NOTICE OF MORTGAGE SALES

OF THE

SALT LAKE & FORT DOUGLAS RAILWAY, SALT LAKE & EASTERN RAILWAY, AND UTAH CENTRAL RAILWAY.

FIRST.—SALT LAKE & FORT DOUGLAS RAILWAY.

NOTICE IS GIVEN, THAT UNDER and by virtue of a judgment and decree of foreclosure in the District Court for the Third Judicial District of the State of Utah, in the County of Salt Lake, rendered on the 6th day of March, 1897, in an action in said court wherein Thomas Marshall, Samuel P. Teasdel and Lorin Farr, as trustees, are the plaintiffs, and the Salt Lake & Fort Douglas Railway Company, the Salt Lake & Eastern Railway Company, the Utah Central Railway Company and others are defendants, as Special Master of said court, I shall sell in one parcel to the highest bidder at public auction, at the west front door of the City and County Building, in the City and County of Salt Lake, State of Utah, on Saturday, the 8th day of May, 1897, at 11 o'clock a. m., all and singular the property and premises hereinafter described.

Terms of sale—No bid will be received for less than the sum required to pay liens and expenses adjudged superior to the claims of bondholders, which sum is estimated at Twenty-two Thousand Seven Hundred ($22,700) Dollars, and this amount must be paid in cash, except that Receivers' Certificates to the amount of eleven thousand one hundred ($11,100) dollars principal and the interest thereon (being proximately the interest from February 12, 1896, at 7 per cent per annum) will be received as cash. On the balance of a bid above the minimum sum aforesaid, the purchaser may apply in or toward payment bonds and interest coupons of the Salt Lake & Fort Douglas Railway company for the pro rata of the bid which the holder of the bonds and coupons would be entitled to receive from the proceeds of sale, the bonds and coupons so receivable being the whole or part of an issue by said Railway Company, of 400 bonds for the principal sum of $1,000 each dated January 1st, 1890, and the interest coupons thereon unpaid, and secured by the mortgage foreclosed in said action. Any party may bid at the sale. When the premises are struck off, a payment of $5,000 by certified check or cash will be required and the balance as soon as a certificate of sale is made. The sale will be subject to redemption as upon sales under execution. The sale will be stayed in case said Railway Company shall, before sale, pay or cause to be paid, the amount of charges prior to the bonds estimated at Twenty-two Thousand Seven Hundred Dollars ($22,700) and the unpaid interest on 400 bonds of $1,000 each from January 1st, 1893, at 6 per cent per annum until and including the semi-annual interest which matured January 1st, 1897.

The premises ordered sold are situated in the County of Salt Lake, State of Utah, and are described as follows:

The line of railway of the Salt Lake & Fort Douglas Railway company, commencing at a point connecting with the Rio Grande Western Railway on Eighth South street, in Salt Lake City, thence east to Seventh East street, thence south to Ninth South street, thence east to Tenth East, thence north on Tenth East street across the Jordan & Salt Lake canal, thence in a general northeasterly direction to the intersection of First South and Thirteenth East streets, thence northerly to First street, and thence east to the line of the Fort Douglas Military Reservation, thence easterly across said reservation to the stone quarries, brick fields and lime stone (formerly) of the Salt Lake Rock company in Red Butte canyon, with a branch from some point on the line in the Military Reservation to the Salt Lake Rock company's lands and the Wagner Brewery at the mouth of Emigration canyon, and with another branch line running from said company's line in Salt Lake City to the mouth of Big Cottonwood canyon, and also all other roads and branches acquired by amendments to the articles of said railroad company or otherwise, together with all superstructures, depot grounds, station houses, watering places, shops, machinery, scales, rolling stock, fixtures, and all property whatsoever used or connected with said railroads in the operation thereof, and all the property franchises and privileges acquired by said company, with the hereditaments and appurtenances.

Dated March 29, 1897.

GEO. D. LOOMIS,
Special Master.

SECOND—SALT LAKE AND EASTERN RAILWAY.

Notice is given that, under and by virtue of a judgment and decree of foreclosure of the District Court for the Third Judicial District of the State of Utah, in the County of Salt Lake, rendered on the 6th day of March, 1897, in an action in said court, wherein the Knickerbocker Trust company, as Trustee, is plaintiff, and the Salt Lake & Eastern Railway company, the Utah Central Railway company, the Central Trust Company of New York, and others, are defendants, as Special Master of said Court, I shall sell in one parcel to the highest bidder at public auction at the west front door of the City and County Building in Salt Lake City and County, State of Utah, on Saturday, the 8th day of May, 1897, at 11 o'clock a. m., all and singular the railroad property and premises hereinafter described.

