A LITTLE girl named Minnie Schell was being tried before Commissioner Frank Pierce this afternoon, charged with having stolen a $35 pair of bracelets.

WHY are some of the deputy registrars so anxious about the "Liberals" registering? Is it not their duty to register all who are eligible, regardless of party affiliations?

RICHARD KOENIG, business manager of the Thalia Theatre, is in the city arranging for the appearance here of his company, which begins a two night's engagement on the 10th.

THERE are several other deputy registrars who deserve removal for obedience to the orders of a secret society instead of following the instructions of the Utah Commission.

REED SMOOT, superintendent of the Provo Woolen Manufacturing Company, was in town yesterday. In behalf of the company he opposed an assignment made by a Park City business man. The assignment was held to be illegal.

DEPUTY United States Marshal W. S. Hopson took a trip up the river on Wednesday night, and brought in Nick Wilson, of Rexburg, and Sidney Wicks, of Lyman. They were taken before Commissioner Bixby, at Blackfoot, yesterday, and bound over in the sum of $1,000 each, for illegal cohabitation. —Eagle Rock Register, April 30.

THERE is a man in Butte City, Montana, who cannot be outdone in courtesy. His name is John Noyes. Last Monday was election day in Butte, and Mr. Noyes who is a democrat, was candidate for alderman, his opponent being C. F. Lloyd, republican. Mr. Noyes, in courtesy, voted for his opponent, who thereby received 115 votes, while he received but 114, defeating himself by his own vote.

A Visit.—S. L. Dutton, Esq., of Lowell, Massachusetts, is spending a couple of days in the city and called on the NEWS this afternoon. He is connected with the Courier, of Lowell, and is endeavoring to inform himself on western affairs. He is now on his way east having spent the winter and this part of the spring in California and surrounding states.

The Ogden "Herald."—This popular and enterprising journal celebrated its sixth birthday on Monday last by appearing in a greatly enlarged form, and with a neat, clean and new dress from top to toe. It presents a brisk appearance throughout and is edited with marked ability. The news is presented in an attractive shape, and all the departments are well put together. We congratulate our northern neighbor on its enterprise, and hope it may live long to herald good tidings.

We would have made a notice of the enlargement earlier if we had received a copy before to-day.

From the Missionary Field.—We had a pleasant call to-day from Elder D. P. Callister, of Fillmore, Millard County, who returned last evening from a mission to Great Britain. He left for his field of labor on April 14th, 1885, and on arriving in England was assigned to the Liverpool Conference, where he performed the duties of a traveling Elder for some eighteen months. He also visited the Isle of Man. His next field was in the Nottingham Conference, where he spent two months in the Hucknall district, the Saints in which branch he considers as among the most faithful and energetic he has met with. The remaining portion of the time he labored in the Lincolnshire district of the same conference.

He will leave this city to-morrow for his home in Fillmore. He is highly gratified at having had the privilege of aiding in the spread of Gospel truths, having greatly enjoyed his missionary labors.

New York Thalia Opera Company.—Amberg's New York Thalia Opera Company will commence an engagement of light opera at the Salt Lake Theatre on Tuesday, May 10, in the following brilliant repertoire: Tuesday, "The Beggar Student;" Wednesday, matinee, "The Black Hussar;" Wednesday evening, "Die Flenders" (The Bat). Among the principals are: Miss Sophia Offeney, prima donna; Miss Pauline von Varndal, soubrette; Mrs. Albertine Habrich; Edward Elsbach, Felix Schnelle, tenors; Mr. Max Lube and Mr. Carl Friese, comedians; Mr. Rudolph Sinnhold, baritone; Mr. Otto Meyer and Hermann Gerhold, bass. The Thalia Opera Company has a well-trained chorus of forty voices and is under the leadership of Mr. Rudolph Reese. The company is one of the strongest and best operatic organizations in America and the only one changing its repertoire nightly. Notwithstanding the enormous expense attending this engagement there will be no increase in prices. Sale of seats commences on Monday, May 9th, at the box office.

THE IMMIGRANTS.

