Concerning Cholera.

A CIRCULAR RELATIVE TO THE EPIDEMIC.

It is the opinion of the Board of Health that with proper precaution on the part of the people no fears of cholera need be entertained. The Board has adopted the following circular—

To combat and arrest the progress and prevent the epidemic prevalence of cholera it is necessary that the inhabitants of every city and town should promptly resort to the most effectual purification and the best-known means of disinfection, and that this sanitary cleansing and preparation should be at once, and very thoroughly, carried into effect before any cases of cholera occur, and that in the presence of the disease these sanitary duties should be enforced in every household and throughout the entire district. Experience has proved that the best way to prevent both pestilence and panic is to know and prepare for the danger. It is the only way to deal successfully with cholera.

SANITARY CLEANSING.

1. Neglected privies.
2. Filth-sodden grounds.
3. Foul cellars and filthy or badly-drained surroundings of dwellings.
4. Foul and obstructed house drains.
5. Decaying and putrescent material, whether animal or vegetable.
6. Unventilated, damp, and uncleaned dwellings and apartments.

These localizing causes of cholera should be promptly and very thoroughly removed before a case of the disease appears in the town or district; and if any source of putrescence or of excessive moisture remain these should be controlled by the proper cleansing, drying, and disinfection.

Thorough scavenging and surface drainage, with the application at the same time of quicklime and coal tar, or crude carbolic acid, whitewashing with fresh quicklime; the cleansing and thorough drying and ventilation of cellars, basements, chambers, and closets, and daily care to cleanse, flush, ventilate, and purify the sources of defilement about all inhabitated premises, will afford almost complete protection if suitable care is taken of,

PERSONAL HEALTH.

The security of personal health requires pure drinking water, fresh and substantial food, temperance, and the needed rest and bathing of the body.

DISINFECTION AND DISINFECTANTS.

The principles relating to disinfection as a means of destroying the propagation or infectious cause of cholera—the "cholera contagium"—are readily understood, and may be explained to any family that the household may insure its own immunity against the introduction and spread of the disease. For popular use we append a brief statement of these principles at the end of this circular, and we respectfully recommend that the statement and the following schedule of rules and methods be given to the press, and to all principals of schools, superintendents of places of public resort, railway depots, ferries, hotels, and public institutions, and to the masters of ships and steamboats, and the conductors of passenger trains throughout this continent; believing, as we do, that by the timely and continued application of these measures the prevalence of cholera may be prevented. But let the fact be remembered that there can be no substitutes for thorough cleaning and fresh air.

RULES AND METHODS OF DISINFECTION.

For privies, water closets, drains and sewers, eight or ten pounds of sulphate of iron (copperas), dissolved in five or six gallons of water, with half a pint of crude carbolic acid added to the solution and briskly stirred, makes the cheapest and best disinfecting fluid for common use. It can be procured in every town and by any family, and if the carbolic acid is not at hand, the solution of copperas can be used without it.

To prevent privies and water closets from becoming offensive, pour a pint of this strong solution into every water closet, pan or privy seat once or twice a day.

To disinfect masses of filth, privy vaults, sewers, and drains gradually pour the solution until it reaches and disinfects all the foul material.

For the chamber vessels used by the sick, and for the disinfection of ground upon which any excrement matter has been cast away, use the solution of copperas and carbolic acid; and, for disinfecting extensive masses or surfaces of putrescent materials, and for drains, sewers and ditches, this disinfectant fluid may be used, or the "dead oil" ("heavy oil") of coal tar, or coal tar itself, coal tar may be used as a paint upon the walls of cellars, stables and open drains.

Other disinfectants, such of the sesquichloride of iron, or of chloride of zinc, use in privies and drains, and upon foul surfaces and offensive materials.

Quicklime is useful as an absorbent and dryer upon foul walls and in damp places, and whitewashing with it should be practiced in common tenements, factories, basements, closets, and garrets.

To disinfect the clothing defiled in any manner by excremental matters from the sick, throw all such matters immediately into boiling water, and continue the boiling for half an hour; or place them in a solution, covered, made as follows: One pound of sulphate of zinc, six or eight gallons of water, to which add two or three ounces of pure and strong carbolic acid. This is also an excellent disinfectant for bed-pans and chamber vessels; also for disinfecting floors and other defiled surfaces.

Keep the soiled articles saturated until they can be boiled. If the acid is not at hand use the zinc water alone.

Apartments, bedding and upholstery that have been used by the sick with the cholera or diarrhea should be fumigated by the burning of several pounds of brimstone (sulphur) upon a defended iron pan, or by crude carbolic acid, chloride of lime, with the place tightly closed for several hours, under a physician's directions.

Organ Contest!

An Account of the Contest of Organs from Mr. C. Sansome, Secretary for the Committee:

FIREMAN'S HALL,
Salt Lake City,
June 2nd, 1873.

Messrs. Daynes & Son:

I am authorized by the committee chosen by the Fire Brigade to test the various Organs placed in the Fireman's Hall for competition, to inform you that in the recent test or trial on the following points of excellence, namely:

1st—Greatest Volume of Tone.
2nd—Softest and Sweetest Tone.
3rd—Variety of Effects.
4th—Durability of Workmanship and its non-liability to get out of order.

That after a fair and impartial trial, conducted on the most approved plan, it was decided that the Prince Organ carried all of the above points!

And on a final vote being taken of the whole it was UNANIMOUS IN FAVOR OF THE PRINCE ORGAN, with only one dissenting vote. The committee consisted of thirteen men, including a chairman and secretary; the whole of them musicians of more or less pretensions. The performer on the instruments at the trial was a lady music teacher, chosen on account of her being free from prejudice in relation to either of the instruments.

Signed on behalf of the committee,

JAMES R. HIGGS, Chairman;
CHAS. SANSOME, Secretary.

☞ The Organs tested were:

PRINCE STYLE,	14, price	$170.00
MASON & HAMLIN,	21, "	182.50
ESTEY STYLE,	17, "	185.00

Showing that the PRINCE ORGANS are not only the best, but are much lower in price.

N.B.—All kinds of musical Instruments repaired.

Alfine Beckstead, being duly sworn, deposes and says: For the past seven years she has been afflicted with blindness, the cause of it being the granulation of the lids, and felons over the balls of the eyes, to such an extent as only to observe a very strong sunlight, without the ability to read or sew. That on the 10th day of December last, I placed myself under the treatment of Mrs. M. Clay, Eye Doctress, in the City of Salt Lake, and that under her treatment this deponent's sight was so fully restored on the twenty-fifth day of January following, that she has since been able to read common printed matter and do plain sewing.

Mrs. Fanny Thatcher, being duly sworn on her oath says, she resides in Salt Lake City: that for eighteen months previous to Sept. 1st, 1872, she had been suffering from granulated lids and a felon over the ball of one eye, so that during that period almost was unable to use her eyes, and could hardly see. Affiant's eyes were pronounced by the doctors whom she consulted, incurable; that about Sept. 1st, 1872, affiant commenced treatment under Mrs. M. J. Clay, doctress, and continued the same with great relief to affiant, for eight weeks, in the course of three months affiant's eyesight was so fully restored as to enable her to read coarse print, and her eyes have been continuously gaining strength, and she is now able to read fine print. Affiant has, since Sept. 1st, 1872, been following Mrs. Clay's directions in the treatment of her eyes.
