POLICE MAKE CLEVER CAPTURE

Confidence Men Caught Fleecing
Innocent Stranger From Michigan.

THE HILL MEMORIAL CHURCH.

Methodist Conference Decides on New Name for Church and Accepts
Gift from Dr. Hill.

Ogden, Nov. 15.—Clever work on the part of Deputy Sheriffs Alva Sebring and Barlow Wilson landed three "sawing men" behind the bars at the county jail about 5 o'clock last evening, before the trio had been in Ogden one day. The work of the arresting officers is very commendable, as they caught the men red handed right in the game of fleecing an innocent young farm hand from Michigan named James Terry.

The men under arrest give their names as H. Charles, George Hammond alias Cudabay, and Harry Raymond alias Hughes. The officers spotted them yesterday forenoon at the Elite cafe eating breakfast. After the morning meal they immediately commenced to lay plans for a "sucker," and rented a front room at a Lincoln avenue boarding house, so that they could keep watch if the police came around. Raymond went out as "steerer" to catch a "sucker." He spent some time around the Union depot, watching for some one whom he thought he could land. When the Union Pacific arrived about 3 o'clock two innocent looking young men were spotted by him as they alighted. They set their baggage down and Terry started to walk around the depot, soon Raymond had struck up an acquaintance with him and said he was a traveling man for a Los Angeles packing house and could find Terry and his friend positions, and asked them to accompany him to the agent's room up town, where contracts would be signed. Terry went with him to the room, where they chatted for a short time over the proposition, while waiting for the supposed agent to come back. A Game of cards was suggested, but Terry said he had never played cards and couldn't join them, but Clarke said "its only for fun and you wont lose anything," so Terry, foolishly put up his money. "Poker" was the game, and soon he had placed all the money he had $43, on the table. In the meantime Deputies Sebring and Wilson had shadowed the house and climbed over the back fence and quietly ascended the stair case to the room adjoining the one in which the game was being worked. They overheard the conversation between the men and when the game was just at its height the officers opened the door and told the men they were under arrest. Raymond made a grab for the $5 on the table, but Officer Wilson told him he would "wing" him if he touched the paraphernalia on the table. The three grafters, with their victim, were stood on one side of the room and handcuffed, and the officers put their cards and chips, etc., into a small grip and marched them to the county jail.

Clarke is the ring leader of the gang, and when searched had two decks of cards in his pockets and other articles that shows his business. They were searched but only $27 was found on them, and the sheriff was in a quandary to know where the balance of the money had gone, so they were marched out of the cells and again searched, and the four $10 greenbacks were found in an inside pants pocket on Hammond. This was the money with $3 in silver, taken from the table, which belonged to their victim.

Terry swore to a complaint last evening charging each of the men with gambling. This however, may not be the most serious charge preferred against them. Last evening District Attorney Halverson was at the sheriff's office shortly after the arrest, and the arresting officers told him that the trio had offered to divide the money with them and to buy them a new $30 overcoat each if they would "float" Terry out of town on the first train, and a charge of attempted bribery was brought against them, which is a penitentiary offense. These men were given a time order out of Salt Lake by the police Tuesday.

A more careful search of their room, last evening revealed the fact that this trio are not alone "sure thing men" with cards, but that they evidently work the other graft games, such as worthless drafts and checks, as a quantity of blank drafts and checks on various banks throughout the country were found among their effects. The cases against them are absolutely clear and they are sure to get the full extent of the law. Terry and his friends have remained over to prosecute the case.

GRAFTERS SENTENCED.

The men were given a hearing this morning before Judge Murphy and found guilty of the charge against them. Clarke was sentenced to 300 days in the county jail, while the other two got 100 days each.

SUIT ON A POLICY.

Suit was filed in the district court this morning by William A. Clark against the Fidelity & Casualty company of New York, to recover the sum of $1,100, alleged to be due on an accident policy issued to plaintiff May 18, 1903. Clark was injured Feb. 19, 1904, at the Jackson explosion on the Southern Pacific cut-off, and for 88 weeks was partially disabled, during which time he claims he was entitled to $12.50 per week, which the company has refused to pay.

