Among the many pleasant occurrences of our journey to the Pacific slope, this day's will stand out as the most memorable and enjoyable we have as far encountered. I voice the sentiment of the company when I thank you cordially for your kindness and attention. Some of the eastern beaches and bath house accomodations might pattern profitably after the excellent system in vogue at Garfield beach. Very respectfully, Francis Wilson."

Home from Europe.

Elder G. Henstrom, of Logan, called at our office this afternoon having just returned from a mission to Sweden, for which part of the world he left Salt Lake City on the 20th of April, 1890. Elder Henstrom enjoyed his labors very much and performed a creditable work. He labored in the Stockholm Conference during his entire absence, and enjoyed the best of health and spirits, in which condition he returns. He will leave for Logan tomorrow.

Amusement Notes.

Francis Wilson and his excellent company will be seen tonight in the closing performance of "The Merry Monarch," at the Theatre.

WONDERLAND.

"The Mikado" proves to be as much of a success this week as was "The Mascot," the previous week. The entertainments at this place have all the time since the opening been increasing in favor with the public. The present programme is up to any of the previous ones.

"THE CRUCIFIXION."

In the Gladstone building, Main street, Cooper's great painting is daily viewed by numerous spectators. It is exhibited again today and tomorrow.

BLAZZARD WILL CASE.

Chief Justice Zane Rendered His Opinion This Morning.

ONE YEAR FOR BURGLARY.

Trial of the Third Alleged Participant In the Apple Street Outrage.—Other Items.

Chief Justice Zane set the judicial mill rolling this morning at ten o'clock by giving his decision in the Blazzard will case, the merits of which were argued by an array of counsel yesterday.

His Honor said—The findings in this case are changed so as to conform to the decision in the Capecane case and allow all the children, legitimate and illegitimate, to inherit, and the issue upon the statute of limitations is decided against the pleas. I am of the opinion that the right of action of the parties to inherit in regard to the Seventh ward property did not accrue until the youngest child became of age, and since then the statute has not had time to run. The issue is decided against the statute. One of the parties wanted to introduce further evidence touching the time of the death of Ellen Blazzard; I believe she is one of the heirs. An opportunity will be given them to introduce some more proof as to the time of her death.

Clerk McMillan's record reads—Judgment for all heirs legitimate and illegitimate, and against the limitation.

THE INJUNCTION DENIED.

In the case of Samuel T. Walker vs. Hector Haight, his Honor also gave his opinion. This was a rule to show cause why an injunction should not be issued, restraining the highway commissioners from opening a certain road running through a school section of which plaintiff claimed to be public land. The injunction would be denied in the face of the conflict of testimony and the restraining order dissolved.

THE GROVES CASE.

Attorney Rowman, in the case of the People vs. Alfred S. Groves, indicted by the grand jury for conspiracy to defraud in connection with the now memorable Blue Jay mining suit, stated that the defendant filed a bond in the preliminary proceedings, and now some of the bondsmen asked to be released. Counsel therefore asked that new bondsmen be substituted and the former sureties discharged.

Mr. Stephens—The bondsmen have qualified before Commissioner Greenman, and he is usually correct in looking after such matters. I usually trust to his discretion.

Judge Zane—I do not generally release bondsmen.

Mr. Stephens—I have no objection myself in this instance, as Commissioner Greenman has examined the sureties.

Judge Zane—By agreement of the prosecuting attorney and the attorney for the appellant let the change be made.

ONE YEAR FOR BURGLARY.

Wm. Randall, convicted on Wednesday last for burglary at Youngberg's saloon, came up for sentence.

Mr. Wiley Brown, the defendant's attorney, first argued on the motion for a new trial, which was overruled, as one of his chief points being that the only proof against the accused was that he was found with one of the stolen watches in his possession, offering it for sale. There was nothing to show that the defendant took part in the burglary.

The defendant, who is thirty-four years of age, and whose parents, he says, reside in the old country, was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary.

THE LAST OF THEM.

Wm. Cornell, a mere boy, probably not more than seventeen years of age, and for whom Judge Powers appeared, was indicted for being concerned with two young men named Roberts and Matthews in assaulting Charles Clarke, a Bingham miner, with intent to rob.

The prisoner's companions were tried last week and convicted, one of them receiving a sentence of six years and the other seven.

The affair happened on the 20th of November, in last year, when, according to the evidence, the prosecutor, Clarke, who, it was alleged, had been drinking during the early morning, was placed upon the defendants in a cab outside the White House hotel, driven as far as Apple street, and there brutally beaten and robbed.

The testimony was, in substance, the same as that adduced at last week's trial, and reported in the NEWS at the time.

The case was in progress at noon.

