

TAFT MAKING MANY SPEECHES

He is Making a Complete Circuit Of the City of Indianapolis.

S AROUSING THE HOOSIERS.

At a Very Early Hour Hundreds Assemble to Hear and Cheer Him.

His Meetings Awakening People of Indiana to Necessity of Voting the Republican Ticket.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Oct. 23.—Judge Taft is today making a complete circuit of Indianapolis, about 50 miles distant at all times, and tonight he will be there as the attraction for a monster rally. During the day he will make extended speeches in Lafayette, Marion, Muncie and Anderson, and 10 to 15-minute speeches at a dozen other points.

Lake yesterday, the day began with indications of intense political interest. The 7 o'clock crowds at Brazil numbered many hundreds. "I take it as a great compliment to our cause that you are out at this hour," he said in the greeting of Judge Taft after he had been heartily cheered.

"I am sure it argued," he added, "as our meetings yesterday argue, that the people of Indiana are aroused to the necessity of voting as Republicans on the third of next November."

The candidate then illustrated the importance of the election by calling attention to Brazil's coal and agricultural interests and declared it to be necessary to restore confidence among investors if prosperity was to be restored and continued.

Ex-Gov. Durbin and Representative Holladay joined the special at Brazil for the day and at each station the crowd of local commission men who accompanied the train became larger.

VETERANS CHEER HIM.

Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 23.—Lafayette's reception of Taft was another outpouring of people. The candidate was driven through the streets in an automobile. On one side of the square occupied by the federal building were lined up many old soldiers. Mr. Taft arose and bared his head, while the veterans cheered. Whenever he went there were crowds, which had only to get a sight of the big Ohio to break into cheers. He spoke to thousands from a platform overlooking a street corner, but many hundreds stood and looked who could not get near enough to hear. So today Mr. Taft has dwelt on the general prosperity issue, the labor problem and Mr. Bryan's bank deposit proposition.

In each instance what he has said has been a repetition of his speech of yesterday.

TRANSPACIFIC TRADE.

Canadian Pacific Atlantic Steamers to Be Transferred to It.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 23.—In his speech last night at the banquet given by the board of trade, Sir Thomas G. Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway company, said that the steamers Empress of Ireland and Empress of Britain, now part of the Canadian Pacific Atlantic fleet, might shortly be expected at Victoria to take part in the transpacific trade.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION CALLED TO ORDER

The most important features of today's sessions were the address of the president, Mrs. Lillian M. The auditorium was well filled when the convention was called to order and Mrs. Stevens spoke the enthusiasm of her hearers when she recited the great progress made by the temperance cause during the past year.

T. U.

The election of officers will take place next Tuesday and it is expected all the present officers will be elected. There is a vacancy in the office of treasurer, owing to the death of Mrs. Harriet W. Brand.

Mrs. E. D. P. Johnson, W. C. T. U. state superintendent of Kansas, and Mrs. Minnie Hornum of Evanston, Ill., national superintendent of the department of the press, are candidates for this office.

KING JOE ADAMS.

Working to Perfect National Gipsy Association of America.

St. Louis, Oct. 23.—"King" Joe Adams and his band of roving gypsies expect to spend the winter at St. Louis and to perfect the organization of the National Gipsy association of America, with St. Louis as general headquarters. The chief and his families arrived yesterday from Dubuque.

These are mainly the advance guard according to Adams. Two or three hundred more families will arrive from the four corners of the earth to make quarters here. As soon as all the tribes arrive, the annual conference and governmental ceremonies will be held. Several marriages are scheduled before the tribe break camp again.

An application filed at Clayton, March 5, for a pro forma decree of incorporation will be pushed as soon as

THE GIPSY GET SETTLED. If the decree is granted, Joe Adams will have, clothed with more power over his people than the head of a monarchy.

LACK OF WATER.

May Cause Southern Illinois Coal Mines to Shut Down.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Unless there is a rainfall soon in the southern part of Illinois, the coal mines will have to shut down for want of water for making steam and for operating their coal washing machinery, say coal traffic officials of the Burlington, Chicago and Eastern Illinois and Illinois Central roads.

Scarcely any rain has fallen in Franklin and Williamson counties where most of the coal mines are located, since last May, they say, and many of the mines already have been forced to shut down. Others hauling water to the mines from long distances and borrowing from the supplies kept by the railroads in reservoirs in spite of heavy rainfall, and if there is no coal we will have no use for the water."

The railroad is willing to share its supply of water with the mine operators as long as possible, said W. A. Holley, in charge of the coal traffic of the Burlington, yesterday, "because in that region the coal is so scarce that it is almost impossible to haul it. If there is no coal we will have no use for the water."

WANT TO SECEDE.

Members of Woman's Catholic Order Of Foresters.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—A meeting behind closed doors was held last night by Mrs. Elizabeth Rogers, "safety committee." The discussion revolved around the disloyalty of Mrs. Rose D. Rittman and Mrs. Rogers to the office of high chief ranger of the Woman's Catholic Order of Foresters.

At one stage of the discussion several of the most ardent members of the committee which was represented by 108 delegates, evidenced a desire to secede from the order and support Mr. Roosevelt in the presidential election. The discussion was rendered by the courts, where the difficulty is to be thrashed out in the near future, Mrs. Rogers, who is a member of the order, is to be the action of the law.

Contributions were called for at the meeting and $500 collected as a "war fund" to fight out the matter in the courts.

The gathering was supposed to represent the sentiments of 1,800 members of the order.

LIFE DEFINED AS A GAME OF GIVE AND GRAB

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 23.—Prof. Charles Zebelin, formerly of Chicago, was strong in his denunciation of the treatment accorded the negroes by the white people in the south. He said that "life is a game of give and grab, and that each person should give all he can and take all he can get." It was the professor's belief that this life is a game of give and take, that each person should give all he can and take all he can get. "The wise man knows no boundary line of convention or prejudice," he said, "it is like a mountain, all around him one can see the hundreds of people pigmies, but he can tell no difference in their color, or their social standing. He takes what he can from them as a whole and as individuals, and so again broadens his own life."

The professor declared that enlightenment of the world would not reach its highest stages until the whites, blacks, redmen, yellow men and brown men have all been brought to the bonds of racial prejudice and become recognized on the same social plane with each other. One of the things necessary to this end is said to be the intermarriage of the races.

WENT WRONG.

Frederick Gilson, German University Graduate, Charged With Forgery.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Charged with victimizing a friendly employer who had given him expense money so he could complete his education in the English language, Frederick Gilson, graduate of a German university, was arrested for forgery in Chicago yesterday. He was indicted later by the grand jury.

Gilson is accused of forging the name of the New Prague Flour Mills company, New Prague, Minn., to a check for $500, which he cashed at the First National bank here.

Before Gilson left, it is alleged, he stole several checks from Benn's check book and inserted in them small ink marks to make them cashable.

Knowing Benn had an account at the First National bank, Gilson went there and presented for payment a check for $500 to have been forged. He was given the money.

Last night Gilson told about his parents in his fatherland. He said his father was a respected citizen of Aahn in Belgium, and for more than 20 years was an officer in the Belgian army and is now pensioned, said the prisoner.

HOME MISSIONS COUNCIL.

New York, Oct. 23.—The home missions council which is made up of the home mission boards of 20 leading Protestant denominations is planning for a publicity campaign in support of home missions throughout the United States. In each of 17 cities which are now on the list of places to be included in the campaign meet to last night, Chicago will be held. The subject of the home missions without denominational color or bias will be given. Some 250 of all nationalities will be in attendance at the meetings in various cities among the speakers being the governors of several states, college presidents, leading judges, bishops and secretaries of various missionary societies and men who are expert in immigration problems. The cities so far selected for the campaign are Boston, Hartford, Buffalo, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Baltimore, Atlanta, Richmond, Brooklyn, Nashville, St. Louis, Chicago, Kansas City, Omaha, St. Paul and Minneapolis.

SUMMONED TO PARIS.

Centerville, Ia., Oct. 23.—Dr. J. L. Sawyers, Centerville's most prominent physician and surgeon, has been summoned to Paris to attend the Duchesse de Chaulnes, who expects to become a mother some time soon after the 10th of November.

Mr. Shonts' anxiety over his daughter has caused him to insist upon Dr. Sawyers' services for the trip. The duchess was formerly a Centerville girl.

BRYAN WATCHES THE NEWSPAPERS

Has Noticed Gompers Has Been Deposed as Labor Leader And Knox Substituted.

ANXIOUS FOR OWN FATE

Didn't Know but What Someone Had Been Put in His Place as Democratic Candidate.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 23.—A large crowd gathered at the Pennsylvania railroad station here today to see W. J. Bryan. His train was late and Mr. Bryan had only time to make the following remarks:

"Gentlemen, I am watching the newspapers very closely these days and I noticed yesterday morning that President Roosevelt had deposed Mr. Gompers as the labor leader and substituted Senator Knox. I was anxious to see the papers this morning to learn if he had deposed me as the Democratic candidate for president and substituted some one else."

A DISAPPOINTED CROWD.

Washington, Oct. 23.—A small crowd was greatly disappointed at not being able to see William J. Bryan who passed through here early today en route to New York.

Mr. Bryan, who came in from West Virginia over the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad at 7:09 o'clock, was asleep during the entire time his train stopped at Union station and no member of the presidential candidate's party put in an appearance.

The candidate's train departed at 7:23 for West Philadelphia.

GREETED IN PHILADELPHIA.

Philadelphia, Oct. 23.—A large crowd, including many railway employees, greeted William J. Bryan at the West Philadelphia station of the Pennsylvania railroad today. The train was an hour late and during the wait the crowd was entertained by a local speaker, Mr. Bryan was met here by a committee representing the members of the state campaign committee of New Jersey.

Mr. Bryan was greeted with much enthusiasm and calls for a speech. He was interrupted in the midst of his remarks by cries for Mr. Bryan and when he was escorted to the platform of the car by the presidential candidate there were cries of "hurrah for the next first lady of the land."

Mr. Bryan was here for about 12 minutes and in his speech talked on the labor question. Much applause greeted his declaration that "I can stand defeat but I cannot stand the loss of the right to have my own mind."

The action of President Roosevelt in attacking Mr. Gompers, who has had the confidence of laboring men for many years is to my mind an evidence that the Republican managers have set all things at naught. They are trying to secure the support of corporate interest by denouncing the leaders of the labor organizations.

The crowd demanded that Mr. Bryan talk some more. "We know you are tired, but just give us a little more of that kind."

"No," said Mr. Bryan, "I am not tired. I am feeling better now than at any time during the campaign. I will keep it up until the night of the election. He provoked wild applause when he said that he thought the republican voice held out better than the voice of the Republican speakers is "that I don't have to put through my throat and I can sleep well because I am not disturbed at night worrying about what I said yesterday or what I say tomorrow. I have wasted no time in my platform covers all that I want in it and there is nothing in it that I regret. My platform differs from Mr. Taft's in this: That I can use all of mine everywhere and he has to make selections from his according to the place at which he speaks."

ANNIVERSARY OF THE PANIC OF 1907

New York, Oct. 23.—It is just a year ago yesterday that the financial flurry of 1907 struck New York and business and financial men are talking of the wonderful recovery that has been made from the depression which followed. During the panic 15 banks in New York, the majority of them small institutions, were forced for one reason or another to close their doors. In the year that has passed since the beginning of the trouble all but one of these banks have either reopened for business or have paid off their depositors in full. That bank has already paid 90 per cent of its deposits and will make another payment of 5 per cent within 10 days.

By all means investigate!

Where did the $33,655.33 go to, that were added to the cost of the Cottonwood conduit? Investigate the paving business of this City.

Investigate the charge that the Mayor and Chairman of the Finance committee "are confronted with a rapacious band of grafters within their own party."

And do not forget that the citizens of the West Side were compelled to threaten to appeal to the courts for protection against the truly "American" plan of establishing, contrary to the law, a district of infamy in the City. Investigate! Find out who gave permission to build the cribs. Find out who invested money in the infamous enterprise.

It was claimed that hundreds of illegal so-called "American" votes were cast at the last bond election.

Does the "American" Zero Squad Pay Any Taxes.

The Tribune, like the cuttle fish of natural history, is belaboring the issue. It calls names and makes suggestions but the question in point is, do 14 candidates on the "American" ticket figure on the tax rolls as taxpayers, in their own name, or do they not?

The Deseret News offered to send a man to accompany a Tribune representative to the county treasurer's office and together check over the records and print the findings. The Tribune cries "fraud" instead of accepting this offer, and promptly introduces the name of a notorious scoundrel woman into the controversy. The "News" does not question for one moment that the Tribune is well posted in the affairs of the red-light district and all the crime, sin and shame it stands for. But the red-light district and its notorious women are hardly germane to the question.

The original proposition holds the floor: Do the 14 members of the zero squad on the "American" ticket pay taxes, or do they not?—not the taxes of their cousins and their sisters and their aunts, but the taxes on their own personal property.

The Deseret News telephone number is 359, either phone, and a man stands ready to accompany a Tribune representative to the county building.

WAS HE MURDERED?

Chicago Police Believe That John Mahon of Easton, Pa., Was.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—That John Mahon, 55 years old of Easton, Pa., was murdered in Chicago on the first or second of this month is the theory of the police and they are now looking for some trace of the missing man in the Canal street resorts and lodging houses.

Mohan started from Easton on Sept. 30 to visit his brother, J. T. Mahon, a civil engineer, residing in Denver, Colorado. He carried a purse in which was $880, his railroad ticket and trunk checks. Nothing has been heard from him since, although it is known that he arrived here on Oct. 1, over the Pennsylvania road, landing at the Union station. His trunk reached Denver, Oct. 2.

On Oct. 2, B. W. Paulson picked up Mahon's pocket book in front of his 15 Elizabeth street. It contained nothing but the used portion of the ticket and the trunk checks. The police believe that Mahon went into some of the canal street saloons when he arrived here and incidentally showed his money.

TRIED TO ATTACH RAILROAD.

New York, Oct. 23.—In an effort to collect a judgment for $18,000 against the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, Deputy Sheriff Burns yesterday attempted to attach the entire railroad. The deputy went to the offices of the railroad and served the attachment on Treasurer Thomas E. Paradise, announcing that he intended to levy on the office furniture. On being told that the furniture would not cover the amount, he stated that he would levy on the railroad. He left the treasurer's office with the intention of attaching one of the trains standing ready to leave the station. While officers were explaining to him that the rolling stock, the road and the rolling stock, and therefore could not be attached, the road's attorney secured a stay of execution from the supreme court. The judgment represented a dictum of $11,500 and costs obtained by William Carroll whose legs were cut off while he was repairing a car in the company's yards.

JOHN GILLET'S BODY FOUND IN KENOSHA RIVER

Chicago, Oct. 23.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Kenosha, Wis., says: The body of John Gillett, formerly probably the best known man in Kenosha and a son of the late Judge Gurne Gillett, who disappeared here Jan. 14, 1907, was found in the Kenosha river here yesterday. It is evident Gillett walked into the river on the night of his disappearance and was caught in the refuse at the bottom of the stream and held there. The river is filled with refuse from the gas works and with refuse from large tannery and these served as a preserving fluid to such an extent that notwithstanding the fact that the body had been in the water for nearly two years it was still possible to recognize the features.

JAPANESE LIKE ADMIRAL SPERRY

Before Leaving Tokio Took Stroll Through Streets Which Captivated Them.

GAVE HIM A DEMONSTRATION.

Officers and Men of American Fleet Preparing to Leave Shores of Hospitable Island.

Tokio, Oct. 23.—In preparation for their departure from the hospitable shores of Japan the officers and men of the American battleship fleet began leaving this afternoon for Yokohama, where the final farewells will be said. Admirals Sperry, Schroeder and Wainwright took official leave of Tokio at 3:55 o'clock and their departure was made the occasion of a great demonstration. Ambassador O'Brien, with the entire staff of the American embassy, the British, German, French and Russian ambassadors and other members of the diplomatic corps gathered at the station to wish the voyagers Godspeed. In the throng that pressed about the American officers were representatives of every official department of the government and delegates from every commercial body in the city. In addition the streets and the station contained a vast concourse of people and thousands of school children who joined in an ovation no less enthusiastic than the one accorded the party upon its arrival at the harbor last Monday.

Upon leaving the Shiba palace, where the flag officers have resided during their stay, Rear Admiral Sperry, attended by his aides, took a lengthy stroll through the principal streets of Tokio before leaving for the station. His presence quickly became known and the populace, greatly pleased at his democratic action, joined in a series of demonstrations in his honor. Out of respect to the memory of Gen. Count Nodzu, whose funeral occurred today, there were no official functions during the day except a farewell dinner given by the emperor to Rear Admiral Sperry. The emperor's household and all the highest officials of the empire were present.

At the dinner to be given tonight by Baron Kaneko, president of the American Friends society, Rear Admiral Enomoto will be the guest of honor. A feature of the function will be the presentation to the Americans of a relic of the expedition of Commodore Perry.

The arrival of Admiral Sperry and party at Yokohama was the occasion of another demonstration. The lavish entertainment by official Japan will come to an end tonight with a dinner aboard the Japanese battleship Fuji and a reception aboard the Mikasa. Ambassador O'Brien will attend the reception on the Mikasa.

The harbor of Yokohama will again be the scene of a magnificent illumination, such as greeted the Americans on the first night of their stay.

A MURDER MYSTERY.

Body of Old Woman Found in Drainage Canal at Summit, Ill.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—What may prove a baffling murder mystery developed last night when the body of a woman found in the drainage canal near Summit, Ill. was identified as that of Mrs. Hannah Kaiser, 71 years old, a widow who disappeared from her home Oct. 19 with $1,500 in her possession.

JOE JAMES EXECUTED.

His Crimes Largely Responsible for Springfield Riots.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 23.—Having confessed his guilt and with a prayer upon his lips, Joe James, 18 years old, negro murderer, was hanged in the city jail here today.

James murdered C. A. Ballard, a railway engineer on the night of July 3 last. This crime was largely responsible for the precipitation of the riots in this city. James came to Springfield from Birmingham, Ala., in June. On the night of July 3 he became intoxicated and walked into the home of Ballard, entered the bedroom of Miss Blanche Ballard and seized her hand. Her father came to her assistance and James stabbed Ballard to death.

James was captured next day. While he was in jail an alleged assault by

DR. JEFFERSON D. GODDARD RELEASED FROM PRISON

Jefferson City, Mo., Oct. 23.—Dr. Jefferson D. Goddard, whose trial and conviction for the murder of Frederick Jackson, a landman of Kansas City, April 2, 1897, was of the most sensational character, was released today from the state penitentiary. After three trials he began a 25-year term in the spring of 1901, but a commutation and good behavior credit set him free today.

Dr. Goddard shot Jackson in a hotel in Kansas City. The men had been quarreling for a long time because of Dr. Goddard's relations with Mrs. Jackson. During the trial Mrs. Jackson testified that she had been in the room in every way and after he had begun his penitentiary term they hoped to obtain commutation from Gov. Dockery.

Mrs. Jackson still conducts the laundry and much real estate, and is estimated to be worth $250,000. The foundation of the estate was laid by her father, who came here a poor man from Illinois 20 years ago.

KAISER MOST GRACIOUS TO AMBASSADOR HILL

Berlin, Oct. 23.—Emperor William has attracted the attention of the diplomatic corps by his recent attentions to Ambassador Hill. It is probable that the purpose of his majesty has been to remind the ambassador of the emperor's interest in him. Hill's well come at the German court.

During the court festivities in connection with the wedding, yesterday, of Prince August William and Princess Alexandra, the emperor was particularly gracious to Ambassador Hill and at the gala opera performance last Wednesday night, the emperor spoke to the ambassador for some time. The same evening Prince Henry sought out Dr. Hill and talked with him about their experiences in America together.

The police obtained from Pedro Kistenmacher the information that Mrs. Kaiser had received a large sum of money. Kistenmacher is a nephew of the victim and resided in apartments above those formerly occupied by his aunt. He told Policeman Victor Simon, who accompanied him to Summit, where he made the identification, that Mrs. Kaiser recently had sold property for which she received $1,500.

BRAZIL'S AGRICULTURAL BANK.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Confidently expected to develop into a notable feature of national finance, the new agricultural bank to be established in Brazil to relieve financial stress among agriculturists and to facilitate planting and harvesting, was today under government authority and supplied with funds by the government. It is to be a bank of a series of state or district banks. The regulations, says Consul General Alderson of Rio de Janeiro, are based on a system of loaning money on agricultural security extending from Rio to the remotest parts of the republic.

BURGULARS GET $12.

Residence of Wm. E. Jenkins Entered And Turned Topsy Turvy.

The residence of William E. Jenkins, chief deputy county clerk, at 632 east Ninth South street, was entered by burglars last evening and $12 in cash was carried away. Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins left the house about 8 o'clock to attend a social party at the residence of a friend in this city. When they returned at 11 o'clock it was plainly apparent that the house had been entered during their absence. The back door was unlocked, every drawer, trunk and grip in the house had been ransacked, the contents turned out on the floor and everything thrown up side down. The fact was evident that nothing but money was wanted by the burglars. As the burglars were leaving, a diamond ring and other jewelry remained lying upon the dresser where they had been left. The sum of $12, which was missing, was a silver test on the buffer was missing, as was also $10 left in a purse belonging to Mrs. Jenkins. Cigar stubs and a broken glass were scattered on the floor from which fact Mr. Jenkins thinks the burglar, after surveying the wreck he had made, carried off a cigarette before taking his departure. It is thought entrance was gained at the front door by means of a skeleton key.

TWO SMALL FIRES.

The fire department made two runs this morning, but in neither case was any damage done. The first run was to the home of George E.
