PHASES OF OSTRACISM.

During the recent investigation of the Third District Court, instituted and conducted by the managers of the "Liberal" party for anti-Mormon political purposes, the question of ostracism of apostates from the Church by their former brethren was given a prominent place.

There happen to be several phases to that subject, but only one was suited to the purpose of the active politicians who engaged in the proceedings in point. Two distinct aspects were strikingly illustrated by two of the witnesses whose testimony was taken—Mr. Henry W. Lawrence and Mr. William Ward.

The former stated that, in consequence of the position he assumed, his business materially decreased and he was shunned by his former associates. If this were the case, the ostracism would be a severe one, and it is not surprising that the latter should have been so affected.

The latter, on the other hand, stated that he had been ostracized by the "Liberal" party, but that he had not been ostracized by the "Mormon" party. This is a very different phase of the question, and it is one which is not generally understood.

The ostracism of apostates from the Church by their former brethren is a subject which is not generally understood. It is a subject which is not generally understood, and it is one which is not generally understood.
