

Miss Addie Zane gav Monday for Miss Leta McMillan, eight intimate friends being midden.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell L. Tracy enter-tained at dinner at the Country club on Monday night, their guests numbering about a half dozen. . . .

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wood gave a box party at the Orpheum on Monday night.

Miss Elsie Hansen gave a delightful card party last night in honor of her guest, Miss Bernadette Manley of St. Louis, 15 tables being placed. The rooms were decorated with a profu-sion of flowers and vines, the parlor in pink and white asters, the diningroom in pink sweet peas and plumosa, and the hall in goldenglow and sunflowers, with a large American flag draping the wall. The tallies were Gibson pictures. Supper was served after the contest, and about 70 guests were pres-

Miss Mary Mayne entertained at a notably pretty luncheon yesterday in honor of Mis Mollie Alexander, whose marriage to Mr. 'A. H. May takes place next week. The rooms were decorated in yellow with a profusion of golden-clow and sunflowers, and the table had for a centerplece a large sunflower in tissue paper, each petal containing a dainty handkerchief for the bride-elect, and the unfolding taking place at the close of the luncheon. Yellow nasturtiums and smillax completed, the decorations. About a dozen guests were present.

Miss Mamie Hines was entertained at a pretty afternoon affair on Thurs-day by Miss Josephine Brown, the rooms being decorated in pink and purple asters, and prizes in the contest being awarded Miss Myrtle Jack and Miss Abbie Lowe. The guests were: the Misses Mamie Needham, Josephine Clawson, Amy Starr, Rhoda Young, El-la Burns, Abbie Snow, Myrtle Jack, Rachel Snow, Ethel Brown, Merle Snow, Mrs. Athenol Lund.

Miss Ruby Lambourne was hostess at a card party yesterday in honor of Miss Rose Evans, who leaves shortly for New York, the decorations, tallies and all details harmonizing. About 29 guests enjoyed the affair.

The luncheon given by Miss Bessie A pleasant affair of Thursday was the Williamson on Thursday in honor of afternoon party given by Miss Gladys

Miss Myra Sowles was preitly sugges-tive of the bridal event in which the guest of honor will so soon figure. A wedding bell of pink and white sweet peas hung over the table, while the place cards were painted in wedding bell designs. The centerpiece was sweet peas in the bridal colors, and smiliax extended to the corners of the table. Covers were laid for 12 guests.

Miss Jennie Gray entertained a cards on Thursday, her amusement be-ing Five Hundred. The rooms were brilliant with sunflowers and goldenglow and the score cards Christy pic-tures. Those invited were Mrs. R. S. Gray, Miss Edith Chapman, Miss Rose Moench, Miss Edna Sands, Miss Carrie Atkins, Misses Elsie and Stella Cohn Miss Marie Lynch, Miss Helen Jenninge, Miss Ruby Koeber, Miss Florence Cul-mer, Miss Elise Yates, Miss Helen Letchfield.

Miss Mamie Hines was guest of honor at a pretty afternoon affair yesterday hostess being Miss Catherine Mc Carrick, who entertained about guests besides he self. Flowers were everywhere and an enjoyable time spent. Miss Leta McMillan and the Misses Lyster of Chicago were guests of honor at an elaborate luncheon on Thursday given by Mrs. W. P. Kiser at the Coun try club. The long table was beautifully decorated in pink and white, a bowl of asters forming the centerplece surrounded by pink and white tulle, while ferns and pink ribbon streamers and bows completed the pretty effect. The place cards were in the same col-

Mrs. Charles Read and Mrs. Emily Read Hager will be at home informai-ly next Thursday to their friends at the home of the former at 150 Thir-teenth East street. Mrs. Hager is here from the Philippines, with her little n, and will be followed later by Mr. Hager for an extended visit.

Mrs. Harry Ganz entertained inform-ally at cards on Thursday for Mrs. John Reed, about 20 being present, and prizes being awarded Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Ellen Elliott and Mrs. O. B. Meyer.

toriain at cards on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons of next week.

Mrs. F. S. Fox entertained informally at luncheon on Thursday for Mrs. Murray of California, her guests num-bering about a half dozen.

QUAINT HAT FOR A LITTLE MISS.

One of the most delightful revivals of the season is that of the oldfashioned saucer hats for little girls. This is a leghorn pressed into shapethey can do anything with leghorns no wadays, though for a year or so ago, they were considered possible in only floppy flats. A wreath of roses about the crown ending in a stift bow and short ends of brown velvet ribbon three and one-half inches wide is the only trimming. The under brim has a brown silk wire finished edge.

