CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND & PACIFIC R. R.

Its main line runs from Chicago to Council Bluffs, passing through Joliet, Ottawa, La Salle, Geneseo, Moline, Rock Island, Davenport, West Liberty, Iowa City, Marengo, Brooklyn, Grinnell, Des Moines (the Capital of Iowa), Stuart, Atlantic and Avoca; with branches from Bureau Junction to Peoria; Wilton Junction to Muscatine; Washington to Harlan. It is positively the only railroad, which owns, and operates a through line from Chicago into the State of Kansas.

Through Express Passenger Trains, with Pullman Palace Cars attached, are run each way daily between CHICAGO and PEORIA, KANSAS CITY, COUNCIL BLUFFS, LEAVENWORTH and ATCHISON. Through cars are also run between Milwaukee and Kansas City, via the "Milwaukee and Rock Island Short Line."

The "Great Rock Island" is magnificently equipped. Its road bed is simply perfect, and its track is laid with steel rails.

What will please you most will be the pleasure of enjoying your meals, while passing over the beautiful prairies of Illinois and Iowa, in one of our magnificent Dining Cars that accompany all Through Express Trains. You get an entire meal, as good as is served in any first-class hotel, for seventy-five cents.

Appreciating the fact that a majority of the people prefer separate apartments for different purposes (and the immense passenger business of this line warranting it), we are pleased to announce that this Company runs Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars for sleeping purposes, and Palace Dining Cars for eating purposes only. One other great feature of our Palace Cars is a SMOKING SALOON where you can enjoy your "Havana" at all hours of the day.

Magnificent Iron Bridges span the Mississippi and Missouri rivers at all points crossed by this line, and transfers are avoided at Council Bluffs, Kansas City, Leavenworth, and Atchison, connections being made in Union Depots.

The cures effected by SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP are absolute, and their record is undisfigured by failure.

For Sale by all Druggists.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY ever discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Also excellent for human flesh. Read proof below.

FROM

COL. L. T. FOSTER,

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, May 10th, 1880.

DR. B. J. KENDALL & CO., Gents:—I had a very valuable Bambiestonian colt that I prized very highly, he had a large bone spavin on one joint and a small one on the other which made him very lame; I had him under the charge of two veterinary surgeons which failed to cure him. I was one day reading the advertisement of Kendall's Spavin Cure in the Chicago Express. I determined at once to try it and got our druggists here to send for it, they ordered three bottles; I took them all and thought I would give it a thorough trial, I used it according to directions and the fourth day the colt ceased to be lame and the lumps have disappeared. I used but one bottle and the colt's limbs are as free from lumps and as smooth as any horse in the state. He is entirely cured. The cure was so remarkable that I let two of my neighbors have the remaining two bottles who are now using it. Very respectfully, L. T. Foster.

Kendall's Spavin Cure

Is sure in its effects, mild in its actions as it does not blister, yet it is penetrating and powerful to reach every deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or other enlargements, such as spavins, splints, curbs, ringbones, callous, swellings and any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or for rheumatism in man or for any purpose for which a liniment is used for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mildly and yet certainly in its effects.

Send address for illustrated circular which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success to our knowledge, for beast as well as man.

Price $1, per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors, DR. B. J. KENDALL & CO., Enosburg Falls, Vt.

EVENING NEWS.

Monday, - Feb. 5, 1883.

MIXED SPICE.

"That butter is all right," said a boarding-house keeper; "it is firkin butter, and tastes a little of the wood, that's all." "If that's the case," replied the boarder, who is a contractor, "I should like to get some of that wood to make railroad bridges of."

A tack is a simple, unpretending sort of a young nail, noted for its keen repartee when pressed for a reply, and possessing the peculiar power, when standing on its head, of causing the cold shivers to run down the back of a man in mere anticipation of what might be.

Great things are expected from the newly elected officials all over the country; but the general experience of the people is similar to that of the lady who paid $5 a dozen for Cochin China eggs, but when she came to look into the nest she discovered that they had hatched out Muscovy ducks.—Texas Siftings.