"HILL MEMORIAL CHURCH."

First Methodist Church of Ogden Will Now be Known by New Appellation.

Ogden, Nov. 15.—There is a division of opinion respecting the changing of the name of the First Methodist church of Ogden to the "Hill Memorial Church," through the gift offered it by Rev. J. Wesley Hill. At the first quarterly conference of the church held here last evening, over which Bishop Talbot presided, the matter of accepting the $1,000 donation from Rev. Hill, if the church name could be changed to the Hill Memorial church, was brought up by Rev. Samuel Blair, who briefly set forth that the church was now $4,000 in debt, that Bishop Talbot would give $2,000, providing the other $2,000 could be raised to cancel the debt, that $1,000 of this amount could be obtained from the congregation, and suggested that the proposition of Dr. Hill be accepted.

Bishop Talbot followed Rev. Blair in a lengthy talk, expressing his great interest in the Ogden congregation, but felt that the local church had many obstacles in its way of progress, more serious than any other congregation in his diocese, and it mattered not by what conditions these obstacles had arisen, they were here and must be overcome. The first proposition some time ago was to abandon the church building and start over again. Another idea was to give up entirely, and still a third, and the one that was adopted, was to stand by the old ship and endeavor to anchor it safe in port. On this last proposition Rev. Talbot felt that the church had done well. He implored his hearers to stand together, and said it would be perfectly competent for the quarterly conference to accept the offer made, but thought that it would be unwise to do so without the expression of the congregation, and after that the conference could take action.

On motion of Rev. Blair, the conference stood adjourned to give all present an opportunity to express their opinions on the matter under discussion.

O. A. Kennedy said that he was usually with the pastor on all propositions, but on this one he felt he could not support Rev. Blair and could not share with him in his admiration for Mr. Hill, saying that he did not admire the man at all, and would oppose his name being attached to the church in any way. He said that it was getting too frequent an occurrence for churches to be named after individuals, and that when the First Methodist church was erected in Ogden the people subscribed to a fund for the First Methodist church and not for the Hill Memorial church. He said further that had that name been mentioned for the church when it was built, $500 could not have been raised. He closed his remarks by saying, "Is it not time for that man (Hill) to take his hands off this church?"

J. P. Drane asked the question, "Is it necessary that we should be compelled to settle this debt at this time?" saying that there still remained three years more in which the congregation had to raise the indebtedness. He said at the best the proposition was a poor one, and was like selling your birthright for a mess of pottage.

Judge Jacob S. Doremus addressed the assembly and said, "I like to have peace, but we will never have peace in this church with Hill's name stuck on top of it. The reason the church cannot raise money is because its reputation is bad, made so by J. Wesley Hill, who has not the fitness for the pulpit. According to Dr. Swallow he is a deceiver, who steals his sermons." The judge then referred to the organ deal which caused the church so much trouble also to the chandelier in the church, both of which Rev. Hill had claimed were presentations, but later developments proved them to be heavy burdens, which the members had to pay. His closing remark was: "Hill is unfit to have his name on any church."

Rev. Blair and two other gentlemen defended the name of Mr. Hill, claiming that it was unchristian and unbrotherly to recall the mistakes of another. Rev. Blair then attempted to withdraw the offer of Mr. Hill, but this Bishop Talbot refused to allow as it had been made to the conference and not to the congregation. When the conference reconvened, the offer of Rev. J. Wesley Hill was accepted, which means that henceforth the First Methodist church of Ogden will be on more, but that the church will be known as the Hill Memorial church.

WANT ALL NIGHT POST OFFICE.

Real Estate Men Want Uncle Sam to Serve Public Day and Night.

Ogden, Nov. 15.—The Ogden postoffice may be open at the general delivery window all night in the near future if Uncle Sam will give his consent. At the meeting of the Ogden Real Estate association held yesterday afternoon the matter was taken up and discussed at length and the association decided to ask the government to make this improvement in the local postoffice. Should this new departure be granted the public will have an opportunity of getting at any time, night or day, and of transacting other postal business. To the traveling public Ogden being such an important railroad center, the having of a night clerk at the postoffice will be of great advantage. In all larger cities this method of having the post-office open all the time is in vogue.

