

INDIANA STRONG FOR FAIRBANKS

Delegation to Republican National Convention is Instructed To Work for Him.

ADMINISTRATION ENDORSED.

Platform Favors Modification of Financial System But No Particular Measure.

Urges Revision of the Tariff by a Special Session of Congress to be Called Early in November.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 2.—With the organization completed at its first session yesterday afternoon, the Indiana Republican state convention today adopted its platform, elected four delegates at large to the national convention, and two national electors at large, instructed the 30 Indiana delegates to the national convention to vote and work persistently for the nomination of Vice President Charles Warren Fairbanks for the presidency of the United States, and nominated a state ticket.

The platform adopted in addition to instructing for Vice President Fairbanks, endorses President Roosevelt's administration, opposes corporation contributions to campaign funds, favors economy in public expenditures, especially mentioning the army and navy; favors a modification of the financial system without mentioning any particular measure; urges a progressive program of labor legislation; pledges a complete reduction of capitalistic commission in the interest of trade, commerce and the general welfare of the people, and urges a revision of the tariff by a special session of Congress to be called early in November with the recommendation that Congress take immediate steps to secure the proper data by experts. Extension of foreign mail service on the basis is favored as is the extension of foreign trade, especially with South America. A bureau of mines and geology is urged and water ways improvement is recommended. The abolition of child labor is demanded. Among the important state issues is plank favoring a local option law for the county as a unit, the law to be in addition to and supplemental the present laws regulating the liquor traffic.

TARIFF PLANK.

The tariff plank was written by the Indiana Fairbanks. The plank endorsing child labor and endorsing President Roosevelt, were written by Senator Beveridge. Several other planks are written by Senator Hemmeyer.

The delegates were late in coming on account of the great snow. The four candidates for governor were chosen as they took seats on the stage, as were Gov. Hanly and the two United States senators.

The report of the resolutions committee read by President Elmer E. Brown, of Franklin College, chairman of the committee. The names of President Roosevelt, Vice President Fairbanks, Senators Beveridge and Hemmeyer, Gov. Hanly were greeted with rounds of applause.

THE PLATFORM.

The platform as read and adopted, reads:

"We unreservedly and enthusiastically endorse the administration of Theodore Roosevelt. Upon his initiative and his guidance the Panama canal has been begun and is rapidly being driven to completion. Upon his recommendation Congress has passed many laws which secure many rights to the people and insure that honesty in business may be done permanent prosperity is built.

"President Roosevelt's fearless and impartial enforcement of the law, regard for the health and power of the law, and his respect for law than for the reverence of and respect for law than reverence, but also has quickened the sense of the nation.

"The Indiana Fairbanks' voice the opinion of the great majority of the people and all parties, congratulate President Roosevelt on his administration of the country's affairs and pledge our continued support of his policy.

"The Republican party notes with pleasure the growing determination to remove political corruption from the government, and the same originates; and to the end that the party may respond to that sentiment we oppose the contribution to political parties for campaign purposes by corporations of the state or nation, or by officers or persons in behalf of such corporations, and we hereby commend the Indiana Republican state central committee for its refusal to accept contributions from corporations within or without the state.

FINANCIAL RECOMMENDATIONS.

"We favor such modifications of our financial system as will supply the growing needs of industry and commerce with a sufficient currency to meet the needs of the country; we are so anxious that there shall be no gold, and we congratulate the country on the fact that the Congress of the United States is now engaged in the consideration of this great problem.

"We also favor such regulations regarding the banking system as will secure and maintain confidence in the integrity of our banking institutions.

RAILROAD REGULATION.

"We approve the laws enacted for the proper regulation of the railroads and the combination of capital and we urge the party to all additional legislation necessary to complete regulation of trade or commerce, and in the interest of the general welfare of the people.

TARIFF REVISION.

"The last convention of the Republican party in the state of Indiana declared in favor of revision of the tariff and that revision would do more than harm. The revision was never made. The time-honored doctrine that tariff always be discrimination in

THREE PERSONS PERISH IN FIRE

Fifteen Injured, and Lives of Nearly a Hundred Were in The Greatest Peril.

