OGDEN, . . . . . DEC. 26, 1899.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVITIES.

More Substantially Observed than at Any Time Since the Boom Days.

Making Great Growing Contracts—Death of Mrs. C. O. Folkman and Mrs. Adella Miles.

Christmas in Ogden was very generally observed and the people were made happy with its festivities. Several of the churches held appropriate services. For many years the hearts of the children and the adults have not been so glad with beautiful Christmas gifts to such an extent as this year. The merchants say it has been the best season for them since the boom days. The weather was delightful, which contributed largely to making the day one of merriment. Every lively stable in the city had all its sleighs rented out from early in the morning until late at night, and wishes of a "merry Christmas" and the compliments of the season were heard from nearly every lip.

DEATH OF MRS. C. O. FOLKMAN.

Last Sunday evening, at 5:45 o'clock, the angel of death entered the home of Mr. C. O. Folkman, of Plain City, and called his beloved wife Mary Lingwall Folkman to the great beyond. Mrs. Folkman was born on the 15th of December, 1842 in Sweden, emigrated to Utah when a young woman and has been a resident of Plain City for many years and has always been a faithful worker in the cause of truth. She leaves a husband, four daughters and one son and a host of friends to mourn her demise. The funeral services will be held at the Plain City meeting house on Wednesday at 1 p. m. Friends invited. The remains may be viewed at the family residence Wednesday from 11 to 12:30 p. m.

DEATH OF MRS. ADELLA MILES.

A telegram was received yesterday from Pendleton, Oregon, announcing the sad death at that place of Mrs. Adella Miles, wife of John H. Miles. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Terry, of Clinton, Davis, Co., and a resident of Ogden until about two years ago. The remains of the deceased were received in Ogden this morning and taken to the home of Mr. Samuel Hastings, 2909 Adams avenue. The exact hour of funeral has not been set, but it will occur some time on Wednesday. Friends invited.

BETTER GROWING CONTRACTS.

Mr. Job Pingree, the Ogden sugar factory foreman, has started out on a tour through the various settlements in Weber county to meet with the farmers and make arrangements and contracts with them for the growing of beets for the factory for 1900. Today he was at Syracuse, Wednesday he will be at Riverton, 2 p. m. Thursday at Kayville, 2 p. m. Friday at Fair West, 2 p. m. and Saturday at First National Bank of Ogden, and each Saturday following he will meet the beet growers at the First National bank to arrange for the purchase and production of the beets. The past year has proved to be the best growers of this county that to raise beets is a paying proposition and no doubt the coming year will find many acres more beets planted than during 1899, and the crop will be better in quality from the past experience of the farmers.

PROVO.

Quiet Christmas—Photo of Suspected Murderer—Hines Will Valid—Weddings.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Dec. 25.—Christmas was observed by the Garden City people in their usual quiet way. For the most part the day was spent in family reunions. There were no public meetings held, but a number of dances and socials were given in the evening.

The poor man with many ailments, which Wright did not have, was provided for by the bishops and assistants.

The merchants report the largest holiday trade in recent years, both in the quality and quantity of goods purchased.

The State insane asylum treated the unfortunate inmates to the usual Christmas spread and amusements.

PHOTOGRAPH RECEIVED.

Sheriff Storrs last evening received a letter and a photograph from F. W. Overton of St. Joseph, Mo., who believes that he has the notorious George H. Wright, the man being held in Utah, and the man is more bald than Wright, and again the suspected man has three moles over the right eye which Wright did not have. The photo was shown to a number of people who knew Wright well and some of them were sure that it was not Wright, and others were not certain but that it might possibly be the man, although changed somewhat, but four long years have elapsed since they saw the much wanted man, and the worry which would naturally follow a hunted man would do much to change him.

HINES WILL VALID.

The petition of Kitty A. Hines asking that the last will of the late Russell S. Hines be set aside and not admitted to probate was decided adversely by the probate court. The petitioner alleged that the deceased was of unsound mind at the time of the making of the instrument. A great deal of evidence was taken by the court to show the habits and manner of Mr. Hines during the latter years of his life.

JUDGE BOOTH HELD THAT THE WILL WAS VALID.

The will was admitted to probate and the provisions carried out. Attorney E. E. Corpan is named as executor.

A SHORT TIME AGO MRS. HINES WAS GRANTED SPECIAL LETTERS OF ADMITTANCE TO VISIT HER DAUGHTER.

She was granted special letters of admittance to visit her daughter, who is now in the East, having deserted plaintiff several years ago.

SUES FOR DIVORCE.

Mrs. Amanda Rogers has commenced suit for divorce against Harry E. Rogers, on the grounds of desertion and failure to provide. The complaint alleges that they were married at St. George, Utah, in 1879, and there are now six minor children. Rogers is an actor, and is somewhere in the East, having deserted plaintiff several years ago.

BUCKER BOUND OVER.

