

SCANDINAVIAN NEWS BUDGET.

Deseret Evening News
BALANCE NEWS

NOTES.

The Scandinavians will want better schools at their own in the capital.

A railroad will be built between Elsinore and Helsingør, which will open up a system of seven routes for the passenger.

Prince Carl's donation is interesting and unless the contributions continue very well, he is not likely to have anything to do.

W. W. Thorne, the former minister of foreign affairs to Scandinavia, has declined his invitation to speak in Denmark.

The export of Swedish marlins has increased every year during the last decade, and was large last year than ever before.

It seems more probable that the large augmentation asked for by the government for the purpose of maintaining the roads and bridges in general may be the cause of the increase.

Sweden's import during 1883 may be estimated at 10 million dollars, in round numbers, and the export at 10 million dollars.

C. A. Lindquist, a poor writer, associated with the Scandinavian Opera Company, has fallen heir to an inheritance of a million francs, which, it is stated, he will give to the poor of his native town.

David Gossman, a young man, who recently arrived in Texas, for the purpose of visiting relatives, has been elected to the Texas legislature.

The number of passengers carried on the Swedish government railroad was a record last year, as compared with 1882. The total number of paid tickets was 7,240,000, which had year over year with 2,227,000 in 1882.

Miss Sophie Lagerlöf is an enthusiast who is rapidly coming to the rescue. Her name was mentioned by her son in "The Tale of Gösta Berling," a romance of life in Sweden. She is a widow, a revenue agent, the work, which will be translated into English.

No attention can be the country excepting its nobility stronger, however, than the Stockholm Athlete Club, Roskilde, Wadköping and Jönköping, now stating 20,000. There are several gothicane clubs, 2,000 to 3,000 points, Wadköping, at least 5,000, fifth or 6,000 pounds.

Mr. Alfred Aronsson, Swedish, who is now visiting America for the first time, has made his art a success abroad, and has already appeared in the United States. He has just taken up at One Ocean City, New Jersey. Having been born on many of the principal cities on the continent, his popularity has naturally increased.

The height of the mountains in northern Sweden, is not very great, but, as the snow line in these northern regions lies only about 1,000 feet above the level of the sea, there is a large area available for agriculture to be exercised.

The sea in the glaciers in Sweden is nearly as great as in Greenland.

The beautiful phenomenon known as "red snow" is often observed, and the reason attributed to the presence of micro-organisms in the soil.

It is said to be visible at a distance of 5 kilometers.

The escarpments calculate in shape, peaks, but ridges of abrupt slope are not uncommon.

The number of inhabitants owned by a single person in Sweden is to an indefinable degree. The men may have 200-300 hundred, these latter all married, and the rich Lappishans will keep house and even cows.

There is considerable collecting activity on the part of the Swedes, who may sometimes be shooting or walking to get correct statements. According to the latest statistics the number of visitors to Sweden would amount to about 100,000, who were all tourists, while 100,000 were the citizens of Scandinavia, and would all be in the province of Skanebo.

NOTES.

Thorvald Hellsten, a prominent leader of Christians, is dead.

Systems are being sold at present in Christians at $12 per cent per year.

New gas and water works will be built in Copenhagen at a cost of about $100,000.

The Norwegian Blair will be struck by lightning and burned to the ground.

The king will soon leave Christians, but is expected to visit Norway again in the autumn.

The new drama "Bom" has been worked out, and will be published as a couple of months.

More than half of the labor organizations of the country have joined political organizations.

J. C. Petersen, the well-known skipper of "Dronning," died at the advanced age of 90 years.

The steamer "Fonsdal" was wrecked off Faroës. Nothing is known as yet to the fate of her crew.

The German empire will again visit Norway next summer. Many German tourists are also expected to pay a visit to the Norwegian "Globe" and mountain regions.

Swed is now being introduced among the Norwegians, and the old school system is probably already broken down, which is nothing but a natural result of the times.

King Oscar and Queen Sophie seem to have visited themselves recently in Christians. Judging from all reports, the Norwegian people are as friendly as ever, and the tourists will make their readers believe.

The consumption of wine in Norway has considerably decreased during the last fifteen years, while the consumption of beer has considerably increased. However, less of this increase is due to the fact that the Norwegians drink more beer under pretty similar conditions.

The Carl Hjalmarson has been appointed to the post of teacher at the university of Christiania. Dr. H. H. the old Norwegian professor with a German university. Dr. Lund is professor at the university of Trondhjem and professor of the medical faculty, in Christiania.

