

SOCIETY

SOCIAL CHAT

THE absorbing topic in social circles just now is the administration hall to be given at the extension hall on Jan. 23, the affair both from the preparations and the wide public interest promising to eclipse all previous events of the winter. A number of superb costumes are being planned and all details will be upon an elaborate scale.

Another interesting social function to take place in the near future is the colonial ball to be given by the officers and ladies of Fort Douglas on Washington's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fife entertained at an informal bridge party on Tuesday night in honor of Mrs. Fife's brother, T. A. Congriff.

Mrs. Elmer Jones gave a luncheon at the University club on Tuesday. The table being decorated in pink carnations and narcissus, and covers laid for 16 guests. Afterward bridge was played and the prize won by Mrs. W. C. Jennings.

Mrs. William Woolley entertained at cards on Tuesday, the decorations being in red and green and the prize won by Miss Addie Lowe.

On Monday night ex-Gov. and Mrs. John C. Cutler were guests of honor at an Orpheum party and afterward at a supper at Franklin's given by Mrs. E. Bonnet, the decorations for the supper being in national flags and flowers in the tri-color, and the other guests being Gov. and Mrs. Spuy, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Congriff, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Young, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hoffman, Dr. and Mrs. Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Dunyon, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. McMillan, and Mrs. D. C. Eichner.

Mrs. W. A. Cooke was hostess at an Orpheum party on Monday afternoon and afterward at a luncheon at Franklin's where the decorations were in pink roses, and covers laid for Mrs. John C. Cutler, Mrs. F. S. Murphy, Mrs. J. C. Hanchett, Mrs. W. H. Braman, Mrs. W. M. McGee and Mrs. Heber S. Cutler.

Miss Katherine Judge entertained a party of 26 friends at the Orpheum Monday evening for her guest, Miss Sheehan, and later the entire company enjoyed a supper at the Judge home on Brigham street.

Mrs. Pauline Sands entertained this afternoon at a theater party at the colonial followed by a luncheon at Franklin's. Mrs. Sands gives similar affairs on Wednesday and Saturday of the coming week.

Mrs. Lafayette Hanchett entertained the members of the Plate club on Thursday at a luncheon, the decorations being in red roses, and covers laid for 16. In the regular bridge game which followed prizes were won by Mrs. A. Fred Weir and Mrs. T. R. Black.

Mrs. Fred A. Hale entertained at a bridge tea on Wednesday in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Hunter, four tables being played and a number of guests coming for tea. The decorations were in red carnations and prizes were won by Mrs. J. B. Congriff, Miss Daisy Raybould, Miss Lorraine Leary and Miss Eudora Daly.

Miss Estelle Clinton will entertain at an informal bridge party next Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Bird entertained at a dinner on Wednesday night in honor of Miss Mary Moore and Jasper McCaskill, the table being decorated in pink roses and covers laid for a dozen guests.

Mrs. Pauline Sands gave a box party at the Orpheum on Wednesday followed by a luncheon at Franklin's the event being the first of a series.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lawrence gave a most enjoyable evening party on Wednesday in honor of Mr. Andrew Jensen who leaves shortly for Europe. There were a number of addresses from friends present and a response by the guest of honor, refreshments being served later.

Mrs. Benner N. Smith entertained informally at bridge on Wednesday assisted by Mrs. E. O. Howard.

Miss Crawford entertained the Afternoon Bridge club on Tuesday.

Mrs. Charles Oulderdonk entertained the members of the Cup and Saucer Bridge club with their husbands last Thursday evening at her apartments in the Kensington.

Mrs. Joseph Baumgarten will entertain at a bridge tea next Thursday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Herman.

Mrs. Frank A. Lowe entertained at a tea yesterday in honor of Miss Genevieve Becker of Adrian, Minn., the rooms being decorated in red and white with carnations and ribbon streamers, and the following being present: Miss Margaret Clark and Miss Lucile Edwards. Mrs. Lowe was assisted by Mrs. Croxson.

The next symphony concert will take place on Jan. 17 at the Colonial.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hirth were pleasantly surprised Thursday afternoon by their friends, the occasion being Mrs. Hirth's birthday anniversary. The time was spent with cards, six tables being played.

The Junior class of the University of Utah has issued invitations for its annual promenade to be given Friday night, Jan. 15, at the university gymnasium.

Mrs. Paul C. Leonard will entertain at a luncheon, followed by bridge, Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Thomas B. Hovier, Jr. of Monterey.

COMING AND GOING

The many friends of Miss Lucy Grant will be pleased to learn that she has returned from Rochester, Minn., having undergone a successful operation there which promises permanently to restore her health.

