At the close of the meeting the visi-tors were entertained by the Saints of Diamond until 6 o'clock, when the re-turn trip was begun and half an hour's drive landed them at the meeting house in Silver City, which was filled to its utmost capacity. Here also Apostle reasdale delivered a powerful sermon also dedicated the meeting house to the service of the Lord. President Paxman and Bishop Hales also made brief adresses.

Much credit is due the Saints of Diamond and Silver for their perserv-erence and zeal, manifested in the erection of these places of worship. But few of the Saints outside of a mining camp realize the difficulties which arise to prevent the accomplishment of good in places like these. And those who are actively engaged in building up the work of the Lord in a mining camp are doing good missionary work.