THEY ARRIVE IN SAFETY—TRAVEL OVER A NEW ROUTE.

At five o'clock last evening that portion of the first company of this season's emigration from Europe booked to this city arrived over the D. & R. G. W., in charge of Elder E. P. Callister. At 7:30 p.m. the division for points south of Springville, Utah County, came in on the Utah Central, having traveled via the Union Pacific. Most of those destined to other points were met by friends and relatives at the stations along the line and provided for.

The company left Liverpool on April 16th, in charge of Elder D. P. Callister. There was considerable sickness among the Saints during the ocean voyage, but all recovered. On the arrival at New York on April 27th, a change was made from the usual route traveled. The company re-embarked on one of the Old Dominion Steamship Company's vessels and went down the coast to Norfolk, Va., where the Saints were landed and made the journey overland by rail.

At Chattanooga a St. Louis Globe-Democrat reporter boarded the train, and took a look at the immigrants, of whom in his dispatch to the paper, he says:

"They came by way of Norfolk, and are the best equipped immigrants who have arrived in this city for many a day. The party is composed of men, women and children, and they all seem intelligent, are well dressed, and all seem to have money. They regard Utah as possessing all the richness of the promised land."

At Kansas City the company was divided, those going north of Ogden and south of Springville, traveling by way of the Union Pacific, in charge of Elder H. P. Eliason, and the others via the D. & R. G. with Elder Callister. All arrived at their destination in excellent health and spirits.

The Elders spoke in terms of praise of the treatment received at the hands of the steamship company and railway officials along the entire route, and especially that part over which this company made the trip. The officials throughout were courteous, kind and prompt in their business relations.

Civil Service Examination.—Mr. Weston Flint, chairman of the board of civil service examiners at Washington, is in this city. On Saturday next an examination of applicants for positions in the several departments of government at Washington will be held in the grand jury room of the Third District Court. The custom is to examine only those making application some time before the examination takes place. Here, however, any desiring may enter, providing they are between the ages of 18 and 45, under and beyond which ages no application can be entertained. This rule, however, does not apply to soldiers—age cuts no figure with them.

The examination will be for but one day, beginning at 9 o'clock a. m. of Saturday. The board of examiners here will consist of Postmaster Barratt, Guy Willis and L. A. Billing, with Mr. Flint presiding.

The examination will test the competency of applicants in writing, dictation, copying, spelling, arithmetic, composition, geography, the form and nature of government, and on law; while the special examinations for those desiring to enter the state department, signal service office, patent office, library, pension office and to become medical reviewers, topographers and geological surveyors, type-writers and stenographers are of a nature that will try the knowledge of the applicant in the directions mentioned. There is also an examination in language.

Third District Court.—Judge Henderson, agreeable to the exchange made between him and Judge Zane, opened the Third District Court this morning. The first case was the noted Mammoth suit, E. Morris being the plaintiff against the Mammoth Company. This is the fourth time this suit has been up for trial. On the first trial the jury did not agree. On the second, the trial fell through because a relative of Mr. Morris was on the jury; and the last time the jury failed to agree. It is expected the case will continue about two weeks. There were but eighteen jurors in attendance, and as it was believed a jury could not be gathered from among these an open venire was issued for twelve more. It is understood that an attempt was made to compromise some time ago by paying Mr. Morris $15,000, but he would not consent.

A Big Mortgage.—The Utah & Northern Railway Company yesterday filed in the recorder's office at the court house a mortgage, dated July 1, 1886, to the American Loan and Trust Company of Boston. It was made to secure consolidated first mortgage 5 per cent. bonds running forty years, limited to $15,000 per mile of railroad. The road was 466.18 miles at date of the instrument. There is a prior lien in the shape of a mortgage to Gould and Richardson. This is to be lifted and the company contemplate an expenditure of about $3,000,000 to change its grade to a broad gauge and furnish rolling stock. C. F. Adams as president conveys all the road and roadbed from Ogden to Garrison, and branches now in existence, subject to the Gould and Richardson mortgages, to the American Loan and Trust Company, in trust to secure the holders of bonds they contemplate issuing to the above amount.—Butte Miner, May 3.