One girl is being imported to Copenhagen from Iceland.

All the foreign physicians in the most important cities in Europe seem to know that the world is passing.

Specious pictures, which have been ordered from us at 100-1000.

Angus Davis, new editor ("Clyde") was given at the Royal Theatre and was favourably received by an amateur word critical party.

The audience for musical pieces is going to be 10,000. The amateur and professional artists have been received.

The Hotel Astoria is the largest hotel in the city, and the best in the country.

"The Society of Friends" is the name of a society, which has established a residence here. A number of the members are from New York, and are engaged in business.

The export of Swedish marlins has increased every year during the last decade, and was large last year than ever before.

It seems more probable that the large augmentation asked for by the government for the purpose of maintaining the roads and bridges in general may be the cause of the increase.

Sweden's import during 1883 may be estimated at 10 million dollars, in round numbers, and the export at 10 million dollars.

C. A. Lindquist, a poor writer, associated with the Scandinavian Opera Company, has fallen heir to an inheritance of a million francs, which, it is stated, he will give to the poor of his native town.

David Gossman, a young man, who recently arrived in Texas, for the purpose of visiting relatives, has been elected to the Texas legislature.

The number of passengers carried on the Swedish government railroad was a record last year, as compared with 1882. The total number of paid tickets was 7,240,000, which had year over year with 2,227,000 in 1882.

Miss Sophie Lagerlöf is an enthusiast who is rapidly coming to the rescue. Her name was mentioned by her son in "The Tale of Gösta Berling," a romance of life in Sweden. She is a widow, a revenue agent, the work, which will be translated into English.

No attention can be the country excepting its nobility stronger, however, than the Stockholm Athlete Club, Roskilde, Wadköping and Jönköping, now stating 20,000. There are several gothicane clubs, 2,000 to 3,000 points, Wadköping, at least 5,000, fifth or 6,000 pounds.

Mr. Alfred Aronsson, Swedish, who is now visiting America for the first time, has made his art a success abroad, and has already appeared in the United States. He has just taken up at One Ocean City, New Jersey. Having been born on many of the principal cities on the continent, his popularity has naturally increased.

The escarpments calculate in shape, peaks, but ridges of abrupt slope are not uncommon.

The height of the mountains in northern Sweden, is not very great, but, as the snow line in these northern regions lies only about 1,000 feet above the level of the sea, there is a large area available for agriculture to be exercised.

The sea in the glaciers in Sweden is nearly as great as in Greenland.

The beautiful phenomenon known as "red snow" is often observed, and the reason attributed to the presence of micro-organisms in the soil.

It is said to be visible at a distance of 5 kilometers.

The escarpments calculate in shape, peaks, but ridges of abrupt slope are not uncommon.

The number of inhabitants owned by a single person in Sweden is to an indefinable degree. The men may have 200-300 hundred, these latter all married, and the rich Lappishans will keep house and even cows.

There is considerable collecting activity on the part of the Swedes, who may sometimes be shooting or walking to get correct statements. According to the latest statistics the number of visitors to Sweden would amount to about 100,000, who were all tourists, while 100,000 were the citizens of Scandinavia, and would all be in the province of Skanebo.

NOTES.

Thorvald Hellsten, a prominent leader of Christians, is dead.

Systems are being sold at present in Christians at $12 per cent per year.

New gas and water works will be built in Copenhagen at a cost of about $100,000.

The Norwegian Blair will be struck by lightning and burned to the ground.

The king will soon leave Christians, but is expected to visit Norway again in the autumn.

The new drama "Bom" has been worked out, and will be published as a couple of months.

More than half of the labor organizations of the country have joined political organizations.

J. C. Petersen, the well-known skipper of "Dronning," died at the advanced age of 90 years.

The steamer "Fonsdal" was wrecked off Faroës. Nothing is known as yet to the fate of her crew.

The German empire will again visit Norway next summer. Many German tourists are also expected to pay a visit to the Norwegian "Globe" and mountain regions.

Swed is now being introduced among the Norwegians, and the old school system is probably already broken down, which is nothing but a natural result of the times.

The Carl Hjalmarson has been appointed to the post of teacher at the university of Christiania. Dr. H. H. the old Norwegian professor with a German university. Dr. Lund is professor at the university of Trondhjem and professor of the medical faculty, in Christiania.

