COUNTY OF SALT LAKE.

We, the undersigned hereby certify that the foregoing is a correct abstract of returns of election, held in the several counties of Utah Territory, on May 22nd, 1882, for the ratification or rejection of the Constitution of the State of Utah.

Witness our hands this fifth day of June, A. D. 1882.

JOS. F. SMITH,
President of Constitutional Convention.
ARTHUR STAYNER,
Secretary of Constitutional Convention.
ELIAS SMITH,
Probate Judge Salt Lake County.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY, JUNE 9.

Extending.—The Superintendent of Waterworks, Mr. G. M. Ottlinger, is about to extend the main pipes two blocks northward on East Temple street, beginning at the corner of the News office.

School Excursion.—This being the first vacation day of Farmington day school, the pupils came down on an excursion, to the number of a hundred, to this city. They were accompanied by the Principal, Miss Winters, and visited the chief points of interest in the capital. They called at the News office, taking a look through the establishment, manifesting much interest in the machinery.

The Old Folks' Affair.—Yesterday we published a card from the committee who are managing the preparations for the coming Old Folks' excursion to this city. The points made by the committee regarding the reports needed in order to make the perfection of arrangements possible, are well taken. It is very desirable that the affair should be a great success in every way, and that everything connected with it should move with desirable smoothness. It is to be hoped, therefore, that the solicitation of the committee will meet with a hearty response. Send in the reports.

The Delegation.—The delegation appointed by the Constitutional Convention having been instructed to present the claims of Utah for admission into the Union of States at the present session of Congress, the following members will leave for Washington on Monday morning: Hon. John T. Caine, David H. Peery and Franklin S. Richards. Hon. W. D. Johnson is already in Washington, making four of the delegation who will soon be at the Capital. Should the presence of the other members be required they will proceed there also.

John Sharp, Esq., Supt. of the U. C. R. R., who is going East on business, will travel in company with the members of the Delegation.

Information Wanted.—Information is wanted by the British Minister, who has communicated through the Secretary of State and from him to Governor Murray, concerning John Craddock, whose mail matter was sent to him seven years ago at Salt Lake City, and who at that time stated he was going on a trip of a thousand miles to sell books. It is supposed that he was connected with the "Mormon" Church. Any one knowing anything concerning him will please communicate with Governor Murray, who has documents in his possession relating to matters that will be of advantage to the missing man.

Items from the "Star."—The Millennial Star, of May 15th, has the following:

The S. S. Wyoming, which arrived in this port on Saturday morning last, brought the following named persons from Utah: Mrs. William Jennings and two daughters, and Mrs. Priscilla Staines, wife of the late Elder W. C. Staines, all of Salt Lake City; also Mr. Fenimore, of Beaver. The ladies are visiting friends in England; the gentleman is here upon business.

By cablegram of May 12th, from Emigration Agent James H. Hart, we are informed that the rail-rate from New York to Ogden has been changed to fifty-two dollars. This is an advance of four shillings and two pence for each adult, on the rates heretofore advertised. This increase of fare applies to all points of destination in Utah. Emigrating Saints will please govern themselves accordingly.

Conference in Kansas.—Through the courtesy of President Joseph F. Smith, we are enabled to publish the following:

"Our Conference in Kansas, came off on the 20th and 21st instants, at the Wheatland School District, Dickinson County. There were present of Elders from Utah, Jos. F. Dorr, J. N. Thueson, James Mellor and M. S. Shupperd; of local Elders, Joseph Bland and Edward McDonald.

At 11 a. m., after the usual opening exercises, the following Elders occupied the forenoon: Jas. F. Dorr and M. L. Shepperd, dwelling mostly on the establishment of the kingdom of God in the present age, also explaining the first principles of the Gospel.

A branch of the Church was organized to be known as the Meridian Branch of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, in the State of Kansas. Elder Edward McDonald was chosen to preside and take charge of the same, and was set apart for that purpose, Wm. H. H. Kinsell was ordained to the office of an Elder.

After singing, Conference adjourned until the next day at ten o'clock a. m.

Benediction by Elder McDonald. In the afternoon three persons were baptized into the Church.

Forenoon services. After the opening exercises, Elders J. N. Thueson, James Mellor and Shepperd occupied the forenoon, speaking mostly on the restoration of the Gospel, and the first principles of the same, bearing powerful testimonies to the Latter-day work. The remarks of the brethren were endorsed by Elder Dorr in every respect. After singing, Conference adjourned to 3 p. m.

Benediction by Elder McDonald. Afternoon—Elder Dorr occupied a short time. The sacrament was then administered.

Elders Bland and Dorr addressed the congregation on the departure of modern Christianity from the pure doctrines of Christ, bearing a faithful testimony to the true Gospel being restored again through the instrumentality of Joseph Smith the prophet. Brother Dorr instructed the Saints to observe the monthly fast day and exhorted them to faithfulness.

Conference was then adjourned sine die.

