

ASSORTED TALES OF MARITAL WOE

All Sorts and Conditions of Matrimonial Tangles Straightened Out in Court.

SOME INDEPENDENT WIVES

Mrs. Fannie Chase, for Instance, Concludes to Set Up in Business For Herself—Long List.

As long as Mrs. Fannie Chase, wife of D. B. Chase, proprietor of the Chase studio, remains unmarried she will receive $40 a month alimony. This order was made by Judge C. W. Morse yesterday afternoon in divorce court when Mr. Chase was granted a decree of divorce from his wife on the charge of desertion. Mrs. Chase is now in Los Angeles where she has established a business for herself.

They were married in Pueblo, Colo., on April 27, 1898, and have no children. Mrs. Chase went to Los Angeles on a visit on Sept. 16, 1907, and has since that time refused to return to her husband. Without giving any reason she deserted her husband five years ago and remained away from him two years before she returned. This testimony was given by Mr. Chase and it adjoining the studio corroborated his statements.

The attorneys for Mr. Chase communicated with Mrs. Chase by telegraph and an adjustment of property rights and alimony was agreed upon. After this was done Mrs. Chase was granted the divorce. The complaint was filed a few minutes before the opening of court.

THIRD AND LAST CALL

Mrs. Sarah Ella Whitcomb obtained a decree of divorce from E. E. Whitcomb on the ground of desertion. This is the third time that Whitcomb has left her and she decided to surprise him if he returned again. The last time she saw him was about a year ago. Whitcomb is an engineer by occupation.

They were married in Seattle on Nov. 28, 1898. When he left her about a year ago in Salt Lake she secured the lease on a rooming house on West Temple street. She has been able to support herself in this manner. Her story was corroborated by Mrs. Gertrude B. Tesch.

TICKET THAT NEVER CAME

After her divorce was granted, Mrs. Tesch's case was called and Mrs. Whitcomb was the corroborating witness. Mrs. Tesch charged her husband, Ira Wallace Tesch with desertion. The last she heard of him he was traveling in Colorado as a shoe salesman.

They were married in Reno, Nev., Dec. 22, 1907. A year later Tesch deserted her. When he left Salt Lake for Denver he was to send her transportation in three weeks, but she has never heard from him. She was granted $30 a month alimony and $50 attorney fees.

SQUANDERED WIFE'S MONEY

Mrs. Louise Gessford, a young and pretty woman, obtained a divorce from Ralph Gessford, a bartender, on account of his cruel treatment to her. He drank considerably and when he came home intoxicated he abused her and called her vile names, accusing her of infidelity. On one occasion he told her that he was tired of her and wished that he had never married her. He stayed away for days at a time and failed to provide for her property. She was granted $30 a month alimony and $50 attorney fees.

When they were married in Sacramento, Sept. 3, 1906, she had $2,000. This was squandered by Gessford, she declares, in San Francisco. For this

TEMPERANCE WORKER CONSIDERS PERUNA A SUPERIOR PRESCRIPTION

Mrs. Mary M. Brown, 142 Grosvenor Ave., East Providence, R. I., President of the Y. W. C. T. U., of East Providence, Rhode Island, chaplain Woman's Relief Corps, and Past Department President of the W. M. C. of the state of Rhode Island, writes:

"Socially as well as officially, I meet a large number of women, old and young; bright, intelligent women who do their own thinking and form their own opinions. You will therefore be pleased to know that Peruna is a favorite remedy among women, and that it is generally considered superior to any prescription known in cases of catarrh and weakness peculiar to the sex.

"I have had occasion several times, in cases of cold and depression, to use Peruna and have found it very effective."

past year they have been living in Salt Lake.

TYLER SKIPPED OUT

Without any apparent reason, Mrs. Laura Tyler was deserted by her husband, Charles C. Tyler, and was given a decree of divorce by Judge Morse. They have four children. The two oldest are with their father and the other two are with their mother. Each were awarded the custody of two children.

On Dec. 25, 1904, they were married in Vernal. They moved to Salt Lake about two years ago. Tyler took his things and took two of the children with him about a year ago and they have not lived together since that time.

THREATENED TO SHOOT

Mrs. Pearl M. Hatten threatened to shoot her husband, James H. Hatten, an engineer, on one occasion. For this treatment Judge Morse granted him a divorce. They were married in Kansas City, on Aug. 7, 1903. They moved to Salt Lake two years ago and shortly afterward she began to abuse him. She left him about a year ago and has refused to live with him since.

TOO MUCH LIQUOR

Because her husband, Frank Sikes, was a confirmed drunkard, Mrs. Mary Sikes, who conducts a boarding house in Bingham canyon, left him in Portland five years ago. Sikes appeared in Bingham canyon about seven months ago and they lived together a short time. He failed to reform, so Mrs. Sikes brought suit for divorce and a decree was granted yesterday. They were married in Portland in 1880 and have three grown children.