Earnest Bucker, of Alpine, charged with a felony, was bound over to the District Court in $500 bond by the justice of the peace of Alpine. Bail was furnished.

GETS FIFTY DAYS.

Fred W. May, a tramp, is the only person in the county who has been given fifty days free board by Justice McNeil of American Fork for throwing his bedding through the front window of Adamson's store.

WEDDING BELLS.

The following licenses to wed have been issued by the county clerk: Archie W. Roylance, 24, and Margaret L. Finley, 22, both of Kayville, on Friday, January 2, 1900, at 2 p. m. and Saturday at First National Bank of Ogden, and each Saturday following he will meet the beet growers at the First National bank to arrange for the purchase and production of the beets. The past year has proved to be the best growers of this county that to raise beets is a paying proposition and no doubt the coming year will find many acres more beets planted than during 1899, and the crop will be better in quality from the past experience of the farmers.

A WORTHY CHARITY.

The friends of the late George Charles, who was killed by drinking carbolic acid by mistake a week ago, are endeavoring to raise funds to pay off the mortgage on the home occupied by Mrs. Charles and her family. The project has met with good success. Mrs. Charles is in a very serious state, both mentally and physically as a result of the terrible affair.

Death and Burial of William Court, a Veteran of 87 years.

Special Correspondence.

Kaysville, Dec. 24.—In the death of William Court, which occurred on Thursday last as the result of old age, superinduced by Bright's disease, Kaysville lost a man much loved and respected by all who knew him, regardless of creed or other distinctions.

Father Court was born on Oct. 24th, 1812, at Dumbleton, Worcestershire, England. On Nov. 17th, 1839, he and his wife emigrated to the Gospel at Christchurch, Utah Jan. 6th, 1851, arrived in Utah Sept. 10th, 1851, and located at Kaysville, where they have resided and labored ever since.

Through a member of the High Priests' quorum, Brother Court served as Deacon in the ward for many years. Under which office he was dispenser of the fast donations and the poor of the ward came under the special care. He has honorably filled many positions of trust. Mrs. Ann Court, his faithful wife, survives him. He also leaves a nephew, Geo. Court, and an adopted daughter, Mrs. Carrie W. Webb.

The funeral services were held over the remains here today at the ward meeting house. The building was filled with friends of the deceased, many coming from East and West Layton wards.

The speakers were: Patriarchs Wm. Stewart, John Elston, John S. Smith and John Thornley (of Layton); Elder John D. Wright (of Salt Lake City); James Smith, James Robins, E. A. Williams, Bishop P. Barton and Counselors J. L. Barnes and T. F. Rouchie. Eloquent tributes of love and esteem for the departed and blessings for those bereft were bestowed. All bore testimony to his unswerving integrity to God, his unflinching faith in the Gospel and his zeal and diligence in behalf of the poor, which had earned him the gratitude of all.

The Draper ward, some time ago, obtained a loan of $500 which had become due in order to meet this reunion banquet was decided upon as the most fitting way. ## PLEASANT GROVE.

Firewood for the Widows—Widow's serious Loss—News Notes.

Special Correspondence.

Pleasant Grove, Utah Co., Dec. 24.—Christmas has passed off very pleasantly. The city fathers gave Bishop J. E. Thorne the privilege of using a quantity of dry wood from their public grounds for the poor, this generous offer was accepted and willing hands cut and hauled the wood, dispensing it among the widows of whom there are quite a number in the ward whose hearts were made glad for the kindness of those who assisted in alleviating their want.

Howard R. Driggs and wife of the State Normal came up from Cedar on Saturday to spend vacation with their parents and friends.

The "Sunday School" was a "severe" paper, nothing like it. May it shadow never grow less.

The Sunday School pupils gave a grand concert Saturday afternoon and evening. It was a success in every sense.

Eliah Mayhew, who has been spending the summer at Alberta, Canada, arrived home Friday. He speaks well of that country.

The health of the people of this burg was never better.

The stores have done a fine business during last week and the merchants are correspondingly happy.

WIDOW'S SERIOUS LOSS.

Mrs. Whitaker of American Fork had the misfortune to lose a small chest containing a twenty dollar gold piece in this vicinity a few days ago, she had been carrying it in her pocket and had been conversing with a stranger, saving up the money thus earned to help her son who is at present performing a mission in the Southern States. Sister Whitaker is very much grieved over her loss as she is a widow and has no means of support only by her own efforts. It is to be hoped some honest person may find the money and return the same to the good woman.

SYRACUSE.

Showing Made by the Canning Factory—A Fine Institution.

Special Correspondence.

Syracuse, Davis Co., Dec. 23.—The Syracuse cannery commenced business early in August and has continued running pretty regularly up to the present time. It is expected to close down in a few days. A great deal of the fruit, etc., was grown in this vicinity. The people find this the easiest possible method of disposing of their fruit, tomatoes, etc. The fruit was of the choicest kind. Peas were hand picked and apples were shaken into a canvas and sometimes hand picked. The produce was delivered the people had the money in their pockets. This factory will soon be one of the largest concerns in the country, using thousands of bushels of apples, pears and large quantities of other stuff, especially tomatoes.

