of Corlone, Utah, on their trips to Montana.

Going Ahead.—Mr. Daniel Greig, who lately vacated the basement of his fine store and re-established himself on the floor above, is pushing ahead in business with his accustomed vim, and has secured the efficient services of Mr. Henry Wallace, in the confectionary line.

At Provo.—The following came in this afternoon: PROVO, May 21.

A. M. Muser.—The journey has improved me. I feel encouraged and rested. I was as well as usual last night. GEO. A. SMITH.

The Missionaries.—Bro. Thomas C. Marten writes from Chicago, May 15—

"The missionaries who left Ogden on Wednesday, the 12th inst., arrived at Chicago at three p.m. on this the 15th, all well and in excellent spirits, having received good treatment all the way. We are now taking the train to New York."

Pugnacious.—To-day a sewing machine agent or runner was fined $5 for an attempt to pummel another machine agent or runner. If the first mentioned sewing machine agent or runner is as persistent and persevering in other respects as most of that class are in boring away at the smallest possible opening for a customer for a machine, then he will never let up until he finishes that pummeling business, if it "takes all summer."

Missionary Appointments for Sunday evening, May 23rd, 1875—

Second Ward—Elder Ralph Harrison.

Fourth Ward—Elders J. B. Malben and C. J. Thomas.

Fifth and Sixth Wards—Elder G. Nebeker.

Eighth Ward—Elder T. Harris.

Tenth Ward—Elder J. Van Coten.

Twelfth Ward—Elder S. E. Young.

Thirteenth Ward—Elder C. W. Stayer.

Sixteenth Ward—Elder T. Taylor.

Twentieth Ward—Elder S. Neeson.

Runaway Accident.—Yesterday deputy sheriff A. P. Cranney, of Cache County, arrived in town, bringing with him James Draggley, an old resident of Hyrum, who, for the last year and a half, has been gradually losing his reason, although his insanity is inoffensive in its manifestations. Mr. Cranney took him to the Asylum yesterday, and after leaving the building, the car that conveyed him there ran away. In order to save himself Mr. Cranney jumped from the wagon, but came in such violent contact with the ground as to rather severely injure his knee.

Bad Place for Prowl.—At a late hour last night Mr. Fernmore Little heard some one on the porch of his residence. Thinking it might be the hired man who sleeps at the barn, Mr. Little called out asking the party what he wanted. This frightened the prowler, for which he was evidently well paid, as he fled at full speed out of the back gate.

Had Mr. Little his own employee, there is no room to doubt that the fellow would have found that he had got to the hottest kind of a place for burglars, or characters of that kind.

An Improvement.—The appearance of the Eagle Emporium corner has been greatly enhanced by the erection around the opening to the basement, where the groceries are sold, of the premises occupied by Messrs. Jennings, Sons & Saddler, of a neat ornamental iron railing.

Benham's Musical Review for May contains the following music—"Woaling," "Longing," "Swing Song," and the following literary articles—"Harrison Millard," "Michael Kelly," "One of Hammond's Stories," "The Seven Wise Men of Greece," "Judaism in Music," "Musical Gleanings," and many others. Can be had of Calder & Careless.

No Ox Yokes.—A gentleman from one of the southern settlements was hunting in nearly all the stores in town to-day for ox-yokes, but at last accounts was unable to find the object of his search. The same gentleman states that the ox team is by far the most profitable to the farmer of any other. We are of opinion that he is right.

Tommy Weaver.—Sheriff Nebeker, of Kane County, arrived in town tonight before last. From him we learn that the damage done by frost to the peach crop in the south is very great, except at Toquerville, where the effects are lighter than in any of the other settlements, and the peach crop will consequently be correspondingly greater. The prospect for grapes is better this season than any previous year.

Tommy Weaver.—Tommy Weaver is rather a peculiar character, well known in the vicinity of the City Hall. Lately a daughter of his made arrangements for his passage from this City to Bristol, England, but the great trouble is to get Tommy to let powerful stimulants alone a sufficient length of time to get him started aboard the cars. His mind is rather weak at any time, and whisky makes it weaker.