J. N. THUESON,
Clerk of Conference.
After being dismissed, two more persons were admitted by baptism.

Deseret Hospital Association.—This benevolent association is now in working shape, and, as previously stated, will soon be in active operation. We are enabled to present herewith the complete organization: President, Eliza R. Snow Young; Vice-President, Zina D. H. Young; Executive Board, M. Isabella Horne, Marinda N. Hyde, Phebe Woodruff, Bathsheba W. Smith, Jane S. Richards, Ellen B. Ferguson, M. D.; Secretary, Emeline B. Wells; Treasurer, Matilda M. Barratt; Chairman Visiting Committee, Elizabeth Howard; Finance Committee, Sarah M. Kimball, Priscilla M. Staines, Priscilla Jennings, Annie G. Sharp, Sarah Jane Cannon, Hannah T. King, Elizabeth Groesbeck, Ellen Dinwoodey, Elizabeth H. Goddard, Sophia W. Taylor; Resident Physician and Surgeon, Dr. Ellen B. Ferguson.

Visiting Board, Dr. Seymour B. Young, Dr. W. F. Anderson; Visiting Surgeon, eye and ear, Dr. Roman B. Pratt; Clinical Registrar and Dispensary Clerk, Mary E. Van Schoonhoven; Matron, Mary Ann McLean; Honorary Committee, the Stake Presidents of the Relief Society are members of the honorary committee, each one to represent the interests of the hospital in her respective locality.

The association has issued a circular, in the shape of an appeal, addressed to the Presidents of Stakes, Bishops and Presidents and members of the Relief Society, Superintendents and Presidents Y. L. and Y. M. M. I. Associations. It sets forth the urgent necessity for the establishment of a hospital in this city, and solicits the substantial aid for the noble institution which it needs. We believe there will be a general response to the call, having great confidence in the sympathetic instincts of the people. Such an appeal should not, neither will it, go unheeded. The committee upon whom devolves the duty of taking subscriptions are prepared to prosecute their labors, which should be attended with ample success.

OLD FOLK'S EXCURSION.

Before the committee can possibly make arrangements in this city for the reception of the old folks from a distance, the following questions must be answered, from Juab, Weber, Salt Lake, Tooele, Davis and Utah Stakes:

1st.—The names and ages of all over 70 years old who desire to meet with us on the 28th and 29th of June.

2nd.—How many of the above have friends in this city that can make them comfortable, and what ward they live in?

3d.—How many over 70 will require the committee to find places for them?

Before any tickets can be issued, or any necessary arrangements made, the committee would kindly urge upon the Presidents of the above Stakes to have the reports forwarded at latest by the 15th of this month.

Owing to the great number expected to be present on the occasion, and the care requisite to avoid accidents, the utmost caution should be exercised by the authorities of each Stake, and no persons be allowed to leave home whose feeble condition would endanger their lives by undertaking such a journey. They should also be able to feed themselves at table, and dress and undress without assistance, unless such have friends here who would take pleasure in waiting upon them.

EDWARD HUNTER,
GEO. GODDARD,
CHAS. R. SAVAGE,
In behalf of the committee.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY, JUNE 10.

Third Company.—The third company of Latter-day Saint emigrants will leave Liverpool on the 21st instant, on the S. S. Nevada, Gulion line.

Brigham City.—Bishop John H. Reynolds, of Brigham City, is in town. He reports matters generally prosperous in that locality. Crops are looking quite promising, causing an anticipation of a fairly bountiful harvest.

Lost a Piece of It.—On Thursday, J. H. Vaughan, one of the hands at the paper mill, had the forward portion of the index finger of his right hand drawn into the machinery. A piece of the member was taken off, but fortunately he escaped having his hand drawn in, else his injury would have been much more serious than it is.

Funeral Services.—The funeral services over the remains of the late Sister M. Bowlden—former name Lancaster—who died on the 8th inst., were conducted in the 15th Ward meeting house this a. m. The deceased was poor and highly respected. There was a large attendance at the services, which were conducted by Bishop Pollard. Elder C. W. Penrose delivered the funeral address. The remains were followed to the cemetery by a large cortege.

The Camping Nuisance.—Loud complaints and protests have been entered against the action of people from the country who unhitch their teams and camp upon East Temple Street within a radius of a few hundred yards from the Council House. The city marshal is taking steps to abate the nuisance, by having parties arrested who infringe upon the ordinance made and provided against it. One man was treated to that course of procedure to-day. Others should take warning.

A Productive Bovine.—Mr. A. Jones writes thus, to the Enquirer, about a cow that is one:

Yesterday Mr. I. S. Bunnell, of the Fifth Ward, brought to this office 11 pounds of very fine butter made in one week from the milk of one of his half breed Jersey cows, four years old. This was done while the cow was running in the pasture, with no slop or other such food. He purposes giving the animal another trial with pasture feed, and in addition all the clover she can eat; when he expects to increase the yield of butter to 18 pounds for one week.

Suicide Near Butte.—On Wednesday, Simon Hollwarth, about 45 years old, was found dead in his cabin about three miles from Butte. He lay upon the bed with a double-barrelled shotgun beside him, one barrel of which was empty. The top of his head was literally blown off, and his surroundings were bespattered with blood and brains. He was esteemed as an honest but somewhat penurious man, and had lately exhibited symptoms of insanity. He left some scraps of writing, among which was a note directing somebody to pay for his newspaper, showing that he had at least some scintillation of sense left.

