

dell, of Washakie, Box Elder Co., released from the Utah Pen.—John A. McClelland, of the Utah Commission, submitted a minority report to the Secretary of the Interior, not agreeing with the other members of the commission in their recommendation of harsh measures toward the people of Utah.—Collision at Palestine Bridge, N. Y.; 20 killed and injured.

Mon. 30.—In the Third District Court, Salt Lake City, Thomas S. Higham, of Salt Lake City, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment and $300 fine and costs.—In the First District Court, at Provo Jens L. Jensen, of Central, Sevier Co., was sentenced to 62 days' imprisonment and costs, for unl. coh.; Hans Jensen, of Gosben, to two years and costs, and Hans Sorensen, of Aurora, to six months and costs for adultery and Terry Thurston, 70 years old, to a fine of $25 and costs, for unl. coh.—Butte, Montana, partly destroyed by fire; three firemen killed; loss $350,000.

OCTOBER.

Peoples Party political clubs were organized in the various wards in Salt Lake City.—The walls of the Council House, on the corner of East and South Temple Streets, Salt Lake City, which had been standing in ruins since the fire June 21, 1883, were pulled down to give room for other buildings soon to be erected.

Tu. 1.—In the First District Court, at Provo, John W. Jackson, of Glenwood, was sentenced to 10 months' imprisonment and costs, for unl. coh.—Washington, North Dakota, South Dakota and Montana, ratified their Constitutions; the Republicans carried all except the latter which was divided.—The town of Cambria, Cal., burned; loss $125,000.—Cutler House and many residences burned at Grand Haven, Mich.; loss $500,000.

Wed. 2.—The Territorial fair in Salt Lake City opened with an address by Governor Thomas.—Eighteen thousand Church sheep undelivered were again leased at 18 cts. per head.—In the Third District Court, Salt Lake City, Walter E. Wilcox was sentenced to six months' imprisonment and costs, for unl. coh.—William McNeal released from the Utah Pen.—The international American Congress convened at Washington.

Thurs. 3.—The boilers of the steamboat Corona exploded on the Mississippi near Fort Hudson; nearly forty lives lost and many injured.

Fri. 4.—Perry Fitzgerald, one of the pioneers of 1847, died at Draper, Salt Lake Co.—In the Third District Court, Salt Lake City, Bedson Eardley was sentenced to 18 months' imprisonment and costs, and in the First District Court, at Provo, Otis L. Terry, of Fairview, to nine months and costs, for alleged adultery.—The semi-annual general conference of the Church commenced in Salt Lake City and was continued until the 6th. On the last day the three vacancies existing in the Quorum of the Twelve were filled by the selection by unanimous votes of Marriner W. Merrill, Anton H. Lund and Abraham H. Cannon.

Sat. 5.—Lorenzo H. Durrant, a returning missionary, and Miss Adeline Allen and Miss Patience Bennett, who had been detained at Lynchburg, Va., because of injuries received in the train wreck, arrived in Salt Lake City.—The steamship Wisconsin sailed from Liverpool, England, with 142 Saints on board, namely 104 English, 13 Hollanders, 12 Bohemians (supposed to be the first Saints from Bohemia), nine returning Elders and four visitors, in charge of Edward Bennett. The company arrived in New York on the 17th and in Salt Lake City on the 25th.

Tu. 8.—Probate Judge of Salt Lake County, Mr. Marshall, resigned his office.—George Facer, of Willard, arrested on a charge of unl. coh.

Wed. 9.—Robert Branton shot his wife and killed himself at 64 W. Third South St., Salt Lake City.—A Scandinavian Peoples Party political club organized in Salt Lake City, with Andrew Jensen as President.—Abraham Chadwick, of North Ogden, arrested on a charge of unl. coh.

