No Dishonest Methods Will be Toler-Scene in Courtroom Was Dramaticated Where Federal Government Wives Were Present-Minimum Penalty is Five Years.

New York, Nov. 5 -- Charles W. Morse, until a year ago a prominent figura in the world of finance, and Alfred Curtis, former president of the Na tional Bank of North America, were found guilty today in the criminal branch of the circuit court on charges of misapplication of funds and falsifying the books of the bank. There was also the additional charge of conspiracy against the prisoners, but the jury ac-quitted the men on this count. Within five minutes of the time the jury had rendered its verdict, Judge Hough had refused to entertain a mo-tion for ball, and had committed the two bankers to the Tombs prison. The judge said that he would hear any mo-tions the lawyers for the prisoners de-sire to make at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

size to make at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. The rederal statutes provide a mini-mum penalty of five years' imprison-ment for falsifying the books of a bank and a penalty of two years' im-prisonment for misappleation of funds. No alternative but imprisonment is provided for conviction on the charge of falsifying the books of a bank. The maximum penalty on this charge is of falsifying the books of a bank. The maximum penalty on this charge is 10 years' imprisonment. The jury re-commanded elemency for Mr. Curtis but made no recommendation in the case of Mr. Morse. The scene in the courtroom was dramatic. Mrs. Morse and Mrs. Curtis had remained in the courtroom nearly all day awaiting the verdict. Mrs. Curtis showed signs of giving way to her emotion a number of times, and once when the jury re-turned to the courtroom to receive instructions on the manner in which the constrood on the manner in which the conspiracy charge should be considered. Mis. Morse broke down and sobbed. A large crowd had hurried into the curtroom to hear the verdict. Mr. Morse and Mr. Curtis stood before file jury while Foreman John Elder was reading the vordict, and their wives sat jury while Foreman John Elder was reading the verdict, and their wives sat near them, leaning forward in tense attitude to catch every word. "We have agreed upon a verdict in the case of both defendants," said the foreman in a subdued voice. "On the charge of conspiracy we find them not guilty." A look of relief came to the faces of the prisoners and their wives, but it lasted only a moment, for Mr. Elder continued:

"On the charge of the misapplica-tion of the funds of the bank we find both defendants guilty. On the charge of making false entries in the books of the bank we find both defendants guilty. In the case of Alfred H. Curtis the jury wishes to make a strong recommendation to the mercy of the court."

court." A stifling sob of relief escaped Mrs. Curtls as she heard the recommenda-tion for mercy for her husband. Mr. Curtls took the verdict like a stole, but Morse was unable to conceal his disap-pointment, while his wife showed no stans of emotion. She kept her eyes on her husband, forgetting herself.

There was a momentary bush in the courtroom. This was broken by a buzz of excited conversation and a few min-utes later the lawyers for the defendatts were making the customary mo-tions for a new trial, for ball and for permission to take an appeal to the circuit court of appeals. Judge Hough said that he would hear

Has Jurisdiction. Cincinnati, Nov. 5.—The speech which Mr. Taft delivered here tonight created a profound sensation among the substantial business men of the the substantial business men of the city, who are members of the club which gave him the dinner, arranged long before the result of the election could be known, and they arose as one man to the sentiments he express-ed. The speech, which was preceded by words of friendship and neighbor-by felicitations on the next of the dis ly felicitations on the part of the dis-tinguished guest, brought out the hu-man side of the president in a manner which was most touching and responded to with the greatest enthus-

"Seriously," he declared, "the indications are already apparent, and the hopes which I entertain are that the business which I entertain are that the business communities and the investors of both foreign nations and among our people, will take heart in carrying out the great enterprises which have been projected, and which must be carried to a determination if the country is to reach its full meed of prosperity.

WILL SHOW BUSINESS MEN.

"Business men are to be shown the thes of legality and are to be directed in keeping within those lines, which have been emphasized during the last four years. Business men shall know that they are to conform to the laws upon the statute books, and that no favors are to be expected for those who break the laws advancement." After the applause which met the declaration had subsided, Judge Taft added: "It is a question of the definite knowledge of the statutes and of their knowledge of the statutes and of their clear understanding which shall make the honest progress of our business pos-sible. And that is, in my belief, all that is necessary to make that progress substantial and enduring." Judge Taft apologized for directing his words into such a serious discus-sion sion.

SENSES THE DIFFICULTIES.

"I know the difficulties that will arise "and I know the difficulties that will arise in my new career," Judge Taft added, "and I know that questions will arise that I do not know of now, and that times will come when many of my friends here will shake their heads and

OLD SLAVERY DAYS.

Story of Love of a White Southerner

For a Negro Servant.

Dayton, O., Nov. 6.—A story of the old slavery days love of the white southerneer for the negro servant, was Solutifier for the legito servant, was brought to light yesterday when Mrs. T. E. Brinley of Louisville, came to this city to exhume the body of fileh-ard Wallace, an aged negro, who died at the soldiers' home a tew weeks ago, for the purpose of shipping it to Louisville, where it will be interred be-side that of hear father the law We that of her father, the late William K. Thomas.

Before the way broke out the negro was a slave on the plantation of Mr. Thomas, but he joined the Union army and was captured and made a prisoner of war and confined in a southern prison over which Mr. Thomas had command. Mr. Thomas effected his release as soon as he learned of his imprisonment and for many years un-til Mr. Thomas died, was his body ser-yant and the two were devoted friends. So great was the affection fsted between the two men that the daughter has taken this step.

SACRAMENTO REPORTS A FINE CASE

A fine example of a recovery in a case of kidney disease that was supposed to be incurable is reported from Sacramento. Mr. I. T. Gibson of 521 Ninth street, Sacramento, was in October last in a local hospital in the Capital City, swollen with the dropsy that often attends the serious and supposed incurable forms. As is usual posed incurable forms. As is usual in these cases the hospital treatment got no results, when he was advised to try Fulton's Renal Compound By a friend (Charles A. Newton, the yard-master of the S. P. R. R. Co., at Sec-ramento, who had himself been cured by the treatment). Descent the second ramento, who had himself been cured by the treatment). Dropsy began to subside and the renal inflammation gradually abated and Gibson is now back to his employment with the S. P. R. Co., after recovering from disease that is rated as incurable the world over.

a letter he has just written, he s. "I believe it has saved my life, is the greatest remedy for kidney disease on Earth

No matter whether called "kidney trouble," "Nephritis," or "Bright's Dis-ease," the real difficulty is INFLAM-MATION OF THE KIDNEYS. Ful-tory, Banal Compared States, Ful-MATION OF THE KIDNEYS. Ful-ton's Renal Compound is the first emol. Hent for inflamed kidneys that the world has ever seen. Send for itera-ture. JOHN J. FULTON CO.

hake their heads and say, 'Poor Bill,' but all I ask is for sus pension of judgment until the situation may be understood. Its decisions will rest upon the principles of sound and honest business policies which I have outlined. What Judge Taft said preceding his plain business talk pleased the club im-mensely. He told of the many policies which had been dictated to him by the local committee men during the cam-local committee men during the cam-paign, and then of the whole object of being president, which was to enforce the laws and give every honest endeav_ with vigor every apparent effort to evade the laws and to affect prosperity by dishonest business metho The club of which Judge Taft was a guest tonight was also his host at a dimer which he attended just before leaving the United States to become governor of the Philipping governor of the Philippines as the ap-pointee of President McKinley. The club entertained tonight members of similar arganizati ms from Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City.