Progress says etiquette has never determined whether, in eating soup, "the point or the side of the spoon should go into the mouth." Many people overcome the difficulty by putting the entire spoon in the mouth; and the soup, no doubt, tastes just as good as if they had only inserted the point of the utensil. —Norristown Herald.

At one of Rossini's own soirees a lady, whose vocal powers were by no means on a par with her artistic pretensions, having been requested to favor the company with an air from Semiramide, turned to her host and bespoke his indulgence, assuring him that she was terribly nervous. "Not more than I am madame, I promise you," coolly retorted Rossini.—London Society.

"Biddy, bring Mrs. Smith a glass of sherry." Exit Biddy. "You must be so tired from your walk." Biddy brings the glass of sherry. "Not that way my good girl. You should always bring it in on a plate or salver." Exit Biddy. "She is very willing, but really she knows so little." Biddy, re-entering with wine in a soup plate—"Shall I bring a spoon, ma'am, or will the lady lap it up?"

Bertha von Hillern, the female pedestrian, says that with a year's training she could convert ninety out of one hundred delicate women into a healthy and vigorous condition. She says every woman under fifty ought to be able to walk two miles without excessive fatigue, and compares American ladies with their English sisters, who think nothing of tramping eight or ten miles a day for a "constitutional."

Charles Dickens used to tell a story about the early days of a renowned mourning establishment. He went there one day about some mourning, and was ushered into a room where sat a shopman, with an attendant in woe stricken habiliments, who groaned out: "A father, a mother, perhaps a wife." "Oh, no," said Dickens, "only a distant relative." "Oh, sir," said the funeral tone, "you have made a mistake. This is the chamber of agonizing woe. John, toll the bell, and show the gentleman into the light-affliction department."

The Archbishop of York is said to date the red-letter days of his career after the fashion of Mrs. Nickleby. Chatting recently with some brother bishops he said: "My first preferment came to me at the birth of my first child; a bishopric on the birth of the second, and my archbishopric on the birth of the third." "Well," said Bishop Wilberforce, with a twinkling eye and bland tone, "we must hope that Mrs. Thomas will not put you in the way of any more promotion at present, for there are but two more translations open to you—Canterbury and heaven—and you are not yet fit for either, I fear."

"Man is the only animal that laughs," says Darwin. Man is the only animal that blows his nose. The alligator has a nose nearly two feet long and he never blows it. The elephant can reach over his nose and tickle his hind legs, and he often does but he never wipes it. The double-nose pointer has immense capacity for blowing, but he never will. And the oyster, whose nose reaches clear around to his back, refrains from exercising it. Man alone has reached the height of a pocket-handkerchief, and he proudly wears it.—Detroit Chaff.

What would have paralyzed him: It was just before the curtain had gone up for the third act, when Smith, who had been out to "see a man," noticed Brown, seated a few rows in front of him. "Do you see that fellow over there?" he said to his wife. She nodded assent. "Well," he continued, "I hate that fellow like a cat hates hot soup, and if I ever get a chance I'll paralyse him." Then his wife asked, "Are you going out to see a man after the close of this act?" Smith hiccoughingly allowed that he was. Well, I will tell you what to do, dear. When you come back you go over to Mr. Brown and breathe on him. That will paralyze him."—Rochester Post Express.

He was just out: Some of our city stores are constantly annoyed by children coming to the door and asking for cards, empty boxes and that sort of things. The clerks are, of course, down on the youngsters and the warfare never ends. The other day a little girl opened a store door and sticking her head in, called out: "Say, mister, have you got any empty boxes?" "No," said the clerk, not very politely. "Got any cards?" "No." "Got any almanacs?" "No." "Got any empty bottles?" "No." "Got any pictures?" "No." "Got any sense?" "No—yes—no—yes—you miserable little wretch," and the clerk flew out of the door, but the youngster was up in the next alley making faces at him, and he came back madder than he had been since his salary was reduced.—Steubenville Herald.

