PAYSON.

BURIAL OF CHAS. BREWERTON.

W. C. Wightman Victim of Painful Accident—Reception to Singer.

Special Correspondence.
Payson, Utah, Oct. 26.—W. C. Wightman, Jr., was brought down from Silver City Saturday afternoon on the R. G. W. freight with one of his legs crushed by a heavy piece of metal falling on it. The injury is not as bad as at first reported and it is expected he will be able to get out in a week or two.

The funeral of Charles Brewerton was held yesterday in the stake tabernacle. The Sunday and district schools, the various quorums of the priesthood marched from the residence to the tabernacle which was well filled on this occasion. President Page, Jr., Hyrum Lemmon and President Page of the high priests' quorum were the speakers. Mrs. Emma Ramsey Morris sang beautifully between the speaking. The deceased was born in England in 1831 and came to Utah in 1858, residing in Payson the greater part of the time since. He has held many positions of trust and has been a prominent member of the growth of this city. He was greatly beloved for his kindly, genial nature.

A reception was given Mrs. Emma Ramsey Morris last evening at the home of J. J. Ross. A pleasant evening was spent and her admiring friends were given a treat in listening to her cultured voice.

RIVERTON.

PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS.

Business Changes—Crops Satisfactory—Taking Up Dry Land.

Special Correspondence.
Riverton, Salt Lake Co., Oct. 27.—Riverton is one of the most agricultural towns in Salt Lake county. Farmers are now digging beets, getting up potatoes and picking apples, and the crops are fairly satisfactory.

Many purchases have been made of lands above the canal for dry farming, among the buyers are: Thomas Hamilton, Reuben Hamilton, John Spencer, Chris Larson, Gust Madsen and sons, Edward Morgan and others during the past few weeks.

The Jordan Valley Dry Farm company is finishing up its work for the season, and will put the engine away for the year. This is the company that purchased a combined harvester, using an engine to cut, thresh and sack the grain at one operation, and was a complete success.

The Riverton meetinghouse, of which the claim is made that it is the finest country ward meetinghouse in the Church, is about completed, although the upper story is not yet finished. The lower portion of the building has been used for the last month for meetings, Sunday schools, etc. It will pay neighbors to visit and see what a beautiful building the people here have erected.

The Riverton schoolhouse, to cost about $25,000 when completed, is now up to the square with prospects of being ready for occupancy by the new year.

BUSINESS CHANGES.

The Page-Pixton company, the largest mercantile establishment in southern Salt Lake county, is changing its name, and will be known in the future as Page-Hansen company. It is reported that Thomas P. Page, who has been the manager for some years, will visit Europe, Turkey, Palestine, etc., and that John Hansen, Jr., will succeed him as manager.

George W. Bills has lately returned from a mission to Ohio. He is building a store and is going into business with his son-in-law under the name of Bills & Park.

It is also reported that a company from the adjacent ward of Draper will also engage in the mercantile business here.

Acid and Alkali In the Stomach

Digest the Food Naturally If In Right Proportion; If Not: Then Dyspepsia.

Acid and alkali make up the liquid known as gastric juice, which digests your food.

If through abuse of the stomach, or weakness of blood or through scores of other causes this gastric juice is not made up correctly of acid and alkali, your stomach cannot digest food.

Such a stomach then acts as a pit where the food lies, ferments, decays, is thrown off at last, either into the intestines or is vomited from the system.

If thrown into the intestines a large proportion of it is taken up and passed into the blood, for the intestines are covered with blood vessels, and with millions of little mouths which are placed there to suck up nourishment for the blood.

You may readily see that if instead of good rich nourishment there is vile poisonous fermented bile and acid these same little mouths suck some of it by necessity and pass it into the blood. The blood in turn throws off the acid and the system is immediately placed in an imperfect state.

The blood is weakened, the tissues lose strength, the skin becomes diseased and man in general suffers in a score of places.

Then again the blood furnishes gastric juice to the stomach, for when the gastric juice is not needed for digestive purposes it goes back to the stomach. When food comes into the stomach the nerves along the Alimentary Canal and in the mouth signal the brain for help and the blood immediately furnishes sufficient gastric juice to do the work well and quickly.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets go into the stomach, balance the gastric juice, digest the food, are taken up by the blood, purified it, and when the food comes again to the stomach a natural gastric juice of right proportion greets it and does its work perfectly. After a time these little tablets restore Nature, build up the gastric juice and there is no longer dyspepsia.

Every druggist carries them in stock, price 50c; every druggist and 40,000 physicians will attest their work to the merit of these tablets. Buy a box now and relieve your stomach at once, or send us your name and address today and we will send you immediately by mail a sample package, free. Address F. A. DEATH OF HONORED PIONEER.

Mrs. Emily L. M. Sperry Closes Eventful Career.