Terms of sale—No bid will be received of less than the amount required to pay liens and expenses adjudged superior to the claims of bond-holders, which sum is estimated at one hundred and eighteen thousand ($118,000) dollars, and this amount must be paid in cash, except that Receivers Certificates to the amount of eighty-eight thousand nine hundred ($88,900) dollars of principal and the unpaid interest thereon (being proximately interest from February 12, 1896, at 7 per cent per annum) will be received as cash. On the balance of a bid above the minimum sum aforesaid, the purchaser may apply in or toward payment, bonds and unpaid interest coupons of the Salt Lake & Eastern Railway Company, of the issue of 1,200 bonds of $1,000 each and interest, dated July 1st, 1890, for the pro rata of the bid which the holder thereof would be entitled to receive from the proceeds of sale. Any party may bid at the sale. When the premises are struck off the purchaser will be required to pay in cash or by certified check $10,000 and the balance of the bid as soon as a certificate of sale is made, and the sale will be subject to redemption within six months, as upon sale under execution. The sale will be stayed if the Salt Lake & Eastern Railway Company pays or causes to be paid before sale, the amount of liens and expenses superior to the claims of bondholders, estimated at $118,000, and the interest on said 1,200 bonds at 6 per cent per annum up to and including that which matured January 1st, 1897.

The premises ordered sold are situated in the Counties of Salt Lake and Summit, State of Utah, and are described as follows:

All the railway of the Salt Lake & Eastern Railway Company beginning at a point near Salt Lake City, Salt Lake County, State of Utah, on the Salt Lake & Fort Douglas Railway known as the Sugar House, thence running eastwardly through Parley's Canyon and Parley's Park to Park City in Summit County, a distance with sidings and spurs of about thirty-five miles, be the same a little more or less.

Also including the contemplated branch or extension of the said railway of the Salt Lake and Eastern Railway Company to Kamas Prairie, a distance of twenty-five miles or thereabouts, or in lieu thereof other branches or extensions not however exceeding twenty-five miles in length.

Together with the track or roadway thereof and its appurtenances including therein all rights of way, superstructures, rails, tracks, side tracks or sidings, bridges, culverts, buildings, fences, depots, station houses, shops, warehouses, car houses, engine houses, machine shops, repair shops, buildings, erections and structures necessary for the construction, operation and maintenance of said railway branches and extensions; and all fixtures and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, and all and singular the rolling stock, equipment and machinery appertaining thereto, also all the rights, privileges, immunities and franchises whatsoever belonging or appertaining to said railway branches and extensions; also all the estate, right, title, interest, property, possession, claim and demand whatsoever of the said Salt Lake & Eastern Railway Company in and to the same and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances.

GEO. D. LOOMIS, Special Master.
Dated March 29th, 1897.

THIRD—UTAH CENTRAL RAILWAY.

Notice is given that, under and by virtue of a judgment and decree of foreclosure, in the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the State of Utah in Salt Lake County, rendered on the 6th day of March, 1897, in an action in said court wherein the Central Trust company of New York, as trustee, is plaintiff, and the Utah Central Railway company, William F. Tolley, Joseph Goddard, the Continental Oil company and others, are defendants, as Special Master of said Court, I shall sell at public auction in one parcel to the highest bidder, at the west front door of the City and County Building in the City and County of Salt Lake, State of Utah, on Saturday, May 8th, 1897, at 11 o'clock a.m., all and singular the railroad property and premises hereinafter described.

Terms of Sale—Any party may bid at the sale. No bid will be received of less than the amount required to pay liens and expenses adjudged prior to the claims of bond holders, which is estimated at Twenty-one thousand six hundred ($21,600) dollars, and this amount must be paid in cash. On the balance of a bid above the minimum bid as aforesaid, the purchaser may apply bonds and unpaid interest coupons of the Utah Central Railway of the issue of said company of 201 bonds of $1,000.00 each and interest at 5 per cent per annum, dated May 1st, 1891, for the pro rata of the bid which the holders thereof would be entitled to receive from the proceeds of sale. When the premises are struck off the the purchaser must pay $5,000 in cash or by certified check, and the balance of the bid when a certificate of sale is made, and the sale be subject to redemption within six months as upon sale under execution. The sale will be stayed if the Utah Central Railway company, before sale, pays or causes to be paid the amount of liens and expenses adjudged prior to the claims of bondholders, and interest on said 201 bonds from date until and including the interest which matured November 1st, 1896. The sale of the mortgaged property will be subject to sales under prior mortgages and decrees of sale, as to those portions of the premises described in the notices of sales above, marked "First" and "Second."

