

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - SEPTEMBER 8, 1893.

Big Damages Wanted.

A $10,000 damage suit was filed Wednesday afternoon in the Fourth district court by William Cotton, of Newville, Box Elder county, against Arnold Goodrich of the same place. The complaint, which is the outgrowth of considerable litigation over certain alleged land jumping in that town, charges Goodrich with malicious intent in the publication of an article which appeared in the Salt Lake Herald over his (Goodrich's) signature.

Utah Water Suit Decided.

The suit of Robert Gale and thirteen others against Alvan P. Berg and Peter Berg, all of Utah, this county, has been decided by Judge Smith. It involves the waters of a mountain stream and the riparian rights in the vicinity of Clatskanie, and the decision of the judge is that the plaintiffs have a first right on the main water, while the defendants have a secondary claim, or a right to all surplus water. This finding seems to be agreeable to both parties and will be submitted to the district court for confirmation.

From San Francisco.

Delictive H. M. Hillyer arrived yesterday from the coast after James Hillyer, wanted in San Francisco for embezzling some $100 from the Latter Day Saints Mutual Aid association of that city. The officer who probably leaves today with his prisoner.

A Broken Leg.

James Hancock of this city met with a very unfortunate accident while riding behind a spirited horse. The animal became frightened and ran away. Hancock attempted to jump but his leg was caught in the wheel of the cart and broken below the knee.

Hailstorm.

A very heavy hailstorm passed over this city yesterday and did considerable damage to the crops in different buildings. Fruit suffered as it is growing crops as a result of the storm, which only lasted for about five minutes.

Will Make This His Home.

Mr. H. L. Everett, professor for several years in the Agricultural College at Logan, has recently a resident of New York, has decided to make this city his home. Mr. Everett gained a good reputation in the Territory by a social story entitled "The People's Program" which appeared in the Rocky Mountain Agricultural Journal here. Last year he went East to accept a professorship in New York and the story referred to appeared in that form there. Several leading publishers are said to have made good offers for it and the press and public received it with favor. It promises largely to the labor movement and one-half of the profits will be given to that cause.

Railway Organization.

A large and enthusiastic meeting was held last night at the city hall, and a local organization of the American Railway union was effected with a membership of more than one hundred. President Eugene V. Davis and Vice President George W. H. Ward, of the American Railway union, were present and explained to the many railway employees the object and purpose of the organization. The local officers elected for the year are: John Coughlin, president; A. J. Johnson, vice president; and J. M. Wagner, secretary.

Divorce Proceedings.

Two divorce suits were filed yesterday in the Fourth district court. The first was that of Samuel M. Parry vs Elizabeth Parry, both of this city. The complaint was that, among other things, that on January 2nd, 1893, the plaintiff was assaulted by a deadly weapon in the hands of the defendant. The other suit was that of Elizabeth Woolsey vs William A. Woolsey, wherein the plaintiff asks for a dissolution of the marital bond and the custody of two small children, on the ground of extreme cruelty.

Court at Logan.

At the Wednesday's session of the Fourth district court at the capital of Utah the damage suit of George Watson vs Logan City for $2000 was tried before Judge Miner. A jury of ten found a verdict of "no cause for action."

Police Court Matters.

Frank Hansen, a druggist, paid $5. O'Donnell was given a fine of eight dollars on the charge of molesting a woman.

Charles Deysdale and U. P. Howard, arrested by Officer Brown at Hunter's brewery, were given Judge Coughlin today on the charge of trespassing.

Kuo Bleg, from Hong Kong, will have to answer the charge of carrying concealed weapons.

Personal.

O. A. M. Dill, master mechanic at the Union Pacific shops at North Platte, Nebraska, and wife, are at the Pacific hotel at their way to Denver and the Northwest on pleasure bent.