Ben Tasker in Trouble Again.—To-day the notorious Ben Tasker was arrested by deputy sheriff Nat. Jones, on a charge of stealing the valuable horse belonging to Dr. Williamson, and which was found in possession of C. Sherman some time since. Tasker was taken before Justice Pyper, who decided that he should be held in bonds of $1,000, pending his examination, which is expected to come off soon.

Not the Legal Way.—This morning Ah Cum, a Chinaman, was tried in the Police Court, on a charge of stealing a trunk and other articles belonging to another Chinaman. It appears the party bringing the charge was owing Ah Cum six dollars, and the latter, intending to soon start on a journey to the "Flower Land," wished to collect what was due him before leaving, and the debtor failing to come to time, Ah Cum froze to the property alluded to.

The Court rightly considered that an illegal way of collecting old debts, and Ah Cum had consequently to hand over $15 to the City treasury, by way of a fine.

Theatre.—A satisfied and delighted audience assembled in the Theatre last evening, to see the famous Jackey family in their wonderful gymnastic and acrobatic feats.

The feats were many of them new to most of the audience, a number of them startling, and all of them very neatly and cleverly done. The somersaults, single and double, some over six or seven chairs, and others also of very difficult accomplishment, were executed with great ability and skill. The horizontal bar business was exceedingly good, and the Japanese ladder feats were remarkable, particularly the descent by Charles, for such a getting down stairs we never did see—head first and serpentine. The troupe engaged in all sorts of pyrotechnic work, which had a splendid effect.

This evening the performance commences with the farce of "Wanted a Young Lady," in which Miss Cogswell and Messrs. Margetta and Wilton appear, followed by the Jackeys in their extraordinary evolutions, in the course of which Mr. Nathan Jackey will perform his great somersault act from a pyramid of six tables, twenty feet high.

To-morrow there will be a grand Jackey Family matinee, and to-morrow evening the Jackeys will make their last appearance in Salt Lake City.

These performances are uncommonly clever, and are well worthy of being witnessed by all admirers of brilliant gymnastic feats.

SALT LAKE CITY, May 21, 1875.

Editor Deseret News:

Dear Sir:—Yesterday the Twelfth Ward Sabbath School held their annual picnic party at Lindsey's Gardens.

The exercises of the day were conducted under the direction of Supt. Robert Campbell and assistants, also of Bishop Hardy and Counselors.

Scholars and parents, numbering about 300, were conveyed to and from the scene of action in buggies, carriages and wagons, and as the evening shades began to appear and all were preparing to retire, I could hear but one universal exclamation, "This will be a time long to be remembered by both young and old."

The choir, under the management of Jacob Migley, sang, and organ accompaniment by Miss E. Hardy and Miss E. Migley, and as I beheld the countenances of Bp. Hardy, radiant with smiles, he seemed to say, "I am proud of this youthful band of sweet singers, and may God bless them," and I can assure you that the songs, duets, anthems, etc., as executed by them, would do infinite credit to a choir of ripe voices.

Bro. Campbell and his corps of assistants have been untiring in their labors in endeavoring to make this, the best of all institutions, Sabbath school, a success, and my estimation, they have more than succeeded, for which I say, may Heaven reward them, and not only them, but all who will "go and do likewise."

In conclusion permit me to add, that parties who wish to enjoy a day of unalloyed pleasure and recreation cannot do better than go to Mark Lindsey's Gardens. Yours, &c., T. V. W.

The Great Concert.—The ladies and gentlemen who have been practicing the "Messiah" for a considerable time past have decided to give their concert on the evening of Thursday, June 3rd.

In the case of the man who held the stakes in the recent fatal prize fight on Hackney Marshes, in England, the Court of Criminal Appeal to which the point was referred, has held that the defendant was not accessory before the fact to the crime of manslaughter, and accordingly quashed the conviction against him.

Kate Field has been writing up the Cincinnati Musical Festival and she says, "The subject is Titanic, and it is grandly treated," but as she says in almost the next sentence that "she doubts whether she is talking about"—a fact, by the way, that was known before—her opinion is not of much value.

Kate is a smart writer; she hits straight from the shoulder, and the blows sometimes tell, although they are the mark aimed at. She owns that music is to her, as a science, a mystery; but then she says ninety-nine out of every hundred know less about it than she does.