TENEMENT HOUSE BURNED.

Prompt Action of Policemen Prevented Further Sacrifice of Life—Firemen Effected Rescues.

BUREAU OF MINES.

"We favor the extension of the United States mail service over the surrounding seas, in the interest of the public business and the establishment and extension of foreign trade, especially with South America, but we would limit the appropriation therefor to legitimate services in carrying the mails on the ocean in the same manner as for carrying the mails on land.

"We solicit the Indiana delegation to Congress to support the pending proposal of establishing a bureau of mines and mining in the interest of preservation of human life.

"We favor the settlement of all international differences by arbitration and also favor arbitration in the settlement of disputes between capital and labor.

"We favor a system, progressive and liberal improvement of our canals, rivers and harbors and an adequate annual appropriation for their improvement. We favor the continuation and extension of the reclamation service of which the arid lands of the United States are made productive.

SLAVERY OF CHILDREN.

"In great sections of the country a system of actual slavery of children exists, revolting to the human mind. Every power of the nation should be exercised to end it everywhere in the republic. The children of the country are its chief wealth and its hope and we demand that Congress take prompt action to end child labor throughout the entire nation.

INDIANA'S CANDIDATE.

"We know him. Distinguished place and high commission have revealed his worth. His character, public service, and ability are such as to deserve the thoughtful consideration of the convention.

"He believes in the principles of the party, its present purposes. He has been identified with its work, and has for years borne a distinguished part in its national direction, and he is in council. His judgment is deliberate and sound. He possesses a steadfast purpose, and conservative courage. His heart is kind, his sympathies sincere and broad, and his sense of justice exact, equal and abiding. His private life is pure; his home life ideal; his public life unblemished.

"For these reasons we instruct the delegates at large, elected by this convention, and the district delegates heretofore elected, to present his name to the national convention, and to use every effort to secure his nomination as the Republican choice for the next presidency."

STATE ISSUES.

On state issues the platform indorses Governor Hanly, Thomas H. Hanly, S. New, of the Republican national convention, United States Senators Beveridge and Hemmeyer, and Chairman Goodrich of the state committee. It indorses the next legislature pass a practical primary election law and a law regulating the use of public franchises and the suppression of fictitious corporations. Secy. Smith's liquor plank is a strong demand for local option, in addition to the present laws, with the county as a unit.

One of the most enthusiastic demonstrations of the day greeted the endorsement of Harry S. New, chairman of the Republican national committee, who occupied a seat as a delegate from Marion county.

NOMINATIONS.

Nominations for state officers were then called for. Six candidates had no opposition for a senatorial nomination, but present state officers, and they were nominated by acclamation. They were:

For Secretary of State—Fred A. Sims, Frankfort.

For Auditor of State—John C. Billheimer, Washington.

For Treasurer of State—Oscar Hadley, Plainfield.

For Attorney General—James Bingham, Muncie.

For Reporter of the Supreme Court—George W. Self, Corydon.

For Judge of Appellate Court—David M. Green, Evansville.

The 25 district national delegates selected Feb. 4, at district meetings, were elected and United States Senators Albert J. Beveridge and James A. Hemmeyer, and Chairman James P. Goodrich, of the state committee, were elected national delegates at large.

The names of James E. Watson of Russellville, Charles W. Miller of Goshen, William T. Taylor of Indianapolis, and Hugh T. Miller of Columbus, were presented to the convention for the nomination for governor.

POPULIST CONVENTION

Determination of Nebraska, Minnesota and Michigan to Bolt if Nomination Program Goes Unaltered.

St. Louis, April 2.—The Populist national convention which was called for 10 a. m. today, was somewhat behind that hour in commencing proceedings. The determination of Nebraska, Minnesota and Michigan to bolt the convention if the program of making nominations is carried out, was unaltered today. E. A. Waltrich, secretary of the Nebraska state central committee, said today:

"We do not propose to be trampled on, and we are going to fight for our rights. We claim to represent more than pure populists than any other state. We will not be a party to any nomination and if they are made, and if an adjournment is not taken, we will leave the convention."