The premises ordered sold are situated in the Counties of Salt Lake, Wasatch, Summit and Uintah, State of Utah, and described as follows:

NOTICE

OF SALE UNDER DEED OF TRUST.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN BY THE undersigned, Francis Fritsch, trustee, named in a certain deed of trust, wherein G. D. Amos, an unmarried man of Salt Lake County, Utah, is first party, Francis Fritsch of Salt Lake City, Utah, is second party and J. A. Fritsch of Salt Lake City is third party or beneficiary, [illegible] and delivered on the [illegible] day of March, 1893, whereby the said first party conveyed to said Francis Fritsch, trustee, said second party, all the real estate hereinafter described, in trust to secure the payment of a certain promissory note of the same date with said deed of trust for the sum of six hundred dollars ($600), payable to the order of J. A. Fritsch, two years after date, with interest on said sum at 10 per cent per annum from date, payable quarterly, which note was made, executed and delivered by said first party, for value received, to the said J. A. Fritsch, the third party. And by said deed of trust it was provided that if default be made in the payment of the principal of said note or any part thereof, or the interest that might accrue thereon, or any part thereof as the same became due and payable, or the taxes on said property when due, that then the undersigned might proceed to sell said described property at public vendue to the highest bidder, after giving due public notice thereof as in said deed required; and whereas said deed of trust was duly recorded on the [illegible] day of March, 1893, in the office of the County Recorder of Salt Lake County, Territory (now State) of Utah, in Book [illegible] of mortgages, page [illegible], reference to which is hereby made; and whereas no part of the principal sum of said note has been paid and no part of the interest due thereon, after September 12th, 1893, has been paid, and said principal sum was due on March 12th, 1895, and said first party has failed and neglected to pay the taxes due on said property for the years 1893 and 1895. And whereas said note has been assigned to S. W. McFarland, who is now the legal owner and holder thereof, and whereas the said S. W. McFarland, the said legal holder of said note, has notified me of said non-payment of said note due the payable as aforesaid and has requested me to sell said real estate in accordance with the provisions of said deed of trust, and out of the proceeds of sale to pay the expenses of this trust including [illegible] compensation to the trustee for his services, and to apply the proceeds remaining over to the payment of said debt and interest and the taxes paid by said S. W. McFarland and to pay the remainder, if any, to said first party.

Now, therefore, on Saturday, the 1st day of May, A. D. 1897, at the hour of 12 o'clock noon of said day, at the west front door of the City and County Building of Salt Lake County (otherwise known as the City and County Building), in Salt Lake City, Utah, for the purposes aforesaid and at public vendue, I shall sell to the highest bidder for cash all of the right, title and interest that said G. D. Amos had on the [illegible] day of March, 1893, or has since acquired of, in, and to those certain parcels of real estate, situate in the City and County of Salt Lake, State of Utah, to-wit: Lots [illegible] and [illegible] in Block [illegible]; Lots [illegible] in Block 7; Lots 1 to [illegible] inclusively and [illegible] to [illegible] inclusively in Block 8; Lots 1 to 4 inclusively and 15 to 18 inclusively in Block [illegible]; Lots [illegible] to 11 inclusively in Block [illegible]; Lots 5 and 6 and [illegible] to [illegible] inclusively in Block [illegible]; Lots [illegible] to 22 inclusively in Block 7, and all of Block [illegible] of Amos Addition to Salt Lake City survey, Salt Lake County, Utah, a sub division of part of Lot [illegible], Section 27, Township 1 north of Range 1 west of Salt Lake Meridian.

FRANCIS FRITSCH, Trustee.

SUMMONS.

In the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the State of Utah, County of Salt Lake.

G. B. Bothwell and [illegible], copartners as Bothwell and [illegible], plaintiffs, vs.
Hugh A. Arnold and F. O. [illegible], defendants.

The State of Utah sends greeting: Hugh A. Arnold and F. O. [illegible], defendants.