Nearly $15,000 has been paid out this season for fruit and vegetables. One person received $1,400, another $700.

The factory is situated near the lake on the spur of the Oregon Short Line, on a piece of ground that four years ago was but a salarated barren, bordered by a sparsely settled lucern field, but around which today may be seen thirty orchards, some of which cover an extent of forty acres. One of our largest fruit growers and foremost in this industry is Col. D. C. Adams.

This cannery has caused the farms to be of more value, as the owners can make more than double from their farms what they did formerly.

The factory is elegantly fitted up with every modern appliance for economically packing fruit, vegetables, etc., in first class style, and like the other canning factories of the county, furnishes employment to a great number of our boys and girls and making a fair profit to the owners. It affords an excellent market for all the stuff that can be raised around here and gives work to hundreds of hands besides. The demand for goods has been so brisk that they could hardly fill all their orders.

GLOOM OVER SHOOTING CATAS-TROPHIE.

The unfortunate occurrence of the shooting of the 19-year-old son of Mrs. Rybee, of South Hooper, cast a gloom over the whole neighborhood. The boys were playing with the rifle and had been told to pass away from the rifle at different things when the lad that was killed was looking down the barrel to see how steady his comrade could hold it and he exclaimed, "that is pretty steady, pass away from the rifle" and he was done and the lad fell dead.

BEAR RIVER CITY.

Death of Bishop Carl Jensen—Close of a Busy Career.

Bear River City, Boxelder Co., Dec. 24.—A severe illness of only three weeks of acute pneumonia, Bishop Carl Jensen, of this place, died at 3:30 yesterday afternoon. Elder Charles Kelly, the Stake president, was with him when he passed away.

Bishop Jensen was a leading farmer and stock-raiser, making a specialty of raising sheep and selling them in the eastern markets. He was a number of other families, and the corner stone of civilization in Bear River City in the year 1867, under conditions that called for stout hearts and which tried men's souls. Bishop Jensen has been for years the leader of enterprises that have promoted the industrial, social and spiritual elevation of his people. For seventeen years he has been Bishop of Bear River ward. For ten years he held the office of county commissioner, and was the first mayor of the city. At his death he was president of the board of school trustees and president of the Bear River City-operative store.

As an expert bricklayer, Mr. Jensen was known, having built twenty-seven miles of the great Bear River canal through this portion of the valley and all of the laterals on the company's famous model farm.

EXTENSION OF RURAL FREE DELIVERY.

One of the good works that is going on in our county is the extension of rural free delivery. It means carrying the farmer's mail to him instead of letting it lie in the post office until he finds time to come after it. Experiment with it began in 1896, when an appropriation of forty thousand dollars was made for the extension of rural free delivery. Some of these routes have already paid off of service and shown a profit. All of them tend to increase the postal business, and tend to the other result of the experiment which Assistant Postmaster-General Heath speaks of in a recent report, are the increased value of farm lands, the improvement of country roads, better prices for farm products (because the farmer gets prompter notice of the state of the market) and the relief of the monotony of farm life.

The true way to live in the country is to have plenty of horses and hired men, and send over to the village for the mail at least twice a day, but that presupposes conditions which even dollar wheat and abundant harvests have not yet enabled all farmers to comply with. Imagine how much it helps to make life interesting to them and their wives and children to have a postman come once a day with the daily paper and whatever other periodicals and letters they may desire. Here is an enormous business which is going to be profitable to every one concerned in it; to the government and the farmer first, and after them to publishers, merchants and the rest of the community. Its extension must necessarily be gradual, but the results of the experiment, so far as tried, warrant pushing it just as fast as the post office department can handle it. The country is so vast that it is impossible to have a postman deliver mail to every one. It is as fit to support free delivery as the three hundred and eighty-three districts which have it now. The million dollars or less that it will cost to establish five thousand new routes is a bagatelle compared with the benefits of the investment.

This rural free delivery is an admirable scheme. It is hereby respectfully commended to the favorable attention of Congress.—E. S. Martin in "Life."

Greatest of All

Every one in San Antonio, Texas, says that Ackers' English Remedy is the greatest thing ever put up for medicine.

It cures all kinds of colds, coughs, croup and consumption. I have been using it over four years for all forms of throat and lung troubles, and have yet to come across a case where it failed. We have four little ones in our family, and neither my wife nor I have ever lost a night's sleep because of throat troubles among the children. I have had more than one other family call on me. Ackers' English Remedy is just as effective for grown-up people as for the young. It seems to go straight to the place where the trouble lies in the throat and bronchial tubes and loosens up the phlegm and mucus in the breathing passages, quiets the nerves, invigorates the constitution and stops the coughing. My advice to parents is to always keep a bottle in the house. It will be a constant safeguard against croup." (Signed)