The Theatre.—The house was about half full last evening, and the performance passed off with admirable smoothness and celerity. It may be said of Hallen & Hart's company that while some things are only mediocre, the performance as a whole is greatly superior to most shows of its class, some things being really fine. The wonder Bagessen, the triple-bars, the Lucier family, the trained Monkeys and Hilen and Hart themselves are especially noticeable. The company went east this morning.

To-night, the "Rag Baby."

Suit Stayed.—The suit of John A. Groesbeck et al. vs. Geo. A. Meears, et al., one of a multitude of legal complications growing out of mining interests, has been continued for the term at least. Mr. Meears' attorneys applied to Judge Henderson for an injunction against the case now coming in for trial on the ground that a new suit had been planted by Meears et al. involving issues that should be determined before the other case ought to be heard. The injunction was granted and the case has accordingly gone over.

A New Case.—Dr. Clinton, city quarantine physician, reports a new case of diphtheria. It is in the family of F. Bolwinkle, 151 Centre Street. The patient is a boy about four years of age.

Released.—To-day, Brother William Geddes, of Weber County, was released from the penitentiary, where he has served a term of six months for living with his wives. He paid his fine of $100.

A New York is now indulging in opera in Hebrew. She has had it in English, in French, Italian, German and in Indian—as seen in Buffalo Bill's Wild West exhibition—but it was reserved for Hebrew to cap the climax.

MORE REGISTRATION OUTRAGES.

A NEAT CIRCULAR WITH NEW NAMES.

Reports come from Eureka that the registrar there is doing just about as he wills—the result being that while the Loyal Leaguers are cajoled into taking the oath where they have scruples against it, every hindrance is put in the way of members of the People's Party registering. We are informed that the fraudulent oath is being offered in every instance, and that even were the People's Party voters willing to take it, they are questioned until the registrar concludes he would not allow them to subscribe. Whether any detailed authentic information has been forwarded on the subject we are not aware, but undoubtedly there is good reason here for application of the Commission axe.

It may interest the public to know the part certain gentlemen are taking in the registration and election. It has been a matter of notoriety that Dickson, Varian, Bennett and Baskin were advising regstrars to ignore the instructions of the Commission, but it was not known generally that Thomas Marshall and P. L. Williams were so zealous in behalf of this work. Of the six names appended to the following circular, two are United States officials and one a Territorial officer.

SALT LAKE CITY,
April 29, 1887.

To the County and Precinct Registrars of Utah Territory:

We, the undersigned, members of the Bar of Utah, have carefully examined the accompanying form of oath, and confidently advise all Registrars and Judges of Election in this Territory that the said oath is in full accord with the so-called Edmunds-Tucker law, and is a suitable oath to be required of all persons before registration, and we will defend, free of cost to you, all actions at law that may be brought against any Registrars or Judges of Election, for the requirement of this oath. Under the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, in the case of Murphy versus Ramsey, it was held that the Utah Commissioners have not the power to prescribe the form of oath to be administered by the Registrars, but that such Registrars must and shall satisfy themselves that each person applying for registration is entitled to such registration.

(Signed) THOMAS MARSHALL,
C. S. VARIAN,
P. L. WILLIAMS,
W. H. DICKSON,
R. N. BASKIN,
C. W. BENNETT.

If sad experience had not taught that Loyal Leaguers may do with impunity that which would land a "Mormon" in jail it might be worth while to note the position these men would take if territorial officers were to assume in a similar circular that the Utah Commission should be ignored.

A SEPTENNARIAN

HELD FOR UNLAWFUL COHABITATION —ADULTERY ADDED.

Last evening Andrew Homer, of Mill Creek, Salt Lake County, was arrested on a charge of unlawful cohabitation made by Deputy Franks. The old gentleman is seventy-one years of age. He was released on $1,000 bail to appear for examination to-day.

He was called before Commissioner McKay at 11 o'clock this morning, and pleaded not guilty to the complaint. He was without an attorney. Mr. Dickson prosecuted.