McConaughy in honor of Miss Biggs of being lit with colored lanters and about Chicago and Miss Rose Evans. The rooms were decorated with a profu-fair.

Harold Fabian entertained a number of his friends at the Alta club on Thursday. . . .

Mrs. C. C. Slade entertained at a Kensington yesterday in honor of hir sister, Mrs. J. Peare, who is visiting her. The rooms were decorated and about 20 guests were present.

An interesting event of the week was the plano recital given by Miss Mary Olive Gray presenting her pupil Miss Dyer at the Congregation church last night. Miss Gray acted as accompanist to her pupil, who acquitted herself with bonors, and the affair, with Mrs. Gerran's vocal numbers included, was in all ways enjoyable.

Mrs. George J. Gibson was hostess at an enjoyable card party yesterday given in honor of her guest, Miss Marie Dermitt of Pittsburg.

Mrs. Percival O. Perkins entertained at a delightful tea yesterday afternoon, the rooms being bright with autumn flowers and a number of intimate friends assisting.

Tonight Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Schulder will entertain at dinner in honor of the Misses Lyster of Chicago.

Mrs. A. S. Martin entertained at a pretty luncheon today, the table being effectively decorated, and covers laid for about a dozen guests.

Miss Gertrude Shannon entertained a number of her school friends on Wed-nesday night in honor of her fifteenth birthday, a dinner being served and an informal musical and literary program being enjoyed. The rooms were bright with flowers and a pleasant time spent.

Misses Ethel and Rhea Rogers entertained at a delightful canyon party in City creek, Monday, for friends from Ogden and Logan. The young from Ogden and Logan. The young people returned to spend the evening in dancing at Saltair. The guests were: Misses Ruby Wright, Genleve and Glenn Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Ray B. West, Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Snow and Messrs, Clyde Squires, Serge Campbell, Jack Duncan, Will Morrell and Orson Rogers. . . .

stone park, where they have spent several weeks,

Miss Vermilia Smoot and Allen Bassett, have just returned from Provo, where they spent labor day, with their friends and relatives.

Miss Katherine Nolan of Kalamazoo, Mich., is visiting Mrs. C. J. Collins.

spending some time in Ogden, is home again.

Mrs. E. B. Critchlow and family have returned from Brighton, where they have spent six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cates are in Boston for a month with Mrs. Cates and Mrs. Shermer.

Miss Ruby Wright has returned home from Richfield. . . .

Miss Elsie Ridge is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ray Walker, at the Walker farm.

Mrs. Cora Meldrum and Miss Effic Williamson have returned from Fish Haven, Idaho, where they visited sev-eral weeks with Miss Williamson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nephi Williamson.

. . . Mrs. C. H. McCoy has returned from a visit of several weeks in Idaho.

Mrs. Ernest Bamberger is home from Colorado Springs, where she has spent the past few weeks.

Miss Rose Evans will leave shortly will be a flower girl. for New York, where she will re-enter school. gagement of his daughter, Charlotte McDonald of Oshkosh, Wis., to James Miss Harwood of Kansas City is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wood, 395 East South Temple street.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Pyper and families have returned from their summer at Brighton.

. . . Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Bower returned Monday from a tour of Yellowstone park. . . . next week.

Mrs. L. C. Kensey has returned from California, where she has been spending the last few months

Miss Carrie Sappington has returned from California, where she has spent the vacation.

Mrs. A. W. McCune, Jr., and chil-dren are visiting Mrs. R. C. Naylor.

Mrs. Walter J. Beattle and Mrs. Ed P. Kimball have returned from Los Angeles, where they have spent the past two weeks.

receive the best wishes of their friends Miss Emily Curtis returns next | for their future happiness.

Miss Eila M. Dukes, who has been spending the summer in Oregon, returned today.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Read have returned from Yellowstone park.

Next week will be marked by sev eral interesting marriages, Wednesday as usual being the popular day. Among them will be the weddings of Miss Lilian Horne and Shirley M. Woolley. of Miss friends partook. The contracting par-ties are very popular in Ogden. The bride has been at Lost & Thomas' for a long time. She is a charming young lady and a leader in social circles. The groom is a kell known young business man associated with the Hydro-Carbon Light company. They received many beautiful presents. Ogden will be they home. Miss McMillan and Mr. Masson and Miss Sowles and Mr. Roberts.

The marriage of Miss Horne and Mr Woolley will take place in the Temple, and a reception will follow at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary S. Horne, in the evening.

