

FRAGMENTS.

E. MARTIN and S. C. ENSTROM were each fined $5 to-day for drunkenness.

MIKE FLEMING was fined $35 this morning for drunkenness and profanity.

MAYOR ARMSTRONG has returned from his trip to the Snake River country, Idaho.

JOHN EVANS, forfeited morning, on the charge of being drunk and disorderly.

THE trial of Henry Wagner, on two charges of selling liquor without a license, was set for this afternoon.

THE police are gathering in the tramps that infest the city. There is still a good field for operation in the outer wards.

A basket of groceries was lost from Teasdale's delivery wagon this morning. The finder will please return the articles to Teasdale's store.

It is intended to commence laying the new extension of the water mains in a few days. Five thousand feet of the wooden piping has been received.

WALTER SIDNEY, ten years old, pleaded guilty to stealing a watch from Thomas Fenton. Sentence was suspended during good behavior.

LAST evening had the pleasure of a call from Judge M. B. Nicholson, Judge of the Six Judicial District of Kansas. He is on a western pleasure trip with a small party of friends and intended retracing his way homeward from this point to-day.

THE charge against Elbridge Tufts, of permitting a nuisance by allowing a manure pile on his premises, was investigated last evening. There was so little cause for complaint that sentence was suspended, pending the defendant's removal of the pile within three days.

Mrs. HANNAH BRIGHTMORRE was arrested last night, on a charge of assaulting C. M. Hansen with a deadly weapon, with intent to do bodily harm. The fuss was caused by a dispute over chickens. Hansen says the woman shot at him, which she denies. Her bail was fixed at $500.

MR. WM. ST. CLAIR, of Winona, Minn., arrived in this city last evening, on his way to Salt Lake City. He is a first cousin of the late President David O. Calder, and has been in the government service at Washington for twenty years past. He will continue his journey westward this afternoon.

CANNOT the city fathers do something to prevent small boys from congregating on the streets at late hours? It is getting to be a common thing for gangs of them, especially those who are engaged as newsboys and boot-blacks in the day time, to go prowling about at night, insolent and annoying people, robbing orchards and gardens, etc.

LOCAL NEWS.

Primary Associations.—The officers of the Primary Associations of Salt Lake Stake will meet at the residence of Mrs. E. Clawson, No. 75 First Street, at 8 o'clock on Thursday afternoon.

New Post Office.—A new post office has been established at Kays' Creek, Davis County, with the name of Layton. All mail to that locality should hereafter be addressed to Layton post office.

Burglary.—On Friday evening last the house of Mrs. Buckley, on Fourth South Street, between Third and Fourth West, was entered by a thief, and filled with cash and silver stolen. There was no clue to the burglar.

Sudden Death.—Mrs. Postelle, the woman who was in the city jail awaiting sentence for lewd conduct, died of heart disease at 5 o'clock this morning. A coroner's inquest was held and the jury found that the disease was superinduced by chronic alcoholism.

A Heavy Sentence.—To-day, in the First District Court at Ogden, Ambrose Greenwald, Jr., the young man recently convicted of perjury in the notorious scandal case in which Judge O. W. Powers figured conspicuously, was sentenced to serve a term of five years in the Utah Penitentiary and pay the cost of the prosecution.

Boot and Shoe Firm.—The advertisement of Spencer & Kimball will be found in our columns. Having closed at the old stand they have opened their new and elegant establishment. They have been in business several years and have attained in popular favor. They carry a splendid stock of goods, and are sole agents for the Laird, Schober & Mitchell ladies' shoes, and carry the noted $3 shoes for ladies and gentlemen's wear. The repairing and custom department, managed by Mr. Wellock, has an excellent reputation.

Alleged Attempted Rape.—On Saturday evening, at Lake Point, a young girl who resided in the city, accepted the invitation of Walter Sims to drink a glass of beer. Shortly after they went out for a walk, and soon the screams of the girl for help were heard. Parties hurried to the place and found the two together, the girl's clothing being badly torn. She declared that Sims, who was under the influence of liquor, had made a dastardly attempt upon her person. A number of threats of lynching were made, but better judgment prevailed, and Sims was taken into custody by the Tooele County officers to await the development of the facts in the case.

