WEBER STAKE CORPORATION.

Will Organize Under Laws of the State for Greater Facility In Business.

STAKE PRIESTHOOD REUNION.

Will be Held in Fifth Ward Meeting-house June 12, Beginning at 11 A. M.

Ogden, June 4.—At a meeting of the members of the Priesthood of the Weber stake held Saturday afternoon after the regular monthly Priesthood meeting it was unanimously decided to incorporate the Weber stake into a corporation to be known as the Weber stake corporation. This action was taken under the laws of 1903 as passed by the state Legislature which provides that ecclesiastical bodies may incorporate, and by so doing officers are elected and they hold the property of the Church for the Church, and at any time when an officer dies or is removed from a position his successor is selected or appointed by filing a certificate of appointment assumes control of the position to which appointed the same as in any other corporation. It was also decided by resolution to transfer the Weber stake academy and Ogden tabernacle square to President L. W. Shurtliff to hold until the corporation is fully organized and completed when he will transfer the same to the Weber stake corporation.

A number of the stakes throughout the Church have followed out this plan of incorporating and find it to be much better. Most of the wards in the Weber stake are incorporated.

STAKE PRIESTHOOD REUNION.

The presidency of the stake also announced that on June 12, a reunion of the Priesthood of the stake will be held at the Fifth ward meetinghouse and institute beginning at 11 o'clock in the morning. An invitation to be present has been extended to the High Council, Patriarchs, Bishops of wards and counselors, High Priests, aorum, presidents and superintendents of all the auxiliary organizations of the stake together with their wives. A special invitation to the Presidency of the Church and Apostles has been sent, several hundred will be in attendance at the reunion.

WOODMEN MEMORIAL.

Annual Unveiling Ceremonies at Graves of Their Dead.

Ogden, June 4.—The annual ceremonies of the Woodmen of the World in unveiling monuments at the graves of their dead fellow lodgemen, took place in Ogden yesterday, when monuments erected in memory of Thomas Wiggins, Chester Shurtliff and W. H. Biel were unveiled with impressive ceremonies. The members of the lodge assembled at their hall at 2 o'clock and formed a line four abreast ready to march to the Ogden City cemetery. A platoon of policemen and members of the sheriff's department led the procession, followed by Nichols band, the lodge degree team carrying a large flag, several little girls dressed in white and then the members of the lodge, several hundred strong, wended their way to the city of the dead, to the time of sweet strains of music played by the band. The unveiling ritual was read by members of the order, and the band played solemn strains of music, and the graves of all the deceased members of the order were bedecked with beautiful flowers. The three young men, whose monuments were unveiled yesterday laid down life's burdens during the past year.

SUES FOR LOSS OF AN EYE.

Ogden, June 4.—A $15,000 damage suit has been commenced in the Second district court by J. C. O'Neil against the Rio Grande Western Railroad company, alleged to be due for the loss of an eye. The complaint sets forth that O'Neil was employed in the defendant company's machine shops in Salt Lake City as machinist in October, 1905, that in performing a piece of work which required the assistance of an apprentice, he was given an incompetent boy who, in wielding a large hammer struck plaintiff a heavy blow on the eye, breaking the glasses he wore, and pieces of the glass were forced into his eye, destroying the same, that through the loss of his eye he will be unable to perform machine work, and has been damaged in the sum mentioned, for which he asks judgment.

OPERATION TO RESTORE SANITY

David Jenkins Has Skull Trepanned by Local Surgeons And Rallies Nicely.

MIND AFFECTED FROM A KICK.

Was Brought by Parents From Mental Hospital and His Recovery Assured.

Ogden, June 4.—The skull of David Jenkins, oldest son of Washington Jenkins, was trepanned Saturday afternoon at the Ogden General hospital by Drs. Rich and Osgood and Dr. Forbes, in the hope of restoring the young man to perfect sanity. Mr. Jenkins was kicked on the head several years ago by a horse, which caused a depression in his skull. This affected his brain so that at times he was not sane, and was a short time ago sent to the State Mental hospital for treatment, but did not seem to improve, hence his parents had him brought home, as the physicians believed that an operation would restore his mind. He revived from the operation, and appears to be very bright, giving much encouragement to all concerned, and hopes of his entire recovery are entertained.

AFTER FRANCHISE.

Utah Gas & Coke Co. Will Make Application to Council.

