PLANNING FOR A FOUR-STATE FAIR

Project of Intermountain Fair Association for Exhibition in Ogden Next Fall.

SHERIFF SELLS SANITARIUM.

J. H. Kurtz Buys It for $28,300 for Hotel—Funeral of Mrs. W. H. Wright—Rumors of Combine.

Ogden, Feb. 18.—The holding of a four-state fair in Ogden this fall in which the states of Utah, Idaho, Nevada and Wyoming will participate is the movement that has been launched by the Intermountain Fair Association of this city. While nothing definite is known on the proposition at present, it is announced that this action will be taken by the stockholders at their meeting which will be held next Monday evening.

Since the holding of the four-county fair in this city last fall there has been considerable planning by the directors to enlarge the fair and have it include the nearby states. The fair grounds on West Seventeenth street are in excellent shape for the holding of a big fair. The Weber club and the Chamber of Commerce of Ogden have endorsed the proposition and offer their best support for the movement.

Business men and manufacturers of the city have taken the matter up and will deal in their power to make the fair the four states a reality.

SANITARIUM SOLD.

The Ogden Canyon Sanitarium, located at the mouth of Ogden canyon, was sold at sheriff's sale yesterday afternoon to J. H. Kurtz for $28,300. The sale practically ends the litigation over the resort which has been in the courts for the past 15 months. When Sheriff Wilson announced that bids would be heard for the resort, two were made, one for $15,000 and the other for $28,300. The attorney for Kurtz bid $28,300, and the deal was closed.

The owners of the resort can redeem it within six months if they wish to.

The sale is the result of the suit brought by J. H. Kurtz, as trustee and representative of the heirs of the late Thomas Kurtz, one of the founders and heaviest stockholders in the resort. Mr. Kurtz announces his intention of improving the resort and to be ready for the summer season.

STOLEN GOODS RECOVERED.

The police department has recovered about $100 worth of silver and glassware which was stolen from the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Paddock on Jan. 25. It was recently tipped off to the police from a crook that the plunder was cached in a haystack at Five Paces. An investigation by Officer Bob Burke and Detective Pender was made and the stolen goods recovered. The officers also have a clue as to the burglars and are now on their trail.

FUNERAL OF MRS. WRIGHT.

Funeral services, simple yet impressive, for Mrs. Emma Wright, wife of the late Pioneer William H. Wright, held yesterday afternoon at the Fifth ward meetinghouse. Bishop David C. Jacobs presiding. The vast auditorium was crowded to the doors with the many relatives and friends of the deceased, gathered to pay their final respects to one of the noblest pioneers of the state and country.

The music consisted of solos rendered by Mrs. Bessie Dean Allison, Miss Ruby Geddes and A. H. Sander. The speakers were Presidents C. F. Middleton and John Watson, Elder David C. McKay and Bishop Jacobs. They eulogized her life as the loving wife, the fond and endearing mother and her life-long devotion to the principles of the Latter-day Saints' church of which she was a member.

The floral offerings, beautiful and profuse, were silent tributes of the high esteem in which the deceased was held in the community. A large funeral cortege followed the body to its last resting place in the city cemetery.

WOOLGROWERS' CONVENTION OFFICERS.

The board of control for the next annual convention of the National Woolgrowers' association which will be held in Ogden next January, have organized with the following officers: John Pingree, president; F. W. Herrington, vice president; A. P. Bigelow, treasurer; I. L. Reynolds, secretary. These together with F. C. Foley, Heber Scott, John Spivey and P. T. Wright form the board of control. This board will have absolute control of the affairs for the convention. The board will meet within a few days and outline the plan of its work.

SUCCESS OF THE "ELKS' TOOTH."

One of the largest houses of the season was at the Grand Opera house last evening to witness the production of "The Elks' Tooth," the annual benefit show of the local lodge of Elks. The entire cast was made up of local people who "spoke" their lines like professionals. The show will be given again this evening.

TAIR OF RAILROAD COMBINE.

Rumors have been circulating in Ogden the past few days that the Salt Lake & Ogden railroad known as the Hamberger line and the Ogden Rapid Transit company controlled by the Eccles interests were going to consolidate on the line through the canyon, the extension which is being built by the Rapid Transit company at the present time.

The confirmation of the rumor could not be had owing to the absence from the city of Mr. Eccles.

JUNCTION CITY BRIEFS.

Marriage Permit.—A marriage license has been issued at the county clerk's office to Joseph E. Flint of Kayville and Alice Whitesides of Layton.

M. I. A. Concert.—A grand musical concert will be given on the evening of Feb. 24, at the Weber academy, under the auspices of the Young Ladies' and Young Men's Mutual Improvement associations of Weber county. Professor Sauls, Cora, Charles Kent and Joseph Ballantyne will arrange the program and take part in the musical treat of the season.

Final Account Filed.

The final account of N. C. Flygare deceased, has been filed in the district court by the executors of the estate, John Watson, Chris Flygare and Nels C. Flygare.

Suit on a Note.—M. S. Marriott has brought suit in the district court against John T. Mortenson to recover $100 alleged to be due upon a promissory note given Jan. 1, 1908.

