THE UTAH COMMISSION.

Its Annual Report to the Secretary of the Interior.

A Budget of Recommendations and Suggestions.

The following is the full text of the Annual Report of the Utah Commission to Secretary Lamar:

CHICAGO, Ills., September 24, 1886.

SIR—We respectfully submit a report of the operations of this Commission during the past year, together with some observations on the present condition of Utah.

It is hardly necessary to set forth in detail our proceedings in relation to the execution of the law, as this would be substantially a repetition of what has been stated in our former reports. It is perhaps sufficient to say in general, that during the past year, as in the last and previous years, the law relating to the disfranchisement of polygamists and those living in unlawful cohabitation has been fully and successfully enforced.

All such persons, with very few, if any, exceptions, have been excluded from voting and holding office. During this period, as in the preceding year, criminal prosecutions, for violations of the law of Congress, have been numerous. A large number have been fined and imprisoned in the Penitentiary for polygamy or unlawful cohabitation, chiefly for the latter offense.

It is reported and believed by many resident non-Mormons that during the last year a large number of polygamous marriages have taken place in the temples of Logan City and St. George, located respectively in the extreme north and south parts of the Territory. We have not the means of verifying such reports, yet we have no doubt that a considerable number of such marriages have been celebrated with the knowledge, approbation, and active co-operation of leading men of the Mormon Church. Whether upon the whole polygamous marriages are on the decrease in Utah is a matter on which different opinions are expressed; but undoubtedly many persons have been restrained by the fear of disfranchisement and the Penitentiary, and we think it is safe to say that in the more enlightened portions of the Territory, as, for example, Salt Lake City and its vicinity, very few polygamous marriages have occurred within the last year, while, on the other hand, in the rural districts in some parts of the Territory we have reason to believe that such violations of the law are not infrequent.

By the law of Congress the duties of this Commission appertain to all elections—territorial, county, precinct and municipal. The municipal elections occur under legislative provisions or local ordinances, at various times during the year; and at the proper time before the election in each city and town we are required to appoint the registration officers, judges of election, etc. This work was begun early in the present year. Besides, registration officers for each county and precinct were appointed to the number of 280; and judges for the general election to the number of over 800 were selected and commissioned. These officers were chosen after diligent inquiry as to their fitness and qualifications.

Under the local law, as modified by the act of Congress, two revisions of the registration were made in the spring and summer, preparatory to the annual general election on Aug. 2, at which time there were chosen three "commissioners to locate university lands," county sheriffs, clerks, probate judges, selectmen, assessors and collectors, prosecuting attorneys, treasurers, coroners, and various precinct officers, such as justices of the peace and constables.

A board of canvassers, consisting of three non-Mormons and two Mormons, intelligent and reputable gentlemen, appointed by this Commission, assembled in Salt Lake City and canvassed the election returns; and it appeared that all the candidates of the "People's" or Mormon party (except a few precinct officers) were selected, and certificates of election were given accordingly.

On January 11, 1886, the Legislative Assembly of Utah met in Salt Lake City, and remained in session sixty days. A bill concerning registrations and elections was passed by both houses of the Legislative Assembly, but failed to become a law through the disapproval of the Governor.

The effect of such bill would have been to return the registration and election machinery to the local agencies, from which they were taken by the act of Congress, and to restore to the Mormon people the political power of the Territory, in derogation of the act of Congress referred to.

Since we submitted our last report, joint resolutions have been brought forward, and are now pending in both houses of Congress, proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States prohibiting and punishing polygamy in all the States and in all places within the jurisdiction of the United States; extending the judicial power of the Federal Government to the prosecution of such offenses, and conferring upon Congress the power to provide for their punishment. A bill which passed the Senate at the last session of Congress is now pending in the House, which, with the amendments proposed thereto by the Judiciary Committee of the House, furnishes a comprehensive plan for the treatment of public affairs in Utah. Bills have also been heretofore introduced into Congress proposing substantially to abrogate the local legislative authority in Utah, and to substitute a legislative commission to be appointed by the President.

