FLIGHT OF A NEGRO.

Black Man Dives Through a Window and Falls Thirty Feet.

Last night the police made a raid on a joint in Holmes court for the purpose of arresting a negro who was in the company of two white women. They got the women, but the negro, they say, is still running. The reason the black man did not capture is that when he heard the officers coming he jumped through a second story window and fell into an abbreviated costume. Officers Hemple and Johnson got word from the negro named Washington was in a room with Fannie Blundell and Agnes Emerson, two women not very favorably known in police circles, and they concluded to make a raid. One of the bluecoats stood guard at the front window while the other went upstairs.

Washington heard the officer's approach and without any hesitancy ran to the rear window, which is nearly 30 feet from the ground, and jumped out. Fortunately for him, he lit safely on his feet and dashed through the block made his escape. He went through head first carrying the window sash with him. Officer Hemple, who was moving toward the rear window, saw the falling figure, and running to the rear, saw the dusky form beating a hasty retreat. Hemple drew his revolver and fired a shot which missed the man. The negro ran on, and the officers followed him. He ran all the faster. Johnson captured the negro's shoes and trousers. The women were taken to the city jail and locked up.

TITTEBAUM A SICK MAN.

Condition Alarming for Himself and Other Jail Inmates.

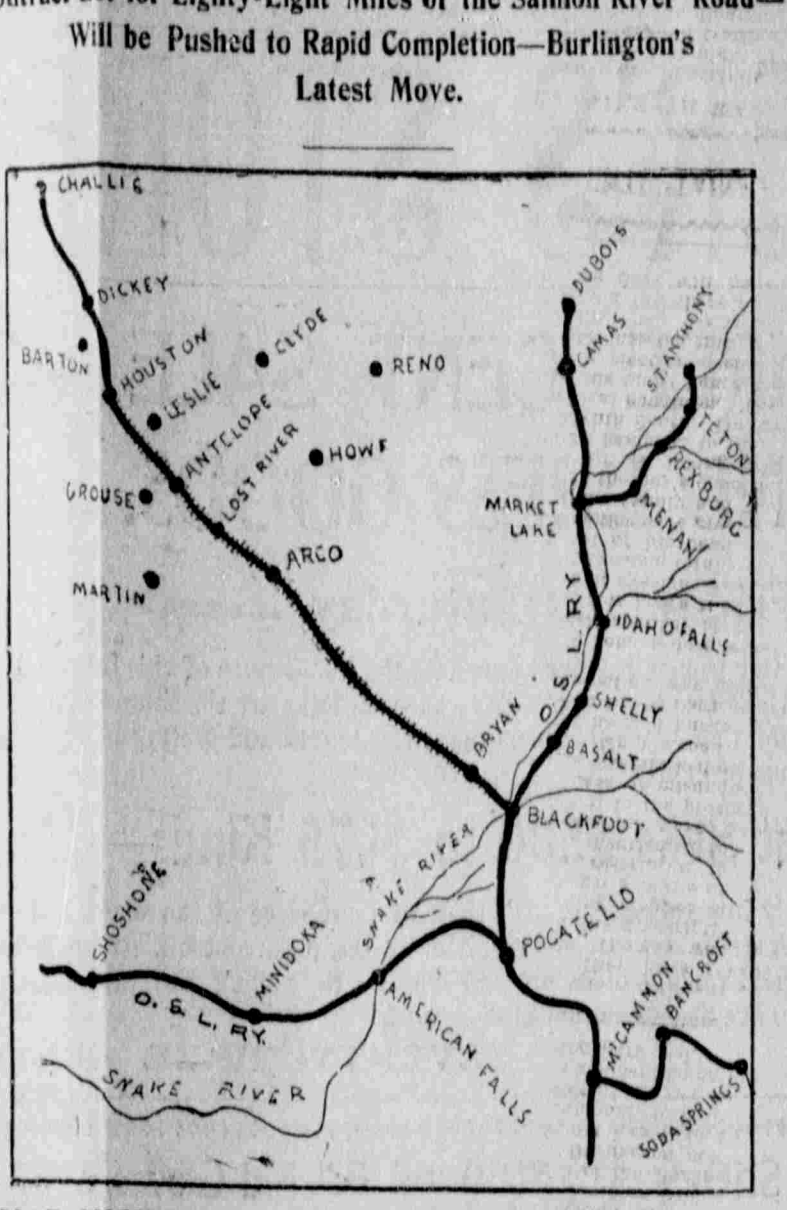

Sheriff Naylor and County Physician Mayo appeared before Judge Stewart this morning to testify as to the condition of Joseph Tittlebaum. Tittlebaum was taken to the county jail on May 20th to answer to a charge of unlawful carnal knowledge of Leah Rabinowitz, a female under the age of consent. The sheriff was afraid that Tittlebaum's health might break down while he was in the jail. He was taken to the county jail on May 20th, and had Dr. Mayo examine him. The diagnosis is that Tittlebaum has phthisis trouble in an advanced stage. He told the doctor that he had been in the jail since the morning of the prisoner's confinement in the jail was not only dangerous to himself but to the other inmates of the county jail. He will probably be sent to the county infirmary. Prosecutor Eichnor made a statement to the court.

