Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Includes items like Wheat, Corn, Flour, Beans, etc.

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

The Tenth Ward M. I. A. meets to-morrow evening for the annual election of officers.

The 16th Ward officiated in the administration of the sacrament yesterday afternoon, at the Tabernacle.

The box plan of the Salt Lake Theatre will be at Calder's store on Monday and Tuesday, for the sale of reserved seats for subscribers to Joseph's concert.

This morning we were pleased to meet Brother Arthur Budge, eldest son of President Wm. Budge, who is on his way to Provo, to pass through an educational course at the Brigham Young Academy, in that town. He leaves for Provo to-morrow.

Between the 6th Ward bridge and Geo. B. Wallace's farm, in North Jordan Ward, a parcel of bedding containing two pairs of blankets, one buffalo robe, one boy's overcoat. The finder will confer a favor by leaving them at Geo. B. Wallace's House, 17th Ward, or at his farm.

The Ogden Herald says: Last Thursday, as a 16 year old son of Mr. F. H. Reeder, on Fifth Street, was whittling a stick of wood, he gotting ready to slaughter a pig, the knife slipped and went into his wrist, inflicting a gash half an inch deep, and severing a main artery. A surgeon was called, who made the necessary repair.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Firemen Attention.—The officers and members of the fire department are requested to attend a special meeting this evening, in the Firemen's Hall, at 7.30 o'clock. By order of G. M. Ottiger, Chief Engineer.

R. H. HARDY, Sec'y.

Passed Away Peacefully.—The death of Brother Stephen Hales was singularly peaceful, though in some respects unexpected and sudden. He took supper as usual on Friday evening, and feeling more than ordinarily unwell, he retired about 7 o'clock. He soon appeared to be asleep, and in that manner passed away to the realms of peace.

Shot in the Hand.—The Ogden Herald says that on Friday evening, as James Riley, a young son of Mr. J. Riley, of the Second Ward, of that town, was carelessly handling a pistol, the weapon was discharged, the bullet entering the lad's hand, in the palm, making its way upward above the wrist, where it lodged. It was removed by surgical aid.

Obsequies.—The services over the remains of the late Stephen Hales were held yesterday, beginning at 11.30 a. m. in the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms. The opening prayer was offered by Elder Robert Patrick, and appropriate addresses were delivered by Elders James Moyle, William Robinson, Bishop Brown, of Bountiful, and President Angus M. Cannon. The benediction was pronounced by Elder George Romney.

Sunday School Review.—The annual Sunday School review of the 21st Ward, last evening, was a very pleasant affair, and showed a commendable degree of advancement that was creditable to Superintendent W. D. Owen and his corps of assistants. The exercises consisted of singing, reciting, both singly and in concert. The musical department was conducted efficiently by Brother Thomas McIntyre. Brief and encouraging addresses were delivered by Bishop Burt, Counselors Allen and Foulger and Brother Henry Rollap. There was a large attendance.

Prices of Produce.—Judge J. A. Allred, of Spring City, Sanpete County, returned last evening from a brief business trip to Nebraska and Iowa. We learn from him that potatoes are selling at $1.50 a bushel in those portions of the country, and that other farm products are proportionately scarce. The late harvest was very meagre, yielding an average of five bushels to the acre. Of corn there was but half a crop.

These facts combined with others of similar import, show plainly that our grangers need be in no hurry about selling their products, which should be carefully husbanded. Prices are not going to take a downward tendency.

From New York.—We have received a call from John S. Barney, Esq., who represents the wholesale importing and jobbing house of Bates, Reed & Cooley, of Broadway, N. Y. He is staying at the Continental Hotel, where he can be found for about one week. He brings with him this time the most superb line of samples that we have seen for some time, of fancy dry goods, which have been selected with great care. They are especially adapted for the Utah market, and calculated to suit the tastes of the most fastidious. The house of Bates, Reed & Cooley is one of the largest in N. Y., and has been doing business with our leading merchants for many years, and whose relations have been of the most satisfactory character. Mr. Barney has already done a good business since his arrival in the Territory. The advertisement of the firm constantly appears in the News.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

MRS. MARY WHITEHEAD IS THROWN OUT OF A WAGON AND DIES IN SIX HOURS.

At four o'clock yesterday afternoon Mrs. Mary Whitehead, herself, Lee Whitehead, Miss Sudbury and a little three-year-old boy of Bro. Samuel J. Sudbury's were riding in a wagon on the way to the residence of brother Samuel Sudbury, Jr., on the 19th Ward bench. When in that vicinity the horse, which was going at a rather rapid pace, suddenly shied on one side, upsetting the vehicle and throwing all of its occupants violently to the ground. All escaped injury except Mrs. Whitehead, who was very badly hurt. She was taken into the house of Brother S. Sudbury, Jr., and surgical aid procured, when it was discovered that the left arm was broken within an inch or two of the shoulder, besides sustaining very severe injuries in the lower portion of the body.

Notwithstanding that every means available was taken for the recovery of the patient by her friends, she expired about 10 o'clock last night, after six hours after the accident. Had the deceased been in good health, it is not likely that the accident would have terminated fatally. She had been suffering for a considerable time from asthma, heart-disease, and consequent general debility.

Mrs. Whitehead was sister of Bro. Samuel J. Sudbury, of the Empire Mill, with whom she resided, was a native of Egmont, Nottinghamshire, England, was 56 years old, and a member of the Church.