DESERTED IN BELGIUM

Mrs. Virginia Stoffel, whose husband, Gerard Stoffel, deserted her in Belgium 12 years ago, was granted a divorce. She came to this country about three years ago. She has a son 15 years old who came here with her. They were married May 13, 1888. Mrs. Stoffel was unable to speak English and her testimony was interpreted.

NOTIFIED BY TELEPHONE

Joseph W. Dougherty, who deserted

his wife, Mrs. Caroline H. Dougherty, and two children almost a year ago, was ordered yesterday to pay her $30 a month as temporary alimony pending the action for divorce. They were married on Dec. 15, 1905. According to Mrs. Dougherty's testimony, he called her up by telephone on Saturday night and informed her that he was never coming home again. She has only seen him twice since then, and he has sent her only $5.

Mrs. Winifred Rule was awarded $20 a month temporary alimony for the support of herself and child pending the action of her suit for divorce against Charles S. Rule, an electrician, whom she charges with desertion. They were married here two years ago. Rule declared in his answer to the suit that his mother-in-law was the cause of their separation.

RICHEL AN EARLY RISER

Arthur L. Richel was ordered to pay his wife, Mrs. Eva M. Richel, $25 a month temporary alimony for her support yesterday. In her suit for divorce, she charges Richel, who is an engineer, with compelling her and her son, by a former marriage, to get up at 2 o'clock in the morning and leave his house. Since then she has not lived with him, and she has taken in sewing to help support herself. Richel almost got into trouble when he told Atty. White, who represented his wife, to sit down and not interrupt him while he was testifying. Richel was reprimanded by Judge Morse and ordered to answer all questions which were asked him.

Mrs. Sarah Cahoon obtained $20 a month temporary alimony pending her suit for divorce against Hyrum Cahoon. A lien was allowed on $25, which is due him from his mother's estate, to secure the payment of the money. Mrs. Cahoon charges her husband with cruelty and desertion.

J. H. Howard was given a decree of divorce from Mrs. Eva Woodward on the ground of desertion. They were married on Sept. 15, 1901. She left him on May 2, 1903, and he has not been heard from since. He believes that she went east, where she has relatives.

ROCKS HURLED AT AUTOS

Youngsters Bombarding Joy Riders Are Nabbed by Patrolman Bush.

A boy's mischievous idea of fun took the turn last night of stoning passing automobiles, and three lads living in the vicinity of First South and Eighth East streets indulged in this dangerous pastime for several hours.

Patrolman Joe Bush, complaints began coming into police headquarters early in the evening from automobile lists who had driven through the neighborhood of First South and Eighth East streets that some boys were hiding behind trees and hurling stones at the cars as they passed.

Dr. Niles reported that he had been struck on the head by one of the stones, receiving a slight flesh wound. When caught by Patrolman Bush the boys gave their names as Roy and Len Hill and Henry Gosh. All were under the age of 10 years and they were released on the promise that they would appear in the juvenile court today.

Two Stalwart Opponents of The Saloon Coming Here

On Sunday, July 25, eminent leaders in the temperance cause will be the speakers at what promises to be a great temperance union mass meeting at the Tabernacle commencing at 2 p. m.

At this meeting Rev. Dr. P. A. Baker, national superintendent, and Atty.

States, as an organizer bringing into harmonious order this great battle for the elimination of the saloons; a public speaker of power.

Atty. Wayne B. Wheeler, the national attorney for the Anti-Saloon league of America, is one of the astute lawyers in the United States and recognized as one of the finest constitutional lawyers. He

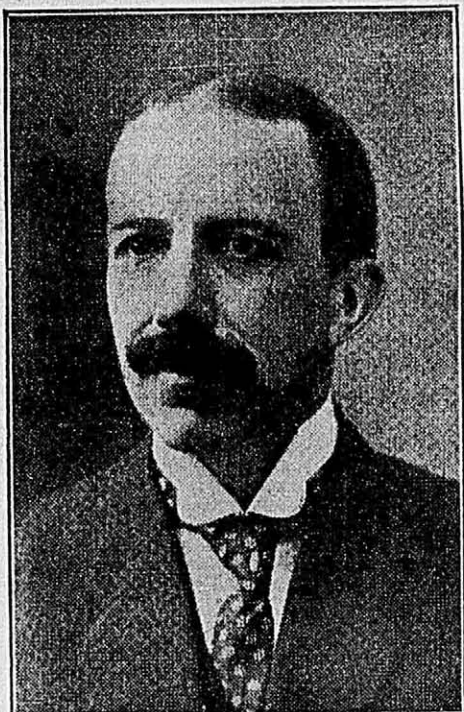

REV. DR. P. A. BAKER.

Wayne B. Wheeler, counsel for the National league, will address the congregation.

