FRAGMENTS.

The Ministers appear at the Theatre this evening.

A. S. Paddock, of the Utah Commission, went east this morning.

C. F. Annett, Esq., president of the telephone exchange, went east this morning.

The Salt Lake County school teachers and their friends will go to Caldera to-morrow.

S. W. Eccles, general passenger agent of the D. & R. G. W., will return home this evening.

GEORGE BAILEY, for drunkenness, profanity, and disturbing the peace, was fined $10 in the police court to-day.

A. NEITCHELL, Jr., and Mr. Dingle, of the Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, left this city for Portland, Oregon, to-day.

REMEMBER the Conference of the Primary Association of Salt Lake Stake 10 and 2 o'clock to-morrow, in the Salt Lake Assembly Hall.

E. DICKINSON, Esq., Ass't. Gen'l. Supt. of the Union Pacific, accompanied by his family, came to this city yesterday and returned east to-day.

The First Quartet of Elders will meet in the west wing of the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms, to-morrow evening, at half past 7 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

A CERTIFICATE of election was issued to-day to Alma Hagge, elected on June 21st, to fill the office of probate judge for Juab County, made vacant by the death of Hon. Joel Grover.

POSTMASTER BROWNE is having a number of changes made in the arrangements at the postoffice. The alterations will improve the appearance and convenience of the place.

THOMAS JONES, a lad about 15 years old was arrested to-day on a charge of beating a nine-year-old boy named Frank Hadley, on Wednesday evening, on Washington Square.

HON. JAMES SHARP returned from Lemington, Millard County, last evening. The mines now being opened up there offer encouraging prospects, a sample of the ore showing about 80 per cent. lead, and 10 to 12 ounces silver per ton.

In the First District Court yesterday, Judge Powers informed the open venire petit jurors that they were excused until next term. It is not probable that their services will be required again this term, but should they be needed the court will notify them.

On Thursday night, a quantity of rubbish at the back of A. Greenwell's meat market, Ogden, was discovered to be on fire. Fortunately the flames had not gained much headway before being seen, and they were extinguished in time to prevent a disastrous fire.

KATE FLINT and five inmates of her house of ill-fame pleaded guilty to the charge against them in the police court to-day. The proprietor of the house was fined $50, four of the girls $50 each, and one who claimed to be there only in the capacity of a servant, $30. The fines were paid.

AT Ogden, on Thursday evening, Mrs. C. E. Helfrich, who a few days ago injured her hand, attempted to take a lamp down from a hanging lamp. The lamp was lighted, and in consequence of the weak condition of her arm the lady dropped it. The oil was spilled on the floor and was ignited. Assist. Atty. Gen. W. F. Anderson, who was present, was quickly subdued. The damage will probably reach $30 or $40.

LOCAL NEWS.

An Old Subscriber.—We have an old subscriber in Dayton, Ohio, Winthrop Graves, who has taken the Deseret News for many years and says he intends to read it as long as he lives. He is now nearly 82 years of age. He was in Nauvoo in 1843 and heard the Prophet Joseph preach but circumstances have detained him in Ohio, since the expulsion from Illinois. We wish our old friend continued life and ability to read and appreciate the "News."

A Lost Boy.—On the 20th of last April a 12-year-old boy named Harry Nichols "played hooky" and went to the Odd Fellows' picnic at Anaconda, Montana. Since that date the boy's parents have been searching for him and a systematic search of the city has failed to discover him. The boy is 18 years of age, has brown hair and eyes, and when he left home was dressed in a suit of dark-colored clothing, straw hat, navy-blue shirt and knickerbockers. He is a native of Illinois. We wish our old friend continued life and ability to read and appreciate the "News."

LANDS IN MEXICO.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 22, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:

I am advertising in your paper lands for sale in the State of Chihuahua, Mexico. From the many questions asked me, I sometimes wonder if the people of this country no longer understand plain old-fashioned English. I state plainly in the advertisement that I have 100 acres of land, with all the requisites of a colony; having timber, fruit, water, and soil, and in abundance, giving the amount of farming land at 12,000 acres. That we deal in nothing but land bought from private parties, with undisputed titles. I also state that the government has no claim for colonizing or farming the land, and is plain and state just what I mean, and do not care to be called in question regarding facts that are easily verified.

