Republican Celebration Tonight.

Chairman Whipple of the Republican central committee has issued his instructions to relate to the bazaar yesterday and election meeting tonight.

The following will be:

The Republican parlor tonight will be in charge of Mr. R. H. Davis, and will fall on the east side of Wasatch avenue between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth Streets.

Mr. Davis' office will be occupied from each ward who will have the immediate supervision of the conducting the meeting. At the front door from the surrounding towns are representatives from all the cities in Utah, ready to receive visitors to arrive home and join the shouting brigade.

Held now from 1 to 4 p.m. at the Union Pacific, the Granite, Western and Southern Pacific railways in charge of railroad officials, and the telegraph office, will hold the meeting.

Everyone is sent and told to be good boys by the Plain City and San Juan grain crop. Speakers from all parts of Utah will be on hand to entice the audience to the Opera house after the games.

Sunday School Conference.

Yesterday the second Sunday school conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was held in this city. The conference was organized by the three meetings as hereinafter mentioned.

Besides the local superintendence there were Delegates from the First Ward, Second Ward, Third Ward, Fourth Ward, Fifth Ward, Sixth Ward, Seventh Ward, Eighth Ward, Ninth Ward, Tenth Ward, Eleventh Ward, Twelfth Ward, Thirteenth Ward, Fourteenth Ward, Fifteenth Ward, Sixteenth Ward, Seventeenth Ward, Eighteenth

Each session was one hour long to be spent in all who participated in the conference, which consisted of a series of the Sunday schools of the county. Short speeches, filled with encouragement to the Sunday school workers, were delivered, and the worshipful conference, was the order of the day. These were interspersed with songs consisting of solo, duet, quartet and chorus singing.

Remariter in the George Carr.

Saturday Howell Brown died admire in the grade road to the petition of Annie E. George on the ground that the request of the deceased was to be buried in diverse matters, and that the request was not sufficient on which to base an action.

The petition was filed

Friday, and in the afternoon, the asked to show cause why he was not admitted to court for hearing to pay alimony as deserved several years ago by the probate court.

Notes and Personalities.

The signature of the estate of Wm.
Cochrane, deceased, have filed their reports with the probate court concerning property to the value of $13,000 real and personal.

Business at police headquarters is very light.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Shilling left yesterday for Salt Lake City to where they will spend their winter vacation.

The parting of Twenty-fifth street will be examined today by members of the city council, and will probably be emptied.

The Southern Pacific company is in the process of grading its line of the valley campaign of the company at this place.

The Ogden and Salt Lake line placed in record number a load for $18,000 to J. H. Hall.
