

CARMACK STANDS BY THE PRESIDENT

Tennessee Senator Has Admirable Opinion for Him But is Not Over-Running With It.

HE GOES AFTER MR. FORAKER.

Pays His Compliments to Tillman—Declares Real Purpose of the Agitation is to Unhonor Roosevelt.

Washington, Jan. 16.—In an address in the senate today on the Brownsville affair, Senator Carmack announced that he heartily supported the president in his action discharging the negro soldiers. The action of the legislature of his state taking the same position met his personal views.

"I think it proper to say that any report that senators may have heard that the president personally solicited my support in this matter, that I urged me to forgive and forget certain personal remarks and begged me to stand between him and those two enemies of his administration, the senators from South Carolina and Ohio, is a gross exaggeration," said Senator Carmack. "Nor is it true that I have been moved to undertake the president's defense because of my infatuated devotion to the man. I have a great admiration for that strong, brave, large-minded gentleman, the secretary of war. My admiration is not more temperate and subdued. Seriously, I suppose there is no senator, always with the exception of my friend from South Carolina (Mr. Tillman), less likely than I to be suspected of excessive partiality for our present chief executive."

PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT.

"The president once said that he would see a certain member of the Tennessee delegation in his bed before he would do anything for him, a remark entirely gratuitous in view of the fact that the person supposed to have been referred to had never asked a favor at his hands, but with supreme deference to his good opinion had criticized him when he was wrong, and with like indifference to his good opinion, can support him when he is right. I care so little for the hasty ebullience of that remarkable man that I can see the good as well as the bad in his public conduct, and judge both without passion. In this case, it seems to me that he has acted with remarkable freedom from impulse, with unusually careful deliberation and with an effort to do nothing more or less than complete justice to all concerned. Indeed, I am haunted by the suspicion that the president was more careful to ascertain the facts and to keep within the limits of the law, because offenders were colored, than he would have been if they were white."

HIS LOVE FOR THE NEGRO.

"So far as the negro race is concerned, the only charge that can be justly made against the president is that he has loved the negro, not wisely, but too well. There is something pathetic in the president's plaintive recital of all that he has done and attempted for the negro race. Yet there is no man in this country today, not even the senator from South Carolina, who is so universally and so bitterly hated by the negroes as the man who abolished the Indiana postmaster, who declined with Booker T. Washington. All that he has done for the negro, all the evidence of friendship, have been utterly forgotten simply because he has not shown the sympathy with the criminal negro which pervades the negro population of this country from one end of it to the other."

Quoting the resolutions of a Boston negro meeting justifying the action of the negro troops, Mr. Carmack said no more damaging indictment of a race could be secured than this one, written by itself.

GOES FOR FORAKER.

"I can remember with what frantic energy he used to wave the bloody shirt, a shirt stained with the blood of the current of his own rhetoric; I remember how he used to go raging over the land, a bifurcated, peripatetic volcano in perennial eruption, belching fire and smoke and melted lava from his nostrils and, tumultuous howls. I can see how in public speeches he scattered the gall of his bitterness upon the south, until I came to think that the senator wished all the white people of the south had but a single neck, that he might sever it at a blow. I would not have gone back 40 years or make an inquiry into the senator's pedigree to prove that the senator from Ohio is the last man to sit in judgment in a case of murder where a negro was the murderer and a southern white man was his victim."

"But I will not do the senator such gross injustice as to judge his heart

WORD PICTURES OF SLUM LIFE

Jacob Riis, Ex-Reporter and Author, Entertains Audience At Barratt Hall.

TAKES AS HIS TEXT "TONY."

Moral of His Interesting Lecture Is That Bad Boys After All Are Not Really Wicked.

