LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—There was a large audience at the Theatre last evening, at the benefit of Mrs. F. M. Bates, the play being, "The Secret of a Life; or, Adrienne's Trials." Mrs. Bates as "Adrienne de Beaupre," and Mr. Bates as "Eugene de Grassac," acted with much power and effectiveness. The play, though rather improbable, and far-fetched in some of the incidents and situations, is an impressive one, with a number of exciting and almost sensational scenes. Mr. Graham and Carrie Carter as "Hector Falisaux" and "Gianetti Scarotia," enlivened the performance by their numerous broad comicalities.

The sparkling comedietta of "The Conjugal Lesson" was an agreeable contrast to "The Secret of a Life," and was excellently played, sending the audience home in the best humor.

This evening a very enticing bill is announced, consisting of the beautiful comedy of "Caste," to conclude with "The Married Rake," Mrs. Bates appearing as "Polly Eccles," and in the double character of "Mrs. Trictrac," and "Cornet Fitzherbert," and Mr. Bates assuming the characters of "Old Eccles" and "Mr. Frederic Flighy." Miss Adams and Mrs. Clawson and Messrs. P. Margetts and E. B. Marden and others will also appear. This is a very promising programme, one that can not fail to afford a very satisfactory evening's entertainment.

For to-morrow a matinee is announced, and to-morrow evening Mr. and Mrs. Bates appear for the last time of their engagement.

FRATERNAL.—Horace W. Myers, Esq., editor of the Woodford, Ills., Journal, called to-day, being now on a visit to the west for recreation and the benefit of his health. He is having a good time, says he finds far more evidences of the comfort and refinement of civilized life than he expected, and is preparing a series of letters for publication in his journal about the Rocky Mountains, in which Utah and her people will be kindly remembered.

ATTORNEY BATES AND THE PRISONERS.—Washington, April 20.—A dispatch from Salt Lake places Utah District Attorney Bates in the position of having telegraphed to his deputy to instruct Judge Hawley or Strickland to discharge all Mormon prisoners. No such telegram was ever sent; but the following dispatch to the United States Marshal, signed by Bates, by the approval of the Attorney-General Williams, was sent:

"The Supreme Court has decided the late Grand Jury illegal and void, and that you have no authority to serve any process except for the United States. The defendants in custody are falsely imprisoned. Apply, with Assistant District Attorney High, to Judge Hawley or Strickland for their instant discharge. You are liable for further detention."—Cincinnati Times.

CHANGED BASE.—We notice that Henry Wallace has removed his stock from his old stand on the east side of main St., to the west side, first door north of Mrs. Colebrook's, where he has opened with a fine display in the confectionary line.

A BEE-KEEPERS' MEETING will be held at the 11th Ward School Room to-morrow, Saturday, at half-past 10 o'clock a.m.

Short lectures on the speedy multiplication of bees and honey from experienced apiarians, will be delivered.

All are invited. Be punctual.

R. V. MORRIS, Secretary.

Salt Lake City, April 26, 1872.

JUDGE MCKEAN, with his Utah proceedings, has fared at the hands of the Supreme Court no worse than thoughtful observers expected. Law is one thing, and a very good thing. Lynching is another thing. Trying men for the form of conviction before juries packed for a specific purpose is lynching, and it does not matter how ostensibly good the purpose, nor how desperate the hope of conviction before a jury not so packed. When this distinction is learned by the whole people we shall have gained a point in judicial administration. Where lynch law is the choice of the people, lynch law let it be; but let them not attempt to disguise lynch law under a cloak of justice.—Boston Transcript.

DEAD.—A Dea. Tel. dispatch from Manti informs us that Elder John P. Squires, of that place, died yesterday morning at nine o'clock. He is said to have been a worthy and respected citizen.

NO NEW LAWS.—Mr. Edmunds is reported to have remarked in the Senate Judiciary Committee the other day, after he had heard the statements of McKean and District-Attorney Bates, that he saw no use in enacting new laws, or amending old ones, until an attempt was made to enforce the old ones.—New York Tribune.

THE FIRST OF MAY.—We are informed by School Superintendent R. L. Campbell, that a movement is on foot for the schools of the county to amalgamate and have a regular gala day on the first of May, and he desires us to announce that he would like to meet with the teachers and others connected with the schools to-morrow morning at nine o'clock at the Council House, that steps may be agreed upon and taken for the carrying out of that intention. It has been thought that some place in the vicinity of South Cottonwood would be a suitable locality where the children could spend the day. There will doubtless be a band of music, and a variety of intellectual entertainments and physical exercises and sports to enable the participants in the affair to pass a few agreeable hours. The idea of providing suitable entertainment and recreation on a large scale for the children is a good one. Success attend it.

THE SPIRIT OF MORMONISM.—A very limited knowledge of the Mormons has destroyed our confidence in their integrity, and taught us to esteem them, next to the Apaches, the greatest pests in the country. —Boston Globe.

The Globe forgets the proverb—"A little knowledge is a dangerous thing," especially when that little is of the kind usually furnished by the enemies of "Mormonism." The great trouble with them is they know too little of the "Mormons," and that little is of such a suspicious character.

SAID TO BE A FIZZLE.—We learn from a reliable source that several parties, in the Southern part of the Territory, who caught the Colorado placer gold excitement and visited the diggings with good outfits, have returned to their homes wiser if not better men. They find themselves considerably poorer than when they started out to make their fortunes, and feel infinitely disgusted at their having been induced to leave their farms to seek fortunes in a chimerical Eldorado. Perhaps those parties did not strike the right spot.

MESSAGES at the Deseret Telegraph office in Woodmansee's building, next door to Wells, Fargo & Co's., for Simon Woolfe, George Mason, jr., Robert Haworth, Walter Eberts and Col. Wickiser.

CLEANSE THE DITCHES.—Now that spring has fairly opened and the weather is becoming warm, it would be well for the owners of lots to see that the water ducts in front of their premises are thoroughly cleaned out to prevent the accumulation of rubbish likely to grow foul. Our beautiful streams of mountain water rippling along the sides of every street are admired by persons visiting our city from other parts less favored in this respect, and we should take a pride in keeping them clean, as well to improve their appearance, as from a sanitary consideration.

THE MAN WHO FIRED THE NAUVOO TEMPLE.—Among the events of the famous Mormon war was the burning of the Nauvoo Temple. The structure was burned in the night time, and so successful was the party engaged in its firing, that probably he was never suspected. The recent death of the incendiary, however, has removed the necessity of further secrecy, and a day or two ago we were put in possession of his name, and the facts connected with the burning of the temple, by the only living person cognizant of them. The temple was fired by Jos. B. Agnew, who recently died in Appanoose Township, Hancock County, in this State, at the age of some fifty-eight years. It was always supposed that the party who burned the building had entered through the basement, but the facts are, Mr. Agnew surreptitiously obtained a key to one of the doors to the temple some time before the act. No one was engaged with him, and only four knew he was the party. Three of these are now dead. Agnew prepared his fire-ball and other combustibles at his residence. Placing them in his saddle-bags, he rode on horseback to Nauvoo, and in the night entered the temple with his key, passed up to the cupola, arranged his materials and fired them, and then quietly escaped the way he came. Our informant, who is a responsible and prominent citizen of the western part of the State, says he thinks he can produce the key of the temple which Agnew secured in order to accomplish his work.—Peoria (Ill.,) Transcript.