Ogden, June 4.—At the meeting of the Ogden city council tonight application for a franchise will be made by George A. Snow, vice president of the Utah Gas and Coke company in behalf of the company for a franchise to erect a large gas plant in this city and to lay gas mains throughout the city, to furnish the public with gas for light and fuel purposes. The company proposes if the franchise is granted to expend upwards of $1,000,000 in Ogden in getting the plant and mains established and will furnish gas at the rate of $1.09 per 1,000 feet. Mr. Snow and another representative of the company have been in Ogden for over a week past preparing the application for a franchise.

FUNERAL OF MRS. WATKINS.

Impressive funeral services over the remains of Mrs. E. J. Watkins were held at the Fourth ward meetinghouse yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Bishop E. T. Woolley presiding. The ward choir, a quartet, Orson Griffin and Mary Farley furnished some sweet and appropriate music. The speakers were President Wm. Waddoups of Benson stake presidency, Bishop Woolley, Elders R. A. Hendricks, C. H. Greenwell, and H. W. Gwilliam, who paid a beautiful tribute to the memory of the deceased, whom they characterized as a true daughter of God, a faithful wife and a kind friend, whose life's work was made up of deeds of goodness.

The attendance at the services was very large and a wealth of floral tributes covered the casket. Interment took place in the Ogden city cemetery. Six of deceased's brothers acted as pallbearers.

TOWN IN GALA ATTIRE.

The decorations for the convention of United Commercial Travelers' association to be held here this week did not fail to outdo any previous effort to place the city in holiday attire. Already many of the business houses have decorated their windows with the lodge colors, white, blue and orange, and many badges of these colors are being worn by both ladies and gentlemen. The Utah Light and Railway company has a large force of men at work who will be busy night and day until Thursday placing wires and colored lights throughout the principal parts of the city. Over 4,000 16-candle power lights will be strung on the business streets, giving a pretty effect. At the intersection of Washington avenue and Twenty-fifth street an electric sign has been placed bearing the inscription "Welcome U. C. T."

WARD MINSTREL SHOW.

All those who attend the Second ward minstrel show this afternoon at 2:30 and evening at 8 o'clock, also Tuesday evening are assured an evening's laughter, besides the proceeds will be used to defray the ward expenses. The amusing program will be rendered under the direction of Mrs. John L. Herrick.

FISH NOT INJURED BY STORM.

Joseph Barker owner of one of the large fish hatcheries located at Huntsville, Weber county, says that the report which was circulated that the recent high waters of the Ogden river and the heavy rain storm had greatly damaged his hatchery is an error, as he did not lose any fish from the same, but is pleased to report that the fish industry is rapidly growing and bids fair to become one of the great industries in this country.

WEDDING PERMITS.

Licenses to wed were granted by the county clerk to the following couples: E. R. Thomas, principal of the Five Points school, and Miss Gertrude White, a popular public school teacher. They will spend their honeymoon in the east.

Otto Grass of Omaha, Neb., and Miss Grace M. Noyes of Hastings, Neb.

BRIEFS AND PERSONALS.

The proprietors of the Elephant, Elite and Palstaff cafes were arrested by the police yesterday for running a card slot machine in their places of business.

The baseball game to be played tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Glenwood hall grounds between the Ogden policemen and the Salt Lake Boulders promises to be an interesting game.

This evening, at 1:30 o'clock, the alumni of the Ogden High school, with the graduating class and a few friends, will meet at the Broom hotel corner, whence they will take carriages and drive to the Hermitage in Ogden canyon, where the reception to the graduates is to be held.

John Cottam, who was arrested on the charge of embezzling from Fred Hillman has been released from custody on $500 bail.

Special Correspondence. Provo, June 4.—Mrs. Susanna Proctor Talmage, wife of Dr. J. J. Talmage of the Fifth ward, died Saturday evening at 11:30 o'clock from an affection of the heart, complicated with other ailments. The deceased was the daughter of George and Sarah Martin Preater, and was born in Lanbourne, Berkshire, England, July 12, 1838; she was married Aug. 14, 1859 to Dr. J. J. Talmage, and became a member of the "Mormon" church in May, 1868. In 1876 the family emigrated to Utah, and has since lived in this city. Mrs. Talmage was devoted Latter-day Saint and an affectionate wife and mother. Before coming to Utah she was the wife of the Talmages was a home in the Elders, by whom they are held in loving remembrance for the kindness they extended to them while on missions. Mrs. Talmage was a woman of kindly, sympathetic nature and made warm friends of all her acquaintances. She was also possessed of strong intellectual abilities, which are reflected in her children, one of whom is Dr. J. E. Talmage of the University of Utah, another Miss Susie Talmage, is a student at the Columbia university, New York. A son, George, is on a mission in New Zealand. Her husband, eight children, 29 grand children and one great grand child survive her. Three children have died.