"It was on Third street I first met Tony," began Jacob Riis, the great slum worker, ex-reporter of the New York Sun and author of a number of books. "He was there—two of him. One half of him was fetching up gobs of mud, which he hurled with accurate aim at the stained glass windows of St. George's church. The second half of him looked on, sadly. I approached without him discovering me. When I laid my hand on his shoulder he turned quickly and a defiant little creature stared at me—his enemy. Why not an enemy? Who but an enemy would sneak up like that. Tony swung around expecting to see a policeman ready to carry him off to jail. Later in his interesting talk upon boys, Mr. Riis referred to this scene. "The little fellow realized that he had been robbed of something. Dark, foul, rooms were Tony's play-rooms—he saw nothing but a little misery; hence he was a little savage, a little hostile against society. I obeyed my newspaper instinct and interviewed the little fellow. It was the most successful interview I ever had in my years of experience, because I said every word spoken myself. I asked him if he went to school. This was a foolish question because there he was in the middle of school hours 'pasting mud' at a church window. I asked him if he had a home. This question was more foolish, because 'wair' was written in every line of his face, every wrinkle in his tattered clothes. Deprived of everything which tends to make a child happy, is it any wonder that Tony 'pasted' mud at a church which stood for propriety; at a 'plughat' citizen who stood for prosperity?"

ATTACKS ON PRESIDENT.

"It seems to me that there is something else behind these uncalculated attacks on the president than a passion for justice and for law. This particular action of the president in this case, however, but it is not the cause of this violent and concerted attack on the administration. The president has done enough in all conscience to alarm every real friend of the Constitution, but through it all he had the united and enthusiastic support of all the senators on the Republican side."

CRIMINAL COURT.

There has also been improvement made in the department resulting in more complete record being kept in the handling of the funds and the reporting of the business transacted by the court, which is shown in the detailed report of the court clerk.

CRIMINAL COURT.

In this department I am pleased to report that your recommendation, that the recorder's office be given additional help to compile and index the old dockets of the justice courts, was concurred in by the city council and the assistance granted.

CRIMINAL COURT.

To give more of an idea of the detail of this work, I will state that a complete index of the two volumes, one from A to K and the other from L to Z, have been renumbered and refiled, containing 32,000 civil cases and 10,000 criminal cases. The list of chapters includes the faculty of the university, and prominent state officials with their ladies.

CRIMINAL COURT.

A pretty affair of yesterday was the reception given in celebration of the marriage of Miss Mabel Miner and Swan T. Olson, the ceremony having been performed in the temple during the day, and the reception following at night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aurelius Miner. The rooms were bright with palms, flowering plants and cut flowers, the dining room being especially pretty with its table done in green, festoons of ferns and smilax extending from a centerpiece of cut carnations to the corners, and streamers of pink tulle from the chandelier. The bride wore a handsome gown of white net over tulle, in carried bride's roses. Assisting in receiving and entertaining were a number of relatives and intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Olson will reside here.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Mrs. Elmer Darling entertained yesterday at a bridge tea in honor of her sister, Mrs. Charles Read, the decorations being pink and white carnations, and prizes awarded. Mrs. George Ellerbeck and Mrs. D. S. Caffey, Miss Mary Mayne assisted the hostess, and about 20 guests were entertained.

CRIMINAL COURT.

At the card party given by Mrs. Julia Taylor yesterday, prizes were won by Mrs. T. R. Jones, Mrs. A. T. Eagan and Mrs. Stauffer.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Beattie left yesterday for Los Angeles.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Mrs. Albert Fisher leaves on Saturday for a short stay in California.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Miss Arvilla Clark is the guest of Mrs. W. W. Ritter for a short time.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Jacob Riis, the distinguished lecturer, was guest of honor at a dinner given at the University club last night by Archdeacon and Mrs. W. L. Bull, covers being laid for about a half dozen guests.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Kosmeo
Requires No Massage
Price 50c.—At All Dealers.

"DRUNKENNESS"

Cigarette and Tobacco Habits Cured by TRIB

There are many people who have taken 'cures' for the liquor and tobacco 'habits' who will at once tell you that they did not receive a cure. These people and many others would take 'TRIB' if they knew how easy it is to receive a cure with 'TRIB.' If they knew what a wonderful improvement 'TRIB' makes upon the general health, if they knew how many people have been cured and restored to their rightful possessions in life by its use, if they knew the new life 'TRIB' is giving mothers, fathers, wives, sisters, brothers and friends of people taking it, if they knew that 'TRIB' is the one cure that cures with no bad after effects. Why not start now and take 'TRIB' and get your 'habits' and yourself for this short life?

We will give you an absolute guarantee to cure you with each trial of 'TRIB.' It's our way of doing business. Price $12.50.

F. C. SCHRAMM,
Cor. First St. and Main St., Where the Cars Stop, Sole Agents.

WORD PICTURES OF SLUM LIFE

Jacob Riis, Ex-Reporter and Author, Entertains Audience At Barratt Hall.