YOU ARE HEREBY REQUIRED TO APPEAR in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiffs in the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the State of Utah, and to answer the complaint filed therein within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons—if served within this county, or, if served out of this county, but in this district, within twenty days; otherwise within forty days—or judgment by default will be taken against you, according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to obtain judgment against the defendants for the sum of $[illegible] principal and interest thereon at the rate of [illegible] per cent per annum from [illegible] June [illegible], 1896, less $[illegible] paid August [illegible], [illegible] paid August [illegible], [illegible] paid September [illegible], 1896, and $[illegible] October [illegible], 1896. For [illegible] attorney's fees [illegible] costs of suit, alleged to be due the plaintiffs from the defendant, Hugh A. Arnold on a certain promissory note, executed by the said defendant, Arnold, to the plaintiffs, on the [illegible] day of [illegible], 1895, for the sum of $[illegible], [illegible] one year after date, with interest at [illegible] per cent per annum, the said note being due and wholly unpaid, [illegible] as above set forth, being secured by a mortgage of even date therewith on premises hereinafter described, executed by the defendant Hugh A. Arnold, and [illegible] the plaintiffs, that the plaintiffs are the lawful owners and holders said note and mortgage; that by the terms of said mortgage the above named defendant Hugh A. Arnold agreed to pay a reasonable attorney's fee, as have the usual decree of this court for foreclosure of said mortgage for the sale of said premises, adjudging the proceeds of said sale may be applied to the payment of the amount found due to these plaintiffs, after the [illegible] of the sale, that defendants, and all persons claiming under them, [illegible] and foreclosed of all claim or equity of redemption in said premises, and every part thereof, that plaintiffs have judgment and execution against the defendant, Hugh A. Arnold for any deficiency which may remain after applying all the proceeds of the sale of said premises properly applicable to the satisfaction of said judgment. That the plaintiff or any party to this suit may be a purchaser at said sale; that the sheriff execute a deed to the purchaser and that the purchaser be let into possession of the premises on production of the sheriff's said deed thereof, and that the plaintiffs have such other and further relief in the premises as the court may seem just and equitable.

Said premises are described as follows: Lots [illegible] fifty-two [illegible] in Central Park [illegible] of [illegible], [illegible] in Block 11, [illegible] Acre, [illegible] Field survey. Same being situate in Salt Lake City and county, Utah.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as above required, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded therein.

Witness the Honorable [illegible] Judge, and the seal of the District Court of the Third Judicial District, in and for the State of Utah this 22nd day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

[SEAL.] DAVID C. DUNBAR, Clerk.
By GEO. D. LOOMIS, Deputy Clerk.

TRUSTEE'S SALE NOTICE.

WHEREAS, GILBERT D. AMOS AND Martha E. Amos, his wife, of the County of Salt Lake, State of Utah, did by their certain deed of trust dated the first day of March, A. D. 1893, and recorded March [illegible], A. D. 1893, in Book [illegible] "F" of Trust Deeds, Pages [illegible] and [illegible] of the records in the office of the Recorder of Salt Lake County, Territory of Utah, convey to James H. Bacon, Trustee, the following described real estate, situate in Salt Lake City, Salt Lake County, Utah Territory (now State), to wit: Beginning at the southwest corner of Lot Three (3), Block Forty-nine (49), Plat "B" Salt Lake City survey, running thence east ninety-nine (99) feet, thence south ten (10) rods, thence west [illegible] and one half (½) feet, thence north ten ([illegible]) rods, thence west [illegible] rods, thence north ten (10) rods to place of beginning.

Which said conveyance was made in trust to secure to the order of the Jarvis-Conklin Mortgage Trust Company the payment of the said Gilbert D. Amos and Martha E. Amos's one promissory note for the principal sum of five thousand, six hundred and fifty ($5,650) dollars, due on the first day of March, A. D. 1897, with interest thereon from the date thereof at the rate of six (6) per cent per annum, payable semi annually on the first days of September and March of each and every year as evidenced by coupon notes attached to said principal note of even date therewith.

Whereas said deed of trust provided that in case of default in payment of said note or any part thereof, said indebtedness may at once become due and payable, and the trustee shall upon the application of the legal holder of said note, first giving twenty days' notice as required by said deed of trust, sell and dispose of the above described property in the manner in the said deed of trust described, reference to which is hereby made for greater certainty, for the purpose of paying said principal note and interest due thereon according to the terms thereof, together with costs and expenses of executing this trust.

