THE HEARING OF COUNCILMAN CRAIG

Defendant Admits Getting Extra Pay for Extra Work-Others Paid Without Work.

CITY AND COUNTY AFFAIRS.

Tilt Between Chairman Stanford and Clerk Matsen Over the Wages of New Clerks-Other Notes.

Ogden, Feb. 27 .- The taking of testimony in the case against Councilman William Craig occupied the attention of Judge Howell and the jury all day yesterday. The testimony given was practically the same as that given at the trial last week. Several of the councilmen testified to the appropriations made during 1903, 1904 and 1905, amounting in all to $250.50. Mr. Craig was put on the witness stand to testify in his own behalf. He admitted having received the money as extra compensation, but claimed that he served on the board of equalization and reyiew and on numerous special commit-tees, and believed that he with the other members of the council was entitled to the money received, for services rendered. He also admitted that some of the councilmen who had not served on these various boards re-ceived the extra compensation, but explained these allowances as being made because some of the councilmen had served considerable more time than they had been paid for, and they agreed to equal the matter up and share alike in the extra pay, thus giving those who had not served the same pay as those who had.

A number of witnesses were put on e witness stand and testified to the the witness stand and testified to the defendant's good character.

Of course, such testimony is not that of a disinterested party and accordingly is not to be given the same credit as if written from disinterested motives. Dr. Pierce's medicines, however, form a single and therefore striking exception to this rule. Their claims to the confidence of invalids does not rest solely upon their owners' and makers' say-so or praise. Their ingredients are matters of public knowledge, belog printed on each soparate bottle wrapper. Thus invalid sufferes are taken into Dr. Pierce's full confidence. Scores of leading medical men have written enough to fill volumes in praise of the curative value of the several ingredients entering into these well-known medicines.