Thurs. 10.—In the First District Court, at Provo, the following brethren were sentenced for breaking the Edmunds law as follows: Joseph S. Black, of Deseret, to 75 days' imprisonment and costs; Henry Mower to 45 days; Jesse B. Martin, of Scipio, to 50 days; Joseph L. Jolly, of Moroni, to 100 days and $50 and costs; Levi S. Dunham, of Moroni, to 16 months and costs; James Anderson, of Spanish Fork, to 75 days and $50 and costs; William McKellar, of Leamington, to one year and costs; L. H. Newman, of Sevier County, to 60 days and costs; John F. Beck, of Spanish Fork, to five months and costs; Hans Jespersen, of Gosben, to five years; George Curtis to 60 days and costs; Newman Van Leuvan, of Aurora, to 120 days and costs; Thomas Cooper to $50 fine and costs; William M. Palmer to $75 and costs.—Thomas Godfrey, of Clarkston, released from the Utah Pen.—William D. Newson arrested in Salt Lake City, on a charge of unl. coh.—Mark Bigler met a horrible death at Collinston, Box Elder Co.

Fri. 11.—In the First District Court, at Provo, Lars J. Larsen was sentenced to two years' imprisonment and costs for alleged adultery, and George W. Bean fined $50 for unl. coh.—Robert Allen arrested in Salt Lake City, on a charge of unl. coh.—The President appointed John W. Blackburn associate justice of the Utah Supreme Court.

Sun. 13.—A Rio Grande Western Ry. passenger train blown over by a heavy gust of wind near Farmington, Davis Co. A number of persons injured.—The Brooklyn Tabernacle burned; loss $150,000.

Mon. 14.—In the First District Court, at Provo, Thomas Broadbent, of Elshore, was sentenced to 34 months' imprisonment and to pay $100 fine and costs, for unl. coh.; Jacob Gates to pay a fine of $50.

Tu. 15.—Incline Plane railway accident at Cincinnati, Ohio; a number killed.

Wed. 16.—George W. Barteh appointed Probate Judge of Salt Lake County, vice Judge Marshall resigned. He took the oath of office on the 22nd.—William H. Maughan, of Wellsville, and Charles S. Hall, of Portage, Box Elder Co., released from the Utah Pen.—By an explosion in a mine at Langton, England, nearly sixty persons were killed.

Thurs. 17.—Judge Blackburn succeeded Hon. John W. Judd on the bench of the First District Court at Provo. The jury returned a verdict of voluntary manslaughter against James A. Wright for the killing of Soren Christensen, at Deseret. An appeal was made to the Supreme Court of Utah and defendant admitted to $1,000 bail on the 26th.

Fri. 18.—The Students' Society of the Latter-day Saints' College organized in Salt Lake City.

Sat. 19.—The king of Portugal died at Lisbon.

Mon. 21.—David W. Leaker arrested in Salt Lake City.

Tu. 22.—City Council of Salt Lake City ordered the police to be uniformed in 30 days.—In the First District Court, at Provo, Kelsey Bird, of Benjamin, Utah Co., was sentenced to six months' imprisonment and $300 fine and costs, for unl. coh.—Martin B. Cutler and John P. Maxwell released from the Utah Pen.—John J. R. Hicks, of South Cottonwood, arrested on a charge of unl. coh.

Wed. 23.—Charles Bailey arrested at Paradise, and William S. Sibby at Mill Creek on charges of unl. coh.

Thurs. 24.—David James arrested in Salt Lake City on a charge of unl. coh.—C. J. Arthur released from the Utah Pen.—The famous Cronin trial commenced in Chicago.

Fri. 25.—At Blackfoot, Idaho, Thomas E. Hicks was convicted of unl. coh. without evidence.

Sat. 26.—In the First District Court, at Provo, Thomas H. Stephenson, of Holden, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment and costs, for unl. coh.—Bishop Samuel Oldham, of Paradise, released from the Utah Pen.—The steamship Wyoming sailed from Liverpool, England, with 161 Saints on board, namely 116 from Scandinavia, 6 from Holland, 24 from Great Britain, 12 returning Elders and three returning visitors, in charge of A. L. Skaneby. The company arrived in New York in due course of time and in Salt Lake City Nov. 13th.

