

with theater parties during the week's performances.

4 4 4 Next Wednesday Mrs. J. T. Clasbey will give a matinee party preceded by a luncheon in honor of her guest, Mrs. Wesley of Michigan.

Bishop and Mrs. Edwin S. Sheets en-trained on Wednesday evening all the officers of the different associations of the ward in which the bishop presides, the ward is a structure of the event. During the evening games were played, the prizes being won by Mrs. F. M. Mickelson and Mr. Henry J. Coulam. One of the features of the occasion was the presentation of a beautiful chair to the bishop and a beautiful bouquet of fowers to Mrs. Sheets from the officers of the pleasantest events of the season. Dail a clightful musical program was given. Miss Edma Evans and Mr. Ed Bishop and Mrs. Edwin S. Sheets en-science class of the L. D. S. university. The entertainment was for Mrs. San-born's Literary club, and covers were laid for 12 guests, the decorations be-ing in red and white, the club colors, and the menu also as far as possible carrying out this idea. The table had for a centerpiece a spread of antique lace on which was placed a mirror holding a cut glass vase of red and white carnations, while large bows of red and white ribbon were at the cor-ners, and red-shaded candles lit the board. The menu comprised ten courses, and was prepared by two pu-plis of the domestic science class. Miss Florence Tingey and Miss Alice Nibley, who also furnished the decorations and served the meal. The menu was as follows: follows:

Clery, olives, spiced pears. Oyster cocktail, brown bread sand-

Tomato boullion, crisped wafers, Egg croquettes, cream sauce, ribbon sandwiches.

Baked turkey with dressing, cranberry sauce in moulds, potato on the haif shell, buttered parsnips, French rolls with butter, Mushroom patties, white sauce.] Lettuce salad, cheese straws.

Plum pudding, Philadelphia Ice Cream.

Hot chocolate, angel cake. Bonbons.

Mrs. H. C. Brownlee gave a lunch-con and bridge party on Monday, about a dozen guests being entertain-

Mrs. Frank Dyke Walton and Miss Lillian Anderson entertained at a lin-en shower party for "The Bachelor Maids" the club enjoying a country ride and after enjoying an elaborate supper at the Walton home. Present were Mrs. Harris, Lizzie Olson, Flor-ence Sharp, Rick Ludvigson, Myrtle Baddely, Lillian Slade and Dorothy Mende Meade . . .

On Wednesday night Mrs. J. E. Talmage gave an elaborate dinner at the Lion House, which was served by the first year girls of the domestic science class, the table being beauti-fully decorated in red and white car-nations, and covers laid for 12 guests. The party spent some time with the class beforehand watching the pro-cess of making the delicious repast cess of making the delicious repast which they later enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hutchinson have gone to Portland, Or., for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Edwards have been spending a few days in Evanston, Wyo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Odell have returned from an eastern trip ex-tending over six weeks.

Mrs. C. W. Buckholz and her children will leave within the next few weeks to join Mr. Buckholz in San Francisco, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Allen re-turned yesterday from the coast to spend a month. They are at home at 849 east First South street.

who have been spending some time at the Knutsford, left Thursday for the

...

Mrs. T. W. Pinkerton is in town for a stay of a few days on her way home from Seattle, where she has been vis-iting her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Grant.

Mrs. D. C. Jackling has returned from a trip to Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wood are now

Mr. and Mrs. George Phelps Holman will leave early in March for New York, .

Mrs. L. R. Eccles of Lewiston, Utah, and Mrs. David Eccles and Miss Veda Eccles of Ogden are visiting Mrs. O. D. Banks at her apartment in the Emery-Holmes, . .....

Mrs. Banks leaves tonight for a trip to New York.

Mrs. Margaret Robertson Kerr and Prof. J. J. McClellan, assisted by Hugh Dougall, soloist, will give a plano re-cital at the Salt Lake Theatre, Feb. 2nd, 8:15 p. m. Tickets 50c to be had at Clayton's Music Store,

OGDEN

Joseph S. Peer and wife returned home this week from an enjoyable visit at New York and other eastern cities

. . .

The dancing party given by the ladies of the Fifth ward Wednesday evening at the ward hall was enjoyed by a large crowd, who tripped the old-time dances until after midnight. Dainty refreshments were served throughout the

. . .

THE LARGER

SLASHED EFFECTS ARE MODISH.

No prettier variation of the guimpe freek than that illustrated above has yet been seen. The material, a broadcloth, is slashed from shoulder to waistline, and shows beneath the plain waist of allover filet lace mounted over an orkeda slip. The edges of these slits may be buttoned with silk twist or left raw, as in this instance.