Arrested for Theft.—This morning Arthur Day, who has followed the business of painter for some time past, in this city, was arrested on a charge of larceny and placed in the city jail. The theft is alleged to have been committed at Barnes & Davis' store on East Temple Street. Day has been familiar with the store for many years and was frequently in and around it. For a long time paints and other articles have been missing, and though he was suspected, still nothing was discovered that would warrant his arrest. This morning, however, he came into the store at 7 o'clock. When he went out, one of the clerks, Mr. Barber, noticed him pushing something under the seat of his buggy, and thinking there was something wrong, stepped outside. Day went back into the store, while the clerk investigated and discovered two hams, a piece of breakfast bacon, and some other articles which had been taken from the store. When the culprit saw that he was discovered, he begged the clerk to mention nothing of the affair. Mr. Barber made no promise, and when Mr. Davis came, related what had occurred. A little later on Day again called at the store, when the police were notified and he was arrested.

ANTI-MORMON RABIES.

A SEVERE ATTACK OF THE MALADY AT THE G. A. R. RECEPTION LAST EVENING.

On Saturday and Sunday evenings the skating rink was opened by the local post for the accommodation of the visiting members of the G. A. R. Impromptu speeches were made, both by local speakers and visitors, some of whom departed themselves in a respectable manner. Others, however, were so full of anti-Mormon bile that they could not restrain themselves from slopping over. Last evening, however, was reserved for an exhibition of the most shameless and bitter hatred and bitterness that has been manifested for some time past.

General Beaver, of Pennsylvania, was introduced by Colonel Sells, post commander, and commenced his address. He said that it had been announced that a camp-fire would be held this evening. A camp-fire was usually a gathering of old soldiers, where the stories and incidents of the war were told. But here the surroundings were all new to him. There was one thing that struck him as peculiar, and that was the motto, "War is Hell." It was something new to him, in the intention that a portion of the people were not loyal. If they were, it was a grand opportunity for the government to show its power.

The idea of dialing a conversation by motto made the heart of every man who had worn the blue beat as it had done for seventy years. If there was a corporation, a state, or organization, that claimed superiority to the government and flaunted defiance in its face, then it was the duty of every man who wore the blue to step forward and assert his right. Those who were the gray would be in obliterating those who uttered such defiance, or in compelling them to obey the laws. Men in Utah did not stand alone in their desire to obey the laws; every loyal heart in the United States was behind them in this. His visit to this city was one of great pleasure to him and he would remember it to the end of his life.

The Rev. Dr. Dunning, of Boston, permitted a nuisance by allowing a manure pile on his premises, was investigated last evening. There was so little cause for complaint that sentence was suspended, pending the defendant's removal of the pile within three days.

Mrs. HANNAH BRIGHTMORRE was arrested last night, on a charge of assaulting C. M. Hansen with a deadly weapon, with intent to do bodily harm. The fuss was caused by a dispute over chickens. Hansen says the woman shot at him, which she denies. Her bail was fixed at $500.

Y. M. M. I. A. CONFERENCE.

On Saturday and Sunday, July 26th and 27th, 1896, the Quarterly Conference of the Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association of the Sevier Stake of Zion was held at Fish Lake, Sevier County, Utah. This is the third year that the shore of this beautiful sheet of water in the top of the mountains has been selected for the summer conference. These annual gatherings have come to be looked forward to in joyful anticipation by the people of the Stake, and especially the young men, who have the opportunity of assembling in one of the places where the Almighty and his angels are present, to receive valued instruction and to learn those principles which will be of assistance to them in the future. The mountains are covered with pine, fir and quaking-aspen, grassy slopes all unite in making the location a most desirable one for the conference. For three days prior to the opening day of the conference, preparations had been going on. The road was repaired, water courses were cut through the camping ground, and other necessary work performed. During this period about 1000 people arrived on the ground until the border of the quaking-aspen forest and the open space adjoining was covered with wagons, tents, and seats, was President A. K. Thurston's cabin, in front of which the liberty pole. There, morning and evening, at a given hour, the people gathered from all directions and united in prayer.

At 10 o'clock on Saturday morning the conference was commenced. The Superintendent R. R. Farnsworth presiding. There were present on the stand in the best of President A. K. Thurston of the Presidency, who had general supervision of the whole proceedings; Elder J. W. Taylor, assistant to the General Superintendent; Reuben S. Farnsworth and his counselors, Leo A. Bean and Morten Jensen, and a number of others. The Elsinore choir was selected to furnish the music for the conference, and an organ had been brought from one of the settlements.