The convention came to order shortly before 11 o'clock, about 300 delegates being present. After an invocation by Rev. Thomas Wadsworth of Indiana, the formal proceedings were begun by James H. Ferris of Joliet, the chairman of the national committee.

Gen. Ferris made an address of some length.

CAMPBELL-BANNERMAN.

London, April 2.—Premier Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, backed by a tight and there is no material change in his condition.

THREE PERSONS PERISH IN FIRE

Fifteen Injured, and Lives of Nearly a Hundred Were in The Greatest Peril.

TENEMENT HOUSE BURNED.

Prompt Action of Policemen Prevented Further Sacrifice of Life—Firemen Effected Rescues.

BUREAU OF MINES.

"We favor the extension of the United States mail service over the surrounding seas, in the interest of the public business and the establishment and extension of foreign trade, especially with South America, but we would limit the appropriation therefor to legitimate services in carrying the mails on the ocean in the same manner as for carrying the mails on land.

"We solicit the Indiana delegation to Congress to support the pending proposal of establishing a bureau of mines and mining in the interest of preservation of human life.

"We favor the settlement of all international differences by arbitration and also favor arbitration in the settlement of disputes between capital and labor.

"We favor a system, progressive and liberal improvement of our canals, rivers and harbors and an adequate annual appropriation for their improvement. We favor the continuation and extension of the reclamation service of which the arid lands of the United States are made productive.

SLAVERY OF CHILDREN.

"In great sections of the country a system of actual slavery of children exists, revolting to the human mind. Every power of the nation should be exercised to end it everywhere in the republic. The children of the country are its chief wealth and its hope and we demand that Congress take prompt action to end child labor throughout the entire nation.

INDIANA'S CANDIDATE.

"We know him. Distinguished place and high commission have revealed his worth. His character, public service, and ability are such as to deserve the thoughtful consideration of the convention.

"He believes in the principles of the party, its present purposes. He has been identified with its work, and has for years borne a distinguished part in its national direction, and he is in council. His judgment is deliberate and sound. He possesses a steadfast purpose, and conservative courage. His heart is kind, his sympathies sincere and broad, and his sense of justice exact, equal and abiding. His private life is pure; his home life ideal; his public life unblemished.

"For these reasons we instruct the delegates at large, elected by this convention, and the district delegates heretofore elected, to present his name to the national convention, and to use every effort to secure his nomination as the Republican choice for the next presidency."

STATE ISSUES.

On state issues the platform indorses Governor Hanly, Thomas H. Hanly, S. New, of the Republican national convention, United States Senators Beveridge and Hemmeyer, and Chairman Goodrich of the state committee. It indorses the next legislature pass a practical primary election law and a law regulating the use of public franchises and the suppression of fictitious corporations. Secy. Smith's liquor plank is a strong demand for local option, in addition to the present laws, with the county as a unit.

One of the most enthusiastic demonstrations of the day greeted the endorsement of Harry S. New, chairman of the Republican national committee, who occupied a seat as a delegate from Marion county.

NOMINATIONS.

Nominations for state officers were then called for. Six candidates had no opposition for a senatorial nomination, but present state officers, and they were nominated by acclamation. They were:

For Secretary of State—Fred A. Sims, Frankfort.

For Auditor of State—John C. Billheimer, Washington.

For Treasurer of State—Oscar Hadley, Plainfield.

For Attorney General—James Bingham, Muncie.

For Reporter of the Supreme Court—George W. Self, Corydon.

For Judge of Appellate Court—David M. Green, Evansville.

The 25 district national delegates selected Feb. 4, at district meetings, were elected and United States Senators Albert J. Beveridge and James A. Hemmeyer, and Chairman James P. Goodrich, of the state committee, were elected national delegates at large.

The names of James E. Watson of Russellville, Charles W. Miller of Goshen, William T. Taylor of Indianapolis, and Hugh T. Miller of Columbus, were presented to the convention for the nomination for governor.

POPULIST CONVENTION

Determination of Nebraska, Minnesota and Michigan to Bolt if Nomination Program Goes Unaltered.