RECORD IN WITH DIFFICULTIES.

A special venire of jurors was issued a few days ago, returnable this morning, for the third trial of the case of David Pitzpatrick, charged with a criminal assault upon an old woman in a city suburb.

Judge Zane having referred the case to Judge Anderson, Prosecuting Attorney Stephens now stated that his Honor found he would not be able to take it up, all his time being occupied in preparing his opinions for the coming session of the Territorial supreme court.

Judge Zane therefore discharged the jury on the special venire, and said that another could be issued when the court was ready to try the case.

MATED.

George Jackson was tried in the Third District Court about a week ago, on a charge of perjury and a quilted. Last night at 10 o'clock he and Annie Judson, a young woman with whom he had been acquainted for some time, were joined together in the bonds of matrimony by the Rev. Dr. McNiece, of the Presbyterian Church.

NOT YET.

Judge Anderson's decision in the Bluer alimony matter has not yet been rendered, but is daily expected.

NEW SUITS.

William M. Burns brought suit in the Third District court this morning against Wm. A. Stanton and the municipal corporation of Salt Lake City, to recover $2,000 and costs.

Plaintiff alleges, in his complaint, that on the 22nd inst. the defendants forcibly and unlawfully broke and entered upon a stable belonging to him on First East street, between Second and Third South, and tore down and demolished the same.

S. R. Lewis is the defendant's attorney.

R. C. Ewing vs. J. S. Van Horne is the title of another suit filed today with Clerk McMillan. The action is brought to recover $472.35 on a certain promissory note. Interest at ten per cents. per annum from November, 1890, is charged. Plaintiff also states that $50 would be a reasonable attorney's fee.

Charles Stevens likewise brought suit this morning in the same court against Samuel P. Carlson, to recover $750 on a promissory note. Interest at 8 per cent. per annum is charged from May 6th, 1891.

FLOWER THIEVES.

The Irrepressible "Bobby" McDonald Again Heard From.—Abusive Language and Vagrancy Cases.

Robert McDonald the juvenile hough who was charged with malicious mischief and incorrigibility a few day ago, was today discharged by Justice Keeler, that official entrusting a promise from the twin's father that he would keep him at home and make another effort to tone him from his evil ways.

Wm. Morley plead guilty to indulging in a tirade of abusive language, but on the representation that he would avoid a repetition of the offense, he was set at liberty.

James Smith, an alleged vagrant, is living at the expense of the city while awaiting trial.

Teddy Decicle, one of the Daniel Brothers, who has a natural weakness for horses and buggies belonging to other people, is in custody on a charge of incorrigibility.

J. H. Burrows and Burt Sweet, a couple of fifteen-year-old boys, plead guilty to stealing flowers in the Twentieth ward. After a sharp lecture from the court they were turned loose, with an attempered sentence hanging over their youthful heads.

A COMMENDABLE ENTERPRISE.

A Canning and Pickle Company with a Capital Stock of $50,000 Organized.

The Woods Cross Canning & Pickling Company filed articles of incorporation with Territorial Secretary Sells today. The existence of the company is placed at fifty years and the capital stock at $50,000 divided into 5,000 shares. The principal place of business is to be at Woods Cross, Davis County. The incorporators are L. S. Hills, John Sharp, Bryant Stringham and Fifty-Ward.

Following are the officers of the company: J. W. Maxfield, president; Bryant Stringham, vice-president; S. H. Parrish, secretary and treasurer. These together with John H. Barlow, Stacie Hatch, Joseph Hogan and Israel Call form the board of directors.

Arrivals and Releases.

The following named Elders landed at Boulogne on April 27, from the steamship Spaarndam, and proceeded on their way to the Swiss and German Missions: Nels Schickmann, Emil Victorian, J. H. Stocker, Gustav Duetsch, John Bischoff, Franz Braun, A. Bauer and C. Harsent.

On the same vessel were Elders A. Fjeldstrom, G. W. Lundquist and G. W. Johnson, for the Scandinavian mission. They also reached their destination all well.

Elders Charles W. Olson, L. J. Henstrom and Nels J. Anderson are honorably released from their labors in the Scandinavian mission, to return home.

Elder J. H. Lambert is honorably released from his labors in the Birmingham conference of the Netherlands mission to return home.—Millennial Star.

Memorial Day.

There will be no public services or parade of troops at Fort Douglas or Mount Olivet on Memorial Day. A detail from McKean Post will decorate the graves at Fort Douglas, and a detail from Maxwell Post will perform a like duty at Mount Olivet. The latter detail leave at exactly hour and proceed to the cemeteries.

At eleven o'clock a.m., memorial services, consisting of patriotic music, songs and speeches, will be held in Grand Army hall, to which all patriotic citizens are invited.