Many seem ignorant of the geography of our sister Republic. While I state plainly that my lands are in the State of Chihuahua, the question is often asked me, "Are you not located in the Yaquis land speculation?" I protest against being located in Sonora among the Yaquis; they being on the west side of the Sierra Madre, while I am on the east side. Personally I know but little of their affairs, never having been among them. I am not a speculator, but a man who knows the value of getting undisputed titles, and in reply to this I will simply state that I understand the business I am engaged in, whilst I am in no way responsible for the mistakes of others. Neither do I blame them for fully believing that by the time they have done business in that land for years, as I have, they will be equally well informed men who know that there is nothing more secure than a properly transferred and recorded Mexican land title. Wherever trouble has arisen, it has not been the fault of the Mexican land title, but the result of incomplete titles in the individual titles of the place.

Americans who go to Mexico generally manifest to the people that they consider themselves a superior race, treating the people as their inferiors. It is no wonder that they take advantage when they take advantage. Upon this 30,000 acres tract I expect to make a home, it being the best piece of land I have ever owned in any country. For this reason I wish to sell to those who will make good and peaceable neighbors, and will be friendly to the people and government. "None others" apply. The place is known as the "Rancho de San Pedro y Pablo," and is about 25 miles northwest from the city of Chihuahua, and is 150 miles west from the city of Chihuahua, 75 miles south from the city of Chihuahua, and 15 miles inside of the Sierra Madre range. The soil of this valley is deep and rich, free from rocks or brush. The whole 12,000 acres could be plowed in one field, with scarce a break, except the two streams running through it. It is watered with pure mountain springs, and has abundant water for irrigation, and is free from all diseases of soil or grist mills. The finest quality of long-leaved pine reaches down into the valley. In fact a great portion of the land is covered with pine, and most crops can be raised without irrigation, and the land is fertile and capable of handling for all purposes. There are ever can be as the water heads on the property, and below the property are a box cañon, and runs 100 miles through the Sierra Madre. Climate mild; some snow in winter; elevation 2,000 feet. The situation being that of a park, entirely surrounded by timber mountains.

We publish the foregoing by request of the writer. It should be understood that this is a personal and private business transaction with which no local or general authority of the Church is in any way connected. The lands referred to are not under the direction of any of the brethren in charge in Mexico. The responsibility rests entirely with the writer of this letter and those who may enter into his speculation. We know nothing and have no advice to offer in relation to the subject. We say this in order that no one may be misled by the publication of the letter in the Deseret News to think that this is a movement endorsed or supported by the Church in any manner whatever.—[Ed.]

Court at Ogden.—The First District Court met at Ogden yesterday, and James W. Ferrin and James M. Ferrin were arraigned on indictments charging them with unlawfully and wilfully breaking, obstructing and destroying a certain irrigating ditch situated in Eden. The complaining witness was James M. Chambers. The plea of not guilty was entered. The case of the United States vs. Wm. H. Paddock, against whom there was a five-count indictment charging the defendant with cohabiting with more than one wife, was called up. Mr. Paddock's attorney, Hon. P. H. Emerson, stated to the court that the defendant wished to withdraw his plea of not guilty to the first three counts in the indictment. This was permitted by the court and Mr. Paddock entered a plea of guilty to those counts. The prosecution asked that the fourth count in the indictment be continued for the term. Granted.

As to the fifth count, the prosecution asked that it be dismissed and the matter submitted to the grand jury. After some discussion an order to that effect was made. The court fixed Wednesday next, June 30th, as the date for passing sentence upon Mr. Paddock. Several indictments were returned by the grand jury, and the court adjourned.

Appointments.—Judges of election appointed to-day by the Utah Commission for the general election:

The capital stock is placed at $1,000,000, divided into shares of $100 each, and the stockholders are Wm. S. Godbe, Thomas Marshall, James T. Little, J. C. Conklin and Boyd Roberts, who also constitute a board of trustees. The incorporation proposes to conduct a general mining business, their property being situated in Lincoln County, Nevada.

Election.—On the first Monday in August a municipal election will be held in Hyrum City, Cache County, for mayor, six councilors, recorder, treasurer, marshal, assessor and collector and two justices of the peace.

