Holland Comedy Company .-- This most excellent organization pronounced by both press and public to be one of the very best dramatic companies in the East, opens at the Salt Lake Theatre on Wednesday evening next, for a season of four nights and one matinee only. Mr. Holland, the leading actor of the combination, has for years been recognized as being one of America's brightest and ablest comedians, and much interest of late has been centered. around him on account of his wonderful portraiture of the silly lordling-

Dundreary. The company will open in "Our American Cousin," on Wednesday evening, and those who saw Mr. Sothern in the role of Dundreary, should see Holland in the same character. Relative to his impersonation of Dundreary we clip the following notices from the San Franciscan papers -a city in which the company have been recently performing.

> A MAGIC POWER. A Secret Agent at Work.

We were surprised the other day to learn that certain individuals in this We were surprised the other day to learn that certain individuals in this city, who had for many years yielded to what was apparently an inevitable fate, were startled from their torpid condition of semi-stupidity, into as-senting their right to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." These par-ties had been bound by an influence as powerful as it was incomprehensible. They knew not the canse, yet they were victims to the result. They were enchained, but they could not discern by what means they had been manacl-ed. They had long sought deliverance in vain. Their appeals to science and the knowledge contained in books were equally unavailing. At last, relief came! It was not through any action of the President, or of Congress, for their trouble was not of a political character. Neither did the Governor's Message relieve them, nor any action of the new Legislature, for it was out of their power, and foreign to their jurisdiction. Yet they were sud-denly and effectually released from the bondage they suffered, and placed on the equal scale of human happiness. "What was their trouble?" is what our readers will ask. They had been ren-dered helpless by that universal enemy --rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved without pain for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there," they In language lessons in primary schools, Miss Stevenson taught the little pupils tojuse new words by giving object lessons and thus getting them to talk and express their ideas. On physical geography, Mr. D. R. Allen taught the pupils the way wind was produced and how the air currents were formed; also how rain, snow and The critic, Mr. Orson Howard, then reviewed at some length the proceedings of the meetings, carefully criticising the members and bestowing Supt. Morgan stated that arrangements had been made at half fare rates or even moved without pain for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there," they tried Britannia, and were at once re-lieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. This secret agent quietly coursed through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition, and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a tri-umph, and the acquisition of the know-ledge, by which they can at any time resist the encroachments of their com-mon foe.