Special Correspondence.
Nephi, Utah, Oct. 26.—Emily L. Miller, wife of Charles Sperry, died at her home in this city Oct. 22, of old age. She was the daughter of Josiah Miller and Amanda Morgan Miller, born April 16, 1827, in Geneva county, N. Y.; baptized in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in 1838, and had been a member of the Church for 70 years. With her parents she moved from New York state to Kirtland, Ohio, and was well acquainted with the Prophet Joseph Smith, and shared in the vicissitudes of the Saints from the days of Kirtland, coming to Utah expense of about $25,000 bought water rights on the east mountains, and piped it across the valley and the Jordan river, and it is now in the home of most of the residents. This gives the people pure water for culinary purposes and watering stock. Though the expense per family comes high, no one who now has it would do without it even if the cost was higher than it is.

The funeral of Charles Brewerton was held yesterday in the stake tabernacle. DEATH OF MRS. CLARA ATKIN.

Missionary Social in Honor of Elder C. Alvin Orme.

Special Correspondence.
Tooele, Tooele Co., Oct. 27.—Mrs. Clara Atkin, wife of Willard T. Atkin, who has made such a brave fight with illness, died on Saturday the 24th inst., of heart trouble.

The funeral was held here yesterday and was largely attended. The following were the speakers: Elder Moroni L. Cook, Bishop Silas S. Orme and President Hugh S. Gowan, all of whom spoke words of comfort to the bereaved and eulogized the beautiful life of the young wife and mother. The choir rendered beautiful selections. The floral offerings were many and beautiful.

Mrs. Atkin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Isorgren and was born in Salt Lake City, Feb. 20, 1883. This city has been her home almost from the time of her birth. She lived here but a few years, but she was a devoted mother, five sisters, three brothers, one of whom left this city to fill a mission to England last week, and hosts of children have preceded her to the spirit world.

A farewell missionary social was held in the ward meetinghouse on Sunday evening last in honor of Stakes Co-Leader C. Alvin Orme who leaves here this week to take charge of the Australian mission. Elder Orme served a faithful and successful mission in the same field just 12 years ago.

HEBER.

FRIGID WEATHER IN WASATCH.

Will Install Electric Light by Bonding Heavy Sheep Shipments.

Special Correspondence.
Heber City, Wasatch Co., Oct. 25.—Heber county has had a good share of the recent severe weather. For 10 days the thermometer has been ranging from 15 to 20 degrees below zero, making ice one-half to three-fourths inch thick. There were six days of storm and snow and rain, five inches of snow one morning. Precipitation 2 1/2 inches. Making a month's weather for four inches. In potatoes and fruit there will be much loss. Heber is going to have the electric light. At a mass meeting last night it was decided that it is the finest country ward meetinghouse in the Church, is about completed, although the upper story is not yet finished. The lower portion of the building has been used for the last month for meetings, Sunday schools, etc. It will pay neighbors to visit and see what a beautiful building the people here have erected.

GAINED 30 POUNDS

How a Pennsylvania Woman Built Up Her Health.

Suffered for Years Until She Tried the Tonic Treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and Was Cured.

To women who suffer Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are worth their weight in gold. At special periods a woman needs medicine to regulate her blood-supply or her life will be a round of pain and suffering. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are of untold value to women at such times for they increase that portion of the blood which absorbs oxygen, the great supporter of organic life. In this way they may be said to make new blood. They are good for men too but are adapted in a special way to the needs of women and growing girls.

Mrs. C. H. Morland, of Scalp Level, Pa., suffered for several years with weakness and her cure by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills should be read by every suffering woman.

"From my fourteenth year," she says, "I suffered with weakness common to girls of my age. I had no strength or ambition to work, was subject to dizzy spells when I would lie down, and during these spells would see black specks floating before my eyes. I would wake up every morning as tired as I would have been if I had just been through a hard day's work. I had no appetite, food distressed me and was like a heavy load on my stomach and I was troubled with constipation. When I tried to work or become over heated my heart would hurt me so that I could hardly breathe. I suffered with sick headaches as often as five days a week. I often had to go back to bed on account of the headaches which were so bad that sometimes I could scarcely see."

"The doctors finally told me that there was no help for me unless I underwent an operation. I was treated by one doctor for seven or eight years but his medicine did not help me much. I was led to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills by a woman who was at my home one day, and after taking them awhile, I noticed a change. I was getting stronger and continued with them until cured. I am now never without Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and occasionally use them as a tonic. I have gained 30 pounds in weight and am in the best of health."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, and cost 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

was so decided. This city will be bonded for the improvement. Shipments have been quite heavy this fall. Over 200 carloads have left Heber for eastern markets, mostly lambs, flock masters find they pay the best.

The fourth quarterly conference of 1908, for Wasatch stake is now in session. Elders Heber T. Grant and O. F. Whitely are in attendance.

At 10 o'clock today it was clear and cold, thermometer 12 below freezing.

WALES.

Ward Conference—Weather Hinders Farm Work—Contagion Abated.

Special Correspondence.
Wales, Sanpete Co., Oct. 21.—The wet weather has delayed the work of the farmers here. Threshing is not over with, and nearly all the best are in the ground. The roads are also hard to haul to the cars.