Gov. and Mrs. J. C. Cutler and family left Tuesday evening for harm, after spending the holidays with the Cullen family.

Miss Georgie McKinnons is back from a trip to Idaho.

Mrs. Henry Catrow and small son, accompanied by Miss Grace Bettles, will leave Monday for Los Angeles, and the beach, where they will spend two or three months. Mrs. Catrow's mother, Mrs. A. J. Bettles, and Mr. Catrow will join them a little later.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beckstead and their daughters Margaret and Mildred have returned to their home in Evanston, Wyo., after a prolonged stay in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Hugh Anderson and Miss Mary Louise Anderson are in Bombay, whence they sent greetings to their Salt Lake friends under an early December date.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Seabold have left the Knutsford hotel and taken the residence at 179 A street, where they are now at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Paul have returned from a trip to the coast.

Miss Elsie Ridge is in town for a short stay with Miss Sarah Terrell.

Mrs. George Fell, accompanied by her daughters, the Misses L. Genevieve Ethel and Alice will leave today for Los Angeles where they will spend the remainder of the winter.

Mrs. C. O. Whittemore left this week for her home in Los Angeles, after spending New Year's with her mother. She, with her daughter, Miss June Whittemore, will be here again early in February for a visit.

MISSSES' MATINEE TOILETTE.

Young girls of 16 and 18 years are wearing very attractive afternoon street costumes of light-toned broadcloths. These are of the three-piece variety—that is, a skirt and bodice usually in one piece and a coat of three-quarter or seven-eighths length. This particular costume of oyster white broadcloth has double-breasted Eton fronts, which lengthen into redingote sides and back. Pippings and pleatings of taupe satin and braiddings of taupe soutache ornament the coat and skirt. Marabout neckpiece and muff are attractive accessories.

New York and Washington before coming home.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Keyes left this week for Los Angeles and Santa Barbara. They will return in five or six weeks by way of San Francisco.

Miss Marguerite Ward and Miss Norma McLane have returned from Park City, where they visited Miss McLane's aunt, Mrs. John McLane.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Aley returned last week from spending the holidays with Mrs. Aley's mother, Mrs. Keiser, in Oakland.

Mr. O. J. Salisbury and son, James are at home from the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Moore are now at home to their friends in Federal Heights.

Miss M. E. Burrows has returned from a three years' absence in London, where she gained the title of associate of the London college of music. She will make her home with her brother and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Burrows. After Miss Burrows' won her title, she spent some time with her mother in Doncaster, England.

Mrs. W. M. Bradley is visiting in the east, where she went to spend the holidays with her boys, who are attending an eastern school.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh W. Doussal are at home to their friends, 123 Third avenue.

Miss Margaret Park left Wednesday for Denver, to join her father, Boyd Park, who left the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Underhill and Miss Underhill, who were the guests of Mrs. L. D. Peaslee during the holidays from New York, left Monday for California, where they will spend the winter in Oakland and other coast cities.

Mrs. John A. Mallis of 137, Nev., has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. D. Gurney, during the holidays.

Mrs. William Mordock of Stockton is visiting with her mother, Mrs. E. S. Dunford.

J. T. Donnellan, formerly of Salt Lake, has returned from Colonia Diaz, Mexico, where he has spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Glendinning. Mr. Donnellan will leave for the Northwest the latter part of next week.

Karl A. Schold left yesterday for New York, where he will join Mrs. Schold and Mrs. Russell C. Woodruff, for two weeks.

Mrs. Glen Miller will return from Kansas City, this week, where she has been visiting her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerratt B. S. Wilkin left this week for their home in Bingham, after spending the holidays with the Cullen family.

Miss Hannah Leemote of Park City is here, the guest for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace M. Bransford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Campbell returned Tuesday from a trip of several weeks in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt will return from Wyoming the last of next week.

Mrs. Gilchrist is expected here shortly from Nebraska to visit her sister, Mrs. A. J. Gustin.

WEDDING BELLS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Snow announce the engagement of their daughter, Rachel, to J. Waldo Kingsbury, the marriage to take place in February. The bride-elect is popularly known in musical circles of the city and her fiancé is a son of Pres. J. T. Kingsbury of the university.

The marriage of Miss Projetta Collett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Collett, and LeGrand Turnbow, a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Turnbow of Farmers ward, took place on Wednesday at the bride's home, 37 Olive avenue, the affair being informal and the young couple leaving immediately for a short wedding trip. They will return here to reside.

A pretty home wedding of the week was that of Miss Lucile McMaster and Daniel C. Coulson, which took place on Wednesday night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McMaster, following the marriage in the temple, which was solemnized during the day. A large number were present to enjoy the affair.