St. Louis, April 2.—The Populist national convention which was called for 10 a. m. today, was somewhat behind that hour in commencing proceedings. The determination of Nebraska, Minnesota and Michigan to bolt the convention if the program of making nominations is carried out, was unaltered today. E. A. Waltrich, secretary of the Nebraska state central committee, said today:

"We do not propose to be trampled on, and we are going to fight for our rights. We claim to represent more than pure populists than any other state. We will not be a party to any nomination and if they are made, and if an adjournment is not taken, we will leave the convention."

The convention came to order shortly before 11 o'clock, about 300 delegates being present. After an invocation by Rev. Thomas Wadsworth of Indiana, the formal proceedings were begun by James H. Ferris of Joliet, the chairman of the national committee.

Gen. Ferris made an address of some length.

CAMPBELL-BANNERMAN.

London, April 2.—Premier Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, backed by a tight and there is no material change in his condition.

Special Conference Edition Saturday

The Saturday News this week will be unusually attractive. It will be a special conference edition, containing the proceedings in detail of the first day of conference in the tabernacle. It will have besides all the exclusive features which make the Deseret News notable from week to week.

ATTACK ALDRICH BILL

Some of Most Powerful Financial Interests in the Country Enter Into Combination Against It.

Chicago, April 2.—A combined attack upon the Aldrich currency bill by some of the most powerful financial interests in the country will be the outcome of an important conference of national bank presidents held in Chicago last night. The "crude," were some of the adjectives applied to parts of the measure as it now stands, and it was unanimously agreed that every effort be made to prevent its passage by the house of representatives in its present form.

New York and St. Louis bankers will be called upon to give their aid in combating the measure, and with unified action on the part of the financiers of three cities it is expected a formidable showing against the bill will be made when the house committee on banking and currency begins its hearings on the proposed law next Wednesday.

The meeting was held in the office of President James B. Forgan of the Chicago National city bank, and was attended by nearly every president of a national bank in Chicago. Amendments tacked on to the bill at almost the last minute before it passed the upper house formed the basis for criticisms of it.

Without a dissenting vote, the bankers declared that the following provisions should be vigorously opposed: Increasing the amount of cash reserves banks must keep in the vaults. Prohibiting banks loaning money to concerns in which their officers or directors are interested.

President Forgan and President Geo. E. Roberts of the Commercial National bank, were appointed a committee to draft a statement of the bankers' objections to the bill and forward copies to both houses of Congress as well as to President Roosevelt.

MAY NOW USE CARS

Telegraph and Traction Companies Reach Settlement of Troublesome Problem—Conducts In 60 Days.

The Western Union Telegraph company and the Utah Light & Railway company have adjusted matters so that the running of the new cars over any lines in the city may be begun at once. This result was accomplished after a trial run over the city this morning with one of the big cars, aboard being Manager A. W. Long of the Western Union company's local office and Supt. S. E. Leonard and C. L. McKean of Denver, of the construction department of the company, and Messrs. Honnold, Hunt, Scott and Wells of the Utah Light & Railway company.

The trip demonstrated the fact that the cars may run over the lines and around curves in the business section with a clearance of four inches. This, under ordinary conditions, it is believed, would be sufficient, but in the event of unfavorable conditions, the company desires at least a clearance of six inches. To give this amount of leeway temporarily, the telegraph company has agreed to shave four inches from portions of its poles and to remove the poles at South Temple and Main streets. This will remove all conditions that might be against the convenient passage of the cars over the lines, in the heart of the city. At South Temple and Main streets, where two poles are to be removed, the telegraph line will be transferred to the electric light poles. The Utah Light & Railway company until the underground conduits are put into commission. Mr. Long of the Western Union company, stated this morning that within about six months all poles will be removed, the transfer of the cables of the company to be effected in the meantime. The Western Union pole lines run from South Temple street south to Third Street. At Third Street and at South Temple the lines then run west from the intersections with Main street.

GEO. SILER REGAINS POSSESSION OF ROSIE SILER

Chicago, April 2.—George Siler, known as a referee of prize fights yesterday regained possession of Rosie Siler, 7-year-old, who since last October had made her home with Mrs. F. T. Bennett, 749 Warren avenue. The girl voluntarily went to the Siler home. This will nullify habeas corpus proceedings pending before Judge Kavanaugh.