On Monday the wedding of Miss Lottie Marcroft and Arthur J. Kelly will take place, a reception to celebrate the marriage at the bride's home.

Holley Brown of this city.

A pretty bridal event of the past

Mrs. Dr. S. L. Brick has as her guess this week Mrs. Knudson and her daughters, Lila and Opal, from Brighan City. Mrs. Brick and Miss Lila will leave Ogden next week for the eas The marriage of Miss Leta McMillan to Raymond S. Masson of Los An-geles, which takes place on Wedneson a pleasure trip. day, will be one of the events of the week. The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Elizabeth McMillan as Monday evening at Uintah a largely attended and very enjoyable wedding dance was given in honor of Mr. and maid of honor, while Miss Mildred Mc-Millan and Miss Leila Treat of San Mrs. Laurence Pendleton, who are 20-ing to make their home in Summe Francisco will be the bridesmalds. Gordon McMillan, Mr. Weymouth and Mr. Heise of San Francisco, friends of county.

the groom, will participate and little Dorothy Adams, the niece of the bride, Miss Mabel A. Wade of Pleasant View, Weber county was married Thursday to Daniel E. Barnett, of Sua field, Idaho, Rev. J. E. Carver official B. R. McDonald announces the en-home.

ing in the ceremony. . . .

OGDEN.

Ogden, Sept. S.-Wednesday evening a pretty home wedding was celebraid at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. 7.

lock with E. G. Crocher, Rev. John E.

Carver officiating. A bounteous repair was served in the dining room, of was served in the dining room, of which a large number of relatives and friends partook. The contracting par-tiles are very popular in Ogden. The bride has been at Loss & The

. . .

Whipple 1,444 Twenty-fourth Whipple their daughter, Miss Jennie when their daughter, Miss Jennie Whipple was united in bonds of wes-

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mc. Gonagle and daughter Grace, have returned here from an enjoyable outing in Nevada. . . .

week was the wedding of Miss Susan Dr. W. P. Armstrong and wife of Springfield, Illinois, are visiting in Og-den, the guests of Paul Stecker and Sawyer and Carl Grover Brown, the ceremony and reception taking place at the bride's home, with a number of friends assisting and the bridal pair leaving later for San Francisco, where family. Server a server an an

Mrs. E. G. Bell has gone to San Francisco to spend several months pleasure they will make their home. ... The wedding of Miss Mollie Alexaning. der and Adolph H. May will take place

Mrs. Archie Bigelow is entertaining a large number of her lady friends the afternoon at 500. After cards a dainty luncheon will be served. The parlon

. . .

THE -NETTLETON ORCHESTRA

This week on Wednesday Miss Lena Bachman and Mr. O. C. Baker of Provo were married at the latter place. . . . An announcement which will sur-prise many people is that of the mar-riage of Mr. James C. Dinwoodey, Jr., of this city and Miss Maud E. Tebbs of Denver, the young people having been married on the 24th of August, unbeknown to their friends and hav-ing just made the disclosure. They will ors. About 20 guests were at the board.

Music Furnished for all occasions Telephones: Bell 4262; Ind. 4076

Cariney, Alice Martin, Edna Shepard, Mary Holloran, Gay Vance, Eliza Dey, Elsie Parsons, Mercy Lewis, Bessie Jones, Clara Sowies, Margaret Dunn, Leigh Whittomore, Nettle Luman, Gladys Savage, Calla Crane, Margaret Walker, Isabel Johnson, Laura Dole, sephine Weil, Alice Wall, Mary Wall,

Hilda Greeson. . . . Mrs. W. W. McIntosh entertained at funcheon on Thursday in honor of visiting friends from New York and Ogden, her guests numbering about a half dozen. half dozen. Mrs. P. C. Thompson entertained Mrs.

Mrs. George W. Lambourne will en-

Japanese lilies were the decorations and the guests to meet Mrs. Judge were Mrs. Walter Filer, Mrs. Robert Gould Smith, Mrs. William McCaskell, Miss Geddes, Miss Jenna Budd Geddes, Miss Loreen Leary, Miss Minette Baer, Misses Dora and Evelyn Daly, Mrs. Adolf Baer, Mrs. G. Cannon, Mrs. Ba-ker of Chicago, Mrs. Bittinger and Miss Leila Stingley.

DESERET EVENING NEWS: SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1906.

Miss Lena Welby is in Bingham visiting Miss Bessle Chandler.

Miss Irma Walker, who has been

ROOSEVELT BEAUTY TO WED.

