CONVILLE LEADS TEAM.

Perdue Player Will Captain the Varsity for Next Season.

"Dad" Conville, fullback of the Utah University football team, will lead its. destinies on the gridiron next season. He was selected last night preceding the football banquet, and was announced during the dinner as the new captain.

Conville is the first man elected captain in the past five years who has not served for a long time on the team, all previous captains of recent years being seriors who had worked up brough the ranks with several years through the ranks with several years of playing to their credit. Conville, however, ranks as a senior, scholast-ically, and made up in Perdue play-ing experience, which he has lacked in Utab. He came here this fall, bring-ing a good Perdue reputation with him, and found a place on the team owing to the absence of the usual one year rule which has resulted from agitation for clean football in most colleges. The hanquet last night was served The hanguet last night was served at the Alta club and was attended by the first and second football teams, as well as a large number of alumni. Toasts were offered by Gov. Cutler and Mayor Brensford, and by past and present members of the football team.