Dr. J. E. Talmage arrived in Salt Lake today from a trip. He had no intimation of his mother's illness, to say nothing of the fact that she had passed away, until his arrival home, on a belated train. The eldest daughter of the deceased is Mrs. Edward Harding, the youngest daughter is Miss Mary Downs. The date of funeral will be fixed after word is received from the daughter

DEATH OF JOHN M. JOHNSON.

John M. Johnson, for many years employed by the Denver & Rio Grande as section foreman, formerly at Fairview and of late years here, died yesterday morning from lung trouble and a complication of other ailments. Mr. Johnson was a native of North Carolina, but has been a resident of Utah for many years, and was about 50 years of age. He was a highly respected citizen. A wife and seven children survive him. Funeral services will be held Tuesday in the Congregational church, beginning at 2 p. m.

PETER STUBBS' FUNERAL.

There was a large attendance at the funeral services held in the tabernacle yesterday over the remains of Peter Stubbs, many relatives and friends coming from other towns to attend. The speakers were Bishop O. H. Berg, who also read a biographical sketch of deceased. Elder Joseph Birch of American Fork, an old-time business associate of Mr. Stubbs; Elder S. S. Jones, President David John, Bishop John R. Hindley of American Fork, and Harry Wride of Payson, each of whom spoke words of consolation to the bereaved family and testified to the many good qualities of the departed. The tabernacle choir rendered beautiful vocal selections. The Garden City quartet rendered "The Vacant Chair" and Miss Florence Jepperson sang a beautiful solo, "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth."

There was a profusion of floral offerings and a large cortege followed the remains to the cemetery.

FUNERAL OF JAMES CHISLETT.

The funeral services over the remains of James Chislett, held in the Sixth ward meetinghouse yesterday, were attended by many relatives and friends. The speakers were Elders

Brigham Johnson, Evan Wride, Andrew Watson, S. P. Eggertson, Walter Scott, John Giles, W. D. Roberts, William Buckley and Bishop Ralph Poulton, who each testified to the exemplary life and good qualities of the departed. Beautiful vocal selections were rendered by the ward choir.

PROCTOR COMMENCEMENT.

There was a large congregation at the Proctor commencement last evening, the occasion of the baccalaureate sermon by Rev. S. H. Goodwin to the graduates of Proctor academy. The subject of Rev. Goodwin's address was "Trained for Service." Based on Acts 2:14, he said that all training should be for the service of God and humanity were strongly presented. A feature of the evening was a solo by Murray Twelves. This is the commencement week at the Proctor. Tuesday afternoon and evening the school will present "Cinderella." Wednesday evening the eighth grade graduates will give a class exercise. Mrs. Wages of the Calhoun Patch. Thursday evening the commencement exercises will be held.

HOTEL THIEVES AT WORK.

Thomas Gorman and Gus Peterson were arrested yesterday in Springfield by request of the Provo officers and brought here, where they will have a hearing on a charge of burglary or at least larceny. He had in his possession an overcoat of the Hotel Roberts Saturday, the property of Judge C. E. Lockner. Two valises were taken from the hotel at the same time. The valises have not been found. Gorman claims to have come from Reno, Nev. Peterson says he was with Garfield and came into Salt Lake two days ago with $5, which he blew in and that he has been in the city since. He claims he met Gorman here in Provo and the officers are inclined to the belief that he has been in the city since coming to H. P. Rosenbaum was also taken from his boarding place at Kind Anderson's opposite the city hall, and brought here. These articles are believed to have been taken by a different party from the hotel thieves.

GARDEN CITY NOTES.

George Brokaw met with a severe accident Saturday while working in Goodmans stone quarry east of the city. A sharp rock struck him on the left side of the head and split his skull, cutting into the bone, but did not fracture it. He was taken to the hospital, where his wound was dressed.

Mrs. Louis Ellertson of Mammoth has undergone a successful operation for an intestinal tumor at the Provo general hospital and all conditions favor recovery. Mrs. Wm. Harding of Salina is at the Provo general hospital, where she has undergone an operation for ectopic gestation, hopes are entertained for her recovery, although the case is considered critical.
