DESERET EVENING NEWS FRIDAY NOVEMBER 2 1906

Utica, N. Y., Nov. 1 .- Secy. of State Elihu Root joined with Charles E. Hughes, the Republican candidate for governor of New York state, here tonight in addressing a political mass meeting in the Majestic theater. The doors of the playhouse were closed storily after 7 o'clock, so great was the crowd within, and the streets were thronged thereafter with persons seeking admittance. A second meeting was arranged in Maennerchor hall, and Mr. s also spoke there. Root came here direct from Hughes

THAT'S A LIE.

"that's a lie!" shouted a man in "mats a net should a man in the balcony. At once there was a roar of "Put him out!" but Mr. Root held up his hand for silence and said, "Let him remain." He then read a remain." He then read a state-which he declared summarized Mr. Hearst's record in the national house of representatives. The second intruption came when Secy. Root was referring to the assassination of h his speech Mr. Root said, in part: say to you with President Roose-s authority that he regards Mr. st as a wholly unfit man to be ernor; as an insincere, self-seeking agogue, who is trying to deceive skingmen of New York by false wats and false promise; and I you, with his authority, that he that Mr. Hears's election an injury and a discredit onest labor and to honest cap-isserious injury to the work in is engaged in inforcing just asunder. Listen to what President Roosevelt himself said of Mr. Hearst and his kind. In President Roosevelt's first message to Congress, in speaking of the assassin of McKinley, he spoke of the assassin of McKinley, he spoke of him as inflamed 'by the reckless ut-terances of those who, on the stump and in the public press, appeal to the dark and evil spirits of greed, envy and suilen hatred. The wind is sowed by the men who preach such doctrines, and they cannot escape the responsi-bility for the whitwind that is reaped. This applies alike to the deliberate demagogue, to the exploiter of sensa-tionalism, and to the crude and foolish tionalism, and to the crude and foolish visionary who, for whatever reason, apologizes for crime or excites aimless discontent.

BY PRESIDENT'S AUTHORITY. "I say, by the president's authority that in penning these words, with the horror of President McKinley's mur-der fresh before him, he had Mr. Hearst specifically in his mind. And I say, by his authority, that what he thought of Mr. Hearst then he thinks of Mr. Hearst now."

CHARACTERIZATION OF HEARST.

Characterizing Mr. Hearst as a violent and unworthy demagogue and a persistent office-seeker, Mr. Root declared that as a congressman he had proved a worthless public servant; that while professing to favor an independent judiciary he had made a deal with the Tammany leader, Mur-phy, for the nomination of a judici-ary ticket in New York; that while, invelghing against corporations, his own corporation management shows the sincerity of his profession; that it is not calm and lawful redress of wrongs which $h_{\rm B}$ seeks, but the turmoil of inflamed passions and the terrorism of revengeful force; that he is guided by selfish motives, and that he is "not guiltless of McKinley's death." TEST OF POPULAR GOVERNMENT

"We are witnessing in the state of New York," said Mr. Root, "one of those tests of popular government which will come in the future, when a demagogue attempts to get elected to office by exceeding all other men in the denunciation of real evils and in promises to cure them. It ecannel in promises to cure them. It cannot be doubted that many workingmen in this state are about to strengthen the evenies and weaken the friends of epemles and weaken the friends of popular government all over the world by voting for Mr. Hearst, who is just the kind of a demagogue I have de-scribed. He is, indeed, an especially dangerous spacemen of the class, be-cause he is generously rich and owns newspapers of large circulation, and he can hire many able and active men to speak well of him and praise him in speeches and in private conversa-tion. Not only is the cause of popul-

HEARST'S PRIVATE LIFE. "What evidence has Mr. Hearst pro-duced of his finess for this office? Of his private life 1 shall not speak further than to say that from no com-munity in this state does there come concerning him that testimony of lifelong neighbors and acquaintances to his private virtues, the excellence of his mornis, and the correctness of his conduct which we should like to have concerning the man who is to be made governor of our state. HOW HE IS KNOWN.

"He is really known to us solely as young man, very rich by inheritance, the has become the owner of a number of sensational yellow journals; he has taken in his newspapers the popu-lar side upon all questions relating to labor and corporations, and has sus-tained it by much violent denunciation and many falsehoods; and he has tion and many falsehoods; and he has been a persistent seeker for office on the strength of taking the popular side; he has published whatever he thought would please the working people for the purpose of getting the labor vote,

"There is however, affirmative evi-dence of Mr. Hearst's unitness for the great office of governor. You will per-ceive that to the remedy of corporate rongs for which he offers himself, two things are necessary-first, intelligent and well-devised legislation, and, secand web-devised legislation, and, sec-ond, the judicial enforcement of the laws. Underlying both of these and necessary to both, is political purity, for without that neither legislatures nor courts can be pure.

