THE GRATITUDE OF HISTORY.

That address of the returned Spanish prisoners in their native land, very much like a half century ago, is a most interesting and valuable record of the gratitude of history. It is a record of the gratitude of the people of the United States to the people of Spain for their services in the Spanish-American war.

That the American people are deeply indebted to the people of Spain for their services in the Spanish-American war is a fact which is well known to all. It is a fact which is well known to all.
