MISS POWELL GETS THE GOWN

Cash, Merchandise, Cigars, Wines, Mont Tickets and Back Combs Are Being Passed Around.

The headquarters of the Real Estate association in the Chamber of Conimerce is being thronged today with lucky holders of winning "Real Estate day" tickets. The Paris gown, valued at $450 was won by Miss L. Powell of 656 Belleview place, Salt Lake. She held coupon 2719 and was standing in the crowd in front of the judges' stand out at Saltair last evening when she heard her number called to win the first prize. She called at the association's office this morning to get the acknowledgement of her good luck, "What will I do with such a gown?" she asked laughingly, "It's too elaborate for any use." A. H. Voegier the seed man was one of the by-standers. He offered Miss Powell $75 cash for the gown but Miss Powell 61d not want to part with her winning for that sum.

The accimorrow and get their books so that dent happened in Parley's canyon they may commence work on Monday. yesterday afternoon. A peculiarly The consus must be completed between fortunate feature of the accident was July 15 and 31, and it is important that that while the wagon in which both all children of school age in the city should be included in the enumeration. The complete list of enumerators for each precinct of the city follows: men were riding, had a quantity of dynamite the collision did not explode the powder. Had this happened both men would have been blown to atoms. Marjorie Whiteley, 1141 Wilson ave., First ditrict; Mrs. T. R. Golightly, 1161 Kensington ave., Second district; Thenia Chilcott, 353 south Eighth East,

TRAIN DASHES INTO THEM.

Bishop Egbert and Mr. Moedl were n their way to Park City from their home. As they were starting out on a prospecting trip they had a heavily loaded wagon. Just as they were rossing the railroad tracks at a point crossing the tailroad tracks at a point where a curve in the canyon makes it impossible to see or hear an ap-proaching train, the pay train dashed into sight and tore down upon the wagon, now directly in its path. The engine struck the horses, throwing them back onto the wagon and up-setting the whole outfit.

SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Bishop Egbert and his companion were thrown to the ground where they lay unconscious. It was feared they lay unconscious. It was feared they were dead but a superficial ex-amination showed that while they were bruised their injuries were not necessarily fatal. Bishop Egbert was hurt about the left arm and shoulder and Mr. Moedl about the right arm and leg. As Dr. C. F. Wilcox at the L. D. S. hospital found no broken bones and apparently no internal in-juries it is thought both men will recover. Bad cuts and bruises about the head lead to a fear at first that their skulls might have been fractur-ed but luckily this fear proved to be unfounded. unfounded

Unfounded. Bishop Egbert is 66 years old; a prominent Church member and a big sheep dealer. Mr. Moedl is 73 years old. As both men are hale and hearty their age is not figured in against their chances for recovery.

BOTH WILL RECOVER.

Reports from the hospital this morning are to the effect that both men are doing as well as could be ex-pected and will recover.

Western. JUDGMENT IS AFFIRMED.

In Lower Tribunal Verdict Was Rendered in Favor of Company and In Appeal Sustained.

SUPREME GOURT

OPINION TODAY

The supreme court today handed down an opinion affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of C. D. Rogers and Jeannette Rogers, appellants, against the Rio Grande Western Railway company. The action was brought in this county to recover damages in the sum of $15,200 for the death of Lawrence E. Rogers, a son of plaintiff's who was killed by a Rio Carande train near Bingham Junction on the early morning of May 29, 1905. In the lower court a verdice was rendered in favos of the company.

VERDICT SUSTAINED.

Swan, 421 Seventh East, Eighth district; Rose Signer 1128 south Fleventh Fast Minth An appeal was taken to the supreme court and it was urged by appellants court and it was urged by appellants that the lower court erred in its in-structions to the jury regarding con-tributory negligence. The supreme court holds that the court did not err in that respect and hence the judgment is af-finmed. According to the evidence in the case young Rogers had worked hard the day previous to the accident and at night went to see his sweet-heart. After staying there all night he started home in buggy early in tho morning, and it is presumed that he was asleep when he approached the crossing where he was killed. Effects of Paintul Wounds. Captain D. L. Davis, who was injured by being thrown from a street car at 9 o'clock Tuesday night, is reported as progressing favorably. The captain was returning from Saltair when the accident happened, and boarded the Short Line car. Upon approaching First west street, where he desired to get off, he gave the conductor a sig-nal to stop, and in the lurch, or by some means hardly explainable, Mr. Davis was thrown from the car and fell to the pavement below, sustaining pain-ful, though not necessarily serious in-juries. His skull was not fractured, as at first reported, a bad scalp wound doubtless leading to that conclusion. The captain is 67 years old, but hale and active and brings a vigorous con-stitution to oppose the effects of the content. How are of the the store would the the tark and active and brings a vigorous con-stitution to oppose the effects of the accident. He is an old timer in this city, universally respected, and his hest of friends will be pleased to learn that his injuries are not of so serious a character as was at first giv-en out.

GOSSIP FROM LOGAN.

Job F. Smith of Millville is Dangerous ly Ill-Many Weddings.

(Special to the "News.")

Logan, July 12 .- Job F. Smith of Millville is reported as being dangerously ill of influenza of the bowels. Mr. Smith has had several attacks in the past year. But this one seems to be the most severe, and his friends are somewhat alarmed.

A small child of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Peterson fell on a piece of broken glass on Tuesday and cut an ugly wound in her leg. It became necessary to take several stitches to close up the wound. A daughter was born on Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Scholes, Mrs. Scholes was in a very critical condition but the physician announces that unless some unforeseen complications arise she will get along alright. Mrs. Fred Turner was reported as being seriously ill with heart trouble the first of the week. At present, how-ever, she seems to be somewhat im-ever, she seems to be somewhat im-proved. Mrs. Anna B. Phillips and her daugh-ter, Miss Myers, are making prepara-tions to leave for Europe. Miss Myers expects to continue her studies in mu-sic, as well as taking a course in French and German. They expect to be away about two years, as they have leased their residence on Center street to Mr. Seligman of the Hub Ciothing Store for that length of time. Rhoda B. Cook has filed suit in the First district court for divorce from Elmo W. Cook on the ground of de-sertion and failure to provide. No ali-mony is asked. Mrs. Cook has been employed as instructor in the Domes-tio Science department at the Agri-cultural college for a number of years. Bake Bread in Gas Range-There will be a demonstration this evening beigning at 8 o'clock in the offices of the Utah Gas and Coke company, 61-65 Main street, of the fact that bread may be baked in a gas stove just as well as in the oven of a coal burning range or stove. Not a few burning range or stove. Not a few housewives have refused to believe this; but the Gas and Coke people propose to show by actual operation that anything and everything may be maked by me will us by setting the cooked by gas as well as by coal. Marvelously Smooth Railroad Track —Elders Hyrum M. Smith and Orson F. Whitney leave for Beaver to-night to attend conference there. Sun-day. They were to have gone last night, and repaired to the Sait Lake line's depot for the purpose; they went to bed up their berth, and on awakening in the morning their first comment was on the pleasant night's rest they had experienced, and one remarked that they must have trav-eled over a marvelously smooth piece of road. Lifting their binds, they discovered that their car was still peacefully resting in the Sait Lake depot, a derailed engine having pre-vented the train from moving.

Insurance Men at Wandamere—The local life insurance men. 200 strong, will picnic at Wandamere tomorrow.