Formal announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. George Pierce Allen of Atlanta, Ga., of the engagement of their daughter, Selma Adelaida, to Leonard Day, a New York lawyer. Miss Allon is one of the acknowledged beils of Atlanta, her beauty winning the admiration of the president of the United States when he made his last trip to the south. At a reception given in his honor he took particular notice of an unusually pretty blonde and inquired who she was. When introduced, he told Miss Allen she was the prettiest woman he had met in the south. The wedding is set for the early spring.

50 Years In Favor

A product that grows in favor, year after year, for over fifty years must possess unusual merit.

That's the history of Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate. Time after time, the capacity of the plant has been increased to keep pace with the growing demand, in spite of sharp com-petition and frequent imitations.

Try one can and you'll understand why. You'll appreciate the delicate flavor and satisfying goodness.

Ask your grocer for it. Be sure that you get it.

Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate

Wednesday by Miss Hilda Greeson, who gave a card party in her honor. Yel-'Hearts' the game. The guests to meet "Hearts" the game. The guests to meet Miss Hines were Miss Dagmer Orlob, Miss Gladys McConaughy, Miss Mary Jenkinson, Miss Margaret Williamson, Miss Hazel Tomlinson, Miss Margaret Harris, Miss Dorothy Partridge, Miss Ada Ferguson, Miss Edith Chapman, Miss Stella Daft, Miss Merle Lynch.

Frank Judge at a luncheon at the Country club on Wednesday, her other guests numbering about a dozen. Pink

The dancing party given by Harold Lamb at the Holmes mansion on Wednesday was among the delightful affairs

Miss Myra Sowles and Miss Leta Mc-

Milas Ayra Sowies and Aiss Leta ale-Millan, two brides-elect of next week, were guests of honor at a luncheon giv-en by Mrs. M. H. Sowies at the Coun-try club on Wednesday, the table be-ing effectively decorated in white and

Miss Mamie Hines was entertained on green and covers laid for 12 guests.

. . .

of the week.

Miss Mamie Hines was guest of honor at a pleasant afternoon affair today, given by Miss Lillan James, the enter-tainment being cards.

Miss Mildred Ott gave a Kensington on Wednesday for Miss Roberts of Og-den, a number of friends assisting. Sweet peas and smilax were used in the decorations and a guessing game was enjoyed, prizes being awarded Mrs. Palmquist. Miss Strickley and Miss Higgins. The guests were Mrs. E. C. Warren, Mrs. Richard Dickenson, Mrs. S. L. Palmquist, Misses Alverta and Jessie Martin, Miss Helen Boxrud, Miss Jessie Home, Miss Ethel Partridge, Miss Gertrude Campbell, Miss Ihrma Walker, Miss Katherine McDonald, Miss Lenore Morse, Miss Lucille Yates, Miss Margaret Ratine, Miss Blanche Strickley, Miss Adalaide Peters, Miss Lamera Ritter, Miss Dora Turton, Miss Fanny Breeden, Miss Louise Betts, Miss Mariorie Higgins Miss Marion Longa Marjorie Higgins, Miss Marion Jones, Miss Vera Shaver, Miss Grace Bettles, Miss Nell Hancock, Miss Maude c-Carger, Miss Grace Esthome, Miss Ethel McDonaid McDonald.

... Mrs. A. B. Witcher entertained delightfully on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. O'Neill of Omsha.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Alley gave a box party at the Orpheum, the guests numbering a half dozen.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harris entertained at a box party on Thursday night.

At the Kenyon on Tuesday, Mrs. A. C. Ewing and Mrs. W. C. Alexander gave a bridge tea, the parlors being decorated in golden glow an/2 pink asters respectively, and prizes being awarded Mrs. R. H. Kriebel, Mrs. Richard Aley and Miss Cosgriff. A balf dozen young ziris assisted in servhalf dozen young girls assisted in serv-ing refreshments, and about 50 guests ing refreshing fair.

Carl Schied was among those who gave box parties at the Orpheum this week.

Mrs. C. C. Slade has been giving a series of pleasant functions in honor of her sister, Mrs. J. Peare and on Tues-day entertained at cards for her and Miss Orlob. Nasturtiums and pansies were used in decorating, and eight tables were played. The following guests were present: Mesdames A. F. Wey, Thomas Marname, J. Gaylord, R. Wey, Thomas Marname, J. Gaylord, R. Morrison, R. E. Farrington, J. S. Bransford, S. C. Collins, D. Bero, R. C. Hill, D. J. Laramie, J. Griffin, Wilson Hargraves, H. V. Croll, D. C. Jackling, J. O. Connor, N. Kirk, Q. A. Duncan, R. A. N. Atkinson, W. C. Orem, Gib-bons, R. N. Gibbons, Irene Emery, Hazel Murphy, K. Halloran, Katherine Nolan of Kalamazoo, Mich.