PURYEAR GETS $2,700 DAMAGES.

O. L. Puryear secured a verdict yesterday of $2,700 against the Union Pacific company for personal injuries. The case was brought by Mr. Puryear against the company to recover $15,000. The testimony of the prosecution went to show that plaintiff was employed by the railroad company as freight brakeman, that while performing his duty as such and in climbing up the side of a box car, one of the iron hand holds gave way, permitting him to fall from the moving train, resulting in serious injuries to his back and legs, which his attending physicians, Drs. Siken and Baker, believe will be permanent. The main point of the defense was brought out by Drs. Perkins and Joyce, who claim that his injuries are only of a temporary nature. The jury was out about two hours before arriving at a verdict, which gives Mr. Puryear $2,700.

OLD SORES SAP THE VITALITY AND UNDERMINE THE HEALTH

Old Sores that refuse to heal are a constant menace to health. They sap the vitality and undermine the constitution by draining the system of its very life fluids, and those afflicted with one of these ulcers grow despondent and almost desperate as one treatment after another fails. They patiently apply salves, washes, plasters, etc., but in spite of all these the sores refuse to heal and eat deeper into the surrounding flesh, destroying the tissues and growing to be a festering, inflamed and angry mass. The source of the trouble is in the blood. This vital fluid is filled with impurities and poisons which are constantly being discharged into the sore or ulcer, making it impossible for the place to heal. It will not go to depend on external applications for a cure, because they do not reach the real cause, and valuable time is lost experimenting with such treatment; the most they can do is keep the ulcer clean. Any sore that will not heal is dangerous, for the reason that it may have the deadly germs of Cancer behind it. A cure can be brought about only through a remedy that can change the quality of the blood, and this is what S. S. S. does. It goes to the very bottom of the trouble, drives out the poisons and germs with which it is filled, and purifies and builds up the entire circulation. By the use of S. S. S. the sore is supplied with new, rich blood which corrects the trouble, soon stops the discharge, and allows the place to heal naturally and permanently. S. S. S. also reinvigorates the entire system, and where the constitution has been depleted or broken down it quickly builds it up and restores perfect health. the President's office in Salt Lake.

Elder Knudsen was born in this city Jan. 7, 1883, and was an intelligent and exemplary young man. He left for Scandinavia on a mission April 20, 1883, and labored in Norway. While in the mission field a disease of the hip developed and became so serious that in March of this year he was sent to a hospital in Copenhagen for treatment. He has written his parents repeatedly from the hospital and from the nature of his letters it was evident that his ailment was of a very serious nature.

DIED IN MISSION FIELD.

Elder Wilford Knudsen's Remains on The Way Home From Europe.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Utah Co., Nov. 15.—President David John received a telephone message yesterday from Elder George Reynolds in Salt Lake informing him that Elder Wilford Knudsen was dead and that his remains would be shipped from Liverpool for Utah yesterday.

President John was requested to convey the sad information to the parents of Elder Knudsen, Mrs. and Mrs. Herman Knudsen of the Sixth ward. The news was a great shock to the parents and the many relatives of the young man, and the lack of details is somewhat of a surprise to them. He has been in a hospital in Copenhagen for several months, and they suppose he died there, and that the remains had reached Liverpool when the cable was sent to report the conference in Denver next summer. Since its appointment the committee has investigated climatic and other conditions in western states and territories and Mr. Nelson is of the opinion that Utah offers the best conditions. The climate is milder and more equable than Colorado, and more beneficial therefore to patients on their arrival from lower altitudes, especially to patients in advanced stages. He is especially pleased with Provo and the surrounding country, and while several locations have been examined and others will be, it is highly probable the committee will recommend Provo. If it does and the recommendation is adopted, work will be commenced as soon as a suitable site is secured. A piece of land of about 100 acres is wanted and buildings will be erected and furnished with all the modern conveniences for the treatment of consumptives. It is expected that the sanitarium will be arranged to care for 500 or more patients, although that number is not expected at first.