Southern Colonists.—George W. Bailey writes from Forest Dale, Apache County, Arizona:

The people here are all busy farming, fencing and building houses. We are having a pleasant rain. Their are about twenty families here and more coming. We feel a little more secure about the land now, as it was supposed and reported by some to be on the Indian Reservation, but the Government surveyors are here and sectionizing the land, so it will be in market soon.

We have to depend on rain to raise crops, as there are only a few little springs, enough water for family use and for our stock. There is good grass, plenty of timber, and the land cannot be beat.

How to Get Rid of Warts.—The following is said to be a certain remedy for warts and corns: Take a small piece of potash and let it stand in the open air until it slacks; then mix it to a paste with pulverized gum arabic, which prevents it from spreading where it is not wanted. Pare off the seeds of the wart or the dead skin of the corn, apply the paste and let it remain ten minutes; wash off and soak the place in sharp vinegar or sweet oil, which will neutralize the alkali; after which leave them entirely alone and nature will remove them. Warts may often be cured by rubbing them daily with a radish, or with juice of marigold flowers, beans or milk-weed.

Shepherds.—The mild weather of the past winter was very favorable for the sheep interests of Utah, at which the owners therefore rejoice, in the immediate returns to be obtained from the abundant wool crop now being sheared. The various flocks of sheep are in good average health, and have just passed through a successful lambing season. We are informed that a considerable number of lambs have been lost through the depredations of eagles, who attack and kill them. One owner is said to have lost as many as two hundred from these "Emblems of liberty." Their method of attacking and killing their prey exhibits sagacious cunning, as they will not come anywhere near the herders and consequently cannot be repelled or treated to a dose of lead. They have been known to hover and soar around at a very respectable height for several hours, until they could perceive their prey away from the herdsman's immediate care, in a hollow or ravine, when the bird would immediately pounce upon the object of attack and in as little time as it takes to relate it, pierce the animal with its sharp beak just above the eye, striking its brain and killing it. The eagle is really considered a greater enemy by sheep men than the wolf, as it is nearly impossible to guard against its attacks.

Returned Missionaries.—This morning we had a call from Elders William and George H. Butler, father and son, of Marriots, suburbs of Ogden.

Elder William Butler left home on the 16th of April, 1881. On arriving in England, he was appointed a Traveling Elder in the Birmingham Conference, where he labored all the time of his mission, with the exception of a few weeks he spent visiting relatives in Ireland. In his field he proclaimed the Gospel in over twenty towns and villages where it had either never been preached previously, or not for many years, and met with a good reception everywhere. In conjunction with his son he succeeded in building up a branch in Coventry, where quite a number were baptized.

Elder George H. Butler left home on the 27th of April, 1880, and labored six months in the State of Michigan, where he preached in several counties, assisted in baptizing six persons and organizing a branch in Mason County.

He was called to go to England at the expiration of half a year, and in that country labored in the Newcastle Conference, where he had the pleasure of baptizing thirty-six new members. The last two months of his stay in Great Britain were spent in laboring in the Birmingham Conference, where he baptized twelve persons.

A HUMAN WRECK.

A YOUNG MAN TRIES TO DASH OUT HIS BRAIN BY BUTTING HIS HEAD AGAINST IRON BARS.

Last night a house painter named William McLaughlin, presented himself to the police, announcing that he wished to give himself up to their custody. The reason alleged for this proceeding was that he had committed an outrage upon a young girl at Ogden. He stated that parties were hunting for him, and someone had presented a pistol at him.

The miserable man, who was evidently in a most wretched condition, was placed in jail. This morning he was discovered making an attempt to kill himself in a most horrible manner, by dashing his head against some iron bars. He bruised and cut the frontal portion of the top of his caput, causing the blood to flow, but was prevented from doing himself any very great injury.

He was conveyed to Marshal Burt's office and questioned as to the cause of his strange conduct, when his lunacy became perfectly apparent. He stated that he preferred death by dashing out his brains rather than by the fearful method intended by his enemies, who purposed gouging his eyes out, cutting out his tongue, and subsequently hanging him, as the winding up act of the drama.

He admitted he had been drinking heavily for some time, and on some points talked rationally enough. He stated that he was twenty-three old last April, and originally came from Kaysville, State of New York. He had been living in Ogden for some time, and was one of the three house painters among whom the fatal shooting affair occurred in that town a few months since, when Brown was killed by Catlin, the latter being now under sentence of death for the murder. McLaughlin was the third figure in the tragedy. He is, notwithstanding his youth, a human wreck, his demeanor and appearance indicating a shattered condition of the nervous system.

"THE FIRST AIM IN MECHANICS IS SIMPLICITY."

No line of Harvesting Machinery ever brought to Utah combines more points of merit than the Empire Reapers, Mowers and Twine Binders sold by H. B. Clawson and his agents. They are exceedingly simple in construction, durable, easily handled and do most perfect work.
