LOCAL NEWS.

Below Deported.—Little Roy Decker, a six-year-old son of Mr. R. V. Decker of the 17th Ward, met with an accident last Tuesday night. He was run up by his grandmother, Mrs. Whitney's, visiting, when a cry of fire was raised outside, the cause of which was a fire in the adjoining yard.

Private Lecture To-night.—An illustrated lecture on United States History will be given at the Salt Lake Theatre this evening at 8 o'clock, by Mr. J. A. MacKnight. The views of great historical events are the finest ever presented here, and as the prices are greatly reduced, there will no doubt be a large audience.

Birthdays Celebration.—The 70th anniversary of the birth of Counselor Daniel H. Wells was celebrated in a very pleasing and successful manner at his Twelfth Ward residence last evening. We regret that we have no space to do more than allude to it.

Engage in Caboose.—On Wednesday evening, about 7 o'clock, as the passenger train over the Utah Central was passing Kay's Creek siding, on its way to this city, an accidental collision took place between it and the morning freight train. The latter was side-tracking its rear caboose, for the accommodation of the sportsmen who went up to stop there all night and spend the next day on the Sand Ridge.

Arizona Polygamy Cases.—The following dispatch was received yesterday afternoon: Prescott, Arizona Nov. 27th, 1884. Editor Denver News: Ammon M. Tenny has been convicted on evidence of admission of having wife living in Arizona, no fact of marriage proved; no bail before or after sent. D. B. MILLNER.

JOHN AIRD'S CASE. HE IS SENT TO THE PENITENTIARY IN DEFAULT OF $500 BOND.—HE APPEARS TOWARDS HIS BAIL AND HIS RELEASED. The examination of John Aird, jailer, charged with unlawful cohabitation before U. S. Commissioner McKay, resulted, Wednesday evening, in the defendant's being bound over in the sum of $500, to await the action of the Grand Jury.

THE CHICAGO HERALD SAYS: "The largest diamond ever cut in America has been named 'Cleveland Gem' after the President-elect. A number of Governor Cleveland's friends are said to be making a party of $250,000 with which to purchase it, and it may also on the new President's breast on the day of his inauguration. We trust the possession of this seventy-eight carat stone will drive Governor Cleveland out of the business of 'Advance Agent' for a citizen."

"GOVERNMENT KID."

A LITTLE OF HIS PAST LIFE.

The examination of Robert W. Lowry, on the charge of enticing two young girls from Ogden to this city, for purposes of prostitution, closed on Wednesday evening. Justice Spiers ordering that the defendant be held in $5,000 to await the action of the Grand Jury. The evidence went to show that Lowry was introduced to the Johnson girls and their family, in Ogden, as a respectable gentleman, by Fred Everetts and George Hart; that he married the younger girl, but also became criminally intimate with her sister.

Lowry having stated that if found guilty it would be his first offense, we are induced to give publicity to a few facts, apparently in exception to this claim, which were not mentioned at the examination, and which show him to be a man of a very particular character, having a bearing upon his life and character, nevertheless, that is if he is the same Robert W. Lowry, alias "Government Kid," who figured as the disreputable hero of the story we are about to relate.

About seven years ago a young man of that name or names, who had parents living on Mill Creek, courted and married a respectable young girl of this city. He took her to Mill Creek, and when her first child was about to be born, deserted her, and she returned to her parents, where she became a mother. Some time afterwards Lowry put in a re-appearance and persuaded her to go and live with him again. He took her to Park City, where she says he neglected and failed to provide for her. She again became pregnant, and was feeling unwell one evening, when he offered to go and get her some wine. She says after taking the wine she lost consciousness, and when she awoke next morning a strange man was in bed with her, and her husband stood by the bedside in the attitude of an accuser. He declared she was guilty of having a paramour, and then held her while the stranger outraged her person. Lowry afterwards admitted to his wife that he had given her the wine which she had sold her to the man for $3, and told her that unless she held her tongue and consented to the stranger's visiting her whenever he pleased, he would accuse her of faithlessness and denounce her publicly.

In about ten days, she relates, she was well enough to rise from her bed and go to her parents, where she told the horrible tale. Lowry followed her some time later and wanted her to go back, but she indignantly refused. He threatened to steal the children—the second one having been born meanwhile—unless she would consent to live with him, and he was then driven off the premises and did not return. His wife partly lost her reason after the Park City horror, and has never yet entirely regained it. She raves about her troubles whenever she takes a fit of insanity. Our informant is a gentleman who got the above statement from the poor woman's relatives. We publish it to show how much reliability can be placed upon Lowry's statement in the Police Court, that was his "first offense," providing he and the accuser we have been speaking about, are, as there is little room for doubt, one and the same person.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

CULLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.