One girl is being imported to Copenhagen from Iceland.

All the foreign physicians in the most important cities in Europe seem to know that the world is passing.

The Hotel Astoria is the largest hotel in the city, and the best in the country.

"The Society of Friends" is the name of a society, which has established a residence here. A number of the members are from New York, and are engaged in business.

The export of Swedish marlins has increased every year during the last decade, and was large last year than ever before.

It seems more probable that the large augmentation asked for by the government for the purpose of maintaining the roads and bridges in general may be the cause of the increase.

Sweden's import during 1883 may be estimated at 10 million dollars, in round numbers, and the export at 10 million dollars.

C. A. Lindquist, a poor writer, associated with the Scandinavian Opera Company, has fallen heir to an inheritance of a million francs, which, it is stated, he will give to the poor of his native town.

David Gossman, the former minister of foreign affairs to Scandinavia, has declined his invitation to speak in Denmark.

The export of Swedish marlins has increased every year during the last decade, and was large last year than ever before.

It seems more probable that the large augmentation asked for by the government for the purpose of maintaining the roads and bridges in general may be the cause of the increase.

Sweden's import during 1883 may be estimated at 10 million dollars, in round numbers, and the export at 10 million dollars.

C. A. Lindquist, a poor writer, associated with the Scandinavian Opera Company, has fallen heir to an inheritance of a million francs, which, it is stated, he will give to the poor of his native town.

David Gossman, the former minister of foreign affairs to Scandinavia, has declined his invitation to speak in Denmark.

The export of Swedish marlins has increased every year during the last decade, and was large last year than ever before.

It seems more probable that the large augmentation asked for by the government for the purpose of maintaining the roads and bridges in general may be the cause of the increase.

Sweden's import during 1883 may be estimated at 10 million dollars, in round numbers, and the export at 10 million dollars.

C. A. Lindquist, a poor writer, associated with the Scandinavian Opera Company, has fallen heir to an inheritance of a million francs, which, it is stated, he will give to the poor of his native town.

David Gossman, the former minister of foreign affairs to Scandinavia, has declined his invitation to speak in Denmark.

The export of Swedish marlins has increased every year during the last decade, and was large last year than ever before.

It seems more probable that the large augmentation asked for by the government for the purpose of maintaining the roads and bridges in general may be the cause of the increase.

Sweden's import during 1883 may be estimated at 10 million dollars, in round numbers, and the export at 10 million dollars.

C. A. Lindquist, a poor writer, associated with the Scandinavian Opera Company, has fallen heir to an inheritance of a million francs, which, it is stated, he will give to the poor of his native town.

David Gossman, the former minister of foreign affairs to Scandinavia, has declined his invitation to speak in Denmark.

The export of Swedish marlins has increased every year during the last decade, and was large last year than ever before.

It seems more probable that the large augmentation asked for by the government for the purpose of maintaining the roads and bridges in general may be the cause of the increase.

Sweden's import during 1883 may be estimated at 10 million dollars, in round numbers, and the export at 10 million dollars.

C. A. Lindquist, a poor writer, associated with the Scandinavian Opera Company, has fallen heir to an inheritance of a million francs, which, it is stated, he will give to the poor of his native town.

David Gossman, the former minister of foreign affairs to Scandinavia, has declined his invitation to speak in Denmark.

The export of Swedish marlins has increased every year during the last decade, and was large last year than ever before.

It seems more probable that the large augmentation asked for by the government for the purpose of maintaining the roads and bridges in general may be the cause of the increase.

Sweden's import during 1883 may be estimated at 10 million dollars, in round numbers, and the export at 10 million dollars.

C. A. Lindquist, a poor writer, associated with the Scandinavian Opera Company, has fallen heir to an inheritance of a million francs, which, it is stated, he will give to the poor of his native town.

David Gossman, the former minister of foreign affairs to Scandinavia, has declined his invitation to speak in Denmark.

The export of Swedish marlins has increased every year during the last decade, and was large last year than ever before.

It seems more probable that the large augmentation asked for by the government for the purpose of maintaining the roads and bridges in general may be the cause of the increase.

Sweden's import during 1883 may be estimated at 10 million dollars, in round numbers, and the export at 10 million dollars.

C. A. Lindquist, a poor writer, associated with the Scandinavian Opera Company, has fallen heir to an inheritance of a million francs, which, it is stated, he will give to the poor of his native town.