HEARST'S RECORD.

"How stands Mr. Hearst's record as to political purity? Why he comes to us covered over with the mark of Tam-many and Tammany's leader, Mur-phy, whom he himself has denounced as a scoundrel and a thief; he comes to be contained on the cell of the to us not answering to the call of the people of the state, not as the highest candidate of the Democratic party of the state, but named by his own pro-curement, through as shameful a deal with the boss of Tammany as ever dis-graced the political history of the state. Can hyporrisy go further than the willing beneficiary of Tammany Hall preaching political purity? "How stands his record as a legisla-tor? He had opportunity to prove his according to the standard state of the standard state of the standard state of the standard state of the state o tor: The had opportunity to prove his capacity and sincerity in that field. Representatives are sent to Congress to attend to the business of the country. Mr. Hearst was sent to Congress to do that; he had an opportunity then to show how much sincerity there was in all the talk of his papers about reform and better government all the talk of his papers about reform and better government. "What did he do? Why, he did noth-ing. During the three years that he has been in Congress that body has been in session 467 days; there have been 185 recorded votes by yea and nay; he was present and wallog at but 22 he was present and voting at but 23, and present without voting at 2; his voice was heard in that Congress in those years but once, and that for 10 minutes on a personal legislation regarding an article published in the New York American; he did not even con-tribute a motion to adjourn to the busi-

"He is so rich that the $15,000 paid him far that neglected service may seem of no consequence, but no honest poor man would have thought it right to take it.

"It is seldom, indeed, that a man so young, whose public career has been so brief, so small a portion of whose life is known at all to the public, has fur-nished such convincing proofs of his unfitness for office.

Mr. Hearst only by the newspapers he putilishes, and God forbid that he should set up in the high station of governor of New York for the admira-tion and imitation of our children the man whose character is reflected in the columns of the New York Journal and the New York American."

A SOWER OF DISSENSION.

"But the worst of Mr. Hearst," said Mr. Root, "is that with his great wealth, with his great newspapers, with his army of paid agents, for his own selfah purposes he has been day by day and year by year sowing the seeds of dissension and strife and hatred throughout the land. He would array abor against capital and capital against labor; poverty against wealth and wealth against poverty, with bit-ter and vindictive feeling; he would destroy among the great mass of our people that kindly and friendly spirit and the consideration for the interests people that kindly and friendly spirit and that consideration for the interests and rights of others, that brotherhood of citizenship, which are essential to the peaceful conduct of free popular government; he would destroy that respect for law, that love for order, that confidence in our free institutions which are the basis at once of true freeedom and true justice. The malignani false-hoods of these journals, read by the immigrant in his new home, where none can answer them, are making him hats the people who have welcomed him to liberty and prosperity, to abundant em-ployment, to ample wages, to education for his children, to independence for his manhood, such as he has never known before. What public servant honored before.

dary abuse wrought out its matural consequence—in the murder of Presi-dent McKinley. For years, by vice epi-thets and viler cartoons, the readers of the Journal were taught to believe that McKinley was a monster in human form, whose taking off would be a ser-vice to mankind. Let me quote some of these teachings

ATTACK ON MCKINLEY.

" 'McKinley condones the treacherous arXing conducts the fractionary of our sallors at Havana and talks of his confidence in the honor of Spain. He plays the coward and shivers whitefaced at the footfall of a processing war. He makes an international currency of his country. He is an ab ject, weak, futile, incompetent poltroon, "'McKinley, bar one girthy Princeton person, who came to be no more or less than a living, breathing crime in breeches, is therefore the most despised and hated creature in the hemisphere; his name is hooted; his figure is burn-ing in effigy." 'The bullet that pierced Goebel's

"And this in April, 1901: "Institutions, like men, will last un-ill they die, and if bad institutions and bad men can be got rid of only by kill-ing, then the killing must be done.' "What wonder that the weak and ex-citable brain of Czolgosz answered to such impulses as these? He never knew such impulses as these? He never knew McKinley; he had no real or fancied wrongs of his own to avenge against McKinley or McKinley's government; he was answering the lesson he had learned, that it was a service to man-kind to rid the earth of a monster, and the foremost of the teachers of these lessons to him an dhis kind was and is william Bandoub Hearst and his vel-William Randolph Hearst and his yellow journals.