On Thursday morning, while Fred Nagle, who is employed in the transfer sheds at Pocatello, was engaged in transferring some large iron doors for the round house at Shoshone, he slipped and at the same time the large door which was being lowered by his head coming between the door and the side of the building, catching one of his ears and splitting it in two. Dr. Bean was telegraphed for, who sewed it up, and he will soon have a good ear again.

Two young men who had been hunting, came set fire to the grass on the Holdaway ranch, near Provo, recently, and had it not been for the timely discovery of the fire by Mr. Levi Holdaway, and his promptness in taking steps to extinguish it, several thousands of dollars worth of property might have been destroyed. Mr. H. B. Hays, who was on the ranch at the time it started, and gathered a number of persons who lived in the vicinity to his assistance, in putting out the fire. As it was, very little damage was done.

—Jacob L. Uhrman, a German, who kept a restaurant on Wall street, near Fifth street, Ogden, committed suicide last Sunday morning by taking strychnine. About 6 o'clock the employer was attracted to his room by his cries for help. He called for a glass of milk and said he had taken strychnine. He expired shortly after drinking the milk. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of death by poison, administered by his own hands. Three bottles of the deadly drug were found in his room, one of which was nearly empty. A letter was found addressed to George Murphy, in which he requested Mr. Murphy to pay several bills and give him a decent burial. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon.

—The only thing that happened to the pleasure of the party who went from Eagle Rock, Idaho, to Pocatello, was the accident which befel William Green. After the sham battle by the Indians, it being about dusk, he went to the camp, and for sport sat on one of his horses, and taking a six-shooter, commenced firing around and firing the pistol, when by some means when he held it down it was discharged, the ball entering his right leg about two inches above the knee, and passing directly over the knee-cap and under the skin, lodged about three or four inches below the knee, fortunately not breaking a bone. Dr. Bean took out the ball and he is recovering nicely. It will probably be a month before he will be able to walk, however.

—Rawlins, W. T., had a prize fight the other night which attracted the attendance of the fight, the store-occupied joints of Fifth, the jeweler, and W. H. Williston & Co., were crowded from the rear by throngs, who made a good haul. One hundred and seventy-five dollars in cash and several watches is the extent of Wirth's loss, while Williston & Co. contributed $75 in money. Altogether it was a pretty clean job. The time during which the proprietors were at the fight was too short for the bargains to be done much in the way of forcing open the safe in which the valuables and money were. The proposition is, therefore, that the safe had been left unlocked, or the knob turned without running the combination. It will be remembered that in last Tuesday's issue the Provo Express mentioned the fact that "Tinner" Moore had been fined $75 for selling whiskey in violation of the city ordinances. While his case was being heard before the alderman, Dr. Shoebridge, who it appears owned the stock of whiskey, had merely employed the tinner as his agent, concluded he would discontinue the business and close the place up. Moore notified the doctor that he expected him to pay the fine. This the doctor refused to do, stating in effect that he had only agreed to allow him half of the profits for running the whiskey trade, that he had not sold all the profits and consumed half of the stock, and that he would have to pay his fine himself. This bewildered the tinner, but only temporarily, for he soon commenced to think and then act; the result of which was that in the absence of the doctor, he rolled up five pretty good sized barrels of the fluid and had them concealed somewhere. The doctor soon heard of it, ran after an attorney and then the trouble began. Mr. Therman, the doctor's attorney, interviewed the "tinner" and advised him for his own good, to return those barrels. This the "tinner" decidedly said he wouldn't do. "Oh yes, you will," mildly said the attorney, "those barrels will be put back before noon tomorrow," and he walked quietly away. Sure enough, the barrels were just before noon on the following day. The tinner says now, however, that he knows the law and has been out up to a "plant or two."

PERSONAL. Dwight S. Dow, the New York accountant, arrived in the city Wednesday night from the East. Mr. Dow is with him, and as he promised last spring, he has come for business. He will organize a class in bookkeeping in the City Hall early next week.

Mr. L. A. Cummings, late of the Home Dramatic Club, has gone north with the Gleaner party consisting of a wife and spring engagement. Brother Wm. H. Folsom, superintendent and architect of the Mast Temple, is in the city, and returns south in about a week.
