Fully two-thirds of the pend-ing claims carry arrears of pensions, amounting to nearly $1,500 for each claimant, and the Commissioner believes that the interest of the country will be promoted by paying off the arrears as rapidly as possible, even at a cost of bringing up the total pension dis-bursements to $70,000,000 this year and $100,000,000 next, in order to re-duce the annual charge upon the Treasury more speedily thereafter. It is estimated that the aggregate annual value of United States pen-sions at the close of the present year will be about $33,000,000, and the total pension roll (excluding first payments on arrears) will never ex-

Louis to be removed on January 1st to Topeka, Kansas. The annual report of the Pension Bureau shows that on June 30th, 1881, there were 268,830 pensioners; net increase during the year, 18,028. The aggregate asnual value of all pensions, $29,769,967. The annual disbursements of the office, however, largely exceed this sum. For in-instance, the total amount paid for pen ions during the year, exclusive of certain arrears in the claims al-lowed prior to January 25th, 1879, was $49,723,147, the difference being arreare of pensions. The Commissioner of Pensions re-commends that Congress be asked to appropriate $100,000,000 for disburse-ment by his office the next fiscal year, ending June 20th, 1883, in The Herald says: It seems that there is no reason to doubt that President Arthur is here simply to arrange private matters requiring his personal attention, and having no relation whatever to politics. lince his accession to the Presiden cy, Arthur has maintained absolute neutrality with regard to the politi-cal quarrels in this city and State and none of his friends doubt his intention to carry out the policy of neutrality hereafter.

Arkadelphia. The defendants are Miss Sarah Stokes and Mrs. Eliza-beth Shelton, who are charged with the murder of Miss Melinda Stevens. The tragedy occurred near Mineral Springs, in Howard County, one day last April. The Stokes and Stevens are prominent people living on adjoining farms. Sarah Stokes is a young and exceedingly handsome girl of 17, has a violent temper and is quick to resent real or fancied in-suit. She cherishes implacable hatred towards her enemies. Some time ago a sister of Miss Stevens make very derogatory remarks con-cerning Miss Stokes; this coming to the ears of the latter, she swore vengeance in a terrible manner. It is said that the girls were rivals. Miss Stokes mounted a horse and accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Sheldon, set out to find Miss Ste-vens, when they heard she was do-ing some shoundus to a note and accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Sheldon, set out to find Miss Ste-vens, when they heard she was do-ing some shoundus to a note and accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Sheldon, set out to find Miss Ste-vens, when they heard she was do-ing some shoundus to a note of the plaintiff; asserts bat the plaintiff; asserts hat the plaintiff; asserts Sheldon, set out to find Miss Stevens, when they heard she was doing some shopping in a neightoring town. The two women reached the place after a short and rapid ride, but Miss Stevens had been warned that they were searching for her and was advised to keep out of their way, and had acted on the suggestion. After visiting all the stores in the village and without finding Miss Stevens, the women started to return home. Presently as the twain came by the dwelling of the Stevens'; which massionate words to her. The conversation brought out Miss Matilda