Denver has now six sanitariums and will make a strong effort to secure this one, but according to Mr. Nelson's opinion in which he is supported by prominent physicians, the smoke from factory and machine shops of that city prevents it from being an ideal location, and in addition to this Utah has superior climatic conditions.

GARDEN CITY NOTES.

Sheriff Harmon went to American Fork yesterday and arrested Washburn Preston on a charge of stealing some sheep belonging to John Berg of Midway last spring. The accused gave a $500 bond for his appearance in court. Justice Hunter for preliminary examination.

Yesterday while Mr. and Mrs. John Ferre were at the courthouse they discovered a dog belonging to them hitched to a buggy in front of the courthouse. The animal was lost several weeks ago, and it appears was sold to Roy Bird, a Springfield, Mo. man, from whom the person driving it yesterday, a well known Springfield citizen, had hired it. Mr. and Mrs. Ferre accompanied him to Springfield and brought the animal back with them. Mr. Bird bought the animal from two boys for $30, and came over today, trying to find the boys.

Sheriff Harmon has received a telegram from Sheriff J. W. Lee of Sidney, Nev., advising him that C. D. Romero has been sentenced there to 10 years in the penitentiary for forgery. Romero came to Utah last spring and obtained a forged or worthless draft for $500 at the Springfield bank; he obtained $400 in cash and a draft for $500 on a Salt Lake bank, which he cashed there. Romero represented himself as a real estate buyer, and had letters of introduction from prominent eastern financial concerns. He also operated in Wyoming after leaving Utah.

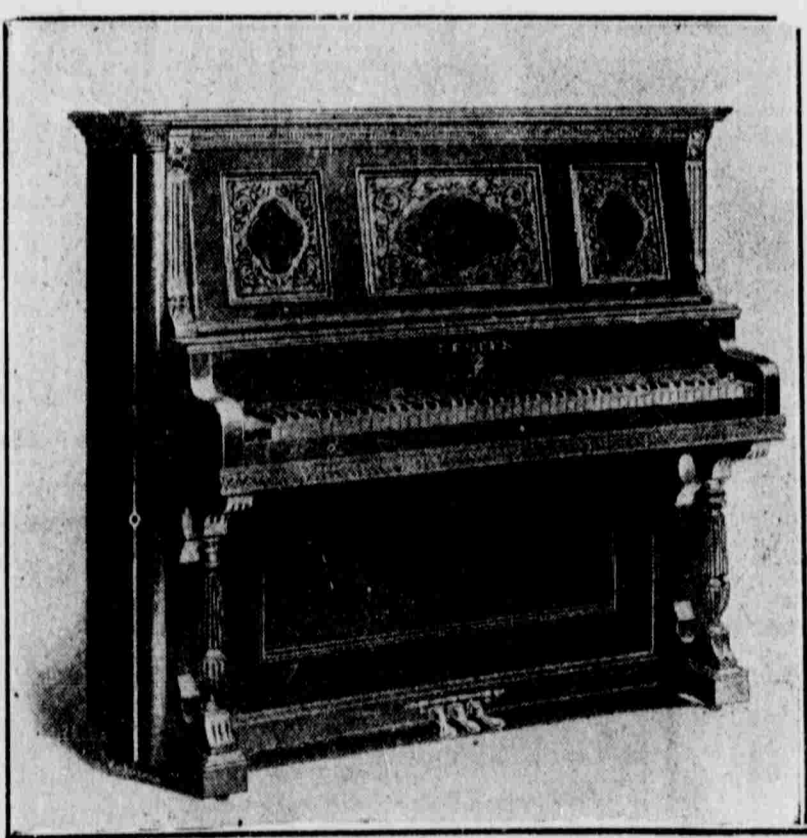

Millionaire's Poor Stomach.

The worn-out stomach of the over-fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over thirty-five years. August Flower cures the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station.