Mrs. Petra Homer was the first witness. She testified—My maiden name is Peterson; I married defendant in 1880, in Salt Lake City; I live in Mill Creek Ward; have one child, seventeen months old; the defendant lives with me; he had a wife, Janina, before he married me.

Mrs. Anna Homer testified—My maiden name is Anderson; I was married to the defendant for the next world; his first wife's name is Janina; I was married 15 or 16 years ago; Janina lives near Park City; she left him many years ago, 11 or 12; I live in Mill Creek Ward, by myself; the defendant comes to see me occasionally as a neighbor; I take care of myself; I wanted him to get another wife; he lives with Petra now.

In reply to the Commissioner, the defendant gave his age at 71 years; he was poor and feeble. He said his first wife had died in the States over 30 years ago; he married again, but his wife left him 11 years ago; he then had two wives, one of which was for eternity, and with whom he had not lived. In 1880 he married again, and was now living with his wife. He had never lived with but one wife at a time. If he was sent to the penitentiary, and lived long enough to come out, he would have to go back to his present wife, as the one held to be the legal wife had left him five years before the last marriage, and they could not live together.

Mrs. Petra Homer stated to the Commissioner that the defendant had lived with her alone, and that she was in fact his only wife.

Mr. Dickson demanded that the defendant be held, not only for unlawful cohabitation but also for adultery in living with his third wife.

The Commissioner stated there was probable cause to believe the defendant guilty of unlawful cohabitation and of adultery, in living with his wife Petra, and fixed the bail at $1,500. The two ladies were also required to give bonds in the sum of $200 each to appear before the grand jury and at the trial.

"COFFEE JOHN" IN TROUBLE.

HE ASSAULTS H. G. WHITNEY OF THE "HERALD."

Yesterday afternoon John A. Fitchette, "Coffee John," rushed out on to the sidewalk in front of his restaurant, and attacked H. G. Whitney, of the Herald, who was passing, striking him a vicious blow in the face. Mr. Whitney returned the blow in self-defense, when a deputy marshal interfered and placed Fitchette under arrest.

The attack grew out of the publication by the Herald, of Fitchette's own confession of his tricky transaction at the time of his alleged sale to S. Brisacker, just prior to his assignment.

Fitchette was taken before Commissioner McKay and pleaded guilty Judgment was deferred till this morning.

To-day another charge of threatening to assault Mr. Whitney, was made against Mr. Fitchette, and an examination held.

Edward Ivins testified that on Tuesday, May 3, he had been accosted by the defendant and asked concerning the report in the Herald; the defendant said the paper had been "running" him, and the only way to stop it was to whip Mr. Whitney. He would not state positively that the threat were made on Tuesday; was pretty certain that was the day.

Mr. Jessop, of the Tribune, testified that on Tuesday the defendant had made use of language conveying the impression that he would lay Mr. Whitney out if he got a chance; he had afterward said that he would not do it; both statements were made before the assault; witness had warned Mr. Whitney that "Coffee" John was going to "wipe the ground" with him.

Henry A. Noon, also of the Tribune, testified that on Tuesday he heard defendant say he was going to thrash Mr. Whitney because of an article published in the Herald.

Mr. Fitchette asked that the case be dismissed because it had not been shown that the threats had been made in Salt Lake City.

Mr. Dickson remarked that it made no difference where the threats were made, the question was whether there was danger to Mr. Whitney. The evidence showed that there was danger, and he asked that the defendant be placed under sufficient bonds to keep the peace. He had attempted to carry his threat into effect, and had been stopped. The article published furnished no justification for the defendant's action.

In the case of threatening, the Commissioner remarked that the threat had been carried into execution, and by reason of that fact he would discharge the defendant. In the assault case he would hold the defendant in $250 bail to await the action of the grand jury. J. W. Farrell and Jos. Obendorfer became sureties.

If the statements made by "Coffee John" in his "confession" on Saturday last are true, it looks as if there was a good case under Section 1006 of the Compiled Laws against him.

A Southern California paper speaks with gusto of San Francisco as "the leper city of the sunset sea!"