Another wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Daisy Heesch and Oscar A. Droubay, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Heesch, by Bishop Morris, and a reception following.

Miss Lulu C. Adams and George L. Ailey were married on Wednesday at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. G. T. Reese, by Bishop McMillan.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE FILES

OGDEN.

Dr. Gordon G. Ives has returned to Ogden after several months' visit on the coast. Mrs. Ives and son will return within a few weeks.

A cablegram received in Ogden during the week states that Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Healy are in Rome and Dr. and Mrs. Rich are in Vienna.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Thompson of Colfax, Washington, spent a few days during the week visiting friends in Ogden.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Maule and brother, David Maule, left during the week for Honolulu, where they will spend the winter months.

Clinton G. Smith of the forest service and stationed at Pocatello, spent a few days in Ogden this week.

Thomas E. McKay, former superintendent of county schools, leaves next week for Europe, where he will have charge of the Swiss and German mission.

The Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church met with E. A. Littlefield on Thursday afternoon.

The annual ball given Friday night by the ladies of the Woodmen of the World and the Electric Workers at the Armory Friday evening was one of the events of the week which was very largely attended.

Dr. W. G. Freidley has returned from an extensive eastern trip, in which he visited most of the principal cities.

Wednesday evening at the Weber club, Lamar Nelson gave a dinner party in honor of Miss Desse Spencer and Alexander W. Walker, at which were present besides the guests of honor Misses Cella MacCreedy and Florence Bohn and Mr. Brigham Robinson of Tintic.

Wednesday afternoon at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. S. Joyce, Miss Frances Joyce gave a luncheon in honor of Miss Desse Spencer, at which about twenty-five young ladies were present.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Ludberg of Idaho Falls spent a few days in Ogden this week, visiting friends.

Brigham Robinson left on Friday for San Francisco, where he will spend a couple of weeks visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Skelly have left for a visit in the east which will cover a period of four weeks.

The marriage of Sadrock G. Winholtz and Miss Jennie Garr was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Garr, north Washington avenue, Monday evening, in the presence of relatives and intimate friends of both parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jackmond and Miss Susie Jackmond have returned to Reno, Nevada, after visiting relatives in Ogden for a week.

Mrs. C. H. Gosling and Miss Emma Herschler left on Tuesday afternoon for San Francisco, from which place they will sail for Manila, where they will spend several months.

Fred G. Taylor, superintendent of the Lo Grande, Oregon, sugar factory, was the guest of L. R. Beckles during the past week.

Miss Margaret Stoops has returned to her home in Logan after having spent the week in Ogden, the guest of Miss Spencer.

PROVO.

One of the prettiest home weddings that has ever taken place in Provo, occurred Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lowe, when they gave their charming daughter, Miss Emma, in marriage to Prof. P. G. Peterson. The ceremony was performed at 5:30 by Dr. George H. Brimhall. Miss Fay Lowe, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and Lieut. Santschi as best man. The bride was attired in an elegant gown of white silk voile over white satin. Miss Fay was attired in a pretty gown of pale green moesline satin. The parlor and reception hall were decorated in ivy and white carnations, while the diningroom was in ferns and pink carnations. Only the relatives of the bride and groom were in attendance, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Peterson and daughter Edith of Preston, Ida, parents and sister of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson are both popular young people of this city, whose friends are numerous by their acquaintance, and who join in wishing the happy young couple a realization of the happiness that appears to be in store for them.

Judge J. E. Booth was a guest at a banquet given in Salt Lake Monday by the supreme judges.

Postmaster Cleave was the guest of Gov. Spuy at a luncheon at the Commercial club rooms in Salt Lake Monday after the inaugural services.

The Utah Sorosis met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Grace Wallick. The afternoon was taken up by Prof. J. L. Barker, who delivered an excellent lecture on "Roman period in French and English Literature."

Mrs. P. C. Peterson entertained at dinner Saturday evening in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Lund of Salt Lake City. Covers were laid for eight.

The Sixth ward Relief society enjoyed a very pleasant social Thursday afternoon at the ward house. An interesting program was listened to and a dainty lunch enjoyed.

Mrs. J. C. Ferrin was the recipient of a delightful surprise party at her home Friday afternoon.

Miss Rosalie Eastmond was the hostess at a little social at her home Thursday evening to the members of the Pricilla club. A pleasant social time was enjoyed by all. Delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Cora Ward has returned home after having spent the holidays with friends in Mount Pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Evans entertained the members of the Trio club at her home Thursday evening. Cards were the feature of the evening. An elaborate lunch was served.

Mrs. E. T. Thome most delightfully entertained the Proctor academy faculty at her home Friday evening at a Progressive Son's Set party.

