Maj. Hemphill Pokes Fun at Speaker Cannon and Says He Never Was Right in His Life.

CHOATE'S HIT AT ROOSEVELT.

Takes Associated Press to Task for Not Having a Correspondent in the Wilds of Africa.

New York, April 23.—Six hundred editors and publishers from all parts of the country tonight attended the joint dinner of the Associated Press and the American Newspapers Publishers' association at the Waldorf-Astoria.

Count Johann Heinrich von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, and Joseph H. Choate were guests of honor and delivered speeches appreciative of work of the press. Other speakers were Maj. John C. Hemphill of the Charleston News and Courier, Rev. Robert Burdett of Los Angeles and Senator T. M. Patterson of Colorado.

After the dinner Frank B. Neves, president of the Associated Press, presented Maj. Hemphill as toastmaster. A toast was drunk to the president of the United States.

Maj. Hemphill spoke of the organizations whose members joined in the festive dinner as "the greatest and most powerful newspaper association in the world." Here are the publishers who make the money and the editors who spend it, mingling upon apparently friendly terms, while the common people pass on the outside, utterly oblivious of our real importance in the great American economy.

In explaining the absence of Speaker Cannon, Maj. Hemphill said the speaker could not be present on account of pressure of business.

"It will do no harm, however," said the toastmaster, "to say behind his back what would have been said to his face, that he was never right in his life; but he made a bad start. He was born in North Carolina, the home of the Melungeon race, which President Taft is to celebrate next month. I am sorry to say, but as that were not sufficient handicap, he emigrated before he had reached the years of discretion, which, by the way, he has not yet attained."

Maj. Choate evoked applause by taking the manager of the Associated Press to task for neglecting to have a correspondent in the wilds of Africa to inform an anxious world of the result of "the first hunt when the great lions quail before him." Adopting a more serious tone, he reviewed the changes that he himself had witnessed in the method of gathering and transmitting news, and paid a glowing tribute to the Associated Press.

"Today," said he, "the very school boy, before he goes to school in the morning, has taken a voyage all around the world, and knows what has been going on in the last 24 hours in all the countries. That is what the Associated Press has done and is doing every day in enlightening and educating the American people. It has been one of the great factors of education, of civilization and of peace, and what is more, it has brought the corners of the globe together. It has created an international sympathy in which we stand closely and warmly related to all the nations of the earth."

John H. Faher of the Boston Traveler was given a loving cup in token of his work as chairman of the special committee of the Associated Press. Herman Blodner of the New York Staats Zeitung was given a

BURNING ECZEMA QUICKLY SPREAD

Started Like Ringworm on Hand—Hand Swelled and Then Humor Spread to Arms, Legs and Face—it was Something Terrible.

PRESCRIPTIONS FAILED:
CUTICURA CURED HIM

I have used the Cuticura Remedies for a very bad case of eczema with complete success. About twelve or eighteen months ago the disease developed in the shape of a large pinhead on top of my hand. It burned and itched so much that I was compelled to show it to a doctor. He pronounced it ringworm, and made very light of it. He gave me a wash and told me to apply it to my leg and all would be over in the morning. But the next morning my hand was all swollen up and I poulticed it. When the doctor came to his office I showed him the hand and to my surprise he told me that he had never experienced such a bad case of ringworm and that it was well I poulticed it. After trying his different remedies the disease increased and went up my arms and finally to my thighs and legs generally and finally to my face. The burning was something terrible. After I had tried this treatment for about six months I went to another doctor who had the reputation of being the best in town. He told me it was a bad case of eczema and that it would take quite a while to cure it. His medicine checked the advance of the disease but did not stop it.

I finally concluded to try the Cuticura Remedies. I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment and a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent and found relief in the first trial. I continued until I was completely free from the disease and have not been troubled with another attack since. I will use Cuticura Ointment in my family as it is one of the best remedies to heal a sore or other injury rapidly. I can freely and truthfully say that the Cuticura Remedies are the best so far as my experience went with them and I am still recommending them, feeling sure I am not alone in my opinion.