After the opening exercises of singing, prayer, an excellent program of speeches, recitations, songs, etc., by the various settlements, the conference was carried out. The attention was attracted by the presence of Elder Charles Andersen, of Elsinore, in an interesting account of the customs, traditions and manner of life among the aborigines of New Zealand—the Maories.

Sunday morning, Elder Julius F. Wells occupied the time in a discourse replete with excellent instruction to people to be firm in their adherence to the principles of truth and liberty, and live pure and godly lives. In the afternoon the General and Stake Authorities of the Mutual Improvement Association were unanimously sustained. President A. K. Thurston, and Elders J. W. Taylor, and Wm. M. Palmer addressed the congregation on the principles of the Gospel, and the conference was brought to a close.

The speakers were listened to throughout with the greatest attention and the influence of the Holy Spirit strongly pervaded the whole proceedings. The statistics of the conference were as follows: Total number of young men enrolled therein as members at 619. A census taken from the ground showed the following: Number of vehicles, 361; animals, 687. There were present, men, 108; women, 428; boys, 169; babies of both sexes, 100; Indians, 10; making a grand total of 1,066 persons. The number of the highest attendance was a little in excess of 1000. The day was a beautiful one, and there were few boats on the lake for the amusement of the young folks who came to the conference and festival. Three photographers' tents and one or two of the young men were in the order, and two drum and life bands were in attendance. Two of the boats were brought from Stirling, Stapp County, one of them being Mr. Funk's small side-wheel steamer; one was from Monroe and another from the fifth belonged to the lake. On Saturday evening an improvised concert was given in the grove, and a committee had been appointed, who during the day had arranged the program for the affair, and the entertainment provided was a delightful surprise to those who attended. Music, recitations and songs, of appropriate selections, were rendered with the greatest ability, and the most gratifying success. On Saturday, outside of the hours of meeting, jumping, horse and foot-race and boat-race, etc.—in which a large number of the young men took part, and the most good feeling prevailed.

At the close of the services on Sunday, the committee on resolutions met at Joseph City, Sevier County, on October 16th and 17th next. Many of the people there enjoyed the conference, while some remained to spend a few days in pleasure and rest before returning to their daily vocations.

Provo Jots.—The following, from Provo, was written under date of the 23rd:

The circus is here; whether it be called good or bad news it is the means of giving us a little amusement. The people from the surrounding settlements. From about 6 o'clock this morning streams of people, men, women, etc., came pouring in, and by 10 o'clock the time of the performance of the circus was reached. The streets were filled with spectators all anxious to see the wonders.

The theatre management have arranged to give a performance in opposition to the circus, which at this writing is now in progress, or rather the audience is waiting for it. The people who were to have been here, being on the 13th. The theatre is a fine building with Sunday school children and guardians, and the circus is losing prestige in consequence. The place is performed this afternoon, to-night and tomorrow. It is a fine show, and a favorite play, "The Green Island of England."

Business is very quiet in Provo at this season. There are no schools in session and all who can are rustication in the mountains.

Regret and sorrow is felt in all circles on account of the untimely death of Richard Jones' wife. He was held in high regard by all who knew him in Provo.

We are still sighing and wishing for a storm, which seems to avoid the valley, as we have clouds around every offensive. The cold frost and disagreeable sun sets.

The primary meeting was held last Tuesday evening, when five delegates who alternate, two cosponsors, and one delegate at large were elected. The meeting was fairly well attended, enough to prove our interest in such matters has not departed.

Visiting Mr. Bennan's birthplace recently, Mr. Jules Simon asked the bookkeeper if many visitors came to see it. "Yes, a great many English folk."

"Well, you might get a handsome little fortune from some of them by telling them the story of the life of Jesus." "Ah, I have it now! But I will go to the stationer to-morrow and buy two hundred!"

The conversation was recently overheard on the Water side of Beacon street. "Good morning, Mrs. Nouveau-Riche."

"Good morning, good morning, Mrs. Pilgrim-Puritan. Did you know my daughter was engaged?"

"No, indeed, I did not."

"It's true; we have just sent to Paris by cable to order her bridal trousseau."