TAKES AS HIS TEXT "TONY."

Moral of His Interesting Lecture Is That Bad Boys After All Are Not Really Wicked.

"It was on Third street I first met Tony," began Jacob Riis, the great slum worker, ex-reporter of the New York Sun and author of a number of books. "He was there—two of him. One half of him was fetching up gobs of mud, which he hurled with accurate aim at the stained glass windows of St. George's church. The second half of him looked on, sadly. I approached without him discovering me. When I laid my hand on his shoulder he turned quickly and a defiant little creature stared at me—his enemy. Why not an enemy? Who but an enemy would sneak up like that. Tony swung around expecting to see a policeman ready to carry him off to jail. Later in his interesting talk upon boys, Mr. Riis referred to this scene. "The little fellow realized that he had been robbed of something. Dark, foul, rooms were Tony's play-rooms—he saw nothing but a little misery; hence he was a little savage, a little hostile against society. I obeyed my newspaper instinct and interviewed the little fellow. It was the most successful interview I ever had in my years of experience, because I said every word spoken myself. I asked him if he went to school. This was a foolish question because there he was in the middle of school hours 'pasting mud' at a church window. I asked him if he had a home. This question was more foolish, because 'wair' was written in every line of his face, every wrinkle in his tattered clothes. Deprived of everything which tends to make a child happy, is it any wonder that Tony 'pasted' mud at a church which stood for propriety; at a 'plughat' citizen who stood for prosperity?"

ATTACKS ON PRESIDENT.

"It seems to me that there is something else behind these uncalculated attacks on the president than a passion for justice and for law. This particular action of the president in this case, however, but it is not the cause of this violent and concerted attack on the administration. The president has done enough in all conscience to alarm every real friend of the Constitution, but through it all he had the united and enthusiastic support of all the senators on the Republican side."

CRIMINAL COURT.

There has also been improvement made in the department resulting in more complete record being kept in the handling of the funds and the reporting of the business transacted by the court, which is shown in the detailed report of the court clerk.

CRIMINAL COURT.

In this department I am pleased to report that your recommendation, that the recorder's office be given additional help to compile and index the old dockets of the justice courts, was concurred in by the city council and the assistance granted.

CRIMINAL COURT.

To give more of an idea of the detail of this work, I will state that a complete index of the two volumes, one from A to K and the other from L to Z, have been renumbered and refiled, containing 32,000 civil cases and 10,000 criminal cases. The list of chapters includes the faculty of the university, and prominent state officials with their ladies.

CRIMINAL COURT.

A pretty affair of yesterday was the reception given in celebration of the marriage of Miss Mabel Miner and Swan T. Olson, the ceremony having been performed in the temple during the day, and the reception following at night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aurelius Miner. The rooms were bright with palms, flowering plants and cut flowers, the dining room being especially pretty with its table done in green, festoons of ferns and smilax extending from a centerpiece of cut carnations to the corners, and streamers of pink tulle from the chandelier. The bride wore a handsome gown of white net over tulle, in carried bride's roses. Assisting in receiving and entertaining were a number of relatives and intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Olson will reside here.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Mrs. Elmer Darling entertained yesterday at a bridge tea in honor of her sister, Mrs. Charles Read, the decorations being pink and white carnations, and prizes awarded. Mrs. George Ellerbeck and Mrs. D. S. Caffey, Miss Mary Mayne assisted the hostess, and about 20 guests were entertained.

CRIMINAL COURT.

At the card party given by Mrs. Julia Taylor yesterday, prizes were won by Mrs. T. R. Jones, Mrs. A. T. Eagan and Mrs. Stauffer.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Beattie left yesterday for Los Angeles.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Mrs. Albert Fisher leaves on Saturday for a short stay in California.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Miss Arvilla Clark is the guest of Mrs. W. W. Ritter for a short time.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Jacob Riis, the distinguished lecturer, was guest of honor at a dinner given at the University club last night by Archdeacon and Mrs. W. L. Bull, covers being laid for about a half dozen guests.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Kosmeo
Requires No Massage
Price 50c.—At All Dealers.