Whereas, default has been made in the payment of the installments of interest, due March 1st, 1896, and each coupon due thereafter, together with the principal, which fell due on March 1st, 1897, and the taxes of 1896 and said defaults still continuing, by reason thereof the present legal holder of said note and coupons has requested the said trustee to make sale of said premises.

Now, therefore, I James H. Bacon, trustee, at the request of the legal holder of said indebtedness, under and by virtue of the power and authority in me vested, will, on Friday, the 28th day of April, A. D. 1897, at the hour of 12 o'clock a. m. of said day sell said above described property and all right, title and equity of redemption of the said Gilbert D. Amos and Martha E. Amos, his wife, their heirs and assigns therein, for the highest and best price same will bring in cash, at the west front door of the County Court House, (City and County Building), in the city and county of Salt Lake, State of Utah, for the purpose of paying said indebtedness and all costs and expenses of executing this trust.

Dated this 5th day of April, A. D. 1897.

JAMES H. BACON, Trustee.
E. W. WILSON, Attorney.

LEGAL NOTICE.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT whereas Louis N. Anderson and Emma Anderson his wife on the 11th day of February, 1896, executed a deed of trust to Elias A. Smith as Trustee of all the property hereinafter described to secure the payment of the sum of $[illegible], evidenced by a promissory note of that date, payable two years thereafter with [illegible] per cent interest per annum from date until paid, interest payable quarterly, with power to declare said note due upon default of the payment of the interest, which said deed of trust was duly filed for record in the office of the Salt Lake County Recorder, on February 12th, 1896, in Book "[illegible]" of Mortgages, at page [illegible], which said deed of trust, as executed and as recorded aforesaid, is hereby referred to and made a part of this notice.

And whereas the said Louis N. Anderson and Emma Anderson, are in default in the payment of said interest and have been for some time so in default, and whereas the said Ransel Sherwood, the holder of said note and deed of trust, has declared the whole due and unpaid, both principal and interest on account of the failure to pay the interest when due.

And whereas he has requested the undersigned trustee named in said deed of trust to advertise the said property for sale, and sell the same to pay the said note together with the interest thereon up to the time of the sale, and the payment of the expenses of this sale, including a reasonable attorney's fee as provided in the said deed of trust.

Now therefore in consideration of the premises, notice is hereby given that the undersigned trustee, on the 22nd day of May A. D. 1897, at the hour of 12 o'clock noon at the west front door of the County Court House, being the Joint City and County Building in Salt Lake County, Utah, will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, all the property described in said deed of trust and also particularly described as follows: All of Lot five (5), Block one (1) of "Heywood Place Addition," as per recorded Plat of said addition, in Salt Lake City, Salt Lake County, Utah, together with all the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, to satisfy the said note, interest, costs and attorney's fees, as provided in said deed of trust.

Dated this 26th day of April, A. D. 1897.

ELIAS A. SMITH
Trustee.

SUMMONS.

In the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the State of Utah, County of Salt Lake.

Eldora Shendall, Plaintiff, vs.
Ernest G. Shendall, Defendant.

The State of Utah sends greeting to Ernest G. Shendall, Defendant.

YOU ARE HEREBY REQUIRED TO APPEAR in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff in the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the State of Utah, and to answer the complaint filed therein within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons—if served within this county, or if served out of this county, but in this district, within twenty days; otherwise within forty days—or judgment by default will be taken against you, according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to have a decree of this Court, that the plaintiff be divorced from the said defendant and that the bonds of matrimony now existing between them be annulled; that she be allowed to resume her maiden name, and that she have judgment against the said defendant for costs, and for such other relief in the premises as may be just.

The above relief prayed for on the grounds that the defendant has wilfully neglected to provide the plaintiff with the common necessaries of life and during the whole of said time, to wit: from April 1st, 1895, to the present time, he has not done so, absolutely fail and neglect to provide for the plaintiff in any manner whatsoever, and that during the whole of said period she has been wholly dependent for support upon her parents with whom she is now living, and with whom she has lived ever since the month of April, 1895, the time of the desertion of the plaintiff by the said defendant.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as above required, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded herein.

Witness the Honorable Judges, and the seal of the District Court of the Third [SEAL.] Judicial District, in and for the State of Utah, this [illegible] day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and ninety seven.

DAVID C. DUNBAR, Clerk.