At His Old Tricks.

If Dame Rumor is correct in her whisperings, a certain city detective who is known here by one name and elsewhere by a variety of aliases and who has figured prominently in a number of "swindling cases," is again at his old tricks. This time the alleged victim has a father who threatens to execute summary vengeance on the person whom he declares has acted the part of a villain to his daughter.

Annual Picnic.

The annual picnic of the Primary Associations, to celebrate the anniversary of the birthday of President Brigham Young, is expected to be held in Liberty Park on Wednesday next, June 1st. Small children should be in care of some competent person. All the children of the Primaries will be welcome.

Probate Court.

Judge Bartch made the following orders today:

Estate of B. Young, deceased; continued to June 15.

Estate of Martin J. Ecker, deceased, order made fixing June 28th to hear final account and distribution. Decree of divorce, Segal notice to credit.

The New York legislature has passed a law prohibiting the employment of barmaids. The British barmaid seems to be all-sufficient to England and nothing degrading is attached to the popular maid to her work. But perhaps the British barmaid cannot be treated with New York nerve.

A German has invented for coast illumination a more powerful light than even electricity. He makes gaseous shoes in benzine, then passes an air blast through it, thus obtaining a benzine gas. The gas is carried over a magnesium powder which further adds to its brilliancy. It is then passed through a pipe like gas and is ready for consumption. So powerful is it that a small flame is said to possess 400,000 candle power.

Another assault on a woman in one of the jailless cells of the locked compartments of the British railway car ought to make Englishmen die away at once and forever with their antiquated crimes, heavy system of dividing cars into tanks and locking three or four people to them. But it is not likely that even this will move the British public. A few months ago it was a preacher who attacked a woman in a compartment. This time it was the brother of a lord. Some years ago it was a colonel in the British army, the friend of the Prince of Wales. We are told that since the lord's brother committed the outrage "popular sentiment favors some improved method of communication between compartments for passengers and the guards' van." The only feasible means of communication will be to tear down the ugly partitions, throw the whole car into one long, light, airy room, American fashion, and let the "guards" sit in the car with the passengers, where they can at all times have an eye on proceedings.

Absolutely the Best.

"I never hesitate to recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as absolutely the best," says Mr. F. H. Kemp, assistant business manager of the Evening Times, Shelby ville, Kentucky, one of the most influential and valuable newspapers in the Barkeye State. Mr. Kemp also says: "I have found it a certain cure for the coughs usually following an attack of the grippe, and always keep a bottle of it in the house." 50 cent bottles for sale by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. d&s

A Mother's Mistake.

Mothers frequently make a mistake in neglecting the cough in a child. A Fort Wayne, Ind., lady writes: "My little daughter, 6 years old, had a sore throat and cough, but as I was nothing unusual I thought nothing of it, and allowed it to run on for four or five weeks, when it became so obstinate she began losing flesh. I called in a physician, who treated her three weeks without benefit. A neighbor insisted upon my trying Ballard's Horehound Syrup; it relieved her from the first dose, and she began gaining flesh rapidly; when we had used two bottles her cough had entirely disappeared. I would not be without it. It does not exercitate my children. Ballard's Horehound Syrup is free from Opiates. It's the most soothing Throat and Lung remedy in the world. 25c, 50c, and $1.00. FAST TIME.

The Celebrated "Pennsylvania Limited's" Time Beaten by the "Burlington."

The Burlington has made another new departure in fast train service between Denver and Chicago, reducing the time to twenty-eight hours. Its new train, known as the "Chicago special," leaves Denver at 9 a. m. and arrives in Chicago at 5:15 p. m. the next day, making the run, after deducting one hour for change from mountain to central time, in twenty-nine hours.

The line between Denver and Omaha is thirteen hours and forty-five minutes and all trains, whether East or West bound, are scheduled thoroughout and are made up of through sleepers, chair cars and diners, filled up with all the modern designs and latest improvements of the Pullman Company.

The Burlington has now Four Fast Trains (P. F. P.'s) between Denver and Chicago, and the patronage already will be asked. How can such phenomenally fast time be made with no accident or any obstacles met with in the safety and comfort of its passengers absolutely secured?

The answer is found in its excellent roadbed, superior equipment and motive power and in the perfect system of its operating department and in the uniform courtesy of its employees.

Do sure your tickets read "via Burlington route." For further particulars inquire of Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada L. Hurt, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "When taken with a bad cold, which settled on my Lungs, caught me in bed and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could not live but a short time. I resigned myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My restored was attributed to God, Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all, eight bottles; it has cured me, and I thank God I am now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at A. C. Smith & Co's Drug Store, regular size $50 cts. and $1.00. 4*