Early Germans and Their Country." and Mrs. E. D. Partridge entertained the club b reading "The Awful Ger-man Language," by Mark Twain. The club starts out with a large member-ship and enthusiasm for the season's work. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Speckart. Achievements in the Nineteenth Cen-tury" was presented by Mrs. W. B. with Mrs. Speckart, tury" was presented by Mrs. Searle. The Brigham Young university facul-ty gave a ball in the gymnasium Fri-day evening, attended by a large num-ber of guests. The event was one at the most enjoyable social functions of the content of the social functions of the most en the season.

The Sixth Ward Sewing club . met

Another important musical event of the week will be the violin recital by Arthur Hartmann at the Congrega-tional church under the auspices of the university, and in which society is tak-ing general interest. The Orpheus club has adjusted its require rehearsal for has adjourned its regular rehearsal for the concert and will attend in a body.

Already Washington's birthday af-fairs are being planned, among them a dancing party at the Ladles' Literary club. Those in charge of the affair are Mrs. Russell C. Woodruff, Mrs. Ira Hud-son Lewis and Mrs. Russell L. Tracy.

Another patriotic event will be the "All States" banquet to be given by the ladies of the First M. E. church on Feb. 22 at the church parlors, the guests of each state being placed at the same table and toasts responded to by representatives of the different commonwealths.

Elaborate preparations are being made by the junior class for their "promenade" on Feb. 8, the invitations being especially tasteful and other de-tails being planned on the same line. Those who will chaperon the affair are Gov. and Mrs. John C. Cutler, President and Mrs. J. T. Kingsbury, Dean and Mrs. Byron Cummings, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Merriff, Senator and Mrs. Steph-en H. Love, Regent and Mrs. C. G. Plunnmer and Principal George A. Eat-on.

On Thursday and Friday Mrs. W. R. Warren and Mrs. Rufus C. Hill were hostesses at bridge parties given at the home of the former, the rooms be-ing beautifully decorated with potted plants, white snap dragon and carna-tions, the parior in white and green with green-shaded lights, and the li-brary and diningroom in red with shad-ed candelabra in the same color. The hostesses were assisted by Miss Vera Edwards, and prizes were won by Mrs.

EX-COTTON KING'S DAUGHTER TO MARRY EX-ACTOR.

Daniel J. Sully, ex-King of Cotton, and Dan Cupid, all-time King of Hearts, have had a tilt, and the former has been vanquished. Mr. Sully's only daughter, Miss Bertha Sully, and Douglas Fairbanks for whom theatrical managers predict a brilliant career, accomplished her father's defeat.

Terms have been agreed upon which provide that Mr. Sully shall bestow his daughter's hand upon Mr. Fairbanks in return for the promise exacted from the actor that he will resign from the stage." Except perhaps for the young couple, Mr. Sully is the happiest party to the articles of capitulation.

were awarded each table in the form of , E. Pike and Mrs. Fanny Naylor taking pictures.

At the Alta club on Thursday F. C. Schramm and J. S. Critchlow gave a dinner party in honor of Mrs. Pastorius of Colorado Springs, the table being laid in the green room and decorated in American Beauty roses. Miss Kather-ing Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bamberger were the other guests. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Daly entertained their card club on Thursday.

Mrs. H. G. Whitney was hostess at two informal afternoon affairs this week.

Miss Daisy Raybould entertained at "500" on Thursday afternoon, the rooms being decorated in pink and white car-nations and smflax and the hostess as-sisted by Mrs. Al Cowan and Miss Ruby Koeber. The prizes webs won by Misses Alice Fisher and Beatrice

The engagement was announced this week by Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Shep-hard of Chicago of their daughter Cath-erine to Mr. Philip W. Kinsley of Og-for a month.

vening.

. . .

Mr. and Mrs. James of Philadelphia,

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cates and their daughter left Thursday for their home in Bingham, after a stay of some time at Whitehall.

Mrs. A. E. Walker and her mother, Mrs. F. S. Sprague, are at home for a short time at the Knutsford.