Thursday a two-year-old son of George Thompson, of Ogden, was placed on horseback for a ride. The little fellow slipped off and fell on the ground, breaking his arm near the wrist.

Death from Diphtheria.—Yesterday afternoon, George Samuel Morgan, aged 21 years, and son of John and A. R. Morgan, of Mill Creek, died of diphtheria. This is the second death within two weeks in Brother Morgan's family. The funeral of the young man, who was highly respected, took place to-day.

New Wagons.—The Union Pacific Coal Company have received fifteen new wagons, specially for their coal delivery business in the city. These wagons have been built expressly for this purpose by the Studebaker Brothers Manufacturing Co., and are arranged to facilitate loading and unloading the fuel.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

CULLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.

—The manager of the Cache Valley Brewery, Cache County, was fined $30 on Monday last, for giving beer away on Sunday.

—James Ferron, sen., aka. James Ferron, Jr., of Eden, Weber County, were arrested on Wednesday by deputy sheriffs of that county, for stealing stolen water, and were released on $300 bail.

—On Tuesday last Dr. Ormsby, removed the tonsils from the throat of the little daughter of Mr. Chantrell, of Cache County. They became greatly enlarged through a severe cold, and impeded the child's breathing.

—One day last week two men were conversing at the gate in front of a residence in Fairview, Idaho, when Deputy Marshal Lester rode up. He stopped and proceeded to search a warrant of arrest for Herman Hyde. The gentleman he was reading it to was Patterson Griffiths. Mr. Griffiths hearing the name read, and knowing that it was not his, remarked that he was not the man and proceeded to depart. The Deputy drew his pistol and ordered Griffiths to stop, threatening to shoot him. This created quite a stir, and a gentleman near by, noticing the mistake, came to the scene and explained that he had the wrong man. After considerable explanation and argument Mr. Griffiths was allowed to depart in peace.

—On Tuesday afternoon a man named Joseph Bastow, who resides on the Cache Valley, near Logan, met with a serious and almost fatal accident. He was plowing with a sulky plow, to which was hitched four horses. The head span became unmanageable, and began to turn, when Bastow jumped from the plow, and ran to stop them. He stumbled and fell before he reached the horses, and the four horses and plow passed over him, literally plowing his back. Although he realized that he was terribly hurt, by a tremendous effort he un hitched one of the horses and rode home. Upon arriving there he fell from the animal, and found the unfortunate man's legs and arms to be very swollen. One of his back, near the hip, was about six inches long, four inches wide and four deep. His right leg had been trampled and badly bruised, and three cuts were made in the forehead, one penetrating the outer bone covering of the skull, making a dangerous wound. He was made as comfortable as possible under the circumstances, and may recover.

Up And Down The Scales. A.—"I tell you what, you should hear the opera in our town; our tenor is famous to such a fabulous high pitch that he can only be heard in the top gallery." B.—"Tut, tut, that is nothing. Our second bass has such a deep voice that he has to start singing thirty-two beats beforehand to enable the tone to reach the surface at the right moment." Weigl, an Austrian composer, had written a quartet which the Emperor Francis felt called upon to lead, only he played his part all through without taking the slightest notice of accidentals, until the composer nearly on his knees, advanced and most reverently said: "Would you Majesty grant my most humble prayer for a most gracious 'F sharp'?" Handel was a large eater as well as a large man. Once he entered a London restaurant and ordered dinner for three. He waited and waited, but no dinner came, and finally called the waiter. "Why don't you bring me in my dinner?" "We will serve the dinner as soon as your company came." "Thanked and lighting" he blurted out the hungry Handel: "Bring me the dinner presently—I am the company." A German music teacher was instructing his pupils how to act when the Grand Duke should pass through, on the railroad, an event which was to occur next day. Remember, children," said he, "that as soon as the train arrives you can, 'Long live the Grand Duke!' until he leaves." The next day, when the Duke arrived at the station, and graciously bowed from the platform of the special car, the school children made the welkin weary by yelling: "Long live the Grand Duke until he leaves!" The price of real estate was under discussion at the club, when one gentleman remarked: "Boy, you don't know where you can buy the nicest little home—splendid cottage, grand fruit trees, and all that for a song." "I'm my luck," said Jones; "I can't sing a note."