Mrs. W. S. Rowlings entertained at a dinner party at her home Sunday afternoon. Covers were laid for 15.

Mrs. William D. Roberts Jr., entertained at a bridge party at the Hotel Roberts Wednesday afternoon. Prizes were awarded.

Miss Kate Wood delightfully entertained a number of her young friends at her home Monday evening. Making cards was the feature of the evening, and this together with games and music made a most enjoyable evening.

Miss Sharp of Salt Lake and Miss Helen Smith were the guests of the Misses Zimmerman at luncheon Saturday.

Mrs. Johnnie Bott Jr., entertained at dinner Sunday a number of her young girl friends. Covers were laid for six.

Mr. Howard Alston of Salt Lake spent the latter part of the week with friends in this city.

A NAPOLEON HAT IS JAUNTY.

A real cocked hat will delight the heart of the small girl—especially if the hat is of soft gray squirrel fur, dearly beloved by little folks. These Napoleon bonnets are trimmed very simply with heavy cord loops and white cockades of pompons. Such hats are worn by either the little girl or her small brother, and for girls especially, the jaunty military styles are liked just now. The smartly cut coat of dark velvet is trimmed in simple good taste, with broad bands of silk braid.

Miss Rula Williams of Salt Lake is spending the week with friends in Provo.

Mrs. N. C. Hicks of Salt Lake spent the fore part of the week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. James P. Dunn, in Provo.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Pierpont celebrated their sixteenth wedding anniversary Monday evening at their

DISCOUNTS.

Diamonds and Diamond Jewelry, 20%
Watches 20%
Gold and Plated Jewelry 20%
Silverware, all kinds, 20%, except
Sterling Flatware
Leather Goods 50%
Clocks 50%
Toilet Articles 25%
Brass, Bronze and Copper Wares 33 1/3%
Electric Lamps 25%
Cut Glass 33 1/3%
Fans 25%
Silver Card Cases 25%

ROGERS' 1847 FLATWARE

On Monday morning we offer one pattern—the Vesta—of Rogers' 1847 brand Silver in two qualities (A1 and Triple) at prices that follow. Pattern illustrated.

Tea Spoons, A-1 Plate $1.10 set of 6—We have in stock 4 DOZEN
Tea Spoons, Triple Plate $1.50 set of 6—We have in stock 11 DOZEN
Dessert Spoons, A-1 Plate $2.00 set of 6—We have in stock 4 DOZEN
Dessert Spoons, Triple Plate $2.50 set of 6—We have in stock 3 DOZEN
Table Spoons, A-1 Plate $2.25 set of 6—We have in stock 6 DOZEN
Table Spoons, Triple Plate $2.95 set of 6—We have in stock 5 1/2 DOZEN
Table Forks, A-1 Plate $2.25 set of 6—We have in stock 7 DOZEN
Table Forks, Triple Plate $2.95 set of 6—We have in stock 6 1/2 DOZEN
Dessert Forks, A-1 Plate $2.00 set of 6—We have in stock 7 DOZEN
Dessert Forks, Triple Plate $2.50 set of 6—We have in stock 6 DOZEN

Hollow Handle Dessert Knives, Triple Plate $3.50 set of 6—We have in stock 3 DOZEN.
Hollow Handle Table Knives, Triple Plate $4.00 set of 6—We have in stock 3 1/2 DOZEN.

These goods are the best plated goods we ever carry, and we fully guarantee the quality

50 QUADRUPLE-PLATED BREAD TRAYS $1.50

We have fifty (50) full size beautifully designed quadruple plated BREAD TRAYS, which we will sell Monday Morning, at $1.50 each net.

Notice our discounts and consider the fact that right now every line in our great establishment (with three exceptions) is subject to either 20-25-33 1/3% or 50% from our regular one-price in plain figure prices.

Our ONE-PRICE means LOW PRICE, and our name stands for quality—a combination of facts undisputed in this Inter-Mountain country. These low prices now are still lower, but the quality remains the same.

A Leyson sale is a feast for the clever buyer.

The Vesta.

Phone 65 for the Correct Time.

Leyson
JEWELERS.
236 MAIN ST.
SALT LAKE CITY.

Then Come and Feed The Elephants.

It Tastes Good and Creates Strength

Vinol

the famous cod liver and iron medicine, without oil. Vinol is much better than cod liver oil and emulsions, because, while it contains all the medicinal value they do, it disagrees with no one. As a body builder and strength creator for old people, delicate children, after sickness, and for stubborn coughs and colds Vinol is unequalled.

SMITH DRUG CO., Also, DRUGS AND FRANKEN, DRUGGISTS, Salt Lake City, Utah.