LOCAL BRIEFS.

Section Director Murdoch of the weather bureau says there is a storm approaching from the southwestern coast of California, and when it reaches Utah will be liable to deposit some snow here.

Preparatory to holding of the State text book convention next June, several of the leading publishing houses of the East have put representatives in the field. They are calling on the county superintendents with the view of gctthe latter to favor their respective text books.

J. Olin, a miner employed at the Highland Boy at Bingham, died yes-terday afternoon at the Keogh-Mc-Kenna hospital from typhoid fever. He was about 23 years of age, and so far as is known had no relatives in this country. The remains are at O'-Donnell's undertaking establishment.

President Eillot of Harvard college is going to take a western trip in the ar future and efforts are being made to induce him to stop at Salt Lake and deliver a lecture to the teachers of the city and county. City Superintendent corresponding with him with that end in view.

Deputy Sheriff T. P. Lewis and Special Deputy Ben Harries are work-ing a squad of nine prisoners from the county jail, on a drain ditch from the county infirmary to the Jordan river. The work is being done under the direction of the county commissioners, and it is the first time for years that prisoners of the county have been made to labor.

Mrs. Viola McCartney, wife of Wil-liam B. McCartney of 426 Eighth East street, died at her home last evening. The malady that claimed he life was diabetes, from which she had suffered much for several months past. She was hopeful, however, to the very last, and always cheerful and patient. Mrs. McCartney was loved by all who knew her because she was a loveable woman and her death at this time was deeply regretted. She leaves a husband and daughter, with whom the public erely sympathizes. The funeral will be held on Friday at 10 a. m.

Edward Morris, a miner living at 128 North Third West street, died yester-day from an affection of the lungs, a trouble of long standing. He was until recently employed in the De Lamar mine in Nevada, but had to stop working about two months ago on account of the condition of his lungs. Morris was about 49 years old and had spent the most of his life in Nephl, where he was well known. He leaves a wife and six children to grieve his death. The funeral will be held from Joseph William Taylor's funeral parlor Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A banquet was tendered to Captain Charles E. Stanton and his clerk, Frank B. Shelley, last night, by their old friend, Willis T. Beardsley at the Tavern. The green room was decorated with chrysanthemums and the place cards were made attractive with handpainted American flags. Reminiscences and Philippine stories were the order of the evening. Beside the host and the two guests of honor, the guests were: Dr. John T. Critchiow, W. J. Shealey, C. H. Griffin, Clein Schramm, Dr. Geo. Schramm, John S. Critchiow, H. G. Sheridan, Joseph E. Caine and Will J. Lawrence,

According to a dispatch from J. J. Greenewald, who is attend-ing the Supreme Council Scottish Rite Masonry, now in session in Washing-ton, D. C., several Utah men have been honored at the hands of the council. W. H. Bancroft, vice president of the Oregon Short Line, was elected to re-ceive the thirty-third de-ree. The honorary degree of knight commander of the court of honor was conferred apon the following: Willis T. Beards-Joy, Clem Schramm, Colonel Isaac Chris Diehl grand secretary, and C. A. Henry of Ogden.

THE MEDICAL SCHOOL.

Physicians Will Present the Proposi tion to University.

A large number of physicians met at the residence of Dr. E. F. Root last evening and discussed the matter of establishing a medical department of the University of Utah. Dr. M. A. Hughes was made chairman of the meeting and Dr. H. N. Mayo, the secretary. The doctors were unanimous in their support of the plan to establish the medi-cal school, deeming it to be a blessing to the city, state and University. The proposition is to be laid before the Unien to be appointed by Dr. Hughes, Or couse, the success of the plan primarily rests upon the regents.