Last Sunday a ward conference was held here and President C. N. Lund of the North Sanpete stake gave very good instructions. The health of the people in general is good, all contagious diseases have been eliminated. The town was much troubled by the last epidemic of typhoid fever, with diphtheria, scarlet fever, scarlatina and measles.

ELBA, IDAHO.

UDY-ELIASON NUPTIALS.

Grain Crop Below Normal—Potatoes Hit by Frost.

Special Correspondence.
Elba, Ida., Oct. 22.—Threshing is not yet done, and some grain may spoil from the heavy storms. Crops are not quite as good as usual on account of the late spring.

The heavy frosts of the past few nights are an unusual thing for this time of the year, and may injure the potato crop that is yet in the ground.

Bishop Thomas Taylor is in Salt Lake receiving medical attention. A farewell party was given to Orza Udy last Friday night, and a reception was given him at his home Sunday evening. He left Monday for a mission to the Northern states.

Miss Maggie Udy of Elba and Geo. Eliason of Oakley went to Salt Lake Monday to be married in the temple.

Geo. Ward is able to be out after an illness of several weeks with typhoid.

Wm. J. Cole has sold his ranch and will move his family to Gridley, California.

Several families have been to Utah for fruit, but most of them have returned. The fruit crop here is light on account of the late spring.

ANOTHER LETTER TO THE PRESIDENT

H. R. Fuller, National Executive Representative of Locomotive Engineers, Writes It.

JUDGE TAFT'S LABOR RECORD.

Most Important Part Consistent with Its Absence from President's Reply to Mr. Grace.

Pittsburg, Oct. 27.—H. R. Fuller, of Beaver Falls, Pa., national executive representative of the Brotherhoods of Locomotive Engineers, Firemen, and Railroad Trainmen, tonight gave the Associated Press a copy of a letter which he yesterday mailed to President Roosevelt commenting upon the president's letter to P. H. Grace, financier of Lodge No. 46, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, who in behalf of himself and associate railroad employees, wrote to the president asking how they could best serve their own interests in the present campaign. The president's reply urged the support of Judge Taft for the presidency, and discussed at length the candidate's attitude on questions affecting labor.

In his letter Mr. Fuller says: "I am at a loss to understand why Mr. Grace should seek information and advice regarding Judge Taft's attitude toward the railroad employees of the country from the very one who is the president of the administration. The president's letter to Mr. Grace, which was published in the lodge rooms and printed and commented upon in the magazines of the various organizations of labor, including those of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of which Grace and myself are members. Had he consulted such publication he would have given the correct labor record of Mr. Taft, rather than a partial one, and both he and his fellow employees throughout the country who read your reply would be in possession of the facts rather than being in the position of having been misled by the president of the United States. The most important part of Mr. Taft's labor record is conspicuously absent from your reply, and it is to supply this deficiency that I write this letter."

Mr. Fuller then refers to the decision of Judge Taft in the United States circuit court for the southern district of Ohio, April 30, 1894, declining the petition of employees of the Cleveland, New Orleans & Texas railroad that an order of receiver reducing wages 10 per cent be rescinded. He quotes at length from the decision, in which Judge Taft states that from a "strictly legal standpoint the employees have no standing in this court to call for an adjudication of any rights. The court is limited in the exercise of its powers to an action brought by the receiver, and its action may be consistent with the preservation of the property and its administration in the interests of those who own it."

The reduction was approved. May 31 following, Mr. Fuller's letter states, the employees petitioned the court to direct the receiver to modify the wage scale which Judge Taft declined to do. The decision on this portion is quoted at length, including reference to a change in pay for overtime, which virtually was a reduction in wages. The decision of the court is quoted at length, including reference to a change in pay for overtime, which virtually was a reduction in wages. The decision of the court is quoted at length, including reference to a change in pay for overtime, which virtually was a reduction in wages.

The decision upheld this change. It also recites that while some railroads in the same district were paying higher wages for overtime service, others were paying the same or less. Mr. Fuller contends that it is an injustice to compel employees to work over time without compensation.

He then cites decisions of other federal judges in what he contends are similar cases, where proposed reductions in wages by receivers are prohibited by the court.

NEW RULES ON THE ERIE

New York, Oct. 26.—The Erie Railroad has issued a new book of rules of the Operating Department and under the head of "General Notice," the following observations are made:

"The nature of the transportation business and its relation to the State and the community require the services of men of active minds, good character and general ability. The employees of a railroad are at all times, both in the discharge of their duties as employees and as citizens, under the constant view of the public. Failure to be efficient parts of the transportation system, or valuable citizens in whatever place they are domiciled, brings reproach upon them and the corporation with which they are connected.

"There are corporate and private duties devolving upon each officer and employee that are not, nor can they be expressed by fixed instructions or rules. A failure on the part of any one to perform such duties makes it the duty of the proper officer of the Company to indicate to the person privately, in a proper way and place, his short comings. Subsequent failure to profit by the warning must sever the relations existing as employer and employee, notwithstanding the fact that there has been no literal violation of the printed rules.

"To enter or remain in the service is an assurance of willingness to obey the rules.