ENCOURAGING CZOLGOZES.

"Is there no one left who loved Mc-Kinley? Are there no workingmen in New York who cannot see with satis-faction honors heaped upon the man who is not guiltless of McKinley's death? The same kind of teaching is heave continued now month by month the and a sine which of teaching is being continued now month by month and day by day by the Hearst journals. Its legitimate consequences, if contin-ued, must be other weak dupes playing the role of Czelgosz; other McKinleys stretched upon the bier, discord and bloody strife in place of the reign of peace and order throughout our fair land. It is not the spirit of Washing-ton and of Lincoln; it is the spirit of malice for all and charity toward none; it is the spirit of anarchy, of the com-munist, of Kishineff and of Bialystok.

WHAT IS NEEDED.

"There have been many outrageous practises which ought to be stopped and practises which ought to be stopped and many wrongdoers who ought to be pun-ished. That should be done, not by lynch law, but by the intelligent and wise action which befits a self-govern-ing people. Declamation and denuncia-tion and big headlines in the newspa-pers will not do the business. The thing needed is to cut out the wrong-doing and save the business. The same kind of patient, experienced and dis-criminating skill is needed for the pro-cess that the surgeon needs in cutting criminating skill is needed for the pro-cess that the surgeon needs in cutting out a tumor from the human body and saving the life of the patient. Now this process of intelligent and effective re-dress of wrongs is going on; great and substantial progress has been made in it; laws are being reformed so as to meet the present evils; laws are being enforced with view and success. male enforced with vigor and success; male-factors are being punished according to law and not arginst the law; skill and wisdom and efficiency and honest pur-pose never surpassed in the history of this or any other country have put their hands to the task and are pressing it forward with untiring energy.

The honest poor man who has fell the crushing power of unfair wealth may take heart, for the most powerful personality of our generation, from the vantage ground of the greatest office in our land, is leading the battle in his behalf; the honest rich man, who fears that property may be endangered and prosperity checked, may calm his fears; not a single principle is invoked in this warfare against corporate wrong-doing that has not for centuries been familiar to the common law of England and America; but to exercise the same measure of control under the new con-ditions of our day new agencies and new ditions of our day new agencies and new methods have had to be provided by the law and sanctioned by the courts. The structure of our prosperity will not be weakened; it will be made strong and weakened: it will be made strong and enduring, by removing, with the care of the experienced builder, the rotten tim-bers of disobedience to law and disre-gard of morality. The first dauger is lest the people should refuse to return a majority of Republicans in the house of representatives; the second danger is lest in this greatest of states, the president's own state, the voler shall reject Mr. Hughes, who was the presi-dent's own choice for the nomination, and should elect to that great office an unworthy demagogue in the person of Mr. Hearst. Mr. Hearst.

EFFECT OF HEARST'S ELECTION. "The immediate and necessary effect of Mr. Hearst's election would be to deprive the president of the moral support of the state of New York; it would of the state of New 1918, it would be to strengthen the president's enemies and opponents and to weaken and em-barrass him in the pursuit of his policy. It would inevitably lead to a reaction against all true reform and genuine redress of grievances."

Thankful are They MINIADAHAN Who Escape The Surgeon's Knife Thousands of surgical operations are performed every year in our great city hospitals upon women afflicted with serious female troubles. Sometimes the operations are successful-oftentimes they are not.

It is safe to say that certainly nine out of ten operations for female troubles might have been wholly avoided.

The most valuable tonic and re-builder of the female organism, the medicine with a record of thousands of cases literally snatched from the operating table, is

Lydia E.Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Do not consent to an operation which may mean death until after you have given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial. Note what it did for Mrs. Paul Oliver, whose letter follows:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:-- I was suffering from pains in my side and a serious female trouble. The doctors said to get well I must have an operation performed, but I would not consent to that.

I heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and sent for a bottle; the first dose did me good, and after taking the first bottle I could sleep all right and I did not have those pains in my abdomen which I had all the time before. Now I can ride ten miles in a carriage, my color has returned, and I am full of life. I owe all this to the Vegetable Compound.

It has also done wonders for my thirteen-year-old daughter. I will never cease to praise it and recommend it to my friends. MRS. PAUL OLIVER, St. Martinsville, La.

Thousands of women, residing in every part of the United States, bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ills and creates radiant, buoyant female health. For your own sake try it.