Mon. 28.—J. P. Holm arrested in Salt

Lake City, and Edward A. Bagley at Greenwich, Plute Co., on charges of unl. coh.

Wed. 30.—In the Third District Court, William C. Dunbar was refused citizenship because he believed in polygamy.

Thurs. 31.—The Reform School, at Ogden, was opened.—In the First District Court, at Provo, Richard M. Humphreys, of Sallna, was sentenced to 90 days' imprisonment and $300 fine and costs, for unl. coh., and Tomaso Grimaldi to 11 years for killing Patrick Emmett near Castle Gate, Emery Co., Sept. 7th.

NOVEMBER.

The Endowment House on the Temple Block, Salt Lake City, was pulled down. This historic building was erected in 1855.—Terrible storms in New Mexico, during the month; about forty people and vast quantities of stock frozen.—Revolution in Brazil and a republic established; Emperor Dom Pedro leaves the country.

Fri. 1.—William D. Burk met with a terrible death at Park City.—The two Dakotas admitted into the Union by proclamation by President Harrison.

Sat. 2.—Liberal torch light parade in Salt Lake City; 2000 men in line.—Truman O. Angell arrested in Salt Lake City, on a charge of unl. coh.—David Smith, 13 years old, crushed to death by a railway train at Farmington, Davis Co.

Sun. 3.—John Philpotts suicided in Salt Lake City by taking poison.—George C. Wood, of Bountiful, Davis Co., having been pardoned by the president, was released from the Utah Pen.

Mon. 4.—In the Third District Court, Salt Lake City, Robert Allen, who promised to obey the law, was fined $100 and costs, for unl. coh.—George W. Hancock arrested in Payson on a charge of murder committed 32 years ago.

Tu. 5.—Elections held in a number of States; general Democratic gains.

Wed. 6.—In the Third District Court, Salt Lake City, John T. R. Hicks, of South Cottonwood, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment and $300 fine and costs, and in the First District Court, Oluf A. Andelin, of Dover, Sanpete Co., to four months and $300 fine and costs.—Samuel G. Spencer, of Pleasant Green wanted on a charge of unl. coh., gave himself up and was admitted to bonds.

Thurs. 7.—Montana admitted as a State by proclamation of President Harrison.—St. Petersburg, Va., visited by fire which destroyed $500,000 worth of property.

Fri. 8.—Albert Jones, of Provo, and Michael Vaughan, of Lehi, released from the Utah Pen.—In the First District Court, at Ogden, Judge Henderson rendered a decision giving the meeting-house of Woodruff, Rich Co., to the district school trustees.

Sat. 9.—Frank Foote, of Nephi, shot dead by Saloon keeper Brock at Nine Mile, Emery Co.

Sun. 10.—Thomas M. Hughes killed Frank D. Romaine in front of the Tribune Office, Salt Lake City.

Mon. 11.—Washington Territory admitted to Statehood by proclamation of President Harrison.—In the Third District Court, Salt Lake City, Judge Anderson refused to admit a number of applicants to citizenship because they were "Mormons."—The Catholics celebrated their 100th American anniversary at Baltimore, Md.

Tu. 12.—The dead body of Joseph Walters, a discharged soldier, was found at Simpkins' brickyard, Bountiful.

Thurs. 14.—The extraordinary proceedings in the Third District Court, in which certain "Mormons" were refused citizenship on the pretence that they had subscribed to a certain secret and disloyal oath in the Endowment House, was commenced before Judge Anderson and continued until the 25th.

Sat. 16.—The steamship Nevada sailed from Liverpool, England, with 11 Saints on board, including four returning Elders and one visitor, in charge of Richard Morse.

Sun. 17.—Patriarch Gardner Snow died in Mantle.

Wed. 20.—The steamship Manhattan sunk on the Atlantic coast; 20 lives lost.—Charles W. Penrose, summoned as a witness in the naturalization case before Judge An-