A CARD.

The family of the late Stephen Hales, tender their sincere thanks to his co-laborers on the public works and members of his Quorum, who kindly attended and administered to him in his long illness; also to Bishop Thos. Taylor, for the use of the Fourth Ward Hall, the choir, and to all those who assisted in any manner at his funeral.

A Disastrous Jump.

Yesterday afternoon, at Willard, Box Elder County, a boy attempted to frolicsome jump upon the flat car of the Utah and Northern train from the north. He missed his footing and fell, the wheels of the car passing over a portion of his foot, crushing it badly. He was also injured severely about the knee. Our informant, who was a passenger on the train, was unable to give us the name of the youth.

Since the above was in type, we have received the following account of the affair from Brother T. W. Brewster:

"A sad accident befel Richard Ward, grandson of Bishop George W. Ward, of this place, a lad between 14 and 15 years of age; this afternoon, as the Utah bound U. and N. freight train was approaching the station at Willard, the lad attempted to board a flat car while it was in motion, missed his calculation, and fell, the wheels of the car ran over the toes of his right foot, crushing them severely. Doctor J. X. Allen, of Ogden City, was sent for immediately, and arrived by the night train. After examining the mutilated foot, he concluded to amputate the two toes next to the large one. He also expressed an opinion that the next one to them might require the same attention. After administering chloroform; the condemned members were successfully removed.

This should be another warning to our young folks not to attempt to board trains in motion nor follow the bad examples of older ones trespassing on the railroad company's private rights, which I am sorry to say is too often the case.

Another Volume.

We have before us the October issue of the Contributor, being number one of Vol. 3. In several respects it is ahead of any of its predecessors, which is saying a good deal. It is embellished with steel engravings portraits of the Prophet Joseph Smith, the Patriarch Hyrum Smith. The contents are:

Sermons and writings of the Prophet Joseph. I. Biographical Sketch of John the Baptist; Charles F. B. Felt; Not a Temperance story, E. H. Anderson; Chronology of the Hindoos, Wm. Fotheringham; Thoughts on Genesis, Geo. Reynolds; Signs of the Times, T. S. Y. Stanford; Virgil, Ruby Lamont; Bohemians, B. F. Cummings, Jr.; Seedtime of Youth; Home, O. F. Whitney; Editorials: James A. Garfield, William C. Staines; About our Associations; Homespun; Von Moltke, Youths' Companion; An Old Verdict; Association Intelligence; Semi-Annual Conference; Questions and Answers; Questions to Answer.

Coming Musical Event.—The renowned Rafael Joseffy will give one of his celebrated concerts at the Theatre on the night of November 3rd. The newspapers in the east speak in unmeasured praise of his performances. The New York Herald, for instance, says:

"Joseffy played the Littlef Scherzo, in which nobody before had given complete satisfaction until Dr. Von Bulow played it here, nor since; but the recollection of Von Bulow's wonderful playing will be effaced by that of Joseffy. It was perhaps the most wonderful piano performance of the age."

Child's Hand Hurt.—There was considerable excitement in front of Z. C. M. I., on Saturday evening, in consequence of a little two year old child having its hand caught in the check of one of the large swinging entrance doors, near the bottom hinge. The door could not be moved either way without squeezing the little fellow's thumb flat, and he had to bear excruciating pain until the casing had been cut away sufficiently with a chisel to release the imprisoned digit. The thumb was very much hurt.

From Pittsburgh.—We had a call to-day from John Rae, Esq., who represents Stewart Bros. & Co., manufacturers of brushes, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. It is one of the best firms in its line, as many of our merchants know Stewart & Co. do quite an extensive trade with Utah houses. Mr. Rae generally pays our city a visit twice a year. He has a fine line of sample goods manufactured by Stewart Brothers. He is stopping at the Walker, and will remain about a week, when he will leave for the Pacific Coast.

Supposed Murderers Arrested.

A special dispatch to the News, says: There were two men arrested on the U. P. platform, this morning, who answer the description given of the murderers of Joel Hinckley. It is not certain, however, whether they are the real parties or not.

Seventies' General Meeting.

The Seventies will please take notice that they are invited to attend their next meeting, on Wednesday, the 2nd proximo, at seven o'clock p. m., to be held in the Council House.

ROBERT CAMPBELL, Clerk of First Council of Seventies. Salt Lake City, Oct. 31st, 1881.

The Liquor Question.

The proprietors of four liquor establishments who had been arrested under the Territorial statutes for doing business without a license, were before Justice Pyper to-day. The arrests were made under the law authorizing the counties to license liquor dealers. The city is therefore not a party in the matter. The cases were not disposed up to two o'clock. The charges are for refusing to take license and doing business without.

A Cutting Affray.

A number of soldiers quarreled in a saloon on Saturday night. One of them, Johannes Madsen, struck one of his companions with a sort of screw-driver used for tacking guns to pieces. He cut a dreadful gash in the fellow's head, from which the blood flowed in a copious stream. Madsen was taken charge of by the police and locked up. This morning he was conveyed to Fort Douglas by men sent down for the purpose.

BENEFACTORS.

When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some well known valuable remedies, the most wonderful medicine was produced, which would cure such a wide range of diseases that most all other remedies could be dispensed with, many were sceptical; but proof of its merits by actual trial has dispelled all doubt, and to-day the discoverers of this great medicine, Hop Bitters, are honored and blessed by all as benefactors.