Moses Rabinowitz was present in court this morning. He came to tell Judge Stewart that he had not means to support himself and family in this city till May 20th, and asked that he be allowed to leave for Pennsylvania at once. When he discovered that there was some likelihood of the case being dismissed tomorrow he decided to await the court's decision.

SHORT LINE'S NEW IDAHO BRANCH

Contract Let for Eighty-Eight Miles of the Salmon River Road—Will be Pushed to Rapid Completion—Burlington's Latest Move.

MAP SHOWING THE OREGON SHORT LINE'S NEW IDAHO BRANCH.

The contract for the construction work on the Houston branch of the Oregon Short Line has been secured by the Utah Construction company over five other bidders which included some of the largest contracting firms in the West. The contract was not given out until last evening owing to the fact that some delay was occasioned in figuring up the various estimates of the work which is based on so much per cubic yard of soil and rock. Just how much of the work amounts to in dollars and cents has not been made public, but it is said that it will be near the $500,000 mark.

FINISH IN FIVE MONTHS.

Vice President Bancroft states that it is the intention to have the new line in operation before the beginning of October, and with this end in view work on the road will be pushed as fast as the extent of working night shifts on the bridge work over the Snake river. This is imperative as the high waters come booming down the river at any time now that the warm weather has set in. Providing the bridge is finished without any delay work on the extension in the new road without a break until the branch is completed. General Manager Bancroft has issued imperative orders that the Salmon River railroad must be finished by the end of September. Outfit cars are being drawn from every available point while laborers are being shipped from Wyoming and Colorado at the rate of fifty a day.

ROUTE OF ROAD.

The building of the Salmon River railroad, or the Houston branch as it will probably be called, means great things for the development of central Idaho. The road, as seen by the accompanying map, will cross the Snake river in the vicinity of Blackfoot to go due northwest for some sixty miles when it will cross the Big Lost River and continue on from there the road will continue until it reaches the Snake river. From there the road will go on to the Snake river and then to the Snake river. The road will go on to the Snake river and then to the Snake river.

WILL NOT PAY THE FINE.

T. G. Allen Will Not be Subject to Dictation of the Union.

The difficulty between the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and Thomas G. Allen, the electrical wiring contractor of this city, is not apt to be settled very soon, and moreover the latter confidently states that he is not being injured in the least. Mr. Allen has the contract for wiring the building now being erected by Anderson Brothers at the corner of Second and East streets, and he has been notified by the local branch of the union that he has been fined $100 for alleged un-union work. Reading was made of the notice of the fine reads as follows: "Mr. T. G. Allen, you are in a day fined that a fine of $100 has been levied against you for doing unfair work in Salt Lake City, and the same must be paid before your shop will be placed on a sound footing with this union."

J. READING.

"This man Reading," said Mr. Allen today, "is a scoundrel. He is not a man, he is an agitator. That is not all, he has been working for me on non-union houses for some time past. Every house I wired last winter. Reading worked on them, they were all non-union houses and he knew it at the time. The union is now trying to get me out of my business. I have never done any work on a non-union house since he has been in my employ. If I or Johnson are liable to a fine then Reading is also."

Mr. Allen stated emphatically that he would not pay one cent of the fine. "I have all the men I want," added he, "and more work than I can do, so they are not injuring me much."

ALL KEEP THE SAME TIME.

Discussion and controversy have broken out regarding the question why dummy watches point to the wrong time. You may notice as you pass along the street that many of the jewelers have these dummy clocks or watches in front of their shops. In nearly every instance it will be found that the time they indicate is eighteen and a half minutes past eight.

Why this time, rather than any other? The answer is, it is now being discussed. One remarkable explanation is that this is the time at which Abraham Lincoln died. In order to mark their appreciation of the passing of the great President, it is said, the jewelers of America made it a fixed rule to indicate the exact time on all their dummy clocks.

Another reasonable explanation than this, however, has been offered by a leading firm of watchmakers in this city, who trace the custom back to 1819, when one of the great watchmakers of the world, John DeWitt, first started it. He decided, it is said, upon eighteen and a half minutes past eight after a half minute and a half minute past eight, and the minute hand goes around twice the hour hand one minute degree necessitates the movement of the minute hand twelve minutes. Of course the hands may be reversed, making the time 3:45. We may say that any painter who desires to find the perfect angle would readily while at his work discover the exact position to paint the hands of his clock. He can test these facts by his watch.

MILLIONAIRE'S WATCH PAWNED.

Many well known millionaires have a habit of going about New York with only a few cents of change in their pockets, and this is the case with Henry Cleve, a Kansas City writer, says the Kansas City Journal. Not long ago he and Mrs. Cleve dined at a place where the banker-broker-usher was unknown, and where the rule was strictly cash down.

Knowing that his good wife generally had sufficient money in her purse to defray any ordinary expense, he whispered to her the finger bowls were brought, and he said, "I forgot to bring my money." But Mrs. Cleve, too, had forgotten to bring any money, and there sat this delectable couple with their hands at home but not a cent for hotel tribute.

The banker's explanation to the waiter was not regarded as satisfactory. Neither did the waiter understand. The proprietor, a fellow without discernment or tact, was so inclined to be incredulous that Mr. Cleve, disdained a complacently, quietly deposited his gold watch as a pledge that the bill should be paid as soon as he could send a messenger from his home.