No large affairs have been in the social list this week, the events having been mostly in the way of card parties and Kensingtons, with a few dinners and luncheons combined, Social interest for the coming week cen ters about two prominent events, the Symphony concert next Friday after-Symphony concert next Friday after-noon, at the Salt Lake theater, and the old fashioned ball at the Lion House, to take place on Thursday eve-ning, and given by the Daughters of Utah Piczers. The latter will begin at 6 o'clock p.m., after pioneer fash-ion, and old-tashioned dances, refresh-ments and costumes will be in order. The Interest in this affair is so great that the committee has been obliged to issue 200 more invitations in 'addi-tion to the large number at first pro-vided. The affair is under the manage-ment of Mrs. Ann D. Groesseck. Mrs. Maiton Beattle Whitney, Mrs. Claris-a Young Spencer, Mrs. Emma Whit-ney Pyper, Mrs. Mary Jones Clawson and Mrs. Low Groesbeck McCune.

ney Pyper, Mrs. Mary Jones Clawson and Mrs. Lou Groesbeck McCune. The Symphony orchestra concert from all present indications promises to be in a financial way the most success-ful of the season, the interest in this one of the most ambitious of Utah's musical enterprises having been aug-mented by the generous of the Mr. Newhouse, which has called for and has so far been met with a fitting response on the part of the many patrons to his effort to promote the interest of the in-stitution. The boxes and stalis will be filled with patrons and many other par-ties will fill the seats in the auditorium. Among the patrons who will give par-ties are the following: Samuel New-house, Mrs. E. Bonnemert, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Walker, Mrs. Ernest Bam-berger, Mrs. E. B. Critchiow, Mrs. Ja-cob Moritz and Mrs. T. W. Jennings.

Edwards, and prizes were won by Mrs. A. H. Peabody, Mrs. J. J. Devereaux and Mrs. J. A. Wall, About 25 guests were present. were present. . . .

Mrs. Edwin Kimball gave a Kensington on Thursday in honor of Miss Alice Paul, about 40 guests being entertained. Assisting were Mrs. Samuel Paul, Mrs. A. S. Martin, Miss Martin, Miss Gold:

mol reception at her home yesterday at the post in honor of her guest, Miss Margaret Shearer of Bay City, Mich. Miss Jessie Anderson was hostess at a delightful dinner at her home last night, the table being prettily decorat-ed and covers laid for about a holf doron dozen. . . . Mrs. J. B. Taylor was hostess at a card party yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Frank T. Burton gave an infor-

The Orpheum boxes have been filled the afternoon.

At the home of Mrs. H. A. King on Thursday the Women's Republican clut, gave a card party, the rooms being bright with flowers and prizes going to Mrs. Ensign and Mrs. Lee Jones.

Mrs. W. H. Tribball entertained the board of managers of the I street in-fants' home on Thursday, refreshmeny being served and a musical program

Miss Blanch Kimball has issued in-vitations for a luncheon on next Fri-day, her party to afterward attend the Symphony concert.

Miss Geneve Clark will entertain in-formally tonight in honor of Miss Louise Clawson, who is here from Los Angeles on a brief visit.

Miss Blanch Kimball entertained in-formally at the Kimball home last night in honer of her mother, Mrs. Julia Kimball.

Last night the freshman class of the Last night the freshman class of the university gave a Japanese social at the museum hall, the decorations being in the class and college colors and some unique features introduced. The offi-cers of the class are Nell Judd, presi-dent; Florence Shermer, vice president, and Harry Alley, secretary and treas-urer. Those who will chaperon the af-fair are President and Mrs. J. T. Kings-bury, Dean and Mrs. Byron Cummings, Dean and Mrs. Ralph Vera Chamber-lain, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Ebaugh, Coach and Mrs. Joseph Maddock, Dr. and Mrs. Merrill and Prof. and Mrs. David R. Allen. Allen

Mrs. Everett Buckingham entertained her card club on Wednesday, the prizes going to Mrs. E. A. Wall, Mrs. Isadore Meyer and Mrs. Olive Gaylord, Mrs. L. S. Deane entertained inform-ally at cards on Thursday afterneon.

The Lion Rouse has become a popu-lar place of entertainment and this week has witnessed several delightful social affairs. Among them was the "Young Family Party" on Wednesday night, when a large number of the relatives met and enjoyed a social time with dancing, refreshments and a brief program

Misses Helena and Bessie Critzer entertained at a pleasant afternoon affair today in honor of Miss Alice Paul whose marriage takes place next month nonth.

Col. H. F. Bridewell was pleasantly surprised on Monday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Kate Bridewell, when the Daughters of the Confed-eracy descended unexpectedly upon him and joined in spending a delightful evening. evening:

Miss Gratia Flanders has issued in-vitations for a musical evening given with her most advanced pupils. Miss Geneve Ellerbeck, Miss Judith Evans, Miss Pear, Rothschild and Miss Effe Dofflemeyre. The affair will be given in the Salt Lake theater next Monday evening, and the assisting artists will be Miss Esther Allen and Mrs. Charles G. Plumaner. 10 16 10

One of the elaborate events of the week was the dinner given by Mrs. J. A. Sanborn at the Lion House yesterat Hot Springs, Ark. O'Connor and about 20 guests enjoyed

Mrs. J. C. Landenberger left Sunday for San Diego to spend the remainder of the cold weather.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Bowman and Mrs. Margaret Alves, who have been guests of Mr, and Mrs. W. J. Browning, left last evening for Idaho Falls.