DEATH OF JOHN MAYBERRY.
 John Mayberry died Tuesday night, after several years illness from consumption and other ailments. The deceased was born in England, Australia, and came to Utah with his parents (the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mayberry) in 1870, since which time his home has been in Provo. He leaves a wife and 12 children and many other relatives. Funeral services will be held Sunday at 12 o'clock in the Fifth ward meetinghouse.

REGRETS WRONG ACT.

City Marshal Williams received a letter from the chief of police of Los Angeles yesterday, which stated that Wm. E. Whipple had come into the office and told that he had cashed a check here for $45, belonging to his cousin, Wm. L. Whipple, and that he felt so worried over it that he wanted to give himself up to the authorities. The letter stated that the officers there had some doubts about Whipple being a criminal and thought he was laboring under an hallucination. The man is evidently not a criminal or he would not have written the letter of offense, but he is the man of whose check transaction yesterday's "News" had an account. He will not be brought here as the money will be made good to the bank, and as to the check, Wm. L. Whipple, who is a cousin of Wm. E. Whipple, does not want to prosecute.

GARDEN CITY NOTES.

Miss Ida Crouch Hazlett, of Helena, Montana, lectured here Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. In Socialism, Miss Crouch is an able speaker, and held the interest of her audience throughout. She set forth the advantages of co-operation in a competitive economic methods in a very temperate and pleasing manner.

The local authorities propose to prosecute the young men who were with George McMahon on the night he took some wine from the show window of the Elkhorn pharmacy. Just what charge will be brought against them is not known. McMahon was charged with burglary.

A mountain lion is said to have lost his jungle and is presumed to have traveled down along the river to the west fields, where he is croaking conversation in chicken houses, are said half a year the other night, belonging to Walter Cox. In the day time he keeps under cover, and sets out on marauding expeditions at night. The people say they know it is a mountain lion from tracks discovered in the neighborhood, and several hunters are now watching for him. Some years ago a bear lost his way and wound up his career in the same locality.

SUCCESSFUL POULTRY SHOW

Richmond Irrigation Co. Incorporates—Prohibition Convention.

Logan, Cache Co. Feb. 18.—The Cache county poultry exhibit opened this morning and during the forenoon over 200 people attended. There are over 600 birds on exhibit, the scores of which are running very high in many instances. Persons who attended the state fair say the show here excels in many ways. Among the fine chickens exhibited the U. A. C. export ment station has several pens on display. The fair, which will run for three days is fair to be a success in every way. It is a credit to any community or county to arrange a fair so extensive as the one here and especially so on the first attempt at a fair of any kind.

PROHIBITION CONVENTION.

The convention called by leading Republicans here to select delegates to attend the state convention in Salt Lake next week on the prohibition question convened here this evening with an attendance of 76, with 243 proxies. After considerable discussion a resolution was adopted with a large majority, commending the Cache county representatives for voting for the Cannon prohibition bill and urging Senator Bullen to support it in the senate.

The following delegates were selected to go to Salt Lake: John A. Hendrickson and John H. Anderson of Logan, C. M. Hammond of Provo, L. E. Wilhelm of Greenville, and Logan Thurston of Hyde Park.

RICHMOND IRRIGATION CO.

Articles of incorporation were filed today by the Richmond Irrigation company which show a capital stock of $100,000 divided into 10,000 shares at the par value of $10. The water of the company will be taken from the High Creek north of Richmond. The officers are Alma Merrill, president; George H. Naylor, vice-president; P. N. Nelson, secretary and the above officers with J. W. Bullock and J. H. Harris are directors. E. W. Hendricks is Treasurer.

WELLSVILLE ELECTRIC LIGHT FRANCHISE.

The county commissioners were in special session yesterday and a franchise for an Electric Light line was granted the Wellsville Mayor and council, from Logan to Wellsville along the county road. The matter of petitioning the legislature for $15,000 to be expended on the Blacksmith Fork canyon road was taken up but no action was taken on the petition.

IN THE JUSTICES COURT.

Lawrence Thatcher was fined $10 yesterday by Justice Bringham for disturbing the peace.

John W. Alt was arraigned for a preliminary hearing for murder, but owing to the absence of his attorney from the city the case went over.

Ed. Wilson and James Murphy were arraigned before Justice Bringham on a charge of burglary in the third degree to which they pleaded not guilty. They were committed to the county jail and will be given their hearing the latter end of the week.

A. N. Sorenson and Orson Christensen of the B. Y. leave Saturday for Provo where they represent the local school in debate. Pres. Roosevelt's naval policy will be the question discussed.

issued. Finally a lot of checks, amounting to $115, came in and the case was reported to Sheriff Judd, who owing to the bold methods of Newton, had little trouble in locating the source of trouble. Newton would go to a place of business in Springville or Provo and make a purchase and pay with one of Mr. Richards' checks, receiving the difference in cash. Newton married an estimable young lady in Springville on the 20th of last month, and the criminal actions of her husband has proved a severe shock to her. Friends of Newton are trying to fix matters out of court, but it is not thought probable they will succeed.

SHEPPARD-WARENSKIE WEDDING.

A marriage license has been issued to W. H. Warenskie of Joseph, and Annie Sheppard of Payson.

MRS. FLETCHER'S FUNERAL.