"My dere frens," said a colored preacher in a small town in Georgia, "we tanks you dis ebenin' for $5.75 and one button. De man who put de button in de hat sent it away in a good cause, hut he loses an old fren', fur it am a greasy button. Now I'se not a rich man, for I'se a poor man, but I kin jist give dat man a dollar who'll cum up an' git his button. (A pause, with silence all over, and no one went up to get the button.) I dar you to cum up an' git do button. None uv yous a cumin? Well, I'se afeard you'll neber see your ole fren no more. It's a west button. My west's all full uv buttons, an' no regular place fur it. But I tell you what I does. I'll take dat button home an' have my wife sew it on sumwhar whar you kin all see it. Den when you comes to church you always sees your ole fren again. But now I tells you, de man as put dat button in de hat, he no gentleman. He better git converted rite away. He thort he got rid uv dat button, but he neber more mistaken in his life. Dat button bound to follow him all through dis world, an' when he get down to de bank uv Jordan, de button be sure to be rite smart after him, an' when he git 'crom de ribber on de udder side, look out, fur de button be dar afore him."—Foster's Gazette.

Girls, Be Cautious.

Girls, beware of transient young men. Never suffer the address of strangers. Recollect one good, steady farmer's boy or industrious mechanic is worth more than all the floating trash in the world. The allurements of a dandy Jack, with a gold chain about his neck, a walking stick in his paw, and a brainless though fancy skull, can never make up the loss of a kind father's home, a mother's counsel and the society of brothers and sisters. These affections last, while that of such a man is lost at the wane of the honeymoon. Girls, beware! Take heed lest ye fall into the "nare of the fowler." Too may have been already taken from a kind father's home and a good mother's counsel, and made the victims of poverty and crime, brought to shame and disgrace, and then thrown upon their own resources, to spend their few remaining days in grief and sorrow, while the brainless skull is making its circuit around the world, bringing to its ignoble will all that may be allured by his deceitful snares, and many a fair one to the shame of his artful villainy.—Ex.

Mohammedans in Indiana.

The Mohammedans in India comprise about one-fifth of the whole population, and have a full share of whatever resolution, capacity, or vivacity may pertain to the people at large. They certainly have religious convictions of the most definite character. They believe in God, in a future state, in a judgment for blessing or condemnation, in Mohammed as the Prophet of God, in the Koran as a divine revelation, in the Caliphs as the successors of the Prophet, and in many saints.

They believe, too, in the coming of an earthly Messiah in the person of the Imam Mehdi, who is to be the seventh and last of the Imams, six having appeared in historic times. The Imam Mehdi is to inaugurate an era when Islam now militant is to be finally triumphant, not only in India, but in other regions besides. This belief is an active principle, and allusion is made to it periodically whenever any trouble is in the air. It is bruited abroad explicitly on the average once, perhaps twice in every decade, and in a less explicit manner it is mentioned frequently. According to that religious conviction the Indian Mohammedans would be their own masters and would be lords of the land they live in.—Fortnightly Review.

A Wise Woolf.

A strange story is related by some persons who reside near Lemoore. It is vouched for by several parties of known veracity. It relates to the foresight and invention manifested by a very large woolf that infests the district. The parties in question had been missing poultry for some time. The decimation had proceeded to that extent that it aroused to activity the defensive faculty of the poultry owners. While one of them, a Mr. Stark Hill, was looking about for traces of the depredator he came across a duck that had been raised by W. R. Maesmeyer. Its head was all that was visible. The body had been buried with the wings spread out and the ground ead been tamped down. The duck was still alive, although it had been missing for three days. It is evident that the wolf had taken this plan to supply its future wants, and had managed to keep the fowl alive so that it would not spoil before he should want it. Thus it is evident that animals think and reason and manifest some of the faculties usually supposed to be the exclusive prerogative of the animal man. —Tulare Times.

SEEK

health and avoid sickness. Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't you rather feel fresh and strong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

How? By getting one bottle of BROWN' IRON BITTERS, and taking it regularly according to directions.

Mansfield, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1881.

Gentlemen:—I have suffered with pain in my side and back, and great soreness on my breast, with shooting pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits, and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got no relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bitters; I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—soreness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite, and am gaining in strength and flesh. It can justly be called the king of medicines.

JOHN K. ALLENDER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is composed of Iron in soluble form; Cinchona the great tonic, together with other standard remedies, making a remarkable non-alcoholic tonic, which will cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Malaria, Weakness, and relieve all Lung and Kidney diseases.