Mrs. Will Clawson and daughter, Miss Miss Louise Clawson, of Los Angeles, have arrived in the city for a visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. W. G. Lamb will probably leave the latter part of February for Boston, where she will visit with relatives for a month.

Miss Ethel Partridge returned Tues-day evening from Los Angeles.

Mrs. Hanauer and Miss Ida Hanauer will leave today for New York and Atlantic City to be away for about a month. . . .

Moylan C. Fox and his son came in from the west this week for a short stay in the city.

Mrs. Ned Kersler of Portland is here for a visit of a week.

Mrs. C. P. Goode of Bingham is at the Kenyon for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. William V. Hoare have moved and are now at h east Seventh South street. home at 413

Mrs. George Dalton of Denver, who is at the Knutsford, will leave shortly for Los Angeles.

Miss Pearl Van Cott has gone to Los Angeles to spend some time with Mrs. Elizabeth Hooper Dunbar.

Mrs. Mary E. Gilmer left this week for Oakland to visit friends. Later sh-will go to Los Angeles and to Pasa-dena, spending the better part of the spring on the coast,

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Fenton left this week for Los Angeles, where they will spend several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Fisher and chil-dren have gone to Los Angeles, where they will spend some time.

Mrs. M. H. Sowles left this week for Los Angeles, where she will spend the remainder of the winter, Miss Lella Fowler left this week for a three weeks' visit with friends in Los Angeles.

Mrs. and Mrs. Walter Fitch and the Misses Lillian and Maude Fitch will leave next week for the east, and later will sall for the Bahama islands to be away for about two months.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Bothwell left Mon-day evening for the coast, where they will spend some time in Los Angeles, and later will visit her daughter in Stanford. . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lowry and small son have gone to their future home in San Francisco. Mrs. W. C. Hail and her little daugh-ter, Marion, left Monday evening for the coast, to be away some weeks.

Mrs. George Rose, who has been with en daughter. Mrs. William McGrath.

den, the marriage to take place in the near future.

Miss Ethel Naisbitt was hostess at a Miss Etnel Naisoitt was notess at a party given Friday evening at her home to a number of her young friends. Various games were played and a dainty lunch was served.

The celebration given last evening a the Congress Dancing academy by the Scottish Cronies in hypor of the anni-versary of Robert Burns, was greatly enjoyed by a large number of Scotch paople and their friends. The early part of the evening was spent in listen-ing to an excellent musical and liter-ary program, and the latter part of the evening was spent in dancing.

The announdement of the engagement of Miss Ruby Biddle to Mr. George B. Anderson, a well known Southern Pa-cific foreman, was made this week by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Biddle. The marriage is to take place Monday at the home of the young lady's parents on Thirtigth street.

. . . Mr. and Mrs. Lester T. Wright of Rexburg, Ida., who have been visiting with relatives in Ogdan, returned to their home Tuesday evening.

The ladies of the Congregational church gave a delightful sleighing par-ty Tuesday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Rarig entertained the Tolstoi drcie Tuesday afternoon at her home circle Tuesday afternoo on Washington avenue.

Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. D. Gordon entertained the Historical soclety.

PROVO.

The Borosis met Wednesday for its first meeting of the season with Mrs. Phil Speckart. Mrs. Speckart pre-sented an interesting paper on "The advertisement in the London newspapers proclaiming that he would not be responsible for her debts, The Counters of Westmorland is 35 years old and has two children. Mr.

DISCARDS EARL TO MARRY AN ASTOR.

the expatriated New York Croesas, will marry the Countess of Westmoreland as soon as that beautiful aristocrat has severed the marriage ties that bind her to Lord Westmoreland. Details of the separation, it is said, have already been arranged and the boundless wealth of William Waldorf Astor is depended up-wife to divorce him. There is no hint of scandal. Lord Westmoreland and his wife have been estranged for some time, and several years ago he published an

It is understood that the Earl of Westmoreland will consent to allow his

on to smooth away any obstacle that may rise,

Circumstantial reports from London announce that William Waldorf Astor,

The Lion House has become a popu-