"DRUNKENNESS"

Cigarette and Tobacco Habits Cured by TRIB

There are many people who have taken 'cures' for the liquor and tobacco 'habits' who will at once tell you that they did not receive a cure. These people and many others would take 'TRIB' if they knew how easy it is to receive a cure with 'TRIB.' If they knew what a wonderful improvement 'TRIB' makes upon the general health, if they knew how many people have been cured and restored to their rightful possessions in life by its use, if they knew the new life 'TRIB' is giving mothers, fathers, wives, sisters, brothers and friends of people taking it, if they knew that 'TRIB' is the one cure that cures with no bad after effects. Why not start now and take 'TRIB' and get your 'habits' and yourself for this short life?

We will give you an absolute guarantee to cure you with each trial of 'TRIB.' It's our way of doing business. Price $12.50.

F. C. SCHRAMM,
Cor. First St. and Main St., Where the Cars Stop, Sole Agents.

WORD PICTURES OF SLUM LIFE

Jacob Riis, Ex-Reporter and Author, Entertains Audience At Barratt Hall.

TAKES AS HIS TEXT "TONY."

Moral of His Interesting Lecture Is That Bad Boys After All Are Not Really Wicked.

"It was on Third street I first met Tony," began Jacob Riis, the great slum worker, ex-reporter of the New York Sun and author of a number of books. "He was there—two of him. One half of him was fetching up gobs of mud, which he hurled with accurate aim at the stained glass windows of St. George's church. The second half of him looked on, sadly. I approached without him discovering me. When I laid my hand on his shoulder he turned quickly and a defiant little creature stared at me—his enemy. Why not an enemy? Who but an enemy would sneak up like that. Tony swung around expecting to see a policeman ready to carry him off to jail. Later in his interesting talk upon boys, Mr. Riis referred to this scene. "The little fellow realized that he had been robbed of something. Dark, foul, rooms were Tony's play-rooms—he saw nothing but a little misery; hence he was a little savage, a little hostile against society. I obeyed my newspaper instinct and interviewed the little fellow. It was the most successful interview I ever had in my years of experience, because I said every word spoken myself. I asked him if he went to school. This was a foolish question because there he was in the middle of school hours 'pasting mud' at a church window. I asked him if he had a home. This question was more foolish, because 'wair' was written in every line of his face, every wrinkle in his tattered clothes. Deprived of everything which tends to make a child happy, is it any wonder that Tony 'pasted' mud at a church which stood for propriety; at a 'plughat' citizen who stood for prosperity?"

ATTACKS ON PRESIDENT.

"It seems to me that there is something else behind these uncalculated attacks on the president than a passion for justice and for law. This particular action of the president in this case, however, but it is not the cause of this violent and concerted attack on the administration. The president has done enough in all conscience to alarm every real friend of the Constitution, but through it all he had the united and enthusiastic support of all the senators on the Republican side."

CRIMINAL COURT.

There has also been improvement made in the department resulting in more complete record being kept in the handling of the funds and the reporting of the business transacted by the court, which is shown in the detailed report of the court clerk.

CRIMINAL COURT.

In this department I am pleased to report that your recommendation, that the recorder's office be given additional help to compile and index the old dockets of the justice courts, was concurred in by the city council and the assistance granted.

CRIMINAL COURT.

To give more of an idea of the detail of this work, I will state that a complete index of the two volumes, one from A to K and the other from L to Z, have been renumbered and refiled, containing 32,000 civil cases and 10,000 criminal cases. The list of chapters includes the faculty of the university, and prominent state officials with their ladies.

CRIMINAL COURT.

A pretty affair of yesterday was the reception given in celebration of the marriage of Miss Mabel Miner and Swan T. Olson, the ceremony having been performed in the temple during the day, and the reception following at night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aurelius Miner. The rooms were bright with palms, flowering plants and cut flowers, the dining room being especially pretty with its table done in green, festoons of ferns and smilax extending from a centerpiece of cut carnations to the corners, and streamers of pink tulle from the chandelier. The bride wore a handsome gown of white net over tulle, in carried bride's roses. Assisting in receiving and entertaining were a number of relatives and intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Olson will reside here.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Mrs. Elmer Darling entertained yesterday at a bridge tea in honor of her sister, Mrs. Charles Read, the decorations being pink and white carnations, and prizes awarded. Mrs. George Ellerbeck and Mrs. D. S. Caffey, Miss Mary Mayne assisted the hostess, and about 20 guests were entertained.