Dr. Baker, who was heard in the Tabernacle last July, is claimed by his admirers to be a born leader of men, strong in character and magnetic in personality. The Oliver Cromwell of the Anti-Saloon league, in fact, Dr. Baker has been a fighter since the days of his youth. From the league's national headquarters at Columbus, he dominates the great Anti-Saloon league movements throughout the United States. He is a scholarly polished gentleman. Mr. Wheeler has drafted much of the temperance legislation in the last 10 years, has defended these laws in courts throughout the nation, including the supreme court of the United States. Under his counsel over 2,000 saloon cases have been successfully prosecuted in Ohio alone. No law upon which Mr. Wheeler has passed his judgment has ever been pronounced unconstitutional by any supreme court in the land. Mr. Wheeler has the last and best and final word on the ethical and legal phases of this movement in human history. He is heard gladly in the churches throughout the nation.

WIZARD'S SUBJECTS MEET.

Heralds of Mysterious Ruler of the Wasatch Plan Unique Reception.

Once more have the special wards appointed to watch over the subjects of the wonderful Wizard of the Wasatch met to prepare for the coming of the magician of the mountains; and once for all it is known that while the first visit of the Wizard will not be of long duration, while he is here his welcome will be made good and strong. The wards met in force at the Commercial club last evening and worked out plans for the reception and entertainment for the guardian of the canyon caverns and shady glens of the hills and the valleys of the Wasatch. That the decorations may be appropriate a committee of three faithful wards, S. H. Love, W. S. McCarthy and J. A. Foley, was chosen to preside over this department, as well as those who will take part in the parade. To provide suitable horses for the procession, Ward B. F. Redman, was named and as special assistants to Chairman Redman in this capacity, the members of the Salt Lake Riding club, and all who have horses are invited to participate in the parade on horseback, providing their own paraphernalia. Designs for an official button, to be worn by the subjects of the Wizard so he can tell them at sight, were also considered, but no decision was made, the matter being left over till next meeting to be held on Monday evening.

All members elected to the organization of the wards before Aug. 9, will be known as charter members. At the meeting last night the following members were elected:

J. C. Leary, B. F. Redman, Fisher Harris, S. H. Love, George W. Goudard, J. A. Foley, W. S. McCarthy, Dr. S. G. Paul, Dr. G. B. Pfouts, C. S. Williams, W. A. Lieblein, Dr. W. H. Beer, Dan Sullivan, E. A. Culbertson, Miles A. Romney, Sam C. Park, C. S. Pulver, J. R. Duckworth, Earl Thompson, D. G. Bolton, W. E. Bailey, Dr. Ned Gowers, H. L. A. Culmer, H. Vance Lane, Judge E. F. Colborn, Dr. J. J. Snider, Joseph E. Caine, Sam Porter, S. M. Barlow, A. Fred Way, P. H. Carr, J. L. Series, Kenneth Kerr and Fred J. Kiesel of Ogden.

A NIGHT RIDER'S RAID.

The worst night riders are calomel croton oil or aloes pills. They raid your bed and rob you of rest. Not so with Dr. King's New Life Pills. They never distress or inconvenience but always cleanse the system, cure Colds, Headache, Constipation, Malaria, 25c at Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. 112-114, Main st., Salt Lake City.

WHAT IS A PIANO PURCHASE

CHECK OR PIANO BOND?

Salt Lake City, Utah, July 16th, 1909.

CLAYTON-DAYNES MUSIC CO.,
City.

Gentlemen:—

In answer to your question regarding a Piano Purchase Check, I will say that it is a means of deceiving the public and is used to "double-cross" piano purchasers who think they are getting something for nothing.

Respectfully yours,

Signed J. KELLOGG,
265 South First West.

When we started this advertising campaign to get the opinion of the public regarding these so-called "prize offering" schemes of certain music houses whereby thousands of "Purchase Checks" or "Bonds" are distributed as awards, we were convinced that many people having obtained such due bills would answer from experience. We are not disappointed.

$10.00 for best answer and $1.00 for every answer we use. Our awards are cash, not "Purchase Checks" or "Bonds." Any one may try.

The McDonald Chocolate Company's Exhibit at Seattle.

One of the most artistic and attractive exhibits in the Agricultural building at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition at Seattle is the exhibit of the J. G. McDonald Chocolate Company of this city. Visitors who have returned from the big fair praise the local concern for its enterprise and one and all pronounce the display an effective advertisement for Salt Lake and Utah as well as for the McDonald company. The exhibit occupies a prominent position in the immense Agricultural building and thousands of people visit the place daily. The name of Salt Lake, the home of the McDonald industry, is prominently displayed in many places, so that every person who visits the booth must know that the McDonald Chocolate company is in Salt Lake.

The fair officials have complimented Mr. McDonald on the very attractive display and the members of the Utah Commission have expressed themselves as being proud of the splendid showing that is being made. Since the display has been in place, the sale of McDonald's Chocolates and Cocoa in Seattle is more than four times greater than heretofore, although for several years past the sale has been very large. In the cities surrounding Seattle the sale has also greatly increased and it is expected that an increase will be shown all over the United States, as thousands of visitors from every part of the Union visit the McDonald exhibit every day.

In the Utah building this company also has a very handsome display that is attracting a great deal of attention. In each instance the McDonald exhibit seems to be the gathering place for Utah people and any day a Utah can find friends at either place.
