SCHROFULA

Few are entirely free from it. It may develop so slowly as to escape little if any disturbance during childhood. It may then produce dyspepsia, asthenia, and marked tendency to consumption before manifesting itself in such cutaneous eruptions or glandular swelling.

It is best to know that you are quite free from it, and you can rely on:

Hood's Sarsaparilla

to rid you of it radically and permanently. In usual liquid form or in circular tablets known as Sarsatabs. 100 Doses $1.00. Manufactured under Food and Drugs Act, June 30, 1906, No. 224.

BATTERED MACHINIST.

Jones Walks Into Police Station in Demolished and Dazed Condition.

A trainload of flour, consisting of 25 cars of the life-preserving cereal product, is now speeding its way across the continent for the relief of the famine stricken people of China. Started on its way from Minneapolis by the generosity of the Northwestern railroad expressed by its president Marvin Chapman, the train has safely made its way across mountain and plain until today it has arrived at Green River station in Wyoming.

The train is making fast freight time and is handled by a special crew equipment west of Omaha furnished by the Harriman system. No stops will be made except for taking on water and supplies. The express car is to be detached from the train as it reaches Ogden, and thence to Ogden and west over the Southern Pacific, but this only hindered the progress of the train for a matter of about ten hours. It is expected to arrive at Green River as it is scheduled to take place at noon today and the flour will, according to present calculations, pass through Ogden on its way west tomorrow. The special transport Beaufort, furnished by the government to move the flour out of San Francisco and carry it to the Pacific to the starving natives of China, will leave that port on April 30th.

Meanwhile the flour donated by the church and millers of this city is being gathered up, and will be sent forward in due time.

WILL RESUME TRAFFIC TODAY.

Landslide at Aspen Tunnel Practically Cleared of Debris.

According to all calculations, the track in front of the Aspen tunnel in Wyoming will be cleared for traffic today. General Superintendent of the Short Line came in from San Francisco yesterday and proceeded at once to the scene of the landslide, while Vice President and General Manager Bancroft and Ass't General Super't J. M. Davis were already on the spot, directing the cleanup up operations. The tunnel has been dynamited, and the debris will be removed via McCallum and Granger, but no freight has been moved east or west since the cave in. All the sidetracks in the vicinity of Aspen are being filled with loaded cars, and a freight blockade of considerable proportions has been created which will take some little time to get off the way.

It is expected the debris will all be cleared away so that regular traffic may be resumed this afternoon, however.

TWO INFANTS IN DIVORCE COURT

Sad Story of a Couple Who Were Married at a Tender Age.

MOTHER-IN-LAW IN EVIDENCE.

Herman A. Kramer Comes Home and Finds Wife's Mother Occupying His Bed and Board.

The marital troubles of two children who were married at the tender age of 17 years and lived together for three years were aired in Judge Morse's court today when the divorce case of Selma May Reiser Kramer against Herman A. Kramer was heard. Mrs. Kramer charges her young husband with cruelty. She complained that he treated her with indifference around their home and was at times harsh with her. She stated on the witness stand today that her husband became very angry at her because she refused to give him coffee for dinner for the reason that she thought it was injurious to his health. It also appears that the wife's mother took a hand in the matter and has probably caused some differences between the young couple.

On one occasion Kramer asked his wife to accompany him out to the park in the evening. She refused to go, so he went alone. Upon his return he found his mother-in-law occupying his place in the bed and she refused to vacate in his favor. On one occasion he turned around very suddenly while his wife was embracing him and she was thrown to the floor.

In the second argumentation of his part, they quarreled over trifling affairs and the mother-in-law would interfere in her daughter's behalf and on one occasion she declared that they would never get along together because they were not compatible.

Dance at Saltair Tonight.—The Saltair management expects fully 1,500 people on there this evening on the occasion of the second dance of the season. Carpenter who has moved to this city, and at Park City he disposed of $10,000 worth of property belonging to Mr. Carpenter, including Maple Hall. The Salt Lake Security & Trust company of this city bought the hall.

Ray and Mr. Sydman of Chicago, will give its second annual banquet tomorrow night, at the Commercial Club to the representatives of the canning interests of the state, and to the manufacturers of malt liquors including R. COURT NOTES.

Les C. Snedaker today filed a petition in the probate division of the district court asking for letters of administration of the estate of Joseph W. Snedaker, who died in Michigan on April 1, 1883. The estate consists of an interest in mining property in this country.

Judge Elihu B. French rendered judgment by stipulation for the amount of $1,000 in favor of John Girard against the Union Pacific Railroad company for the sum of $1,000. Girard sued for $5,000 damages for the burning of his wife's corpse while he was taking it to Montreal. Canadian banker, Mrs. Girard died in Canada before April 4, 1906, and her husband started to take her body back to Canada for burial. The baggage car was wrecked and burned up with it the corpse.

The present scale of wages is: 2½ cents an hour for the first year of service, 2½ cents an hour for the second year, 3½ cents an hour for the third, and 4½ cents an hour for every year thereafter.

In conversation this morning one of the officials of the company said that the men are to receive $7.50 to $8.00 per month, as they now receive $7.50 to $8.00 per month, as they work every day, and during the rush of the lake season, when extra hours are worked, some men are given $10.00 per month. There are many clerks in the stores who work for $8.00 per month, and yet are able to support families, and if they can do this, why not receive more than their present wages? There is no disposition on either side to get excited, and there are no indications visible of any suggestions of trouble.

GOLDFIELD LABOR SITUATION UNCHANGED.

Goldfield, Nev., April 12.—The labor question remains unchanged. For two days no move has been made toward another joint conference of the contending forces. The miners still hold the situation, and the ore men are still at the same point during the trouble, and are busy tying up the few remaining business houses who are employing Industrial Workers. The few remaining business houses who are employing Industrial Workers of the World are holding out the same footing when the mines are re-opened, as there may be no boycott caused by competition with the anti-industrial workers of the World movement.
