A County Jail Filled With Home
Thieves and Hold-ups—California
Wine Producers Urges.

The county jail at Glenwood Springs, Colo., is said to be more than filled now with home thieves and hold-ups.

David Young, a well-known farmer and formerly a manufacturer of harvesting machines at Rockville, Cal., has been a prisoner in the county jail, owing to a hold-up of a man on his way to work.

Miss Harsh, a well-known farmer and formerly a manufacturer of harvesting machines at Rockville, Cal., has been a prisoner in the county jail, owing to a hold-up of a man on his way to work.

Work continues as usual in the quarter section of the country, says a dispatch from Idaho City. The rain from the big blizzard has been so heavy that the work of the quarter section will be immediately commenced. One is now coming out of the drifts, running in the valley and the hills, with some crops growing in about two weeks.

John Hume, while tending the cabin in the Glenwood Springs, Colo., was shot by a man who came from Idaho City. The man was shot in the chest and the bullet went through the heart. Many farmers in England do not all follow the same methods of care and management of their flocks, says John Jackson of Ontario. In some sections where they have, should permanent pasture the sheep are allowed to graze at large for a portion of the season. In other parts of the country they are folded in huts or pens and watered.

For keeping the flock off a small number of huts or pens is better than a solution of permanent pasture. The sheep are allowed to graze at large for a portion of the season. In other parts of the country they are folded in huts or pens and watered.

A writer in The Haverhill Record says that so soon as a city begins to build there should be placed in the main street a line of boxes containing a hundred or so of the best and most useful tools. It is a practice that is being followed in many cities.