After the careful and deliberate consideration that has evidently been given by the Judiciary Committees of the two houses of Congress to the recommendations of the President, the suggestions made through the reports of this Commission, which clearly appears from the bill referred to, in which nearly all of our recommendations have been incorporated, we deem it unnecessary to press our views further at this time upon the same topics. But we consider it not improper or superfluous to make some observations in regard to the proposed constitutional amendment. While we are of the opinion that this should not supersede other measures, we are satisfied that it would be an efficient factor in effectuating the desired result, namely the abrogation of polygamy wherever it exists within the jurisdiction of the United States. In addition to the reasons so forcibly presented by the Judiciary Committee in their very able report accompanying the joint resolution, we would suggest that the incorporation of this provision in the Constitution of the United States would serve as an advertisement to the people of all civilized nations that in the United States polygamy had been put under a ban in the most authoritative and emphatic manner, so that the most ignorant of the deluded immigrants might reasonably be expected to take cognizance of the constitutional inhibition, and the consequences of violating the laws.

Again, the Mormon leaders have taught the people that the laws against polygamy are unconstitutional. They profess a high regard for the Constitution as an inspired instrument. But they claim that it has been subverted and misinterpreted by Congress and the courts. Now, if the said polygamy amendment should become a part of the Constitution, they would probably not have the hardihood to say that the Constitution itself is unconstitutional, and it is not unreasonable to predict that the more sagacious and influential persons among the Mormons would realize the hopelessness of a further conflict with the government, and accommodate themselves to the inevitable by the exercise of that "worldly wisdom" which so often tempers and modifies the conduct of religious fanatics.

In regard to the bill hereinbefore referred to (Senate bill 10, amended in the House committee, and reported June 10, 1886), we would suggest that section 25 should be changed so as to require the registration and affidavit to be made before the proper registration officer of the precinct, at the usual time of registration when the voter takes the oath required by law for registration. As the section of the bill now stands, such oath and registration are to be made before the clerk of the Probate Court of the county. Many of the counties are very large; some of them more than a hundred miles long, and travel in many localities is much impeded by the ruggedness of the mountain roads, and at certain seasons of the year by deep snows, and many of the voters would not be willing to incur the expense and loss of time required to go the county seat to be registered. Besides, the amendment which we have suggested would be in harmony with the registration and election laws of the Territory, as modified by the act of Congress.

In our last report we called attention to the propriety of amending the immigration laws so as to extend their application to the Mormons. The President, also, in his annual message in December last, called the attention of Congress to the same subject. It seems to us that such an act properly guarded should be framed so as to forbid the immigration of all aliens into the United States who are polygamists, or who uphold polygamy by their profession.

The fullness of detail with which we have in our former reports set forth the condition of affairs in Utah dispenses with the necessity of again going into particulars, but we deem it proper to present a passage, contained in our report of November 18, 1884:

"As the Government has to deal here with a people who are wonderfully superstitious and fanatically devoted to their system of religion, the public should not expect, as the immediate result of the present laws of Congress, nor indeed of any legislation, however radical, the sudden overthrow of polygamy; and the most that can be predicted of such legislation is, that it will, if no step backward be taken, soon ameliorate the harder conditions of Mormonism, and hasten the day for its final extinction."

Before closing this report we wish to impress upon the Government and the people of the United States the magnitude of the evil with which we have to contend, and the difficulties in the application of a remedy. The total number of Mormons throughout the world is over 200,000, a large majority of whom reside in Utah. While of these a great majority of the adults are not living in polygamy, yet every orthodox member of that church professes to believe in it as a divine revelation. The people have been taught this dogma in their temples, tabernacles, meeting-houses and Sunday schools, for a third of a century. Their church organization and ecclesiastical polity are marvels of skill and ability. Their leaders are fertile in resources, while the mass of the people are fanatical and superstitious to a degree that has seldom been witnessed in modern times.

In such a condition there is no remedy that would be immediate in its effects except military force, and this cannot now be applied, because no civilized government in this age will wage a war of extermination against unarmed men, women and children. But the evils existing in Utah cannot be ignored by the Government. Devoted as the American people are to religious liberty by education, tradition and constitutional sanction, they will never allow this principle to be subverted by the toleration or sanction of crime. Here we may say, that while we recognize the obligation of the Government of the United States to protect the personal and property rights of the Mormon people, collectively and individually, and to deal with them as equals before the law, yet it is equally the duty of the Government to punish crime committed within its jurisdiction; and religious liberty cannot be pleaded as a bar to punishment for criminal acts in violation of the laws of the land and of social order.

The Mormon people ought to understand this. If they expect a toleration or protection of polygamy from any party or faction in this country, now or hereafter, such expectation is vain and futile. The laws, then, must be enforced. If present laws and the proposed amendments are not sufficient to suppress the evil, more stringent enactments must be adopted, and the result will be that at no distant day this relic of Asiatic barbarism, this blot on the fair fame of America, will be swept from the land.