The girl is an orphan who was left with Mrs. Bennett, while Siler was on a tour of the world. She preferred living with Mrs. Bennett and the court continued the matter until April.

The girl's parents it is said, were killed in the San Francisco earthquake. When the Silers went to Florida they left her in the care of Mrs. Bennett. The girl refused to live with the Silers and habeas corpus proceedings were brought.

KILLED IN A LOS ANGELES STREET CAR COLLISION

Los Angeles, Cal., April 2.—Two cars on the Los Angeles-Pacific road between Los Angeles and Santa Monica collided head-on in a dense fog at 6:30 this morning, killing one man, seriously injuring half a dozen others and leaving 29 passengers in such condition that they were obliged to receive hospital treatment.

The dead man's name is unknown. He was an oil worker on his way to a friend's home near Sherman. Near the injured were passengers on the Sherman bound car and it is presumed that all were employed at the oil fields.

The accident occurred on Sixteenth street, between the station and the oil workers were on the outward-bound car, which appears to have had the right of way. The in-bound car was on the same track and the fog was so dense that the men from seeing the other car until it was too late to stop.

"COIN SWEATER" IN COURT TODAY

Secret Service Men Tell How They Tracked Gregory Around Town.

SHADOWED AT EVERY TURN.

Methods of Making Money Out of Money Set Forth by Uncle Sam's Detectives.

When U. S. Commissioner Baldwin called a recess at 12:30 this morning in the Gregory "coin sweating" hearing the government had built up a most damaging case against the Salt Lake. William McCrea, assistant United States district attorney, had the examination of witnesses in charge, although Dist. Atty. H. E. Booth conducted the questioning. The defendant is being represented by the firm of Bailey & Vickery, with Mr. Bailey in charge of the defense. Mr. Bailey is the young lawyer who jumped into prominence through his extraordinary intonations in the Sullivan case.

Mr. Bailey was on the alert every second for something which might be put in favor of his client. Mr. McCrea brought out evidence in a masterly way.

The hearing is most interesting. It is revealing methods of making money out of money without making the first money valueless. It is also revealing the methods of secret services. When one—which must be admitted the most perfect and thoroughly efficient of any. No detective tale could be more interesting than the stories told by two government men this morning as they narrated their relentless, tireless tracking of a man suspected of committing a crime against law and Uncle Sam.

FACES FOUR COUNTS.

Gregory faces four counts. The first is a charge of passing a defaced coin on August 1907; the second, passing a defaced coin on Hans Jepperson; the third, passing a defaced coin on the otherwise altered coin in the county jail yesterday. For these four counts Gregory would serve 20 years if convicted and given the limit. Mr. Gregory visited her husband in the county jail yesterday. The meeting was a pathetic one but the wife's loyalty and faithfulness cheered Gregory. She was in the courtroom this morning. Deputy United States Marshal Smith brought Gregory in, man and wife clasped hands; tears came to their eyes and after a minute together the husband was taken to the cell in front of the commissioner's desk.

The prosecution's witnesses were sworn together. Among these are Harry P. Richardson, government secret service man; William W. Fraser, his assistant; Herman Harms, state chemist; Charles C. Crismon, chemist; August Osterl, bartender in the Plaza saloon; Hans Jepperson, bartender in the Union saloon; and a number of other witnesses.

STORY OF DETECTIVE.

Harry B. Richardson was the first called. His story in substance was as follows: "On March 21, I saw Gregory at 12:30 at his home, 234 North Fifth west street. He came up town, I following. At first he was accompanied, but the pair separated on Second street. Gregory was walking, and I, close behind him. He entered the Union saloon at 73 east Second South. I did too. He bought a glass of beer. He did not. He threw a $5 gold coin across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen Gregory walking in the cash drawer. He told me he didn't. I asked him, then, to mark the coin, having explained things to him. He put H. P. on the coin, and I marked it across the bar and received $4.95 change in silver. I asked the bartender for the five, giving him a $10 bill. I got the 'five' and silver back. I asked the bartender, Mr. Jepperson, if he had seen