David Gossman, the former minister of foreign affairs to Scandinavia, has declined his invitation to speak in Denmark.

The export of Swedish marlins has increased every year during the last decade, and was large last year than ever before.

It seems more probable that the large augmentation asked for by the government for the purpose of maintaining the roads and bridges in general may be the cause of the increase.

Sweden's import during 1883 may be estimated at 10 million dollars, in round numbers, and the export at 10 million dollars.

C. A. Lindquist, a poor writer, associated with the Scandinavian Opera Company, has fallen heir to an inheritance of a million francs, which, it is stated, he will give to the poor of his native town.

David Gossman, the former minister of foreign affairs to Scandinavia, has declined his invitation to speak in Denmark.

The export of Swedish marlins has increased every year during the last decade, and was large last year than ever before.

It seems more probable that the large augmentation asked for by the government for the purpose of maintaining the roads and bridges in general may be the cause of the increase.

Sweden's import during 1883 may be estimated at 10 million dollars, in round numbers, and the export at 10 million dollars.

C. A. Lindquist, a poor writer, associated with the Scandinavian Opera Company, has fallen heir to an inheritance of a million francs, which, it is stated, he will give to the poor of his native town.

David Gossman, the former minister of foreign affairs to Scandinavia, has declined his invitation to speak in Denmark.

The export of Swedish marlins has increased every year during the last decade, and was large last year than ever before.

It seems more probable that the large augmentation asked for by the government for the purpose of maintaining the roads and bridges in general may be the cause of the increase.

Sweden's import during 1883 may be estimated at 10 million dollars, in round numbers, and the export at 10 million dollars.

C. A. Lindquist, a poor writer, associated with the Scandinavian Opera Company, has fallen heir to an inheritance of a million francs, which, it is stated, he will give to the poor of his native town.

David Gossman, the former minister of foreign affairs to Scandinavia, has declined his invitation to speak in Denmark.

The export of Swedish marlins has increased every year during the last decade, and was large last year than ever before.

It seems more probable that the large augmentation asked for by the government for the purpose of maintaining the roads and bridges in general may be the cause of the increase.

Sweden's import during 1883 may be estimated at 10 million dollars, in round numbers, and the export at 10 million dollars.

C. A. Lindquist, a poor writer, associated with the Scandinavian Opera Company, has fallen heir to an inheritance of a million francs, which, it is stated, he will give to the poor of his native town.

David Gossman, the former minister of foreign affairs to Scandinavia, has declined his invitation to speak in Denmark.

The export of Swedish marlins has increased every year during the last decade, and was large last year than ever before.

It seems more probable that the large augmentation asked for by the government for the purpose of maintaining the roads and bridges in general may be the cause of the increase.

Sweden's import during 1883 may be estimated at 10 million dollars, in round numbers, and the export at 10 million dollars.

C. A. Lindquist, a poor writer, associated with the Scandinavian Opera Company, has fallen heir to an inheritance of a million francs, which, it is stated, he will give to the poor of his native town.

David Gossman, the former minister of foreign affairs to Scandinavia, has declined his invitation to speak in Denmark.

The export of Swedish marlins has increased every year during the last decade, and was large last year than ever before.

It seems more probable that the large augmentation asked for by the government for the purpose of maintaining the roads and bridges in general may be the cause of the increase.

Sweden's import during 1883 may be estimated at 10 million dollars, in round numbers, and the export at 10 million dollars.

C. A. Lindquist, a poor writer, associated with the Scandinavian Opera Company, has fallen heir to an inheritance of a million francs, which, it is stated, he will give to the poor of his native town.

David Gossman, the former minister of foreign affairs to Scandinavia, has declined his invitation to speak in Denmark.

The export of Swedish marlins has increased every year during the last decade, and was large last year than ever before.

It seems more probable that the large augmentation asked for by the government for the purpose of maintaining the roads and bridges in general may be the cause of the increase.

Sweden's import during 1883 may be estimated at 10 million dollars, in round numbers, and the export at 10 million dollars.

C. A. Lindquist, a poor writer, associated with the Scandinavian Opera Company, has fallen heir to an inheritance of a million francs, which, it is stated, he will give to the poor of his native town.

David Gossman, the former minister of foreign affairs to Scandinavia, has declined his invitation to speak in Denmark.

The export of Swedish marlins has increased every year during the last decade, and was large last year than ever before.