Miss Beth Critchlow gave a delight-ful luncheon at the University club on Monday in honor of Miss Susan Sawyer whose marriage jook place this week. The decorations were in white sweet peas and ferns, and the places cards marine views. The guests invited to meet Miss Sawyer were Miss Mamie Sappington. Miss Helen Letchfield, Misses Ray and Olive Bartch, Miss Hollister Hancock, Miss Kate Allen of Park City, Miss Eleanor Stewart, Miss Edna Farnsworth, Miss Loslie Woodruff. Miss Margaret Harris, Miss Kate Groo, Miss Joan Odell, Miss Alta Raw-lins, Miss Edith Hobbs, Miss Edith Sutherland, Miss May Crithchlow, Miss Florence Grant, Miss Traddles Patterson and Miss Julia Cullen. Mrs. William Crosby gave a pretty children's party for her little daughter Myra on Tuesday.

The Ladies' Literary club opens its season next Friday with an inaugural address by the president, Miss Paul, address by the president, Miss Paul, followed by a social hour. The mu-sical part of the program has been prepared by Mrs. Peabody, and in-cludes a flute solo from Willard Flashman, tow vocal quartet numbers, and the performance of the Tchaikow-ski plano concerto by Prof. Shepherd end Miss Concella Sharp on two planos and Miss Cecella Sharp on two planos.

Mrs. Marie Gerrans has returned from Paris and will shortly open a studio for vocal pupils.

Orson M. Rogers has returned from Idaho where he has been for the past eight months.

Miss Emma Dickson, who has been visiting with Miss Nellie Williams, has returned to her home in Denver, Colo, . . .

Mrs. John L. Bowman and daughters. Mise Hazel and Ruth, have re-turned from Upper Falls resort in Provo canyon, where they have spent the summer.

. . . Miss Mary Roberts, who has been the guest of Miss Mildred Ott the last two weeks, returned Thursday to her home in Ogden.

Mrs. S. C. Adams of Denver arrived in the city Wednesday and will be at the McMillan home till after the Mc-Millan-Masson wedding.

Miss Leila Trent of San Francisco is here and will also be a guest at the McMillan home.

Mrs. O. D. Banks is back from a visit of a few weeks in New York.

Mrs. Martha Royle King and her aunt, Mrs. M. S. Turner of Denver, are back from a trip through Yellowstone park. . . .

Mrs. A. J. Hardin of Pueblo, Colo., is the guest of Judge and Mrs. W. C. . . .

Mrs. Joseph Haas has gone today to Los Angeles, to visit her mother, Mrs. C. S. Tingey, who has been spending the summer in California.

Miss Beth Buckingham has return-ed from a month's visit in Omaha and Denver.

Mrs. H. L. A. Culmer and her daugh. her, Mrs. Frank Roberts and baby, have gone to Los Angeles for a month,

Mrs. Margaret Zane Witcher has re-turned from San Francisco, Mrs. Chester W. O'Niell and children of Chicago are visiting with Mrs. O'Niell's sister, Mrs. R. E. McConaughy.

Bernice Richardson, Frank and John Rudy have returned from Chicago, where they have spent a couple of weeks. . . .

Mrs. A. B. Hirsh of Philadelphia, who has been the guest of Mrs. Sol Siegel for a month, has returned to her

Mrs. J. W. Edmonds has returned from Brighton, where she was the guest of Mrs. Fisher Harris for two weeks. . . .

Miss Mina Beveridge gave a lawn Mrs. P. A. Wimmer and Miss Hazel party on Thursday night, the grounds Wimmer have returned from Yellow-

ACH Suit has that touch of style and correctness that one appreciates, and for good wear you cannot be better served. Exclusive and becoming styles in the very latest fabrics. Prices range

To be well dressed you need a natty, stylish Topcoat these evenings. Our stock of Topcoats, "Shapely" Overcoats and Cravenettes is now complete, and you will find them very appropriate for the cool evenings.

School Suits!

Of course you take a pride in your boy and want him just as nice and well dressed as any other boy. We have a fine assortment of Boys' School Suits at very reasonable prices. Come in and inspect them.

THE FECHHEIMER FISHEL CO