CRIMINAL COURT.

At the card party given by Mrs. Julia Taylor yesterday, prizes were won by Mrs. T. R. Jones, Mrs. A. T. Eagan and Mrs. Stauffer.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Beattie left yesterday for Los Angeles.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Mrs. Albert Fisher leaves on Saturday for a short stay in California.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Miss Arvilla Clark is the guest of Mrs. W. W. Ritter for a short time.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Jacob Riis, the distinguished lecturer, was guest of honor at a dinner given at the University club last night by Archdeacon and Mrs. W. L. Bull, covers being laid for about a half dozen guests.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Kosmeo
Requires No Massage
Price 50c.—At All Dealers.

"DRUNKENNESS"

Cigarette and Tobacco Habits Cured by TRIB

There are many people who have taken 'cures' for the liquor and tobacco 'habits' who will at once tell you that they did not receive a cure. These people and many others would take 'TRIB' if they knew how easy it is to receive a cure with 'TRIB.' If they knew what a wonderful improvement 'TRIB' makes upon the general health, if they knew how many people have been cured and restored to their rightful possessions in life by its use, if they knew the new life 'TRIB' is giving mothers, fathers, wives, sisters, brothers and friends of people taking it, if they knew that 'TRIB' is the one cure that cures with no bad after effects. Why not start now and take 'TRIB' and get your 'habits' and yourself for this short life?

We will give you an absolute guarantee to cure you with each trial of 'TRIB.' It's our way of doing business. Price $12.50.

F. C. SCHRAMM,
Cor. First St. and Main St., Where the Cars Stop, Sole Agents.

Forfeitures 1,750 16,245.25
Discharged 997
Dismissed 319
Sentence suspended 54

Totals 4,255 $18,555.15

STATE CASES.

No. Cases.	Am't.
Fines, forfeitures and imprisonment	68
Held to district court	12
Discharged	23
Dismissed	110
Sentence suspended	3
Transferred to juvenile court	2
Cases pending	45

Total 236

Receipts from state cases were $628.15, of which amount $314.07 was paid to the state treasurer and $314.08 was paid to the city treasurer.

CIVIL DIVISION.

No. Cases.	Am't.
Complaints filed	665 $1,330.00
Impecunious affidavits	12
Docketed for dismissal	4
Trials	99 198.00
Transcripts on appeal	31 31.00
Supplemental proceedings	68 68.00
Executions issued	280 96.00
Abstracts of judgment	105 26.25
Orders of sale	4 2.00
Impecunious affidavits subsequently paid	1 2.00
Certificates	3 .75
Writs issued	2 .50
Copies of pleadings	12 17.90

Total receipts $1,779.40

JUVENILE COURT.

Boys.	Girls.
Delinquents before court	333 49
Declared wards of court	154 15
Committed to Morris School	53 9
Committed to Industrial school	4 8
Suspended commitment Industrial school	11 8
Committed to Industrial school	4 8
Committed Canyon Crest ranch	8 6
Fined	41 41
Fine suspended	5 5
Continued indefinitely	6 2
Dismissed	45 10

Total receipts of juvenile court for year amounted to $465.20.

ALL THE WORLD

is a stage, and Ballard's Snow Liniment, plays a most prominent part. It has no superior for Rheumatism, stiff joints, cuts, sprains, and all pains. Buy it, try it, and you will always use it. Anybody who has used Ballard's Snow Liniment is a bona fide proof of what it does. Buy a trial bottle. 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Z. C. M. Drug Dept., 112 and 114 South Main Street.

FULL LINE RECORD CABINETS,

easy payments. Columbia Phonograph Co., 327 South Main.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Two large affairs are scheduled for tomorrow night, the reception at the Commercial club in honor of the visitors to the Woolgrowers' convention and the entertainment at the university. The former is at 8 o'clock, and promises to be a delightful affair, elaborate preparations being made for the entertainment of the guests. Mrs. E. Bonnemont, of what does Buy a trial bottle. 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Z. C. M. Drug Dept., 112 and 114 South Main Street.

Where the Cars Stop.

The Great Prescription Drug Store.

If you cannot come in, please phone 65 for the correct time.

Leysons

Location, Opposite Postoffice and Business District, Jackson Boulevard and Clark Street.

Every room has hot and cold water.

C. C. COLLINS, Proprietor.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO.