SAVE YOUR HAIR | TO LEARN HOW TO DO IT READ AND HEED WHAT FOLLOWS.

SAVE YOUR HAIR.—The laws of Health and Longevity demand it, the customs of social life require it. The matter is of great importance in every way.

BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR.—It is the surpassing crown of glory, and for the loss of it there is no compensation.

CULTIVATE YOUR HAIR.—For by no other means can it be saved and beautified.

LYON'S KATHAIRON,

Discovered thirty-five years ago by Prof. Lyon, of Yale, is the most perfect preparation in the world for preserving and beautifying the hair.

Besides being the best hair dressing ever produced, Lyon's Kathairon will positively prevent grayness, and will restore new hair to bald heads, if the roots and follicles are not destroyed.

It actually performs these seeming miracles, of which the following is

A FAIR SPECIMEN

I had been entirely bald for several years, constitutional, I suppose. I used a few bottles of Kathairon, and, to my great surprise, I have a thick growth of young hair.

COL. JOHN L. DORRANCE, U. S. A.

In every important respect the Kathairon is absolutely incomparable. It is unequaled.

1. To Cure Baldness.
2. To Restore Gray Hair.
3. To Remove Dandruff.
4. To Dress and Beautify the Hair.

BEAR IN MIND.—The Kathairon is no sticky paste of sulphur and sugar-of-lead, to paint and daub the hair and paralyze the brain. It is a pure and limpid vegetable lotion, intended to restore the hair by natural growth and reinvigoration. It is splendidly perfumed, and the most delightful toilet dressing known. No lady's or gentleman's toilet outfit is complete without Lyon's Kathairon.

FORTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.

EXTRA SESSION.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 26.—Various bills were introduced.

[One by Pendleton, that the principle officer of each executive department may occupy a seat on the floor of the Senate and House.

After executive session the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 26.—De LaMatyr, of Indiana, asked leave to introduce a bill for reference to the committee on banking and currency.

Garfield objected.

Atkins, rising to make a motion to adjourn, stated that he thought it probable to-morrow morning one or perhaps both appropriation bills would be introduced and democratic members of the House and Senate desired to have a conference.

Garfield said he was anxious to get through with the special business for which Congress had been called together, but if Atkins thought it probable the appropriation bills would be introduced to-morrow, he would have no objection to present adjournment. He, however, asked Atkins to allow the offering of resolutions affecting the rules of the House.

Cox offered a resolution for the reappointment of special committees on census, yellow fever epidemic, reform in the civil service and declaration of the result of election of President.

Conger inquired if the last committee was the Potter committee?

Cox—"No."

The resolution was referred to the committee on rules.

Frye asked leave to offer a resolution reciting that the extra session was occasioned by the failure of the last Congress to make necessary appropriations, and that the business interests of the country and welfare of the people demanded rest and peace from legislation, and instructing the committee on rules to report forthwith a rule providing that no bills except those making necessary appropriations shall be reported from any committee or considered in the House during the special session.

Reagan and Ewing objected.

Conger said he understood there would be no objection to a reference of the resolutions affecting the rules. If the objections to this resolution were not withdrawn he would object to Cox's resolution.

The Speaker ruled that the objection came too late.

Frye gave notice that on Monday he would move to suspend the rules and adopt his resolution.

Conger then moved to reconsider the vote by which Cox's resolution was referred.

Cox moved to lay that motion on the table, pending which the House adjourned; yeas, 133; nays, 111.

EASTERN.

Democratic Caucus—Coming Down to Business.

WASHINGTON, 26.—The democratic members of the House and Senate assembled in the hall of the House, this afternoon, to receive and take action upon the joint report of these committees concerning the order of business for the extra session. Representative Clymer presided.

Representative Chalmers, in behalf of the House caucus committee, explained the character of the report and outlined the discussions which had taken place during the joint sessions of the two committees. The adoption of the report was also advocated by Representative Carlisle, and by Saulsbury, Voorhees and Lamar, all of them being members of the committees.

Senator Bayard briefly expressed the opinion that the proper method of obtaining a repeal of the obnoxious laws aimed at by the joint committee's report, would be by the passage of a separate measure or measures, independent of the appropriation bills.

Representative Turner delivered a speech of much earnestness, insisting that the federal election law should be repealed totally. Several members of the committee briefly replied.

Senator Voorhees said he had himself been in favor of sweeping that law from the statute book bodily, but had yielded to the judgment of the majority of the committee and was now of the opinion that the course recommended in regard to it as the most expedient that can be pursued under existing circumstances.

Speaker Randal then took the floor, and expressed the opinion that the action recommended by the joint committee, both in its general scope and details was such as to commend itself not only to every member present but to the country at large. He did not think it necessary to adopt a resolution binding every one present to a firm and lasting support of the caucus action, for he was satisfied from his knowledge of the sentiment of the party and from the tenor of to-day's interchange of views, that there would not be a single dissenting voice or vote in the ranks of the democracy in congress against adhering to the action thus marked out, through whatever contest might come, until it should be crowned with success.

These remarks were greeted with enthusiastic applause and after closing the debate, which occupied about two and a half hours, it was almost unanimously agreed that the appropriation bills which failed of enactment at the last session of congress, namely the army, legislative, executive and judicial, should be introduced and put on their passage immediately. It was determined that the army bill should take the precedence.

Sparks was instructed to introduce that measure to-morrow and Atkins was instructed to introduce the legislative bill.

The provisions of the army bill will be identical with those contained in the measure as it was passed by the last Congress, including the clause which prohibits the presence of troops at the polls. The repeal of the test oath for jurors, the manner of drawing jurors and the law governing their pay, as incorporated in the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill of last session will be substantially the same, the exceptions being several unimportant alterations in the phraseology.

The Oliver-Cameron Suit.

Something of a sensation was caused to-day in the Oliver-Cameron case by the examination of Mrs. Mary A. Henriques. She is a lady that has excited considerable curiosity for several days past on account of the mystery that seemed to surround her. She testified that she was an inmate of the same boarding-house with Mrs. Oliver and occupied the same room. Mrs. Oliver told her at different times she was going to Cameron's rooms regular, so as to give the public the impression that she was his mistress. She was not his mistress, but she wanted to get the people to believe she was. She told the witness to keep quiet and she would see something bold done. She was poor, but she could so manage things that she could blackmail Cameron out of a large amount of money. Witness told her then, if that was her object and the matter ever came into court, witness would appear and swear to the conversation had with her.

The cross-examination was very severe and searching upon some points. She testified that her first husband's name was George M. French. Her maiden name was Mary Alice Pratt. French was still living, but she was divorced upon her own application. She married next Mr. Goingdike in Chicago, he died in 1865. In 1868 she married Joseph A. Sample. She married Henriques in Philadelphia in 1876. They went to California and lived together for a few weeks and then separated. He was still her husband. When she was in Springfield, Mass., with a little money left her, she went to San Francisco and bought herself a piece of land and built a house upon it.

Mr. Peters—Well, Madame, who did you get this money from? Witness—I shall not tell you, it is none of your business.

Peters—Do you object to telling? Witness—I came by it honorably, and did not blackmail anybody to get it.

Court—Well, we will go no further in that direction.

Comments on the Caucus, Etc.

The perfectly united, enthusiastic and harmonious action of the joint democratic caucus to-day, when considered in connection with the positive assertions made to-day by several members of the cabinet that the President will firmly refuse to approve any appropriation embodying the so-called compromise in regard to federal elections, has caused a great change in the current of opinion to-night as to the probable duration of the extra session and set speculation adrift again concerning the ultimate result of the impending conflict. It was developed in to-day's caucus that the New York democrats lay an especial stress upon the repeal of the really operative portions of the supervisor's laws, as the turning point of the next presidential election. Reckoning New York as the pivot State, it is of prime necessity to carry New York City by a democratic majority sufficient to overcome any possible republican majority in the rest of that State. This they say they cannot hope to do if the election machinery is left in the hands of the republican marshals, assisted by an unlimited number of special deputy marshals, organized and trained by such experts as Chief Supervisor Davenport. The republicans, on the other hand, insist that this machinery is absolutely essential to prevent democratic frauds in New York City and also in Cincinnati, where the result of the voting usually determines that of the State of Ohio. The President is, to day, said to be convinced of the party necessity of standing firm to resist the proposed important modifications of this law, and hence the prospect for a long-continued deadlock is again very threatening. The failure of the joint caucus to take any action this afternoon on the question of restricting the business of the present session to the appropriation bills and their proposed riders, is generally considered indicative of a practical certainty that more or less general legislation will be entered upon before the adjournment, but it is doubtful whether much will be effected, for most of the time in both houses is likely to be consumed by political debates, and there will be a strong disposition to adjourn as soon as the contest over the appropriation bills is finished, regardless of its outcome.

The Indian Removal Question.

The bill introduced by Senator Slater, to-day, directs the Secretary of the Interior to negotiate with the Umatilla, Warm Springs, Klamath and Suletz reservation Indians for their removal to some other lands outside of the boundaries of Oregon, and provides that immediately upon their removal all lands now occupied by them shall be opened for settlement or purchase under the general land law.

Conkling Explains.

As the impression prevails that Conkling, during the debate in the Senate last Monday, assailed the character of the newly-elected secretary of that body, it is but just to say that Senator Conkling explicitly stated, before the debate closed, that the severe remarks which might seem to refer to Col. Burch, and to which Senator Eaton called his attention as likely to be misunderstood, had no reference whatever to that gentleman. Conkling added: "Nothing could have been further from my purpose than to place a possible imputation, indirect, near or remote upon him."

Exports and Imports.

The excess of exports over imports for the 12 months ending February 28th last, was $293,855.

Silver Bullion Bids.

The Secretary of the Treasury, to day, accepted bids for 75,000 ounces of bilver bullion to be delivered at the San Francisco mint.

Chinese Gambling.

NEW YORK, 26.—A telegram this evening says: The police raided a Chinese gambling house on Mott Street, and arrested 31 Chinamen. They were discharged this morning for want of specific information as to the game they were playing. Whether gambling or not, the officers believed they were playing tan.

Cowardly Assassination.

FRANKFORT, Ky., 26.—Judge J. M. Elliott, of the court of appeals, was assassinated and instantly killed on the street in front of the Capitol Hotel, at 1 o'clock to-day, by Thomas Buford, of Henry County. Elliott had rendered an adverse opinion in a case; Buford had in court for some time. Buford loaded a double-barreled shot gun and waited for Elliott to come to dinner, and walked up and shot him through the heart without warning. Buford was arrested and now in jail. There is great excitement and strong feeling against him. Buford, after arrest, acknowledged that the other barrel of the gun was loaded for Judge Price, and he would have killed him also had not some children been in the way. He is a brother of Gen. Abe Buford, of Woodford County.

Another Speculation.

CHICAGO, 26.—A statement is published here that Keene is about out of the wheat deal, and has invested in land, having now one-third of all there is in Chicago, about 100,000 tierces, the total being 350,000 tierces.

Got their Demands.

PITTSBURG, 26.—The coal exchange has decided to grant the striking miners their demands. Work will begin to-morrow.

Struck a Snag.

LITTLE ROCK, 26.—The steamer Hattie Newland struck a snag and is a total wreck; value $25,000.

Accidental Drowning.

EASTPORT, Me., 26.—Five seamen, rowing ashore in Bliss Harbor, were drowned by the upsetting of a boat.

FOREIGN.

TURKEY.

Difficulties in East Roumelia.

PHILIPPOPOLIS, 26.—The majority of the international commission has issued a declaration stating that in consequence of the difficulties created by the authorities of Eastern Roumelia and in view of the excited state of the population it has been found impossible to execute the stipulations of the article of the treaty of Berlin which provides that the European commission shall be charged, together with the Porte, with the administration of the finances of the province until the completion of the new organization. The commission draws the attention of the European cabinets to the matter.

AUSTRIA.

Satisfactory Progress.

VIENNA, 26.—The Political Correspondence states: Negotiations are making the most satisfactory progress between Russia and England relative to measures to be adopted in Roumelia after the departure of the Russians, but the project of a military occupation by a neutral power has been abandoned.

ANIMALS AND POULTRY.

Running at Large.

The attention of the inhabitants of Salt Lake City is respectfully directed to the following extracts from ordinances of said city now in force.

Trespass, and concerning animals running at large, Chap. XLI, Revised Ordinances:

Sec. 2—No cattle, horses, mules, sheep, goats or hogs shall be allowed to run at large within the limits of this city, and all such animals, so found, may be taken up by any person and driven to the pound, and the owner of said animal shall be liable to pay a fine in any sum not exceeding $10 for each animal.

Crimes and punishments, Chap. VII, Revised Ordinances:

Sec. 38— * * * and all fowl, such as turkeys, ducks, geese and hens found running at large at any time between the first day of March and the 1st day of October, shall be forfeited to and shall be liable to be killed by any person upon whose premises they may be found trespassing.

Complaint has been made that persons herding cows and other animals on the bench lands adjoining the city, allow such animals to leave their herds to commit trespass and damage upon the first garden or orchard into which they can gain entrance. Such gross carelessness should be guarded against, or a too frequent repetition thereof may submit the herder to heavy damages.

As it becomes my duty to see that the above provisions of law are complied with, let all persons take due notice and govern themselves accordingly.

A CONQUEROR OF CONSUMPTION!

HALL'S BALSAM

FOR THE LUNGS,

ERADICATES

Coughs, Colds, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, and all Diseases of the Breathing Organs.

HALL'S BALSAM

Is the LEADING SPECIFIC for CONSUMPTION.

It soothes and heals the membrane of the lungs, inflamed and poisoned by the disease, and remedies the night sweats and tightness across the chest which accompany it.

CONSUMPTION

is not an incurable malady. It is only necessary to have the right remedy, and HALL'S BALSAM is that remedy.

DON'T DESPAIR OF RELIEF, for this benign specific may cure you, even though professional aid fails.

READ THE FOLLOWING:

Dr. D. D. Wright, of Cincinnati, sends us the subjoined professional indorsement: "I have prescribed Hall's Balsam in a large number of cases and always with success." He adds that "in one case a patient with every appearance of confirmed consumption was restored to his usual health soon after commencing to take the Balsam."

John Kuhn, of Lafayette, Ind., writes: "One year ago I was to all appearances in the last stages of consumption, and given up by our doctor and friends. I could not live twenty-four hours." Mr. Kuhn further states that "after taking nine bottles of HALL'S BALSAM he is now in perfect health, having used no other medicine."

The above brief extracts are taken from a

MASS OF EVIDENCE

which has been accumulating during a period of TWENTY-FIVE YEARS, proving an efficacy of HALL'S BALSAM in all cases where the breathing organs are affected, and showing the salutary effects which the remedy is held by the public and medical profession. Sold by all Druggists.

Price $1.00 per bottle.
